ORACLE 68

Tour Jamaica Lakeview

Reserved for JoAnn Doyle

Hey,

I really got know you this Although we've had spats we still stayed friends. I wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors (whatever they may be)

P.S. Stay Sweet

P.P.S. Always, Kimberly
Rae

Love Ya!
JoAnn

To a nu
"Tony". you are a very, sweet and crazy, sweet, nice person. Never change your personality because that's what makes you special. Always remember that I love you.
Mona 70'

Tony,

'll walk through the scented air of summer and memories will come to mind, hile dancing past many warm hearted winters,
you image will outline the sun,
ar as you open your soul to the water and land,
your smile will color the sky.
our intamacy will never be regarded as a mistake for mistakes are regrets, truly have no regrets. Then once more uided by a gentle hand and a much more warmer heart, my joy will ar surpast sorrow on rainy days, ith an ultimate happiness only you can bestow,

Pax vobiscum

Raffaela

1968

MALVERNE
SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
MALVERNE, NEW YORK

ORACLE

TAKE OFF WI WOOKS

For A World of Sales
OUR LEADERS
McCall's LIFE
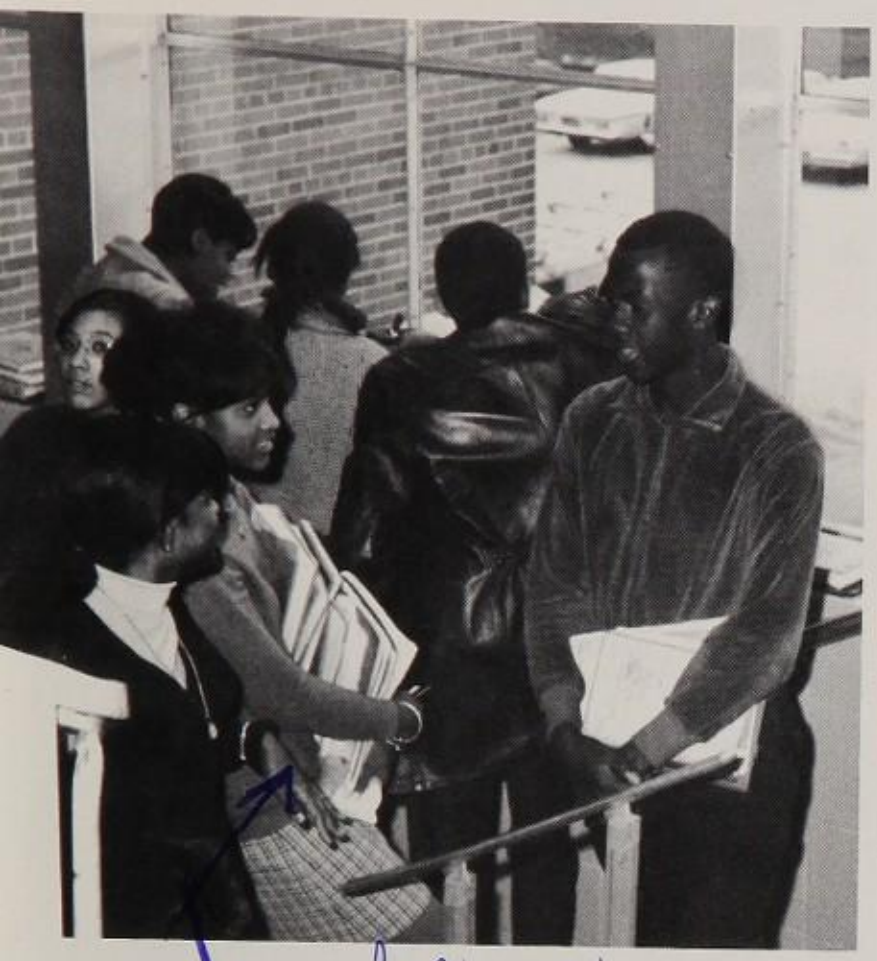
LOOK
For A World of Sales
OUR LEADERS
LIFE
LOOK



rol - Looking fine as she wanna look

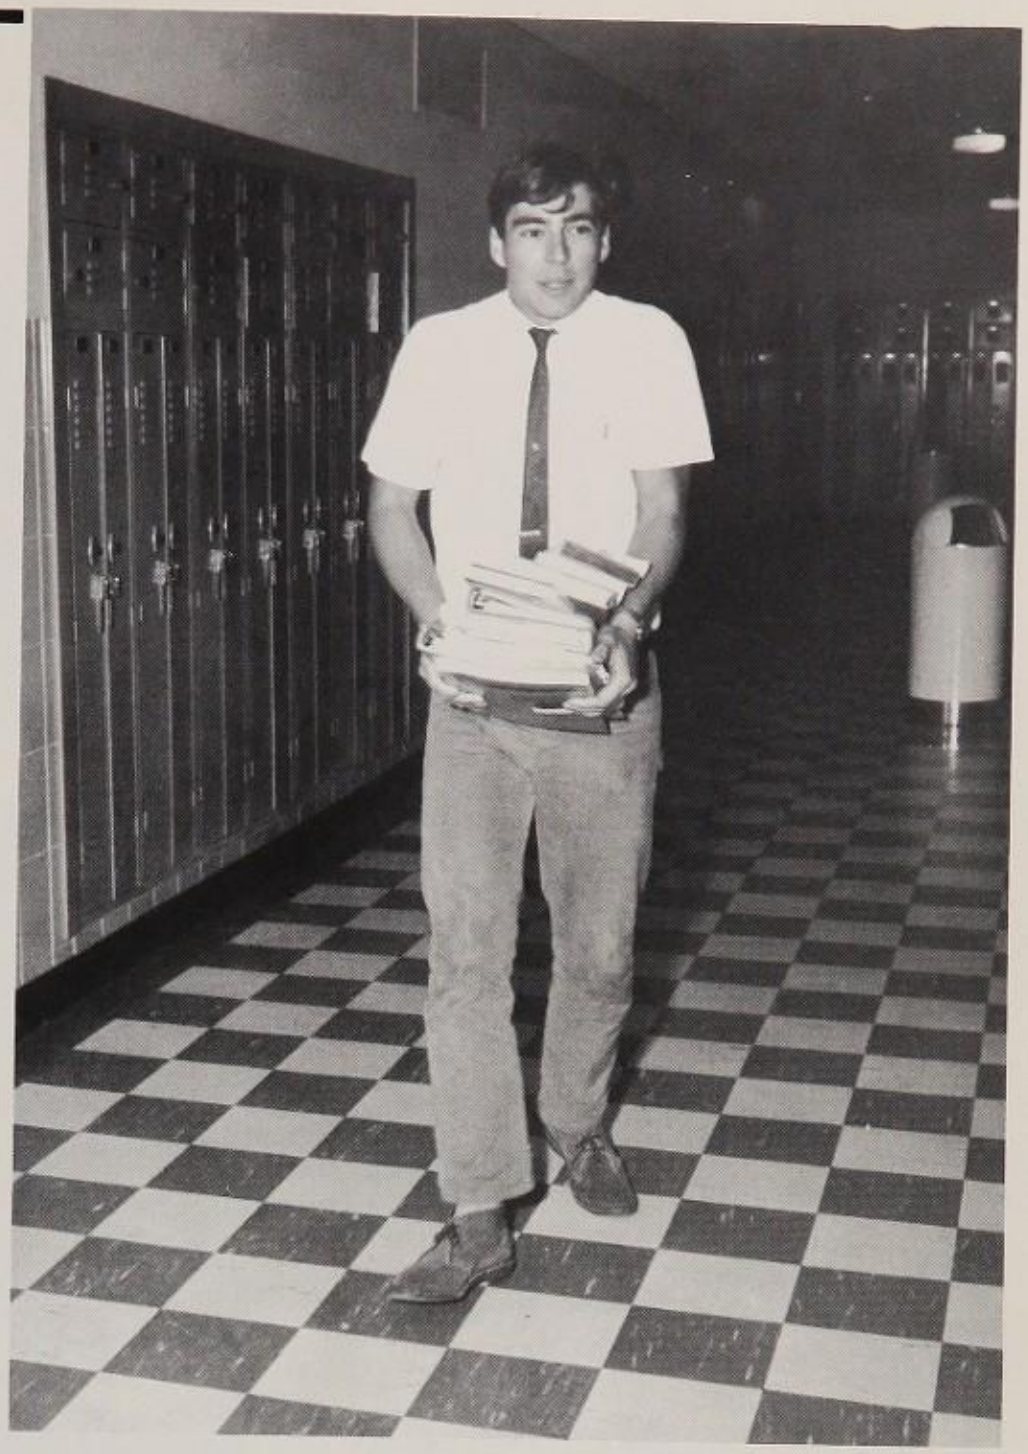


TABLE of CONTENTS

ADMINISTRATION ..... PAGE 16

FACULTY ..... PAGE 30

DEDICATION ..... PAGE 50

SENIORS ..... PAGE 52

UNDERCLASSMEN ..... PAGE 100

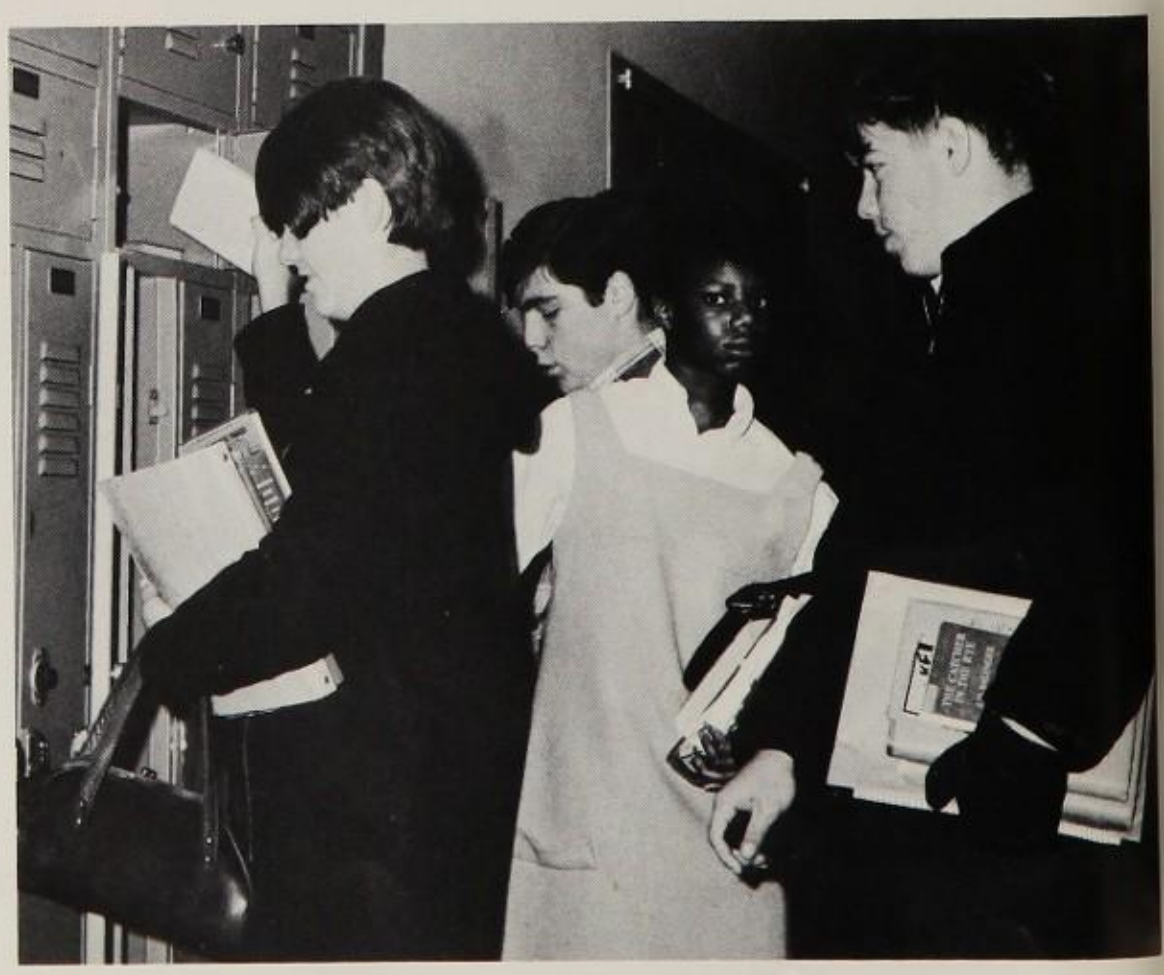
ATHLETICS ..... PAGE 116

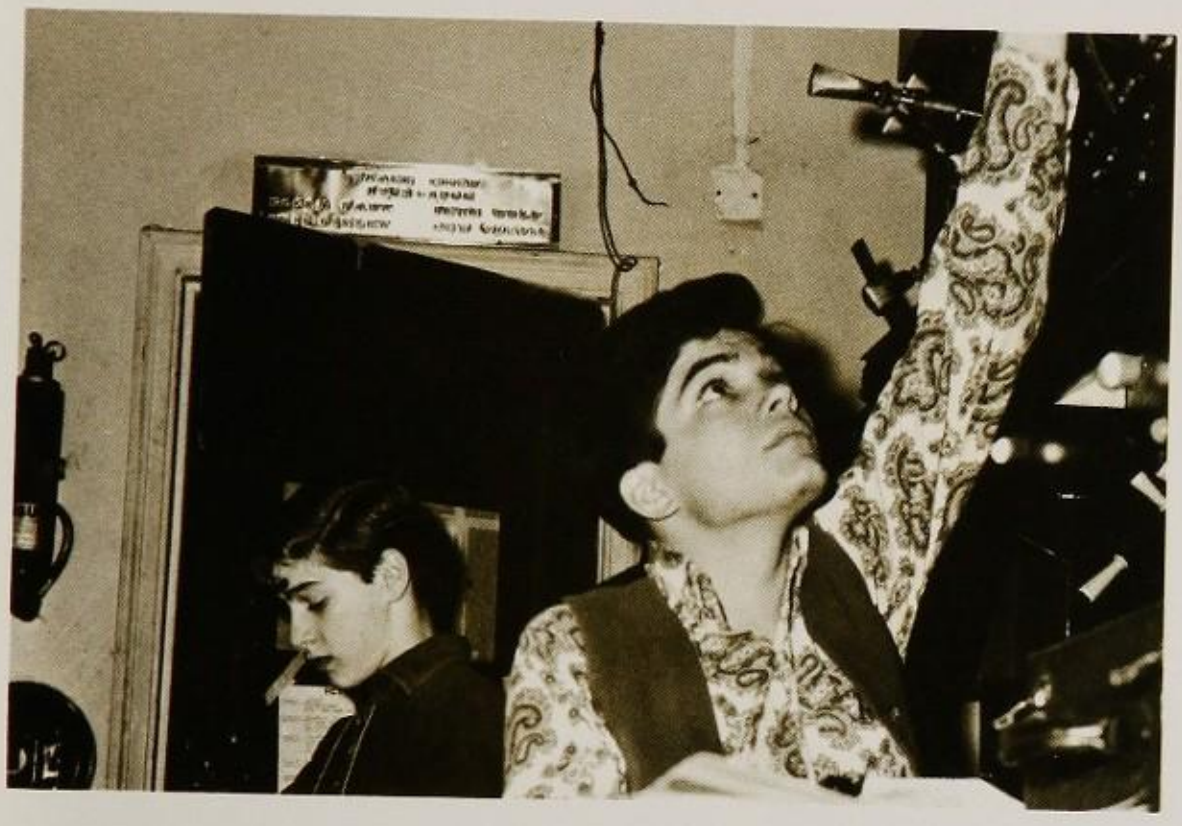
ACTIVITIES ..... PAGE 140

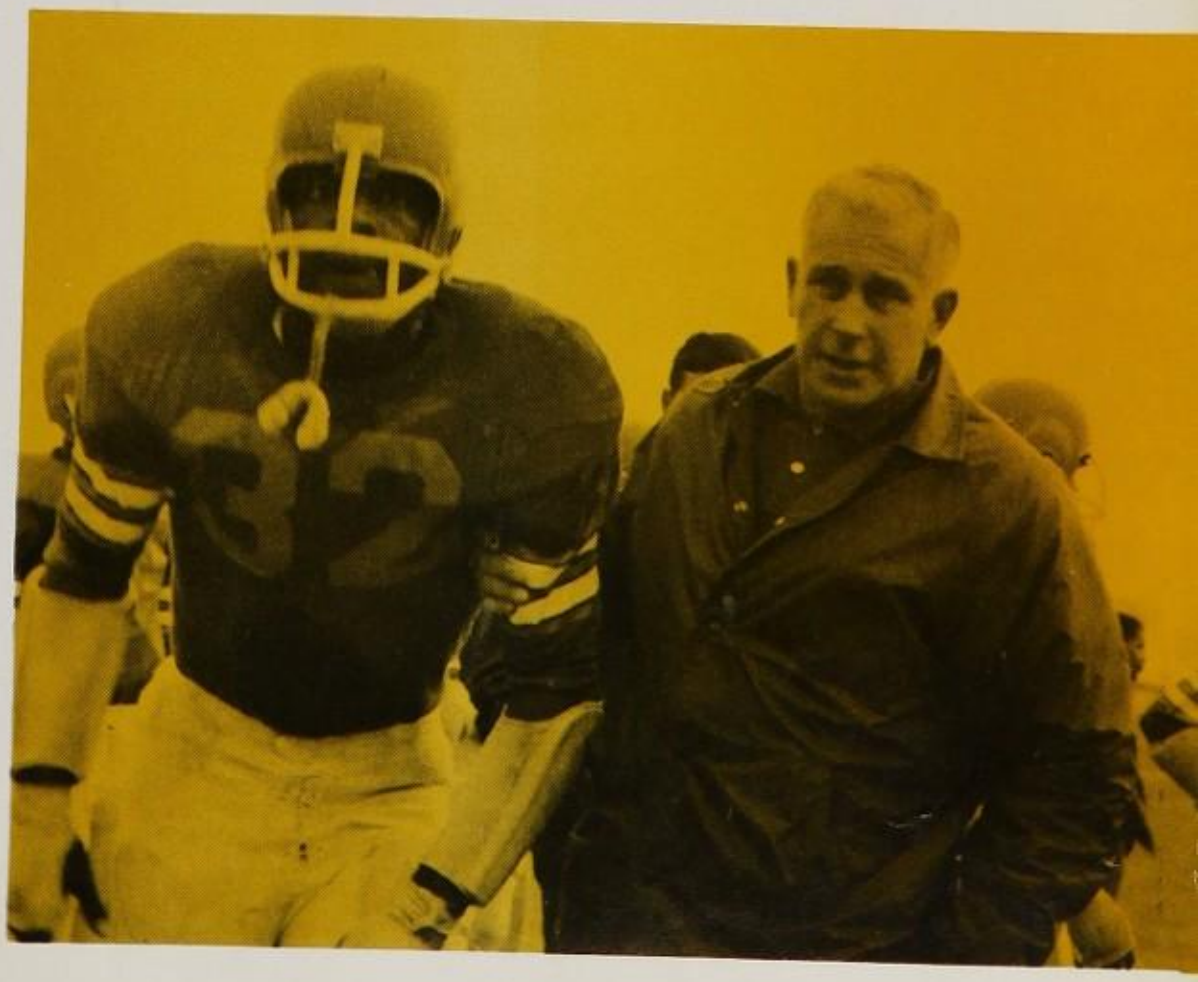
CLUBS ..... PAGE 164

MEMORIES ..... PAGE 170

BOOSTERS ..... PAGE 194







ORANGE '67

FACULTY

FOREWORD

Malverne High School is more than its building, its beautiful campus, and its efficient facilities. It is a spirit, an atmosphere—and people. We appreciate our teachers who are the people who help us understand a difficult passage, make history real and vibrant, or guide us in solving a confusing example. We remember our friends, fellow high school students, and the activities and classes we have shared. After graduation, what happens to these people? The faculty greet a new group of underclassmen who fill our places and, in their turn, seize the opportunities of knowledge and understanding. The members of the Class of '68 move on to college, business, armed forces, or families, each maturing, thinking, and changing. The new experiences in our existence are met with the skills and standards learned from people in Malverne High. We look to the challenge of our future. We are the people who will strive to fulfill the hopes and dreams begun in Malverne. The faces pictured in the pages of our Oracle reflect the spirit of our school and the people who make it truly our Alma Mater fair.

MULE POWER

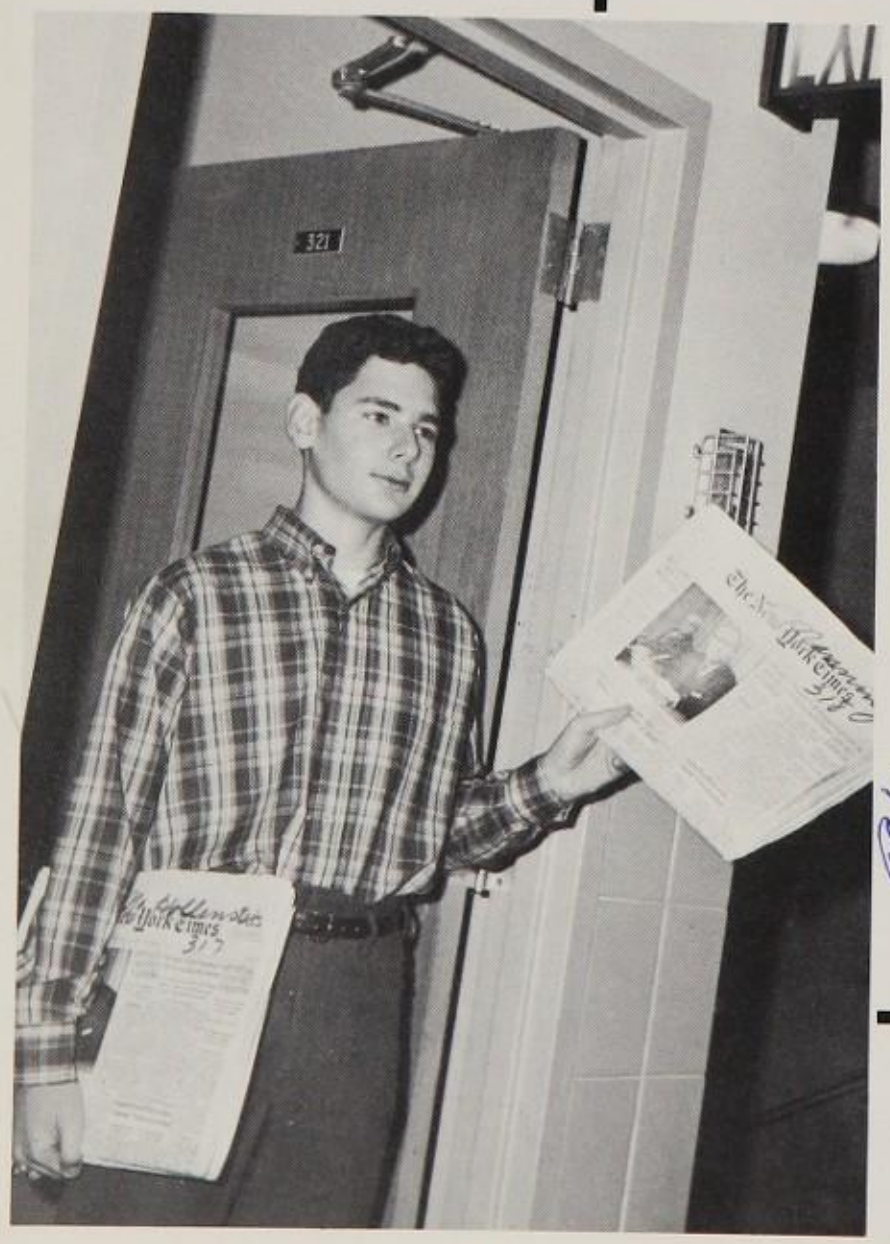
ULES
16

SABRETT



321
The New York Times

34 HULLS
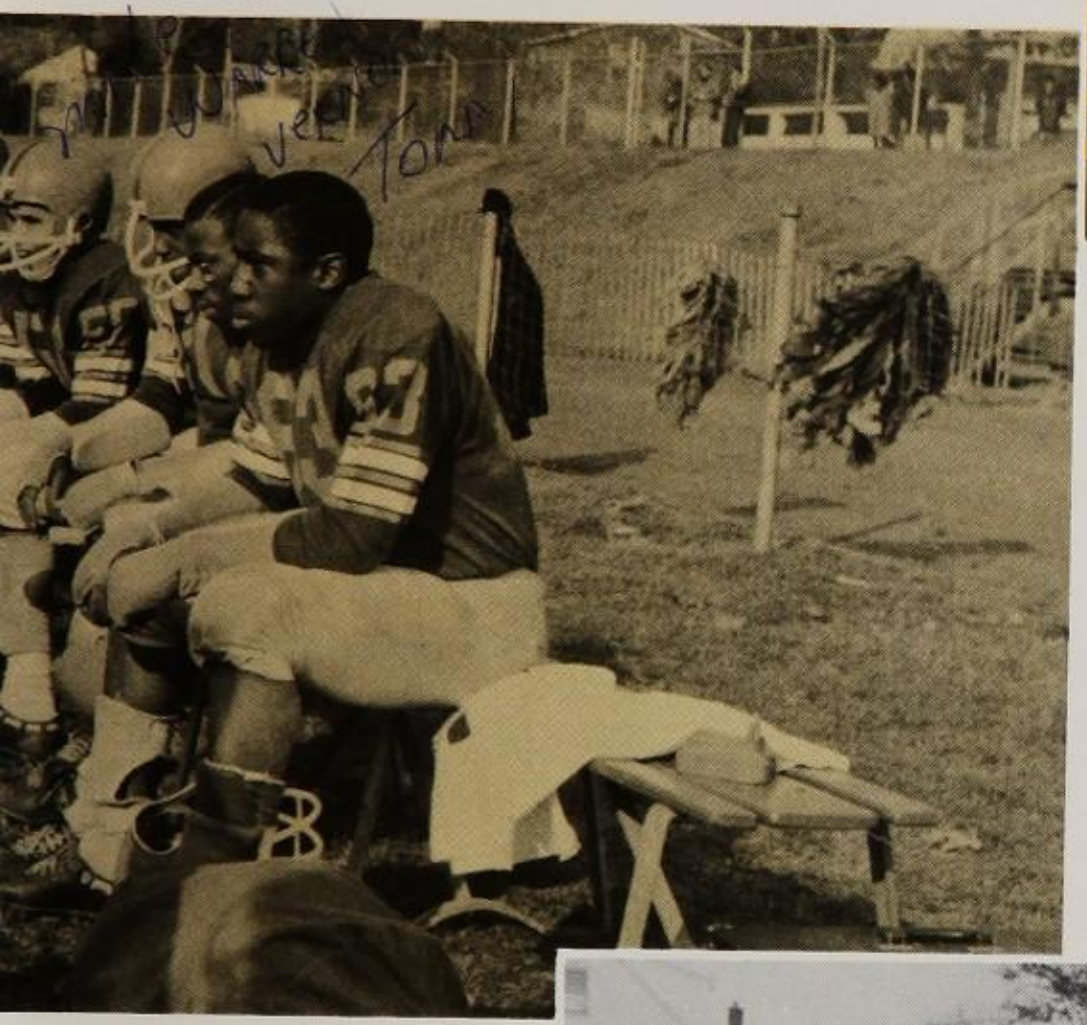
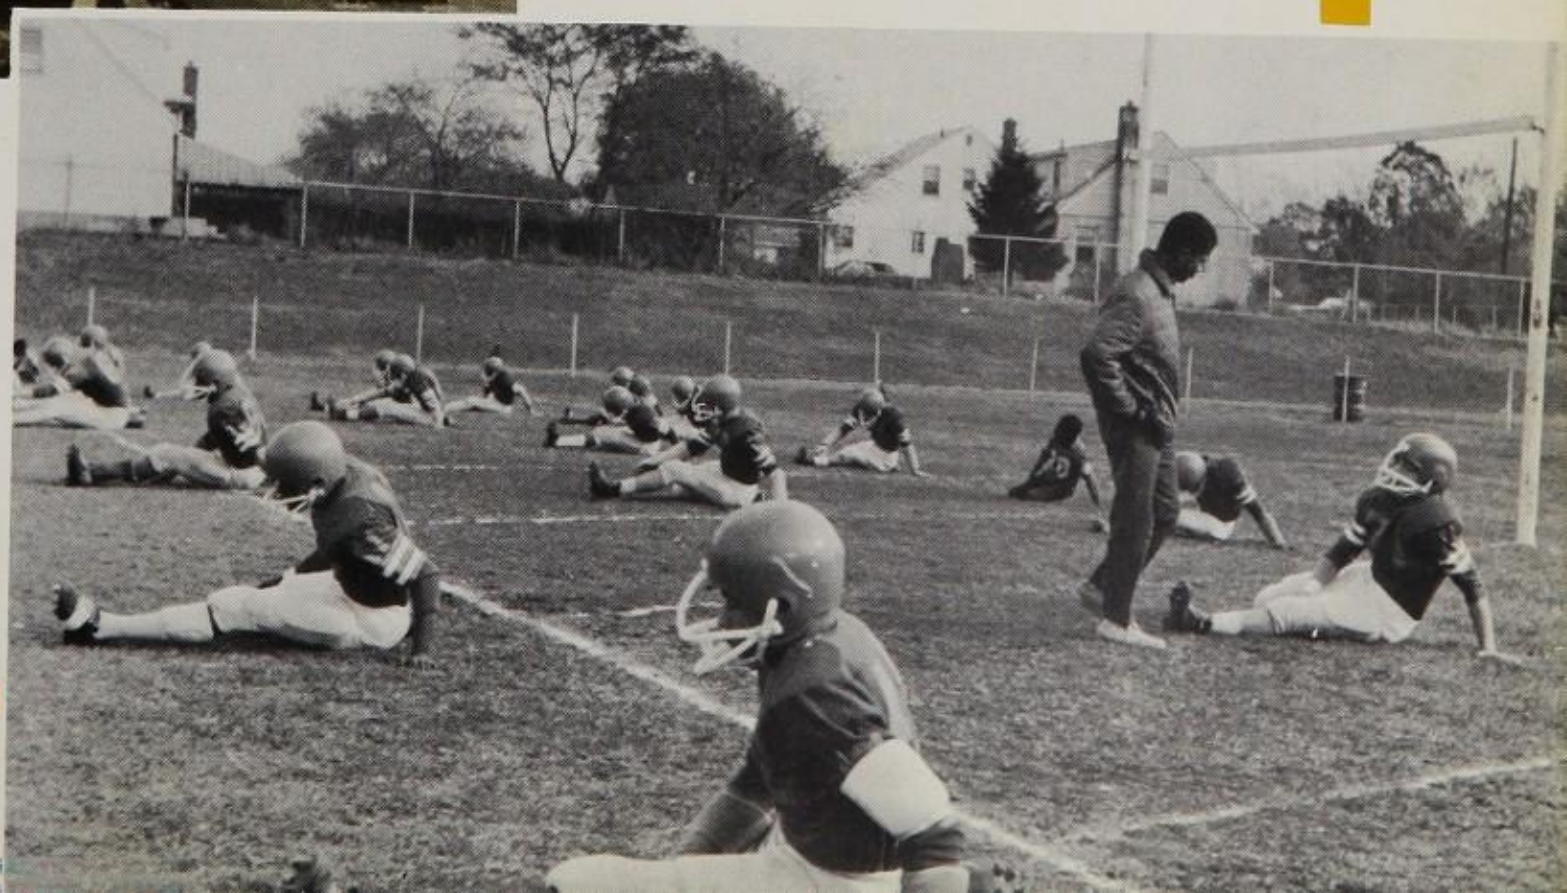
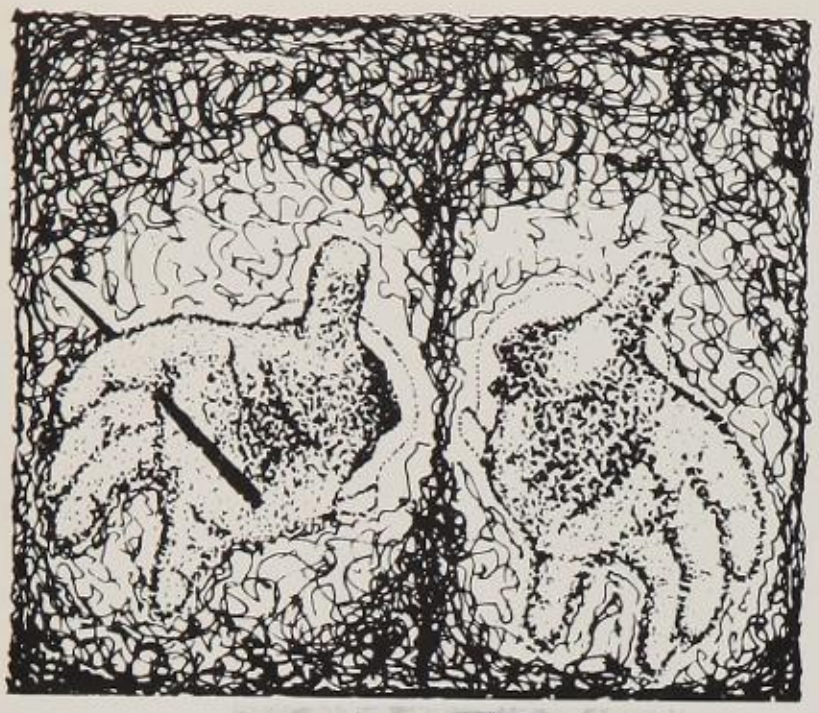
12
JOE TEZ







ADMINISTRATION

LAKEVIEW

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Charles W. Reardon, 2nd Vice-President; John W. Lewis, Jr., 1st Vice-President; Venerando J. Indelicato, President; Cloyd G. Aarseth, Trustee; Rev. Ervin F. Yearling, Trustee (not pictured).

Charged with the management of a modern, complex, and progressive school system, members of the Malverne Board of Education are key people in our lives. Difficult and time-consuming as the responsibility is, Board members welcome the opportunity to represent the community in matters of education, which are so vital to the welfare of our personal lives and, in broader terms, vital to the life of the nation. To graduate well-informed and loyal citizens is one of the major aims of the Board. May the pages of this yearbook reflect the success of their endeavors.

Mrs. Adelaide Fox, Administrative Assistant; Mrs. Mildred Hartmann, Mrs. Dorothy Guy, Mrs. Adele Tietje, and Mrs. Lorretta Baumann comprise the hard-working and efficient staff of the superintendent's office.

Malvernites in all areas: community, parents, administrators, teachers and students welcome Dr. Carnrite as Superintendent of Schools. We recognize the sound legacy he has accepted, and we look forward with a sense of anticipation and in a spirit of cooperation to his plans for Malverne in the years ahead—that we may progress here together in enlightened citizenship.

Dr. Carnrite entering the senior high school building on one of his frequent visits.

Secretary to the Superintendent, Mrs. Mildred Hartmann, receives dictation from Dr. Carnrite.

SUPERINTENDENT

DR. JAMES S. CARNRITE

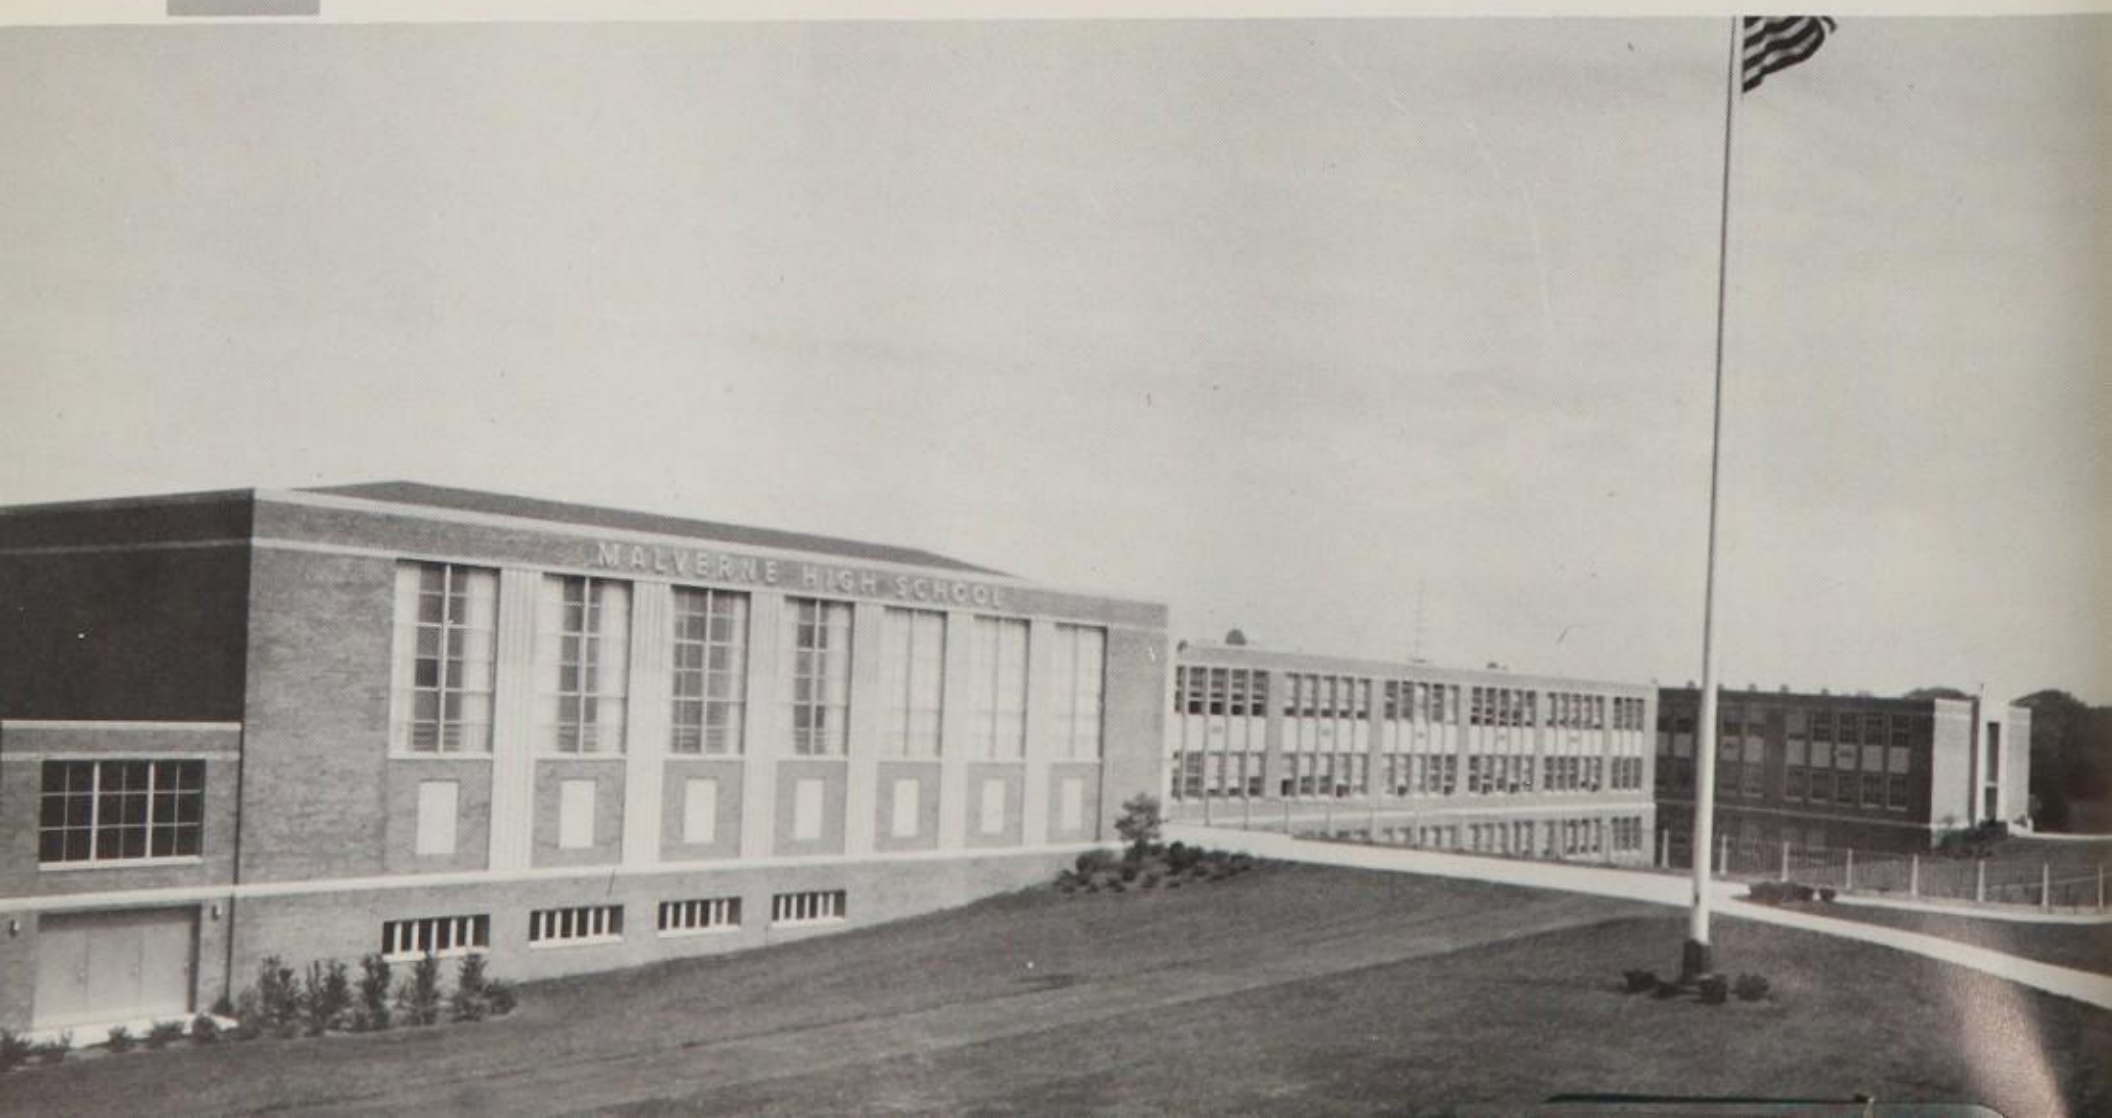
To the Class of 1968–

Your completion of the requirements for graduation from high school certainly merits individual and group commendation. Academic, athletic, musical, dramatic, and artistic are but a few of the many accomplishments of your class. Occasionally, these achievements have been unique and singular honors have resulted. For those of you who have experienced such special recognition, let it encourage you to do more. Excellence, in some form, is within each person. I hope education in the Malverne Schools has helped you develop those qualities of aspiration and confidence necessary for the achievement of excellence in whatever future endeavor you choose. Challenges and opportunities for a full life are almost unlimited. I know you will enjoy the future.

James S. Carnrite

Superintendent Wolff checks school business with his secretary, Mrs. Reider.

Dr. Carnrite confers with Mr. Wolff on the steps of the Junior High School.



ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT FOR BUSINESS

CLEMENT A. WOLFF

Fellow Malvernites–

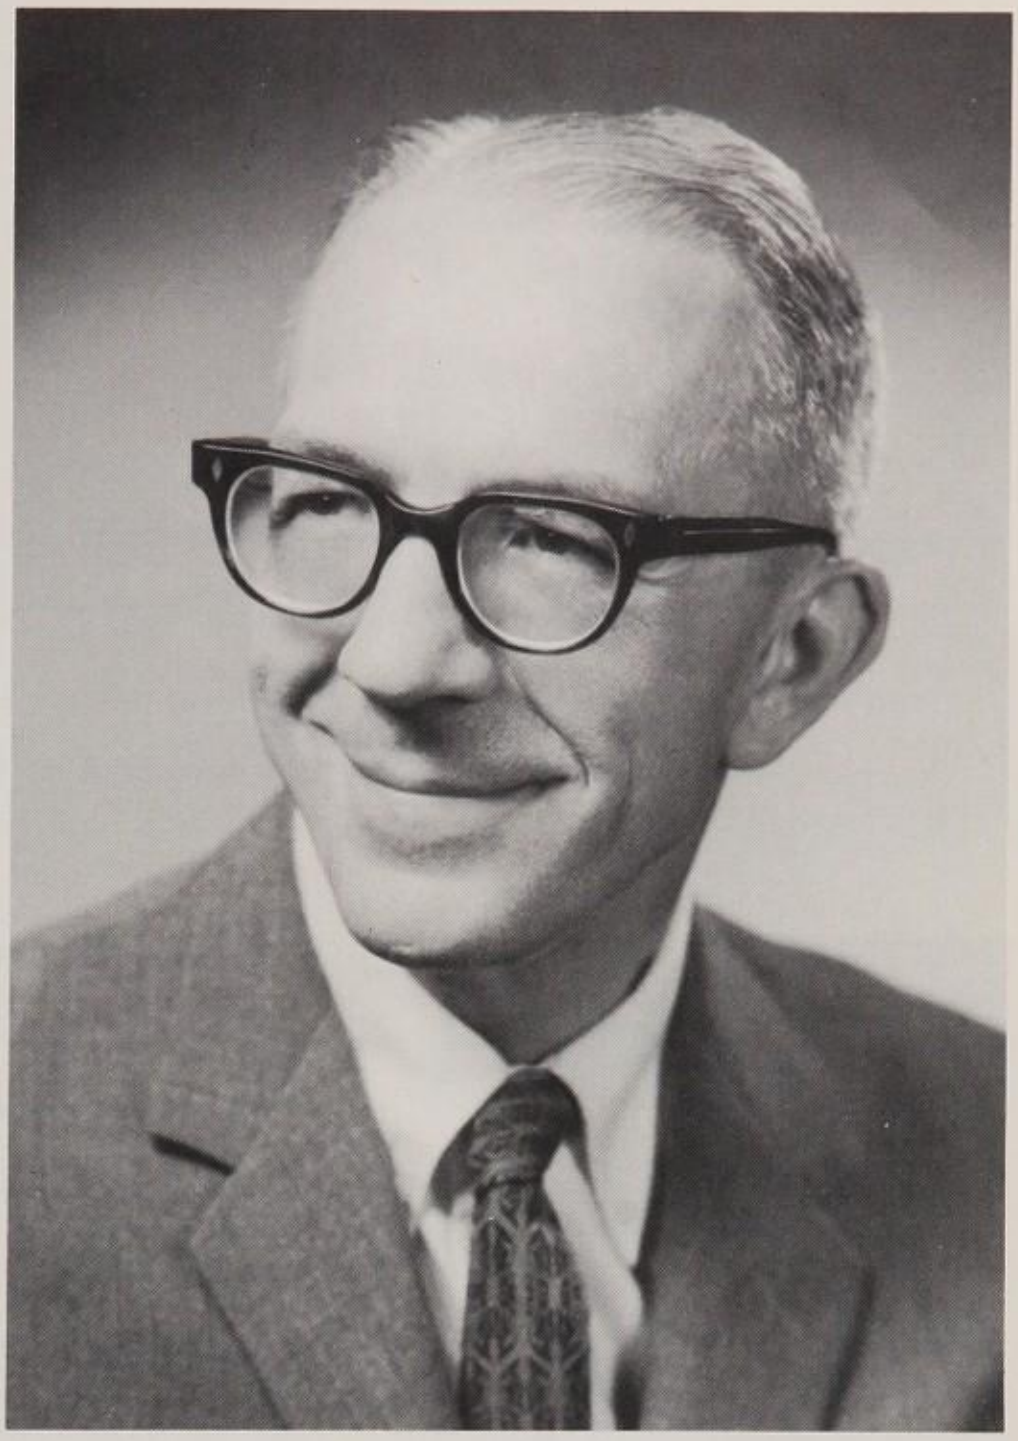
Throughout our history, our nation has been subject to perilous times. These have been exemplified by quotations from those times. Tom Paine said: These are times that try men's souls. And surely if he were alive today, he could make the same statement. We are rocked by differences in both foreign and domestic fields, and rabid physical dissent seems to be the accepted thing. In another dangerous time, Lincoln warned: A house divided against itself cannot stand. He was talking about a somewhat different problem, but the warning is clear and unequivocal for us today. Our propensity for dissent has encouraged our enemies and those who would like to see our nation cease to be an example of liberty and freedom. They would like to see destroyed the economic system which has brought affluence to the common man. You and I as citizens cannot and should not stifle disagreement. We must, however, weigh our freedom against the life of our country. If, in exercising liberty, we destroy our nation, we destroy the very freedom we are using. I believe that you, along with the great majority of citizens and graduates of Malverne who have gone before you, love this nation of ours. Most of us still thrill to the sound of the national anthem. When we put aside our differences, most of us are proud to be Americans. May this still hold true for you as you leave Malverne High. May you join with Stephen Decatur in saying: My country, may she ever be right, but my country, right or wrong.

Clement A Wolff

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

JAMES P. BYRNE

PRINCIPAL



Students of Malverne— JOHN K. ARCHER

With pride we present this 1968 Oracle. The ancients believed that the oracle at Delphi could foretell the future. Today in these pages which summarize such a variety of accomplishments, we find predictions of the probable success of those who worked together here. Indeed, participation that is purposeful is praiseworthy. This is real school spirit with its sense of belonging, of being important, of shaping learning experiences. Surely, enthusiasm and teamwork can bring about remarkable achievements! Congratulations go to those who have cooperated to make this volume, the 1968 Oracle, another worthy chapter in the history of Malverne Senior High School. Hearty commendations go to all whose successes are recorded here. The satisfactions gained from these endeavors should serve as incentives for future progress.

John K. Archer

GUIDANCE

Remember when we were sophomores and high school seemed new and frightening? If it had not been for the Guidance Department, we would have been lost! There, one can always find sound advice for any problem, for regardless of an individual's plans for the future, there is up-to-date reliable information available. For those who are college-bound, there are numerous college catalogues, pamphlets, scholarship and file information. For all those young men who plan to enter the Armed Forces, there is information concerning R.O.T.C. programs in various colleges, and courses offered in the services. If big business and the working world are your goals, then take a look at the occupational file and the bulletin board of jobs available. If all these things do not clarify one's future plans, the last and best solution is to ask the counselors. Mr. Forman, Miss Anderson, Mr. Englert, Mr. Murphy, and Mr. Mandato are always ready to give detailed information and direction. Aiding the counselors, too, are friendly and efficient Mrs. Dresher and Mrs. Michael. The Guidance Department is truly a Malvernites best friend!

FREDRIC G. FORMAN
Director of Guidance

VINCENT MANDATO Psychologist

HAROLD MURPHY

JENELLA ANDERSON

DANIEL ENGLERT

FREDRIC G. FORMAN

Fredric G. Forman attended the Malverne schools from kindergarten to twelfth grade. His family has lived in Malverne for generations and he knows the town well. From Malverne High, Mr. Forman went on to study and earn degrees at Columbia University, New York University, and Hofstra University. A psychology major, Mr. Forman taught science in MHS and also established a private counseling service in Malverne. He later discontinued his practice to accept directorship of our Guidance Department. Aside from his work in guidance during his years at Malverne, Mr. Forman coached the Cross Country Team and the Tennis Team, and originated the Stairway to Stardom program. To quote Mr. Forman, he has found his work at Malverne "rewarding" and "hasn't regretted a day." While he is retiring as Guidance Director, Mr. Forman intends to continue living in Malverne, and plans to serve this area as a college representative. The faculty and students in Malverne will miss Mr. Forman. Hundreds of students will remember him always as an inspiring teacher and one who gave them valuable advice for the years ahead. We heartily wish him happiness and success for the future.

SCHOLARSHIPS FAVORITE

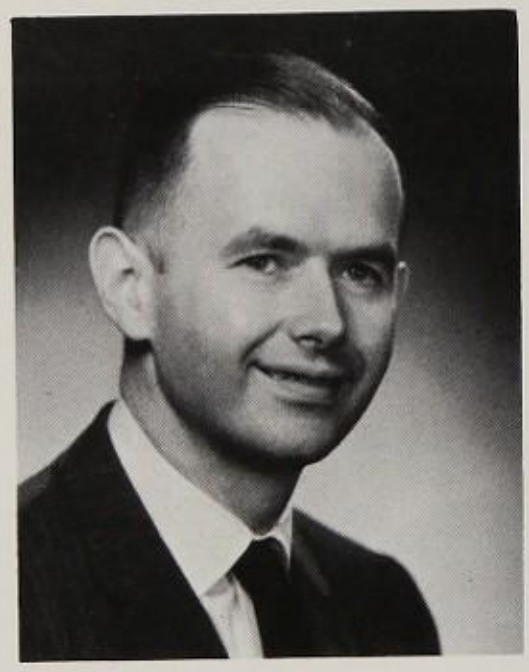
FACULTY

ART

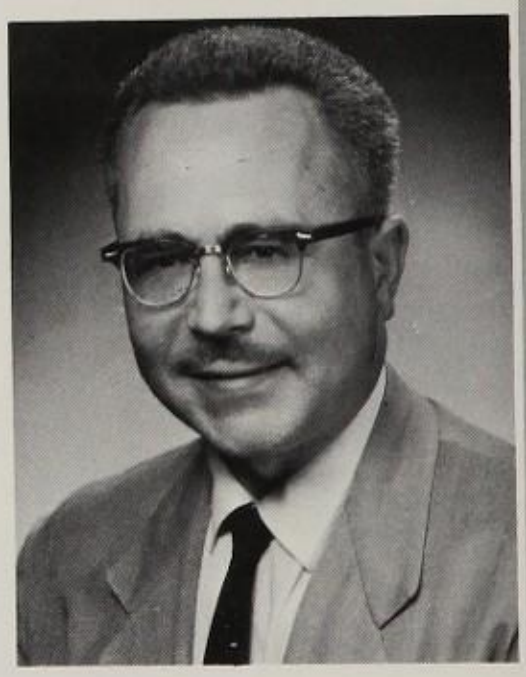
ETHEL A. GROTE

LOUISE T. WAGNER

LIBRARY



GEORGE D. SCHOENBERG



ROBERT P. BERGER

MUSIC

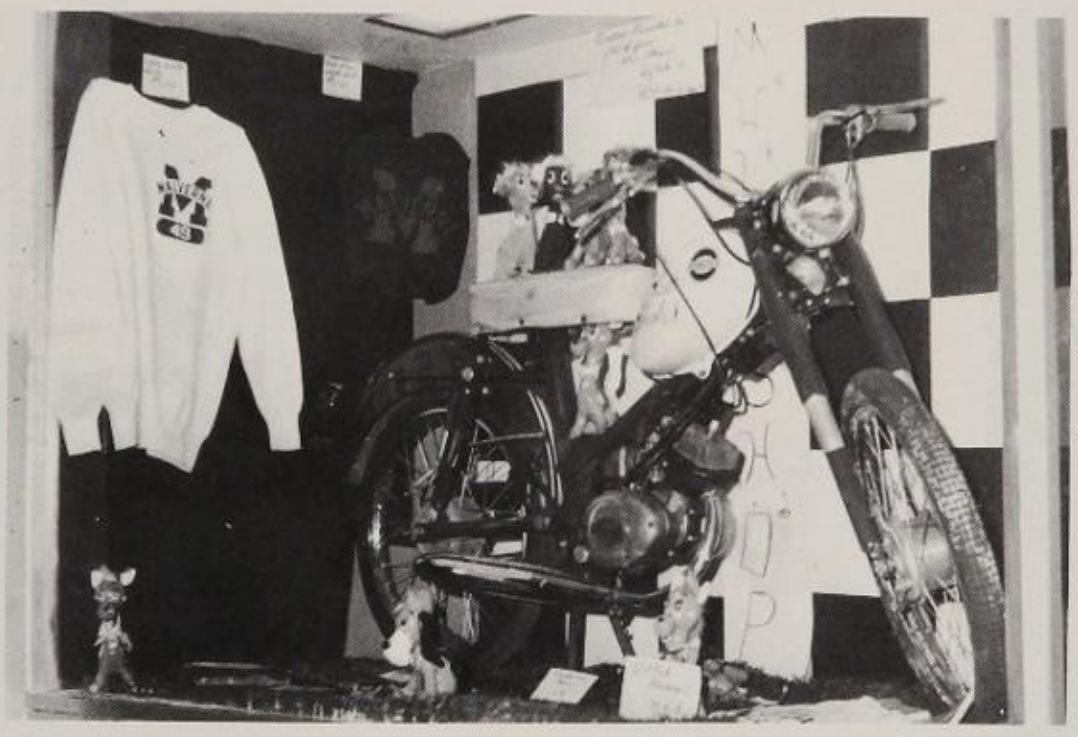
BUSINESS

MARGARET W. HINKEL
Chairman

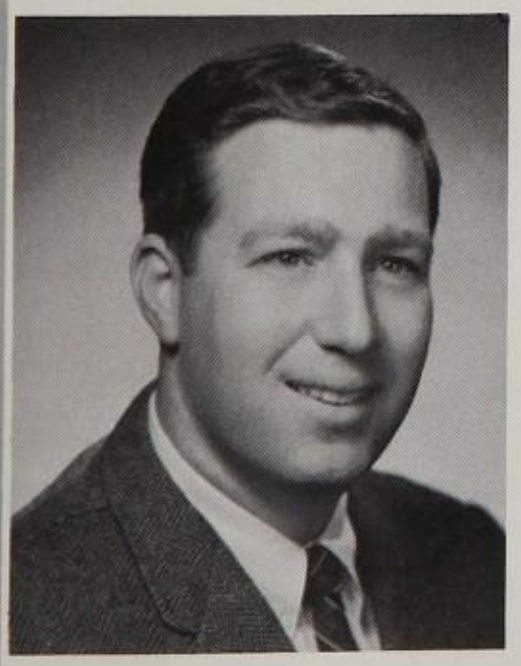
ETHEL W. PRATT

MILDRED L. LEVITT

KENNETH L. MORDAUNT



MARTIN S. WEINSTEIN



SCIENCE

ROBERT E. HILL
Chairman

ALAN KORNFIELD

JOANNE M. TRAYNER

KAREN HVIDSTEN

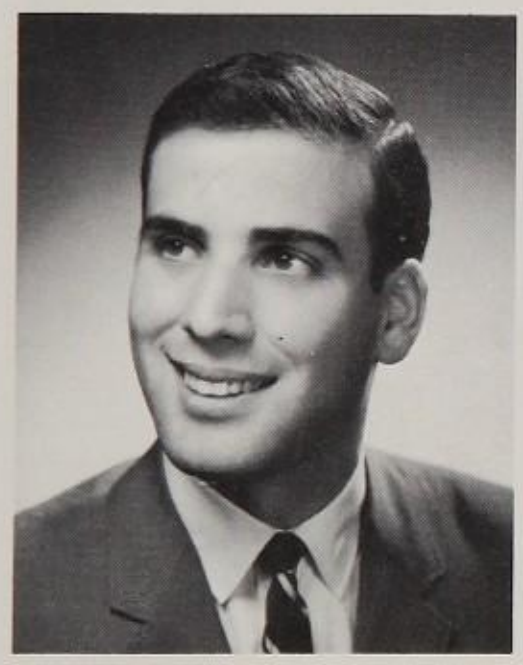
ROBERT W. FRANK

MATHEMATICS

PETER HOLLENSTEIN

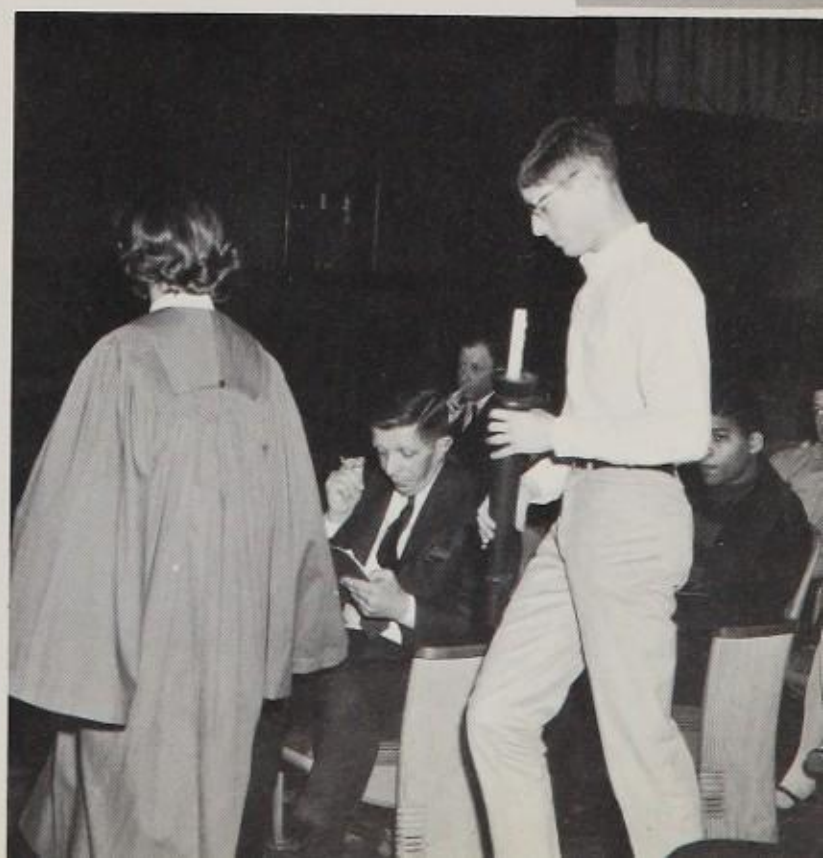
JOAN McKINNEY

WALTER H. HOLT
Chairman



RICHARD J. WOLMAN

ALLAN JOHNSON



ENGLISH

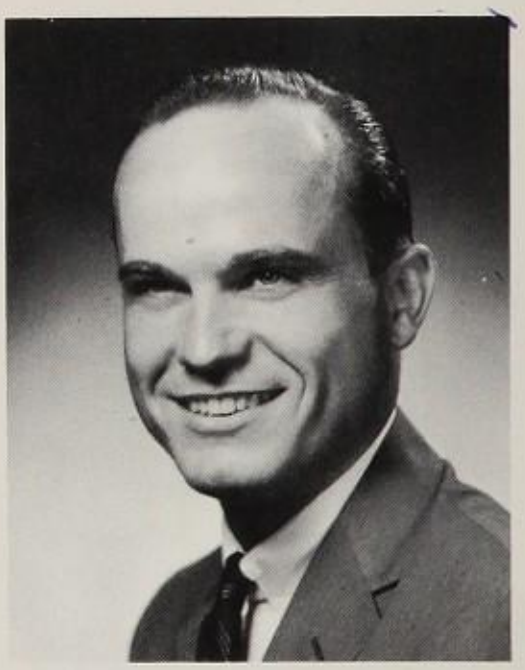
HELEN D. LOYD
Chairman

ELIZABETH B. ACKERMAN

M. ROBERT RICH

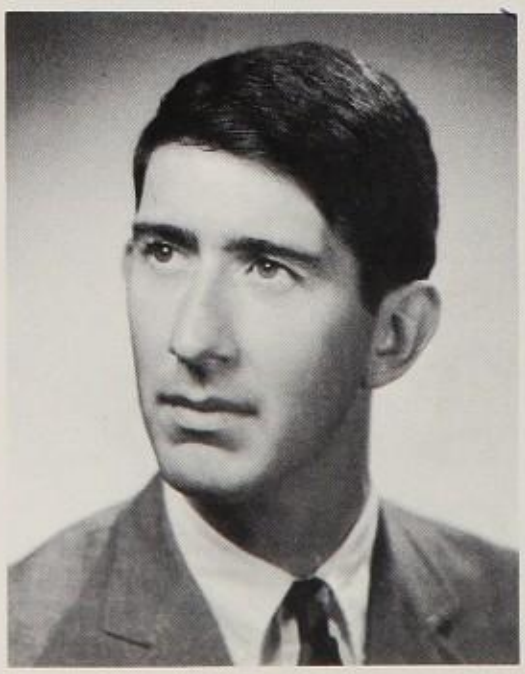
KAREN K. BACHMANN

CHARLES G. MESSINGER



HARRY WINZENRIED

STEVEN R. DINER



WILLIAM I. PASQUERELLA

RUTH GLICKMAN

Elizabeth B. Ackerman

ASSEMBLIES

The New York Times

CARNIVAL

Tony,
My good wishes go with you to "grow up", plan a serious goal, and stick to it!

If you ever realize your responsibility, you will find a great deal of happiness and success in life.
Sincerely,
Elizabeth B. Ackerman

After thirty years of teaching, twenty-six of them at Malverne, Mrs. Elizabeth Ackerman is retiring. She and her husband plan to retire upstate to Greene County. There she hopes to pursue her hobby of collecting antiques while her husband tends their seventy-five acre farm Greenridge. The Ackermans hail from Ohio, but have made Malverne their home for thirty years. Among Mrs. Ackerman's achievements before coming to Malverne High was being principal of an Ohio high school for six and a half years. She attended the University of Pittsburgh, the University of California, Ohio University, and Adelphi University. A member of the English Department, she founded the Teenage Council and directed the senior play for eighteen years. Happiness and good health are wished by all for Mrs. Ackerman.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

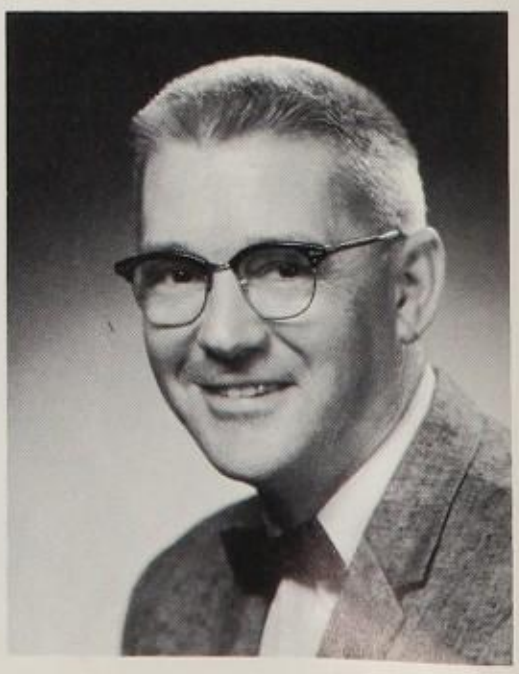
J. LESTER HANSON
Director of Athletics

ELIZABETH A. ARNONE
Girls' Athletic Director

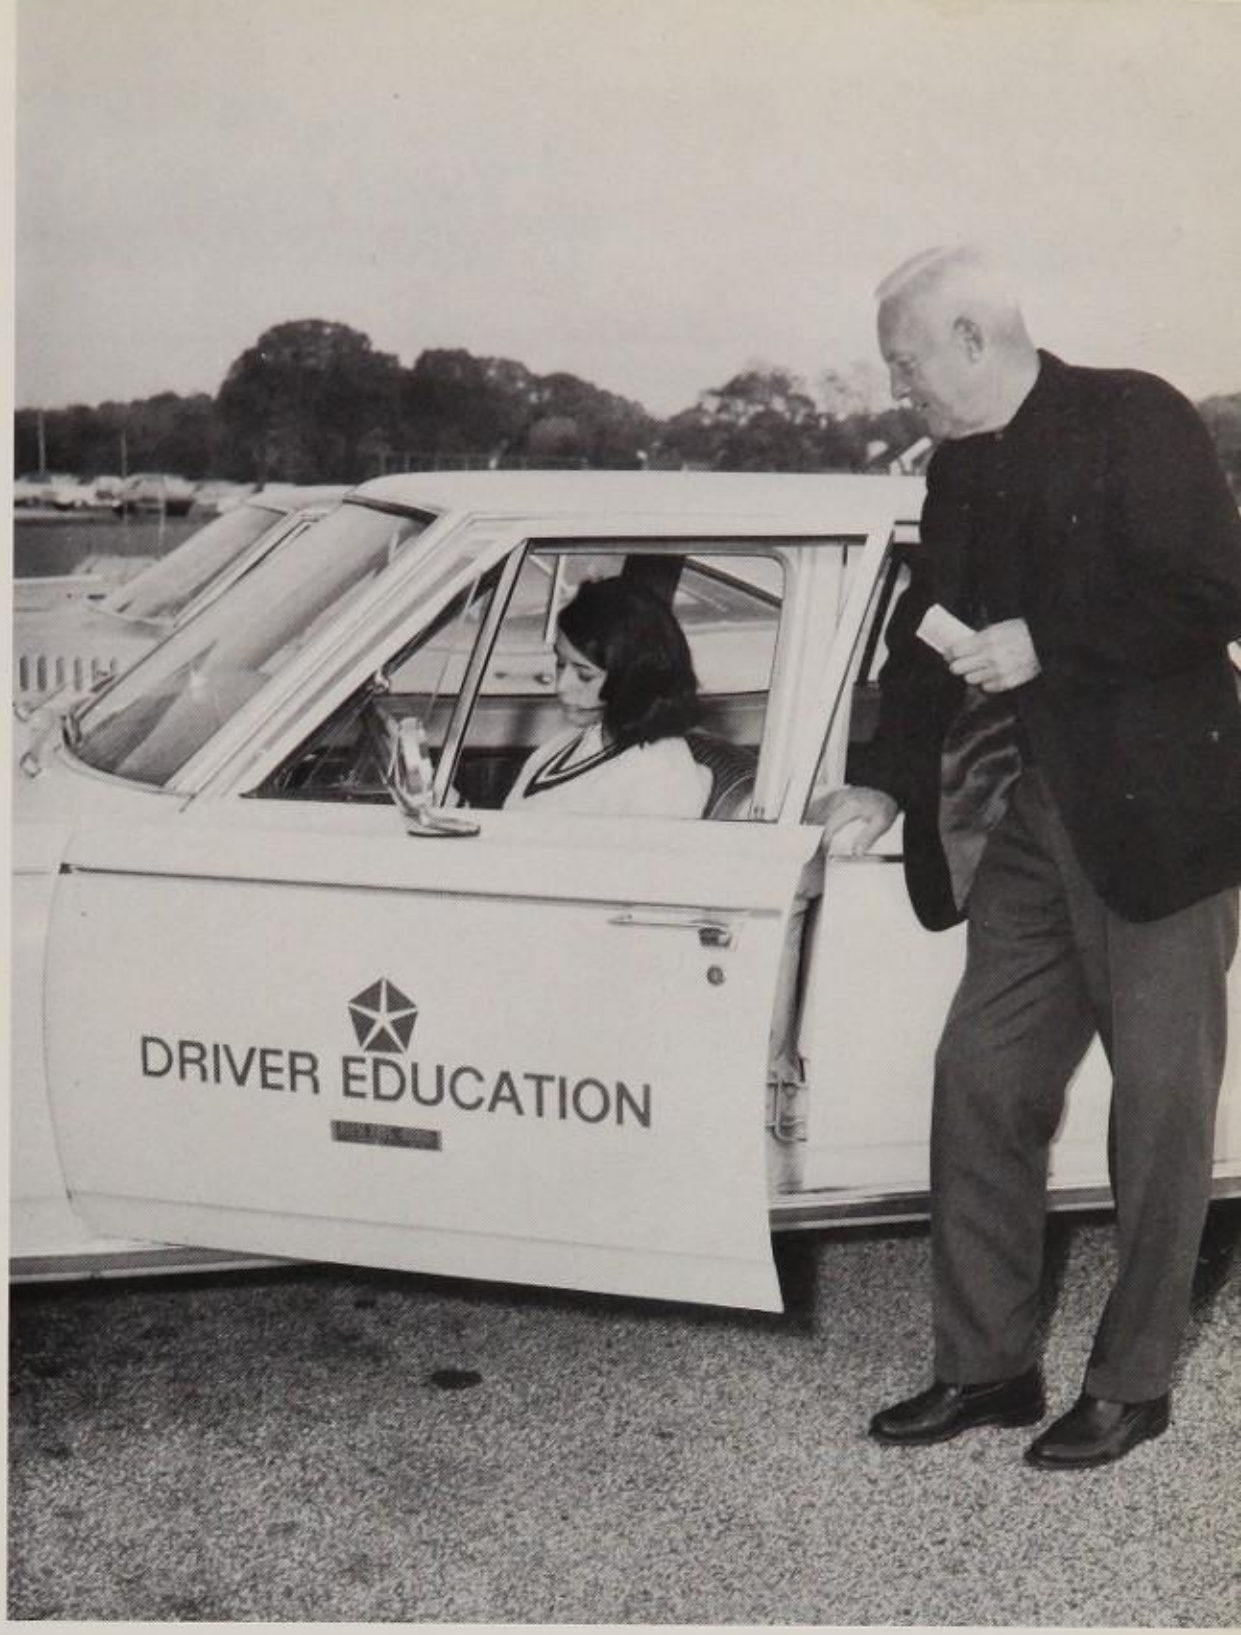
LINDA E. KOCH

CHARLES H. FUGE

RAYMOND A. NERRIE



J. Lester Hanson



J. Lester Hanson has taught physical education for 37 years and plans to retire from Malverne High School in the near future. Prior to coming to Malverne, Mr. Hanson received his education in the arts and sciences. He worked for degrees in physical education and secondary school administration at the University of Illinois, where he was graduated in 1925, and later studied at Columbia University. As Director of Athletics in Malverne, Mr. Hanson developed the MHS physical education and sports program into one of the best in the country. He himself has coached basketball, baseball, and football, his favorite.

For years Mr. Hanson worked with the wrestling squad and coached baseball for over 35 years. An enthusiastic man, Mr. Hanson devoted himself to adult education and was sorry to see it discontinued at Malverne. He has always enjoyed motoring and playing golf, and both activities will be included in his future leisure-time plans. Retirement for Mr. Hanson will also encompass traveling in Europe and Hawaii, and visiting the Pacific and Southwest United States. Many students will remember Mr. Hanson for his devoted interest in them and in American sports. We wish him every success in the championship years of retirement. No one deserves the cheers of Malverne more.

HEALTH

DOROTHY F. PARKHILL

HOMEMAKING

INEZ F. KLEIN

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

GUSTAVE JAFFE

CHARLES B. VOGT

Dr. Mary C. Gray attends a Malverne student

Dorothy F. Parkhill

Responsible for the welfare of every high school student, Miss Parkhill is shown conducting one of the many tests her office records.

After twenty years of service in Malverne, Miss Dorothy Parkhill is retiring as school nurse–teacher. Miss Parkhill received her first higher education in a secretarial school; then, for three years, she attended a nursing school where she was graduated as a registered nurse. Miss Parkhill continued her education by achieving her Bachelor of Science degree from New York University and her Master's Degree from the University of Plattsburgh. Her varied background includes five years as a Navy nurse in World War II, before coming to Malverne in 1947. At Malverne Miss Parkhill took over the direction of the Future Nurses of America organization and helped modify its structure. It is now called Health Careers Club and includes boys as well as girls who want to be doctors, nurses, hospital technicians, therapists, or practice in other related fields. Miss Parkhill also initiated the Health Office Aides. These students work in her office during study halls and assist Miss Parkhill. Miss Parkhill plans to move to northwest Connecticut and do work in volunteer nursing.

She feels retirement is the time to stay active to keep both mentally and physically fit. As usual her advice is sound and we agree with her. We wish her well, but Malverne will miss our dedicated nurse and friend.

LANGUAGES

HELEN A. PENDLETON
Chairman

JOHN M. FONTANA, Jr.

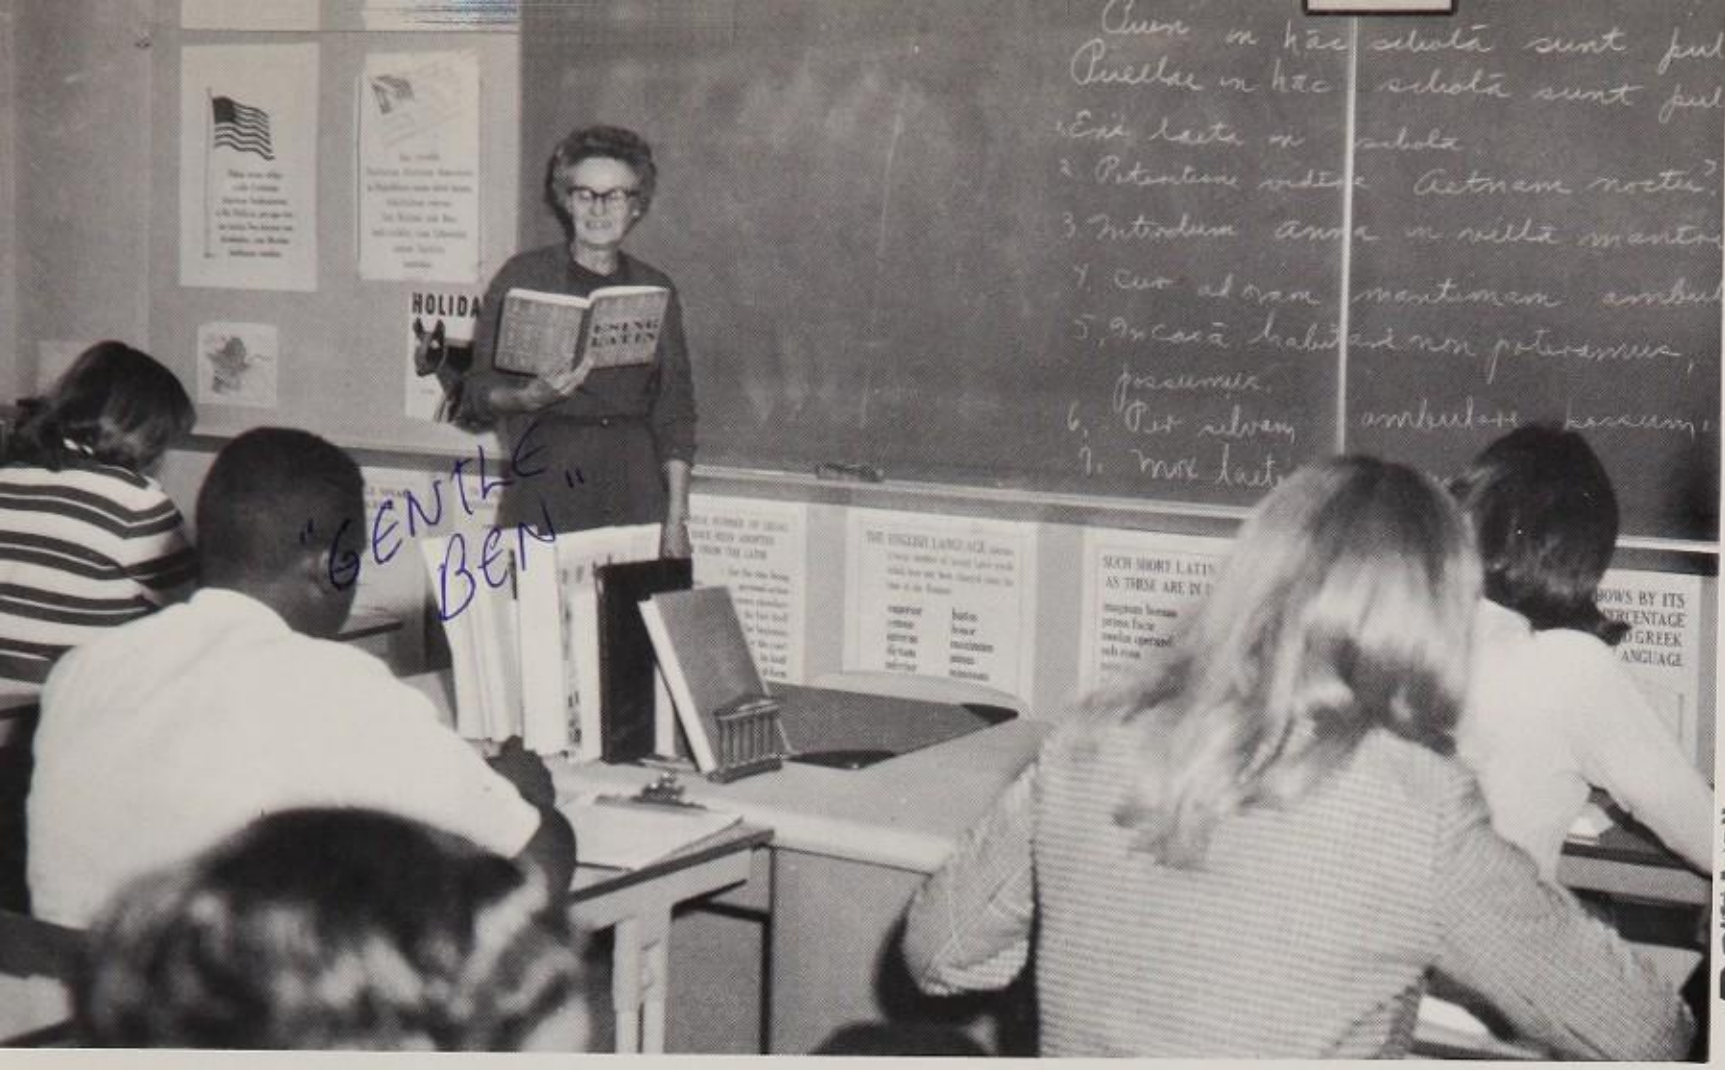
FLORENCE G. SCHOENBERG

SHERYL B. KLEIN

SAMI REPISHTI

MARION ASH

BARBARA KREFSKY



Helen A. Pendleton

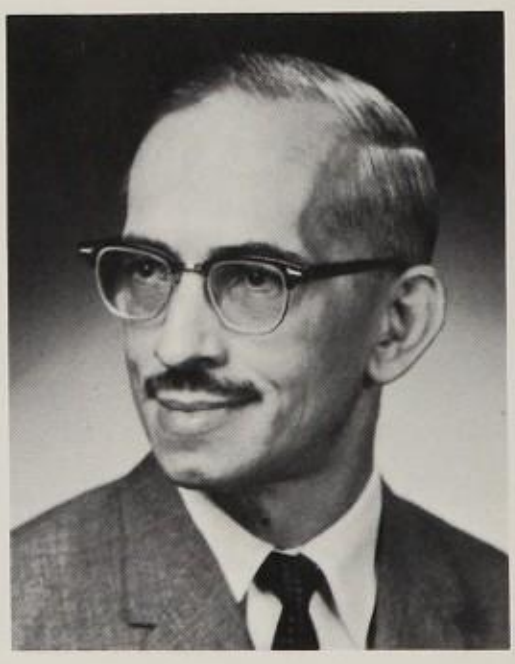
The Chairman of the Malverne Language Department, Miss Helen A. Pendleton, has announced her retirement this year, after instructing students in Latin and French for many years. Miss Pendleton began her college studies at Mt. Holyoke in Massachusetts and then went on to receive her Master's at Teachers College in Columbia University. She also studied at Middlebury College in Vermont, Tufts University in Massachusetts, and the Sorbonne in Paris. Among the most outstanding positions Miss Pendleton held, for she held so many in her long career, are president of the Malverne P.T.A., the Long Island Chairman of the Jenkins Memorial Scholarship and student loan funds of the N.Y.S. P.T.A., a class adviser for a number of years, and a coach of several interclass plays. Some of her more thrilling experiences have been at many of the exciting girls' Sport Nights. The most cherished memories Miss Pendleton holds of Malverne are of the school's fine administrators, the late Dr. Howard T. Herber, and Mr. John K. Archer, and the friendliness she found in both teachers and students. In the future, Miss Pendleton jokingly states, "I'm gonna wash the ablative-absolutes right out of my hair," and then she will attempt to "enjoy life to fullest!" We hope that Miss Pendleton enjoys her retirement as much as her many students, down through the years, have enjoyed her enthusiastic teaching and wonderful personality.

CHARLES W. RAY
Chairman

SOCIAL STUDIES

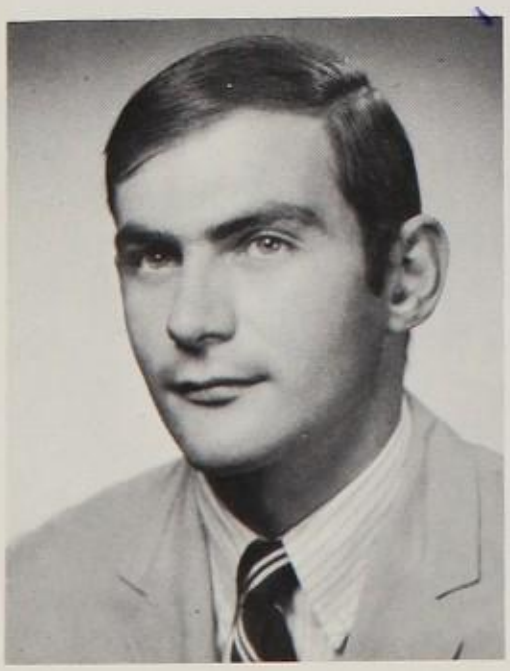
THOMAS E. CREHAN

VOYLE A. BESSE



H. WILMOT DeGRAFF

DOUGLAS W. DYE



SALVATORE A. ZACCARO

R. BRADLEY HANSEN

Charles W. Ray

Among the teachers retiring this year is Mr. Charles Ray, a teacher at Malverne High since 1945. His guidance in helping Malverne students to broaden their horizons and become good American citizens will be missed greatly. Mr. Ray received his education at numerous colleges throughout the United States and Europe. Among these institutions are the University of Wisconsin, Birmingham Southern College, University of Alabama, Syracuse University, Columbia University, and the University of Heidelberg in Germany. Born in Hannibal, Missouri, where one of his neighbors was Becky Thatcher of Tom Sawyer fame, he and his family moved to Mobile, Alabama and then to New Jersey, where in 1933, he started teaching here in the East. When World War II broke out, Mr. Ray served in the Navy. After the war ended, he began his tenure at MHS. Among the countless tasks he has performed, are working closely with the World Forum, which deals with international education and foreign students. For the past twenty-five years, a foreign student has visited and been welcomed by MHS. In 1960, he participated in the opening of the Berlin Auditorium in Germany, which was a gift of American school children to the people of Berlin. Among his many achievements has been that of past president of the Middle States Council for Social Studies. In addition he has served on the National Council for Social Studies, which covers the entire United States. After retirement, Mr. Ray plans to move either to Mobile, Alabama or San Antonio, Texas. He plans to travel, both home and abroad. He has traveled extensively before, having been to Europe twelve times, and also to Africa and Asia. Hundreds of students will remember Mr. Ray for his vital interest in them and his wise guidance for them. We wish him the best of happiness and health in the years to come.

BERTHA R. MONSELL

SECRETARIAL STAFF

Need a helping hand or a good-natured push in the right direction? The MHS secretaries will be only too glad to assist. No only are they responsible for the efficiency necessary to run a school, but they are never too busy to help a bewildered student. Just think how much time it must take to phone all those absentees! And there's always someone looking for Mr. Archer or Mr. Byrne. If a mother brings a forgotten lunch to school, the unhappy student will be located in no time. On the gloomier side, the secretaries arrange appointments with teachers and type out those hated failing notices. In the guidance office, percentiles and grades must be accurately recorded and senior transcripts are continually being sent out to colleges. Our secretaries coordinate the school-teachers, students, and the home. They are a most important part of Malverne.

EILEEN SAVINO

MILDRED FRANCIS

EDNA MICHAEL

DOROTHY MARTINE

MAXINE DRESCHER

MARGARET DUNN
Attendance Supervisor

On entering our school, a visitor immediately notices the clean halls or spotless gym floor. Our sincere thanks go to the members of the Custodial Staff for keeping Malverne in such excellent shape. Regardless of the time of day or night, one can always find a member of this fine staff at work. Under the direction of Mr. Voth, Malverne's Maintenance Staff is frequently commended for the superb condition of our high school. In addition to keeping our school spotless, members of the staff are always friendly and understanding, concerned with the welfare and safety of all students. We should help our friends whenever possible, for they truly reflect the image of Malverne.

CUSTODIAL STAFF

Custodian-in-Charge DOUGLAS VOTH is Mr. Clean himself.

HOWARD CAST keeps right after student footprints.

THOMAS MASSEY attacks that wax build-up.

Custodian-in-Charge DOUGLAS VOTH, MRS. EILEEN KING, HOWARD CAST, AND THOMAS MASSEY stop a moment on the lobby steps.

JOHN TITUS with THOMAS ROBERTSON AND JOHN TERCEIRE.

Mrs. Davis orders lunch!

CAFETERIA STAFF

Pop it out of the freezer . . .

After our hectic nose-to-the-grindstone morning sessions, the tempting aromas coming from the MHS cafeteria offer us hope and anticipation for a tasty lunch and pleasant period of relaxation. The warm, bright, and inviting atmosphere of the MHS kitchen is largely due to the cheerful staff of ladies who smilingly serve us every school day. We believe it's next best to Mother's kitchen. A variety of menus helps Malverne students keep healthy and happy throughout the school year: hamburgers, chow mein, turkey, tasty sandwiches—even pizzas, sometimes! Lunch is a nice pause in the day's occupation, and we appreciate our Cafeteria Staff who contribute so much to our welfare.

. . . and into the oven.

MADELINE BULLOCK, GERTRUDE NACKMAN, Dietician CLARA DAVIS, MARGARET SMITH, AND ELIZABETH KIERNEN.

JAMES P. BYRNE

Assistant Principal

to whom we DEDICATE this

1968 Oracle

Conferring with Mr. Archer . . .

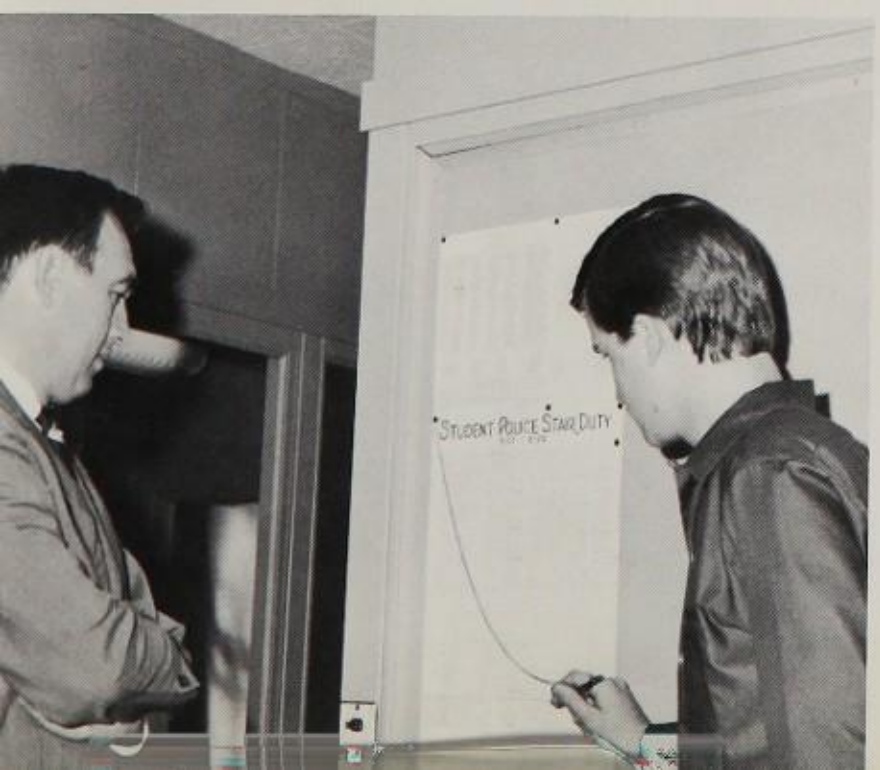
Dictating to Mrs. Frances . . .

To JAMES P. BYRNE

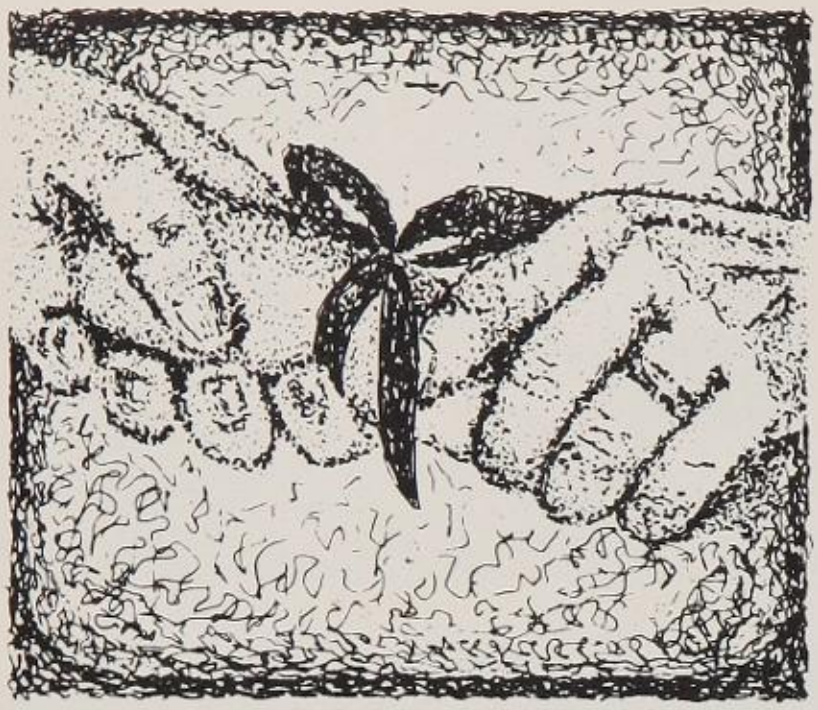
As a symbol of appreciation we, the Class of '68, dedicate this yearbook to Assistant Principal James P. Byrne. The seniors and entire student body are gratefully aware of Mr. Byrne's wise guidance and encouragement. As assistant principal, he performs many duties for Malverne. While his main functions include curriculum development, attendance supervision, school discipline, and supervision of faculty and students, he does much much more. Mr. Byrne takes a deep personal interest in the welfare of all young people. He encourages scholastic achievement and strives to guide the development of mature citizenship in each sophomore, junior, and senior at Malverne High School. He has faith in the quality of Malverne students, and we, in turn, recognize his interest and abiding friendship. The dedication of our yearbook is a small tribute to an administrator and educator of foresight and integrity.

The Class of '68

Checking on school discipline . . .



. . . and generally keeping things moving.



SENIORS

KATHY STEPHANIE RENÉ

The EDITORS of the

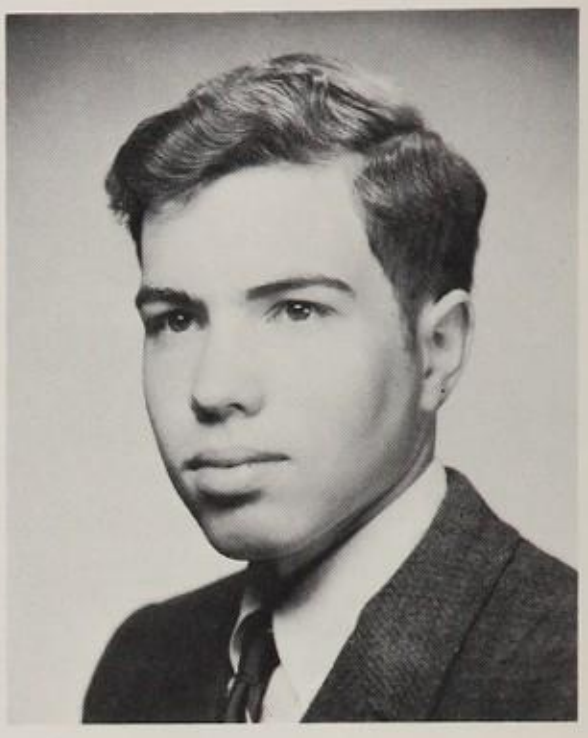
JEAN MASCIALE
Art Editor

Jean's years at Malverne have been profitable and enjoyable. Her greatest honor was being chosen art editor of the Oracle. Appreciation and thanks are extended to Miss Grote for her patience and guidance. Jean's interest in art led her to pursue a career in design. She would like to leave these few words from the philosopher Nietzsche: It is time that men set themselves a goal. It is time man planted the seed of his highest hope.

MICHAEL ROBINSON
Photography Editor

Michael has had an interest in many things at Malverne. He is 50% of the photography staff of the Mule and Oracle. He was also in the musicals Kiss Me Kate and Bye Bye Birdie, and the senior play, The Solid Gold Cadillac. Michael was a member of the A.V.A., Choir, and Chorus. The highlight of Michael's career at Malverne was when he sold the second highest amount of magazines in the class of '68 magazine sale!



ERIC KAYNE
Photography Editor

Eric was a member of the photography staff for the Oracle and the Mule. With camera in hand, he always attended games and other school events. He also worked on the Audio-Visual-Aides. The Tennis and Bowling Teams earned him his Varsity letters. He wishes to thank all his teachers, and particularly Miss Anderson, for their guidance. After graduation, Eric plans to attend a business college.

ROBIN KRAVITZ
Business Manager

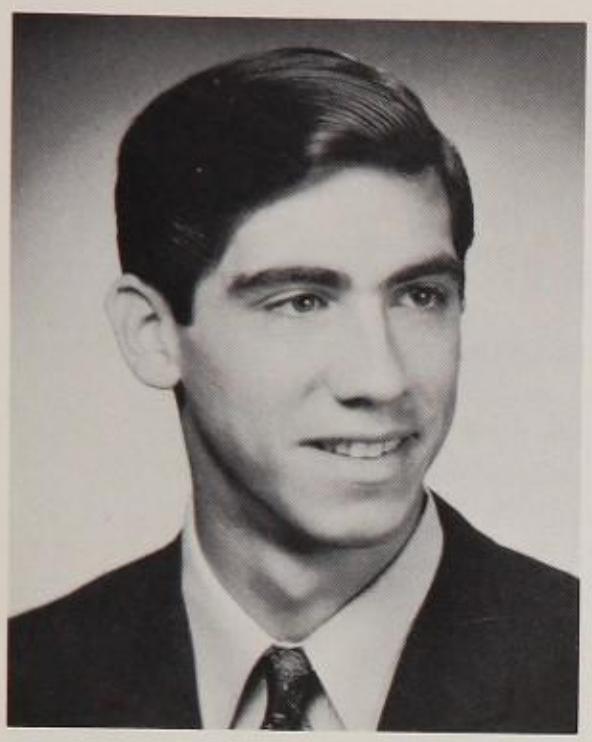
Enthusiasm is the ingredient that marks the difference between success and mediocrity. This one quality personifies Robin's participation and service during her three memory-filled years at M.H.S.: after school intermurals, Oracle art and business staffs, art staff of the Mule, Interclass Night, Sport Night, Student Police, Arabian Nights '67, Cadettes, Senior Play, Library Council. To become a success in anything one must have the desire to attain the unattainable. Robin believes enthusiasm is the necessary factor to achieve success.

EDITH BROCKENBOROUGH
Business Manager

Having attended Malverne, Edie will never forget the experience she has gained. She was a cheerleader and participated in Spanish Club, F.T.A., Teenage Council, Student Police, Cadettes, the Oracle business staff, Sport Night, and the senior play, The Solid Gold Cadillac. She was also busy after school in intramurals. She enjoyed the courses of homemaking and art. Her intentions are to go to college and become a math teacher or a teacher in elementary education.

1968

ORACLE



GUY PENNA
Associate Editor

Guy's years at Malverne were fruitful ones, though not always in an academic sense. What he learned about himself in relation to others, he considers equally important. His years were highlighted by induction into National Honor Society; athletic ability was tested on the Wrestling, Cross Country Track, and Physical Fitness Teams, earning Varsity letters and awards in each. Guy was also proud to serve as associate editor of the Oracle. Future plans include college and a career in veterinary medicine.

MARY HILL
Editor-in-Chief

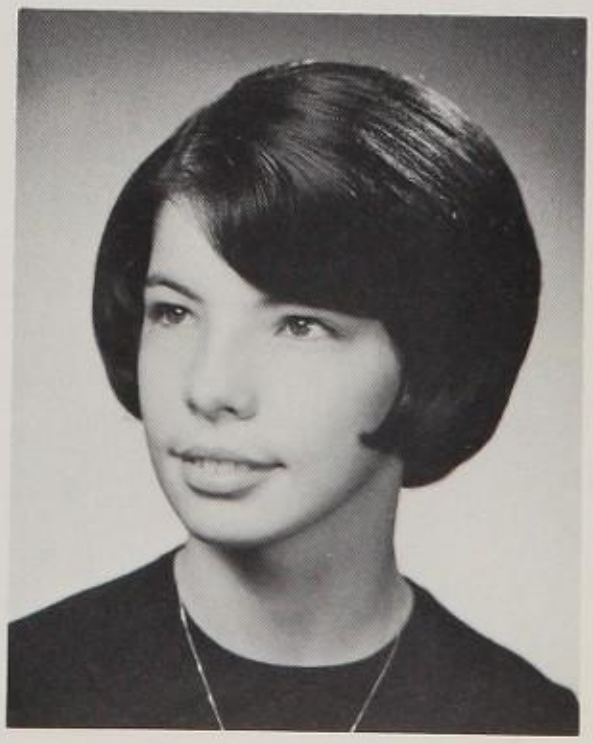
Fascinating, hectic, meaningful describe Mary's academic and co-curricular progress in Malverne High School. Class of '68 was fun; Student Police frantic; and physics baffling. Mary considers editorship of the Oracle and induction into National Honor Society her greatest honors. More than these, Malverne's teaching and learning experiences have often been inspiring and enriching. Her future includes a teaching career, so that others' school years may be like hers a big window opening.

PATRICIA JOSEPH
Associate Editor

In the words of Georgia Johnson:
Your world is as big as you make it.
I know, for I used to abide
In the narrowest nest, a corner,
My wings pressing close to my side.
But I sighted the distant horizon
Where the sky light encircled the sea
And I throbbed with a burning desire
To travel this immensity.
Battering the cordons around me
Cradling my wings on the breeze
I soared to the uttermost reaches
With raptures, with power, with ease!

MARY ANN KARP
Typing Editor

Her Malverne years have been memorable. Mary Ann was a member of the Twirling Squad and typing editor of the Oracle. In her junior and senior years, Mary Ann especially enjoyed working for Mrs. Hinkel. As for her future, Mary Ann plans to attend college and major in a legal secretarial course. She would like to thank Mrs. Hinkel and Mr. Pasquerella for their help and guidance in planning her future career.



RITA VIGNALI
Assistant Typing Editor

During her years at Malverne, Rita has had many memorable experiences. She had the pleasure of working for Mrs. Hinkel in her junior and senior years. She was also very honored to be the assistant typing editor of the Oracle. As for the future, Rita plans to attend a business school and become a legal secretary. She would especially like to thank Mrs. Hinkel for her help and assistance through the years.

OFFICERS of the

KATHLEEN MARION

Vice-President

Ding, dong, ding—Sophomore Slump—Sadie's Party—dramatic shows—exam woes—F.T.A.—friends and telephones—around the basket—Kiss Me Kate—'68 is Great—rings—National Thespian Society—Bye Bye Birdie—chemistry labs—campaign slogans—tears—carnival time—Gloria Mundi—college applications—Elmira Key—Mule—Sights and Sounds—Senior write-ups—Joey awards—late bell ringing. Many thanks to parents, teachers, and friends who have been one and the same.

GOLDEN GREATS of '68

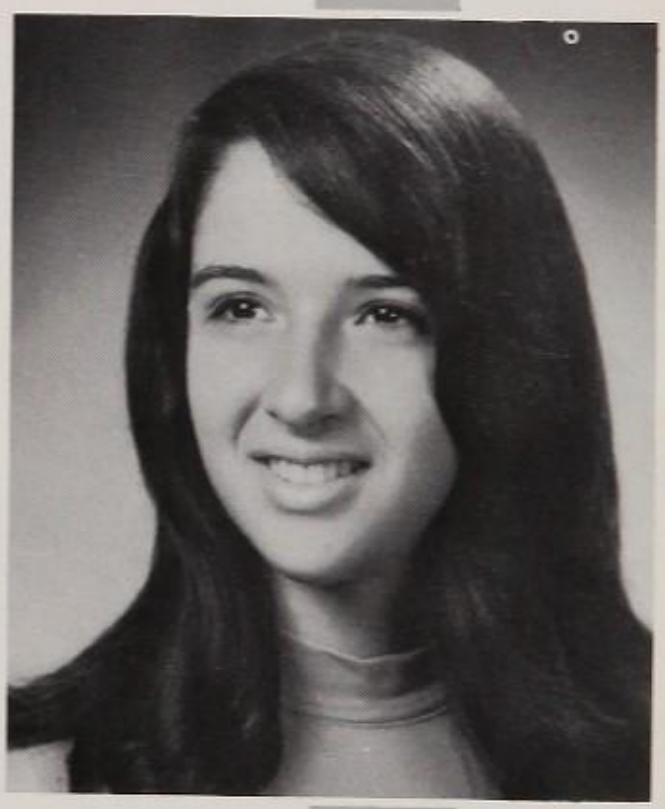
RAYMOND HARVEY

President

The word "hectic" sums up Raymond's years at Malverne. What made them so were Band, Chorus, Interclass Night, Honor Society, Teenage Council, three musicals, the Senior Play, and Drama Club. Raymond ranks his primary function at Malverne as that of class president for three glorious years. The gratitude he owes Mr. Besse and Mr. Zaccaro cannot be expressed in a few words. Raymond can only thank everyone for adding to three thoroughly enjoyable years of his life.



STEPHANIE FORRAY

Treasurer

Small brick high school–helpful teachers–irrational assignments–Boogaloo Party–Interclass Night–Sights And Sounds–'68 is great!–motorcades–Drama Club–"Oh, woe!"–"Concentrate!" Thespian Society–pretzels–Honor Society–Dr-rill Class–late Mule articles–F.T.A. teas–Sport Night–reading shelves–Carnival–ding-dong-ding–college catalogues–assemblies–innumerable French tests–library fifth period–piano–laughter–tears–loneliness–security. Stephanie thanks her parents, teachers, and friends for making her years at M.H.S. enlightening and enjoyable.

RENÉE LARRIER

Secretary

Renee feels the Class of '68 has a unique esprit de corps. She was honored to be elected secretary of '68 for three consecutive years and to be inducted into National Honor Society. Renee was also active in Sophomore Council, Interclass Night, dance planning committees, Magazine Sale, Senior Executive Board, Sport Night, Cadettes, Student Police, Teenage Council, French Club, F.T.A., Spanish Club, and Mulettes. The many warm associations with her teachers and peers will remain with Renee throughout her college career and forever.

JACQUELINE ABEL

Jackie will always treasure the memory of her years at Malverne. She feels that MHS provides an excellent background for the challenge of the outside world. Included in her high school activities were membership in Cadettes, Debate Club, Oracle literary staff, and Sport Night. Special thanks go to Mr. Dye who guided her toward her eventual goal, a member of the legal profession. Jackie talks enough to make an excellent lawyer!

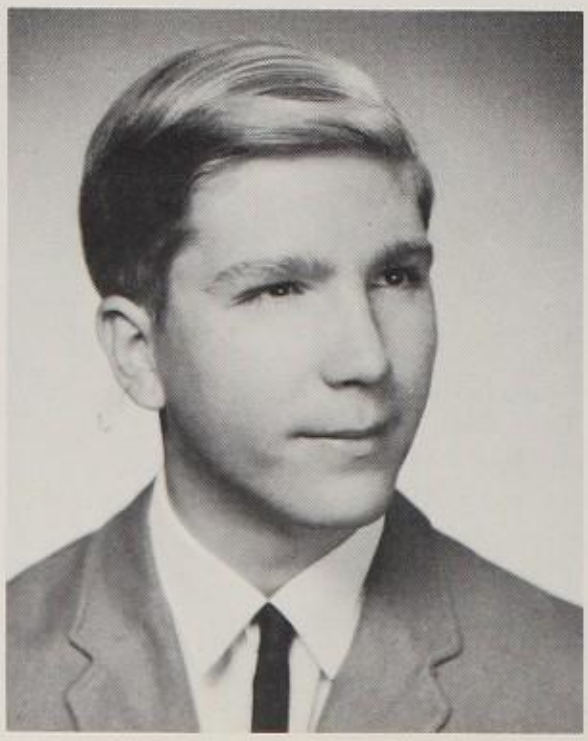
HAYES ALLEN

Hayes' years at Malverne have been enjoyable. He came to Malverne after attending a city school and found things a lot different here. All he can say is that Malverne is a good school. Social studies has been his favorite subject following art and math. He would like to thank all the teachers he had. When he leaves Malverne, his plans are to attend an I.B.M. School. He advises his fellow students to get a good education.

SENIORS

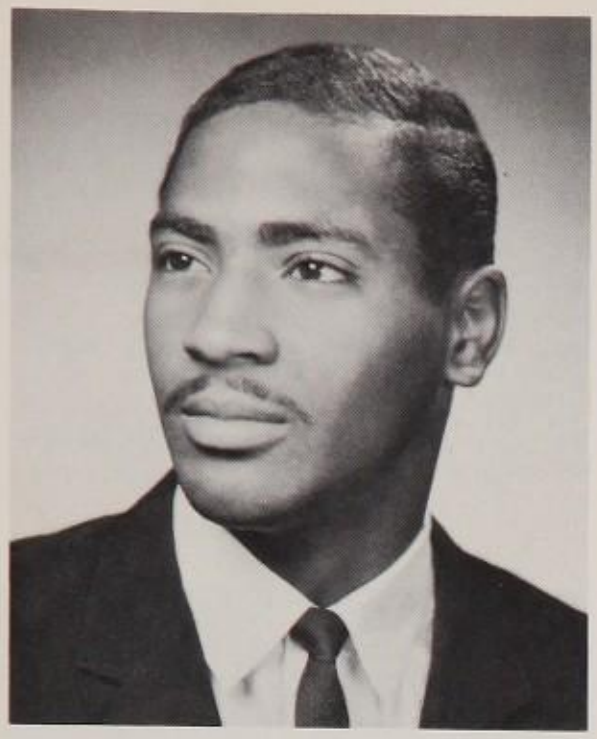
Michael's years at Malverne have been exciting and rewarding. He was a member of the Band, Bowling Team, and in the orchestra for the musical "Bye Bye Birdie." He would like to thank Miss Anderson for her guidance, and Miss Pendleton for her unending patience and encouragement. He plans to go to college next year and study business administration. His advice to underclassmen: Enjoy your years at Malverne, for they go all too quickly.

MICHAEL ALBAN



At Malverne, Jeff has participated in Varsity Tennis and Football, also in J.V. Baseball and Basketball. He has been a member of the Chess Club and reporter for the Mule. Jeff would like to thank all his teachers for their guidance, especially Mr. Peterson. After he is graduated, he plans to enter college. He believes that with the knowledge he has acquired at Malverne no task will be too difficult to overcome.

JEFFREY ALLEN



LEROY ALLEN

Leroy's years at Malverne were rewarding and enjoyable. He participated in J.V. Basketball, Varsity Wrestling Team and track. He would like to further his education in the field of business management. He would especially like to thank Mr. Hussey and Mr. Weinstein for their guidance in helping him become so successful in all his business subjects. To the underclassmen: Good luck, work hard for your goal, and have fun!

JOHN ANDERSON

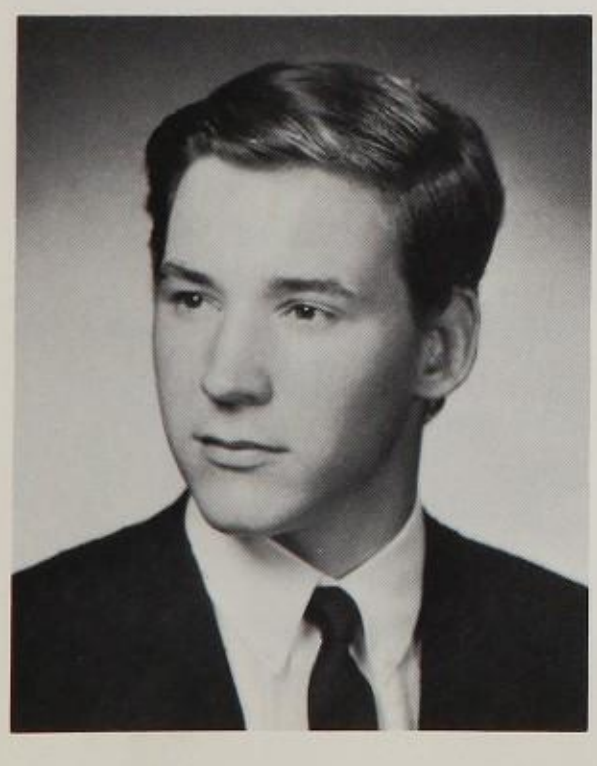
John has enjoyed his years at Malverne. He has actively participated in the Concert and Dance Bands, Chess Club, and Teenage Council. He has also participated in the orchestra of "Kiss Me Kate" and "Bye Bye Birdie." After graduation John plans to attend a local college. John has had a part-time job which made it difficult to participate in many school activities. To underclassmen: Realize your full potential and aim to fulfill it!

Chris's two years in Malverne were the most enjoyable of his high school career. Activities were limited because of the job he held after school, but Chris did participate in the school musical, "Bye Bye Birdie," which he thought was a great experience. Other activities included Chorus, Choir and Audio-Visual Aids. Most importantly, Chris wishes to express his thanks to the students and especially to the teachers who made his stay at Malverne a memorable one.

CHRISTOPHER ASCHE

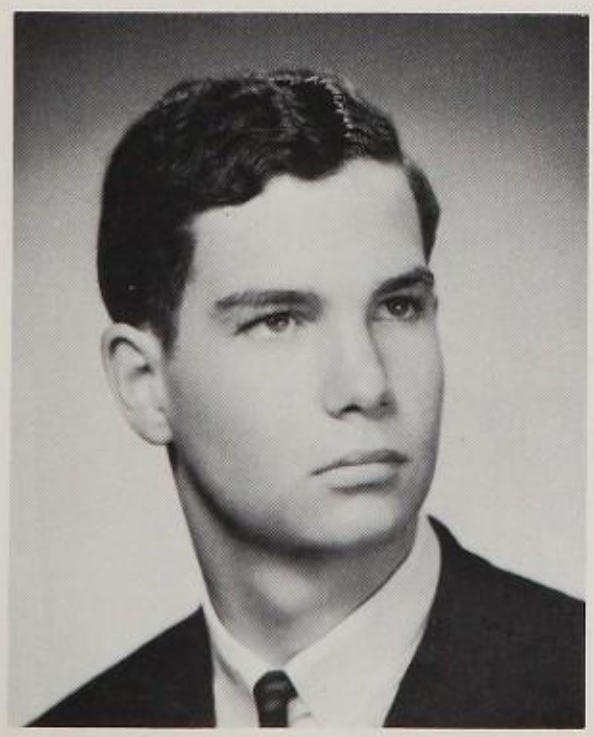
Joe's years at Malverne have been pleasant and rewarding. He was on the Mule staff, Student Police, homeroom representative, and Varsity Baseball. He would like to thank all his teachers for their guidance, especially Mr. Pasquerella and Mr. Dye. His future plans include a liberal art course in college. He wishes good luck to all his classmates in their future endeavors. Pay attention; you can learn a lot!

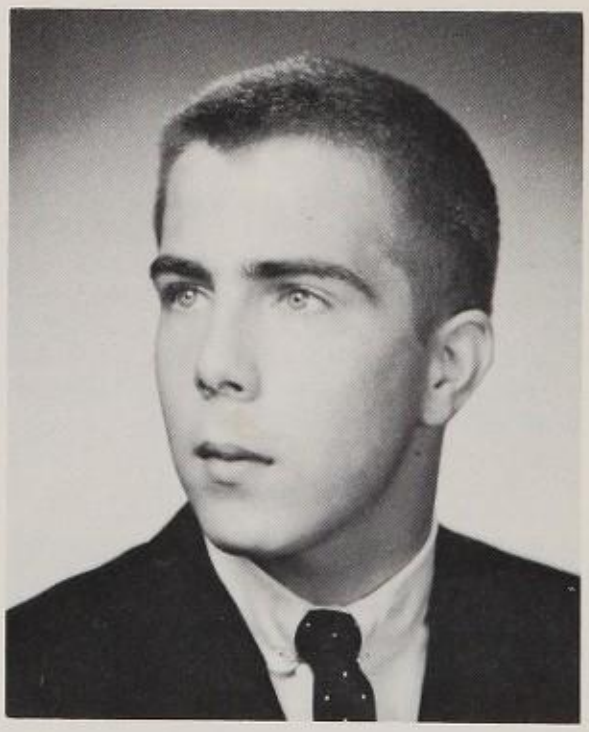
JOSEPH ALTA



Louis' years at Malverne have been enjoyable and productive. Although work after school kept him from joining extracurricular activities, he always tried to attend school events, and participated in Inter-Class Night as a sophomore. His future plans include college and a career in teaching. Louis thanks all his teachers for guiding him through the happiest years of his life. Louis' advice to underclassmen is Get what you can out of high school. It is once-in-a-lifetime thing that passes by all too quickly.

LOUIS ANZOVINO





JOHN BAGENSIE

For John high school was an enjoyable challenge. He was interested in history, especially American history. Mr. Besse influenced his decision to attend college and John thanks him for all his good advice. John has played baseball for three years He's so good that he hopes to get a major league tryout! Interested in sports, John wrote many sports columns for the Mule. He wishes to attend Penn State or North Carolina and join NROTC.

HARRY BAKER

Harry's three years at Malverne were most enjoyable ones. One of Harry's proudest achievements was playing Albert Peterson in "Bye Bye Birdie" and singing in "Kiss Me Kate." Other activities have included three years of Varsity Football, being elected vice-president of Chorus, Octet, and Audio Visual Aids. Harry would like to thank all his teachers and classmates for making his stay at Malverne memorable. He plans to attend college in the future.

PAMELA BARNEY

Malverne has taught Pamela that "time is like everything, it must be valued." Pamela's value of time was shown by her participation in many after school activities. She was active in sports, school events, and outside activities. Pamela made good use of her valuable time in Malverne. The future holds college for Pamela who wants to become a C.P.A. She advises the underclassmen: School is what you make it, so make it great!!

While attending Malverne, Sandy had many enjoyable and enlightening experiences. She especially enjoyed being in Sport Night and participating in FTA. She was also active in girls intramurals and in the Homemaking Club. After graduation, Sandy hopes to attend college and study for a career in nursing. Her work in FNA should stand her in good stead, as she learned much about caring for the sick and needy on the trips provided by FNA. Sandy wishes all her classmates: Best of luck!

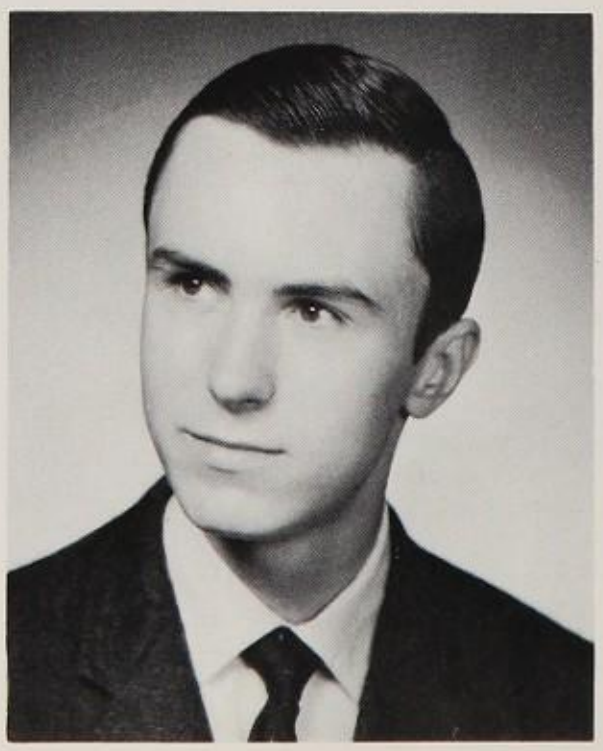
SAUNDRA BASS

After high school Steve plans to attend college and major in the field of art. During his high school years Steve has spent two years on the J.V. Baseball and three years of church basketball. One of the highlights of Steve's career was his sophomore year of baseball with Mr. Savino. Steve would like to thank the teachers at Malverne for a successful and enjoyable three years. He looks forward to an equally successful future.

STEVEN BAMBINA

Thomas is a science buff! He plans to study marine biology at Miami University in Florida. Tom's many aquariums, which he has been financing with a job in a restaurant, have given him much experience in this direction. Tom served as Red Cross representative, and he will always remember the Roman banquet of his Latin class. Tom would like to give special thanks to Miss Anderson for guiding him through his high school career.

THOMAS BARTKUS



ARTHUR BATES

Arthur believes his three years at Malverne were great! He enthusiastically worked on all stage productions: "Kiss Me Kate," Senior Happenings, Stairway to Stardom, "Bye Bye Birdie," and "South Pacific." Art got the most out of his courses, and especially wants to express his appreciation to Mr. Weinstein for his patience and guidance. Arthur plans to enter the Army and serve his country with the same enthusiasm and loyalty he gave to Malverne.

Anne's three years at Malverne were memorable ones. She was a member of Red Cross Council, Future Nurses Club, Oracle Business Staff for three years, and Inter-class Night. She also held the position of homeroom officer in her senior year. Anne plans to attend a two year college upon graduation. Her advice to her underclassmates is Make the most out of your high school years; they are the firm foundation to a successful future.

ANNE BATTAGLIA

CARLOS BEJARANO

During his years at Malverne, Carl has participated in many activities. He especially enjoyed his roles on stage in the past three musicals: "South Pacific," "Bye Bye Birdie," and "Kiss Me Kate." He served on the Student Council during his junior year. Carl's involvement in Chorus and Choir was highlighted by his participation in the County Sectional Chorus at the West Hempstead High School. After college, Carl hopes to begin a career in engineering.

WARREN BENSON

Warren spent most of his time participating in sports. He played three years of Varsity Football, two years of Varsity Basketball, and one year of Varsity Track. He would like to thank Coach Fuge and Coach Nerrie for all their guidance and inspiration. Warren was also in Teenage Council, a member of Student Council, and a Health Office Assistant. His future plans include college, possibly Rutgers University, where he would like to study business and play college basketball.

MICHAEL BATTAGLIA

He is known to his friends as Big Mike. In his three years at Malverne he has participated in Varsity Football and track; Mike wrestled in his freshman year. A job in a restaurant for the last two years has kept Michael's weekends occupied. He would like to thank Mr. Orta for his advice when things got bad. Michael's future plans include enrollment in a police academy in the city. His advice to underclassmen is Keep Cool.

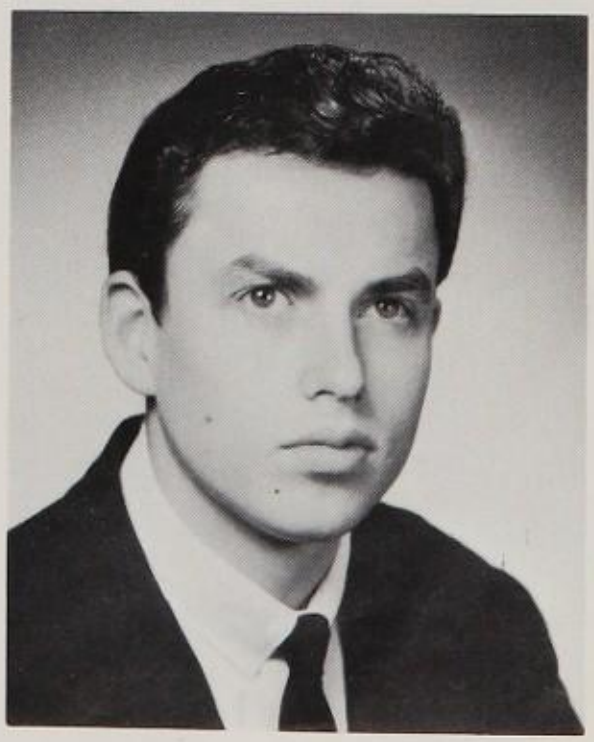
During her high school years, Sophie has majored in business courses. Her after school activities were limited because of her part-time job. Sophie would like to thank all the teachers in the business department, especially Mrs. Hinkel, for their sincere efforts to help her. After graduation, Sophie intends to enter the business world as a secretary. She would also like to send all her best wishes to Mr. Besse, who is really a great guy.

SOPHIE BELLI

Ed looks back on his high school days as the best times he will ever have in his life. Because of a part-time job since ninth grade, he was not able to participate in as many of the extracurricular activities as he would like. However, he managed to keep up with his studies and to keep his school spirit active. At the present time Ed's plans are indefinite, but he hopes to later attend a business school.

EDWARD BERCHIELLI



PHILIP BERG

In his years at Malverne the activity Phil looked forward to most was the yearly musical. He acted in and served on Stage Crew for "Kiss Me Kate," "Bye Bye Birdie," and "South Pacific." Phil thanks Mr. Messinger who did so much for him, helping him in school and keeping him out of jams. With Mr. Messinger as his inspiration, Phil enjoyed his high school days. Phil hopes to work hard to improve himself in the future.

CARYL BERNHARDI

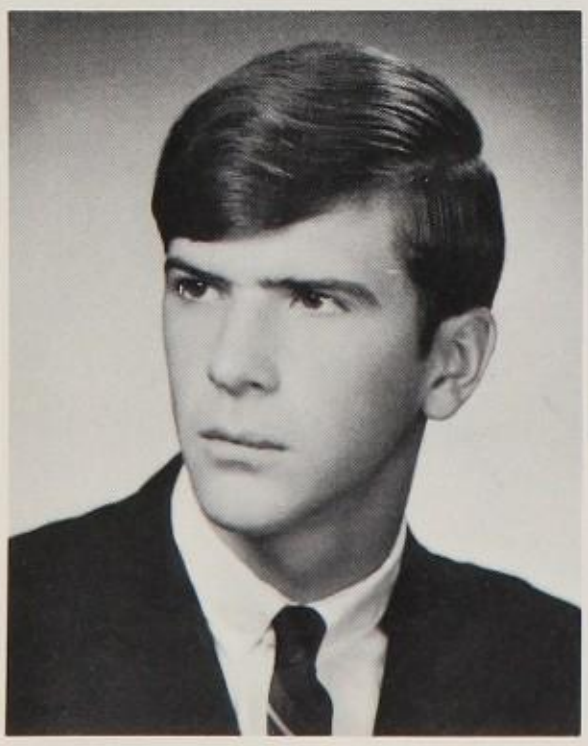
Caryl sincerely thanks Mr. Byrne and Mr. Fusco who helped her to mature and become a better person. She participated in Mulettes, Student Council, Intramural Sports and Oracle staffs. Other activities she enjoyed were Chess Club, make up and costume committees for "Kiss Me Kate," and cheering for Orange Sport Night. Caryl leaves us with this quote, . . . If we meet again we'll smile indeed. If not—'tis true; this parting was well made.

DEBORAH BIRKEL

Debbie is sad as she sees her high school days come to an end. She had fun and gained valuable experience as a co-chairman of the Future Nurses Club. She was also an active participant in Cadettes, Sport Night, Teenage Council, and Oracle business staff. Outside of school she loved being a volunteer at Mercy Hospital and a Sunday school teacher. Debbie looks forward to becoming a nurse.

Doug's high school years at Malverne will be something he will never forget. He enjoyed all his courses and activities. Doug's favorite class was social studies with Mr. Besse. He participated in Interclass Night and was on the Junior Dance committee. His outside activities included Police Boys Club, basketball, and bowling. His future plans include college or joining one of the armed forces. Doug has learned much at Malverne and looks forward to a successful future.

DOUGLAS BLAISDELL



Linda's past years at Malverne have been rewarding ones. They have provided a foundation of knowledge and many wonderful memories to look back upon. She most enjoyed participating in Future Nurses Club, Sport Night, Red Cross Council, Homemaking Club, softball, volleyball, and Cadettes. Most valuable to her are the rewards of being a volunteer for three years at Mercy Hospital. Linda plans to attend college for nursing and obtain a B.S. degree.

LINDA BOGAN

Jean's future plans include attending and traveling abroad. She participated in a few intramurals. Volleyball was her favorite. She also kept busy with F.T.A. and Homemaking Club. The highlight of her years at Malverne was participating in Sport Night. Jean wishes to thank all her teachers for their inspiration and understanding. Her advice to underclassmen: Work earnestly and participate in school to the best of your ability. Then enjoyment and contentment will come easily.

JEAN BONNER

BARBARA BROOKS

When Barbara thinks of Malverne she has memories of a fun place and a place of hard work and lasting friendships. She particularly enjoyed working in "Bye Bye Birdie", and "South Pacific." She would like to thank Mrs. Levitt and Mrs. Hinkel who have helped her in shorthand and typing. Her fondest memories are of her fellow classmates who made her class, the class of '68, the best class yet!

VICTORIA BROWN

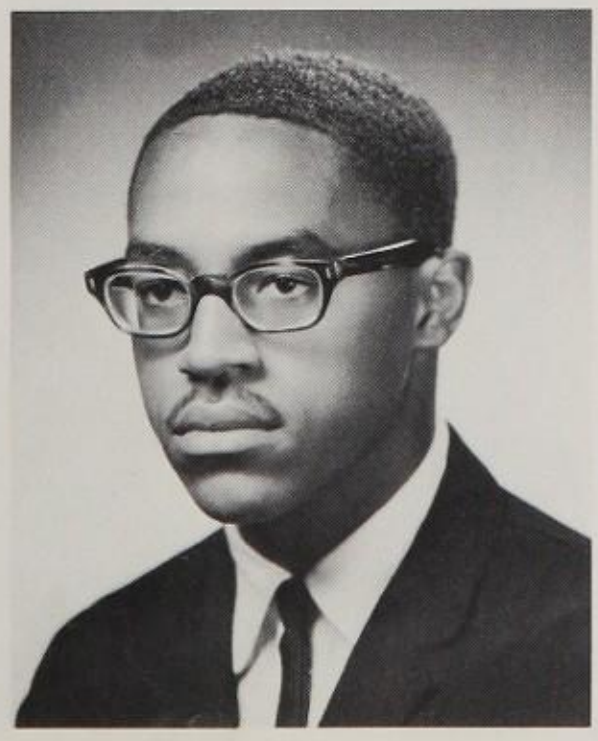
Victoria's three years in Malverne have been very enlightening. For two years she has written for the Mule. She has participated in Sport Night for all three years, Interclass Night, and has played basketball after school. She is also a member of Cadettes. After graduation she intends to continue her education in the college of her choice. She will major in English. Her advice to underclassmen: Be smart and work hard.

MARVA BRUNSON

During her three years at Malverne, Marva has participated in volleyball, basketball, hockey, and softball. She has been a member of the Cadettes and also a member of Varsity Cheering for two years. Marva has also been a member of Drama Club and Teenage Council. Her future plans are to attend college. She wishes to thank all her teachers for their guidance and patience. Marva looks forward to a happy and successful future.

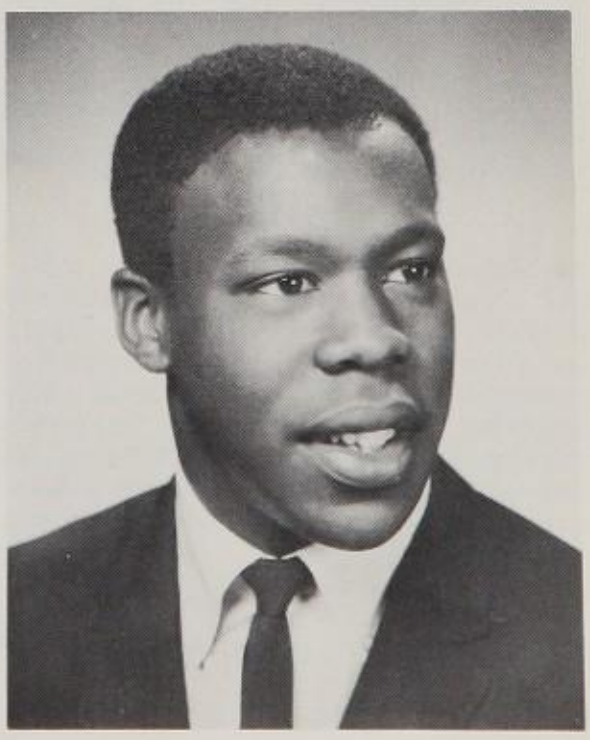
WESLEY BULLOCK

His years at Malverne Senior High have been both rewarding and memorable. Wes plans to further his education by attending one of the local colleges on Long Island. If Wes has learned anything it is that you can't get something for nothing. You must work in order to get what you want. He will never forget his experiences or the wonderful friends and teachers he met at both junior and senior high schools.



LEON BUNTON

Leon transferred from South Side Junior High in Rockville Center in the middle of his seventh year. Leon likes Malverne and has enjoyed the variety of activities one can participate in. Leon liked Malverne sports and always cheered the teams on to victory. When he finishes school, Leon plans to go into the field of aerodynamics. He thanks all his teachers for everything they have taught him and for their guidance and friendship.



GARRY BURNS

Garry believes his life in high school has been productive and satisfying. He enjoyed Student Police, Red Cross, and Track Team. Some of his out-of-school activities were playing in a rock 'n roll group and toying with cars. During his three years of high school Garry learned that just doing isn't enough; it's how well you can do that counts. His future plans are to study data processing.

Craig's most outstanding desire is to leave Malverne knowing that he has been a part of the greatest school spirit Malverne has seen in years. There have been many ordeals and triumphs at Malverne. Craig's most outstanding triumphs have been: making the Division IV championship Basketball Team, and National Honor Society. His other activities included Varsity Baseball, Teenage Council, Color Guard, and Red Cross. Craig would like to thank Mrs. Ackerman for her kindness.

CRAIG BUSCHMAN

GLORIA CARROLL

In addition to giving Gloria a thorough understanding of her environment, Malverne has given her happy memories: Varsity and J.V. Cheerleading, Cadettes, Student Police, typist for the Mule, Drama Club, Sport Night, Interclass Night, honor badminton, softball, and volleyball intramurals. After high school, Gloria plans to major in business management. Her advice to underclassmen: Intelligence is only a tool one must use to acquire knowledge.

IRENE CASTELLE

Irene's years at Malverne were very rewarding to her. She participated in various after-school activities: Sport Night, Homemaking Club, and Future Nurses Club. After graduating, she plans to enter nursing. Irene wishes to thank all her teachers for the help and guidance they have given her during her most fulfilling and happy years at Malverne. She also wishes to thank her teachers in Woodfield Rd. School and the junior high school.

CYRIL BUTLER

At Malverne Cyril participated in track and Chess Club. While in John Adams High he ran on the Varsity Track Team and received a Major varsity letter and a bronze varsity track letter award. He hopes to become a teacher in the social sciences. Cyril advises future students to stay in school because it is the only way to make something out of one's life.

Gracelia enjoyed her profitable and exciting years at Malverne. She has participated in many school activities: Sport Night, volleyball, badminton, Interclass Night, Homemaking Club, and Future Nurses Club. Her future plans include attending a beauty institute to become a beautician. She would like to thank Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Levitt, and Mrs. Klein for their interest and encouragement. As her parting advice to underclassmen, Gracelia quotes philosopher Kaheil Ghibran: Say not I found the truth, but rather, I found a truth.

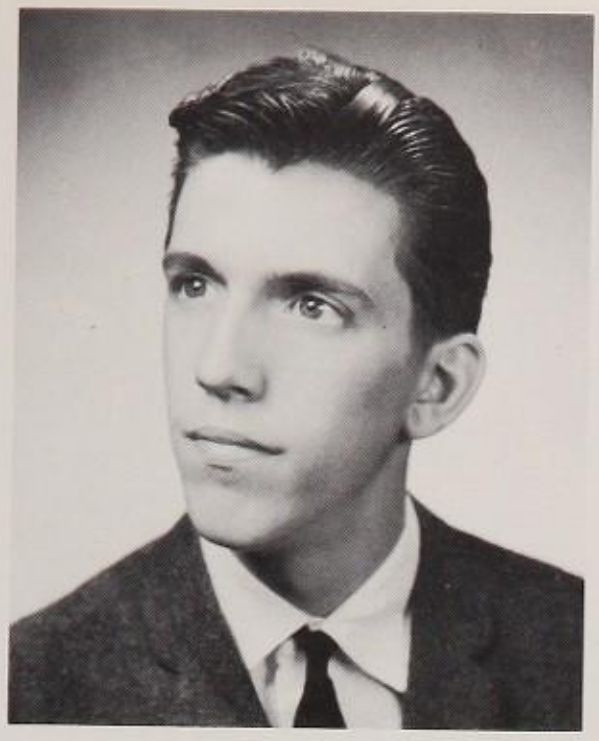
GRACELIA CARTER

Up early for Library Council . . . Mr. Archer's chimes . . . Hamlet test today . . . Cross Country practice . . . Mrs. Hvidsten's lab . . . Mule article due Thursday . . . I have to tutor after school . . . Cerebral Palsy Day—please give . . . National Honor Society . . . Omni Gallia in tres partes . . . Student Police Sergeant: "Around that basket" . . . "How many didn't even try?" . . . Class of '68 Executive Board . . . More French history . . . '68 is Great! . . . Take it home to Mother . . . Thanks, Malverne, for all you have done for me.

MICHAEL CASTLEMAN

DONNA CATROPA

Donna's three years at Malverne have been memorable and ones she will not forget. Many warm friendships have come from her years in high school. She participated in bowling for two years. Donna wishes to thank all her teachers for molding her future. After she is graduated from high school, she plans to enter the business world.

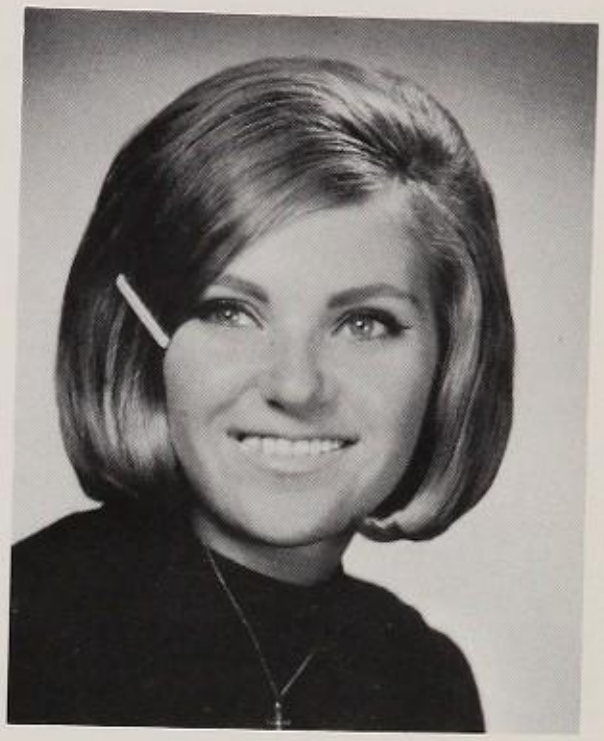


WILLIAM CHASE

Bill has attended Malverne Public Schools since kindergarten and feels he has benefited from each and every year. During his years at Malverne, he attended Westbury Technical and Trade Training Center for one year to study auto body technique. Bill plans to enter the Armed Forces after graduation and expects to further his knowledge of mechanics in the service. Bill would like to thank Mr. Byrne for keeping him straight during his years in the senior high.

Kathie dubs her years at Malverne as great! Because of part-time jobs, she did not have many hours to participate in after-school activities. However, she did manage to join Cheerleading, Student Police, and makeup for the musicals, "Kiss Me Kate" and "Bye Bye Birdie." In her senior year, she enjoyed being in "South Pacific" and the senior play. Kathie thanks Mrs. Hinkel and Mrs. Levitt for their help in her business career.

KATHLEEN CLINE



Malverne has taught Regina how to respect and understand others and their opinions. Participating in make-up committee for "Kiss Me Kate," Cheerleading, "Bye Bye Birdie," and Sport Night, have made her years at Malverne enjoyable ones. She would like to thank all her teachers for their help, and give special thanks to Mr. Fontana for his guidance and understanding. Regina plans to continue her schooling in California, although she has not decided on a specific field of study.

REGINA CERDA

Karen tried to get a little something out of every side of schooling, academic as well as service. Karen participated in Cadettes, Cheering, Sport Night, and girls' sports. She also belonged to Drama Club, Thespian Society, Student Police, Teenage Council, and Red Cross. Out of school she belonged to Girl Scouts through which she took trips to Washington, Connecticut, and Boston. Karen looks forward with a happy outlook to a bright future.

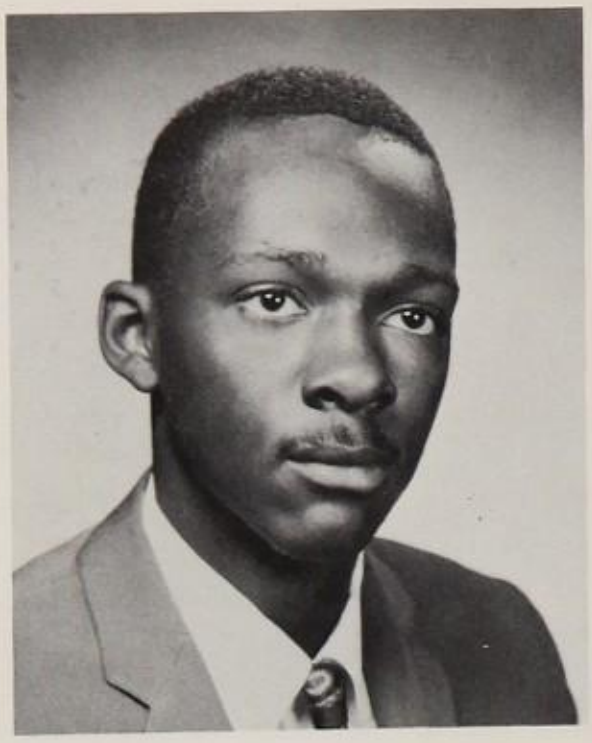
KAREN CLEMENS

DEBORAH COLSON

Deborah's three years in Malverne have been very rewarding. She has been active in Sort Night, Cheering, Interclass Night, and after school sports. In her senior year, she was President of the Homemaking Club. Deborah would like to thank Mrs. Levitt, Mr. Byrne, and Mrs. Arnone for their patience and guidance. They have helped her make the most of her high school days and plans for a happy future. To the underclassmen: Education is important; don't let it go.

KEVIN COLWELL

Running is what Kevin remembers most about his years at Malverne. Track running, Cross Country running, running for Drama Club, running for the Class of '68, running for the greats of Malverne High: Mr. Zaccaro; Mr. Besse; Mr. Rich; Mr. Dye; Mrs. Ackerman; and, of course, Mr. Archer. The times he remembered best are being on the state Championship Cross Country Team, working on sets for Drama Club, working for girls' Sport Night, Friday night home basketball games. These were M.H.S. to him.

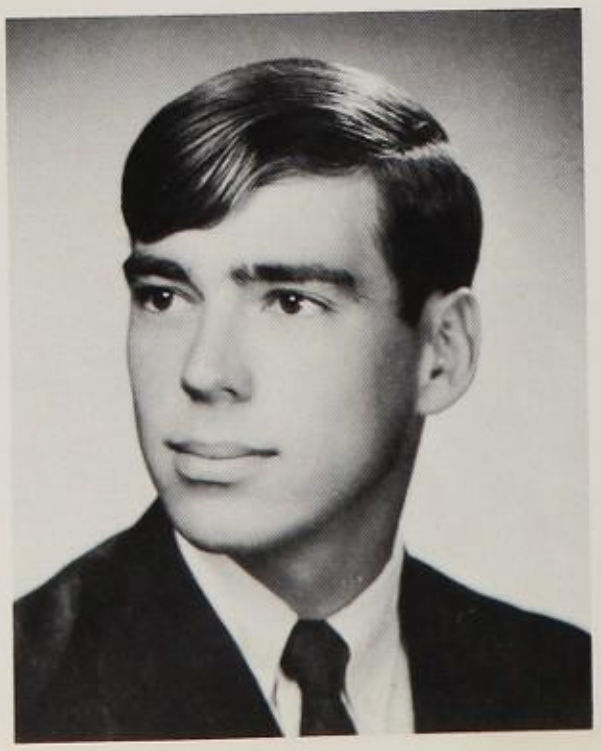


ELLIOTT COOPER

Elliott plans to go into the aeronautics field when he leaves Malverne. He is better known around school as "Ollie." While at Malverne, Elliott played football a year and basketball three years. His love of sports kept him busy on the teams, practicing, and cheering on his fellow classmates. His interest in flying and mechanics followed his devotion to sports.

Eugene has spent an active and profitable time at Malverne. Some activities were: President of Drama Club, Boys' State Representative, Student Police Sergeant, Teenage Council, National Honor Society, and National Thespian Society. He also worked as a marina dockmaster and was a member of the Watershed Skindiving Association. Gene hopes to attend the University of Washington and major in oceanography. He hopes all his friends, underclassmen, and faculty members, have successful and happy futures.

EUGENE CORONETZ



Diane, who is known around Malverne as "Little Sister," found her three years at Malverne most enjoyable. She liked her courses, especially writing and discussion. She liked to form her ideas on paper and then read them to the class. Diane participated in several activities, including Homemaking Club, Sport Night, intramural sports, and Red Cross. She would like to thank Mr. Besse and Mr. Zaccaro for their help and understanding. After graduation she plans to enter college or business school.

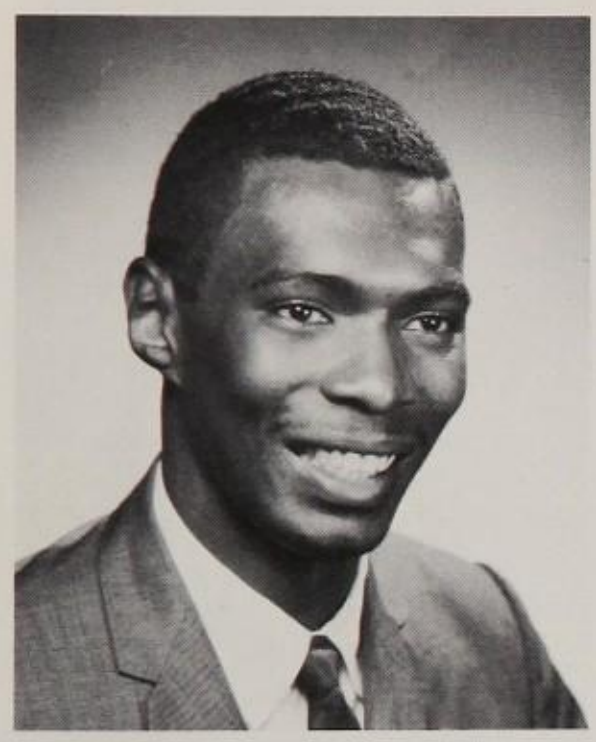
DIANE COSTEN

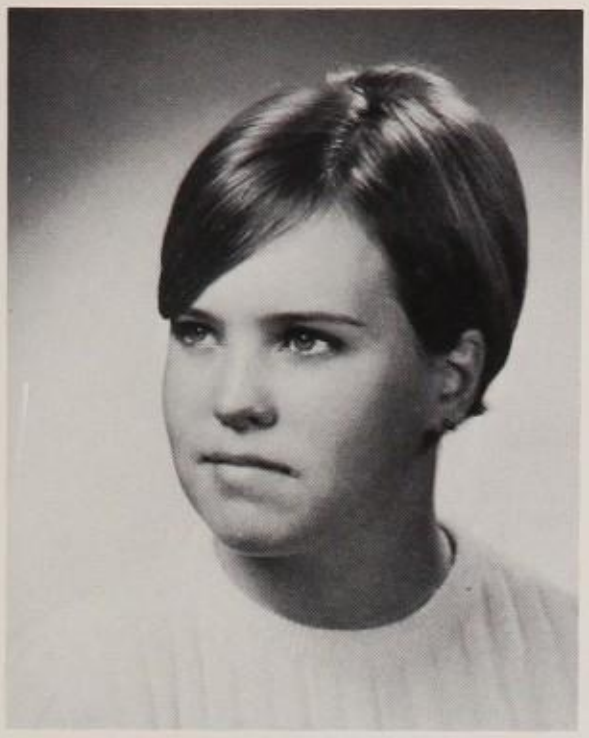
ELIZABETH COVINGTON

During her years at Malverne Elizabeth enjoyed participating in all girls' sports. She also was proud of Cadettes, French Club, and Mule staff. Her fondest memories will be those of Sport Night and being a golden great of '68. After graduating she hopes to attend college. To all her teachers she says thank you, and to underclassmen: It's rough, but it's fair.

Robert had a very interesting job for the past three years which kept him from joining after-school activities. He supports his Alma Mater, however, whenever time permits. His favorite subject was math. Bob plans to attend Tennessee State University in the future and get further training in the field of mathematics. He enjoyed most of his courses and likes to read. Bob helped out in Miss Parkhill's office to satisfy his altrustic tendency.

ROBERT COWSER





JUDITH DAUGHERTY

Judy's most enjoyable and enlightening experiences were spent participating in Sport Nights and Interclass night. She was also a member of the Band. She plans to attend Kansas University next September and will major in sociology, possibly for a career in social work. She feels her most rewarding years were spent at Malverne, and she will always remember them. Advice to underclassmen: Have fun while you work hard and your days at Malverne will mean more to you.

PETER DeROSE

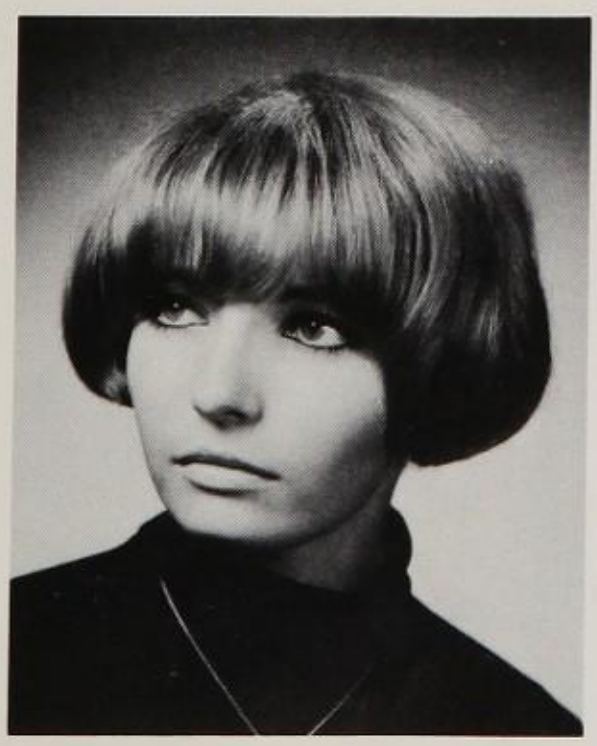
Peter was not involved in any school functions because of out-of-school activities. After leaving Malverne he hopes to continue his education at RCA Electronics School. During his three years at Malverne, he has enjoyed his math courses the most and wishes to thank Mr. Wolman, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Holt for their fine instruction. As advice to those still in school, he wishes to say, Don't waste time. Peter's future looks bright.

JOHANNA CRESS

Johanna enjoyed her years at Malverne, taking the good times and the difficult in her stride. She thanks Mr. Zaccaro and Mrs. Ackerman, her favorite teachers. Johanna's hobby is music. She plays the guitar, drum, and pipe organ. She also sews and makes some of her own clothing. Johanna's future is uncertain as her family may move to Europe. She may continue her schooling there. Malverne has left her with many happy memories.

Linda's three years at Malverne have been memorable ones. A part-time job limited her activities, but she spent time listening to her record collection and going to concerts. She particularly enjoys Bob Dylan. Upon graduation, Linda plans on visiting San Francisco and San Diego, California. To the underclassmen, Linda leaves this advice: Work for what you want, and don't give up until you succeed in getting it.

LINDA Del CARPINE



Joe's years at Malverne prepared him for higher education and endowed him with the ability to get along with others. He enjoyed being a member of the Varsity Bowling Team and earned his letter. College is next for Joe. He hopes all his classmates will be happy in whatever they set out to achieve. If we are happy in what we are doing, this is success. He expresses thanks to all his teachers.

JOSEPH De ROY

PATRICIA DEVLIN

Pat's three years at Malverne Senior High School have been exciting. She has participated in both JV and Varsity Cheerleading and also was head of cheering for Blue in Sport Night '67. Pat was a member of Drama Club, Future Teachers of America, and the Oracle business staff. Outside school, she was a twirling instructor at the Valley Stream V.F.W. and was captain of their trophy winning team. Pat wants to continue her education and become an elementary school teacher.

THOMAS DeVRIES

Thomas enjoyed his years at Malverne and wishes to thank Mrs. Ackerman and Mr. Gatland, for English; Mr. Hanson and Mr. Fuge, for physical ed; Mr. DeGraff and Mr. Hansen, for history; and Mr. Jaffe, for industrial arts; and Mr. Byrne, who helped him out with many school problems. Tom's hobbies are music, photography, and stock cars. He attended the Westbury Technical And Trade Training Center, where he studied offset printing and photography. Tom also worked on the Visual Aids Team and belonged to the Guitar Club.

CAROL DiGIOVANNA

Carol enjoyed her years at Malverne. Through the years she gained many wonderful memories, which she believes she will never forget. In tenth grade, Carol entered Westbury Technical Trade School to study commercial art and advertising. She has always enjoyed art, and decided to put it into good use and make it her career. Through this wonderful opportunity, Carol will graduate, and become a commercial artist. To underclassmen she says: If you have a talent, practice and put it to good use.

Richard's years at Malverne have been memorable ones. A part-time job kept him out of activities. However, he cheered his team during the football and basketball seasons. Rich plans to enter a business school after graduation. He would like to leave underclassmen this advice: If you plan to accomplish anything, make sure you are capable of completing it.

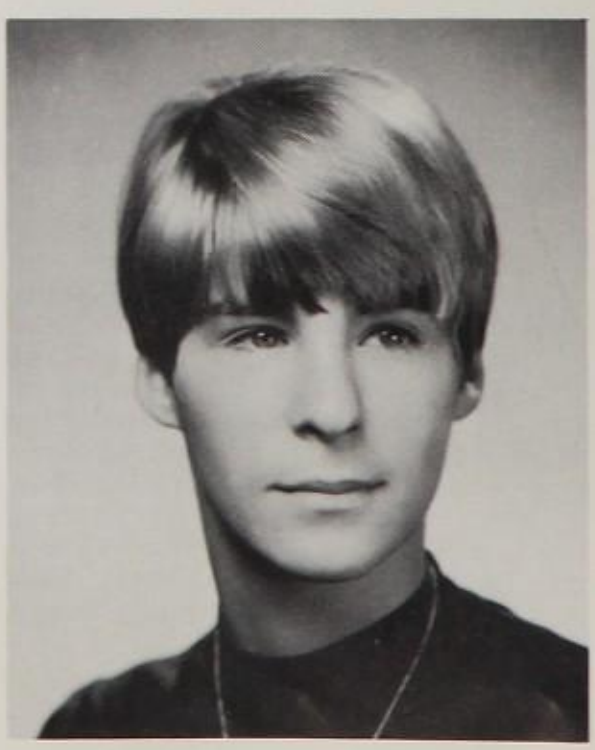
RICHARD DOUCETTE

Jeanne has always been proud to call Malverne her Alma Mater. She has gained much experience in leadership and has worked faithfully in many services. Her favorites are Library Council, Future Teachers of America, and Teenage Council. Last year she had the honor of being inducted into the National Honor Society. Her future plans include college, majoring in elementary education. She leaves this thought with the underclassmen: Learn to live, and live to learn. learn.

JEANNE DOWELL

Carole will never forget what a great school Malverne High is! She is proud to be a part of the Class of 1968. In her senior year, Susen, as she is called by her close friends, was elected Student Council representative of her homeroom. She also joined Teenage Council, Ski Club, French Club, Future Teachers of America, and played badminton. Susen leaves this thought: Nothing is a waste that makes a fond memory.

CAROLE DRATH



MICHELE DRISCOLL

Michele, who believes we must look into things, aspires to be a vivisectionist. She is a lover of museums, flowers, grass, Shakespeare, art, and philosophy—in all, enlightenment. Throughout her life, school and America have taught her discipline, and now she longs for a return to that world which is undisciplined by knowledge, untouched by today's values. She wishes to return to Ethiopia, where she lived as a small child with her grandmother.

KENNETH DUCHIN

Kenny's years at Malverne have been memorable ones, filled with many rewarding experiences. Among the activities that he has participated in were Teenage Council, Student Police, Math Team, French Club, Newspaper Squad, Chess Club, and Audio-Visual Aids. Many thanks go to the faculty, who have contributed so much to his years at Malverne. Science has been Ken's most enjoyable subject; Kenny plans to further his education in this field. His motto is perserverance always wins. .

RONNIE EISENBERG

Ronnie's years at Malverne have been both beneficial and enjoyable. During her three years at Malverne, she has participated in the Malverne High School Chorus, Girls Choir, and Sport Night. She has particularly enjoyed being in Drama Club and describes it as a "stimulating experience." After graduation she plans to go on to college. As Ronnie leaves her memorable high school years behind, she would like to say to underclassmen: Strive for your goals no matter how far away they may seem.

Joe Evans will always remember and be grateful to Malverne for the knowledge and understanding it has given him. He participated in wrestling in his freshman and sophomore years. Joe wishes to thank all of his teachers for their guidance and understanding. After graduation he plans to enter Browne's Business School, where he will learn about the field of data processing. Joe has fond memories of Malverne and will always recall his happy times here.

JOSEPH EVANS

After going to high school for three years, Fred is anxious to try her luck and talents in the business world. She did not have much time for activities in school and could not contribute greatly to the sports or dramatic programs. However, Frederica was interested in her classes and did her best. She is looking forward to working. Fred thinks it will be fun to earn her own money—and to spend it.

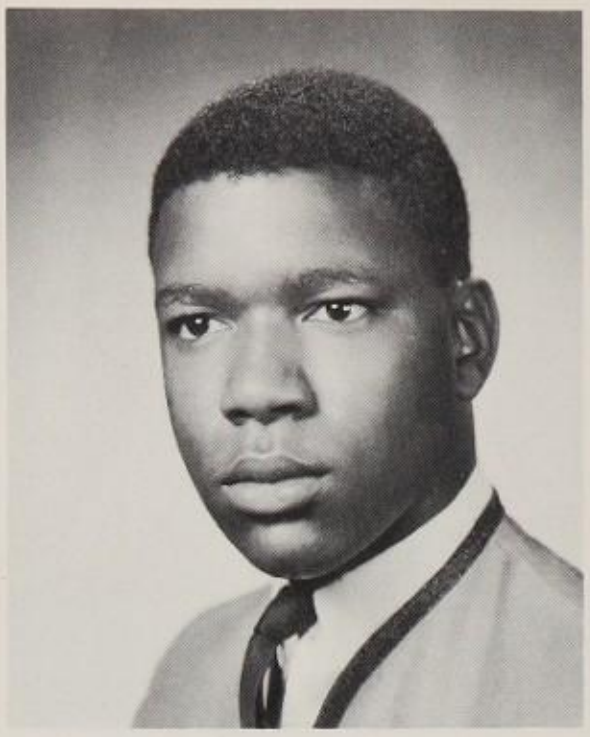
FREDERICA FEARON

Malverne has been full of new experiences for Arnold since he moved here last June. He participated in many school activities in his sophomore and junior years in Brooklyn and is presently a member of the National Honor Society and the Malverne High School Band. His interests in school are in math and science and he plans to major in one of these. Arnold is looking forward to college and hopes it is as exceptional as Malverne.

ARNOLD FEIST

Velma would like to take this opportunity to thank all faculty members who sponsor extracurricular activities in Malverne. She has enjoyed participating in Future Nurses Club, Interclass Night, and Intramural Sports. Velma plans to attend college where she will study medicine and then, perhaps, become a laboratory technician. Of the past and future, Velma says: Life holds many unforgettable past experiences, but the future holds a different and challenging world.

VELMA FIELDS



ROBERT FISHER

Bob has participated in Wrestling for five years. Needless to say he is an expert in this field and has a fine reputation for good teamwork. His hobbies are caring for animals and fishing, expecially on hot days. Bob's best subjects are social studies and English. When he is graduated from Malverne, he plans to enter the army. Robert enjoyed his years at Malverne and wishes the best to all his classmates.

LAURA FREUNDLICH

Oberlin, a flute, thought, the West, a friend, physics, politics, unhappiness, happiness, thought, tension, the Grand Canyon, Mr. Zaccaro, inadequacy, homework, reflection, sleep, Mrs. Partridge, responsibility, conflict, laughter, mountains, commitments, competition, college, inferiority, superiority, Peace Corps, thought, the Mule, guitar, fun, warmth, love, prejudice, nostalgia, parents, Honor Society, "It's too-o-o-o bad," camping, stars, the universe, thought, fun, peace, music, nature, learning have all combined to make Laura's years at Malverne challenging, fruitful, and unforgettable.

LORRAINE FINK

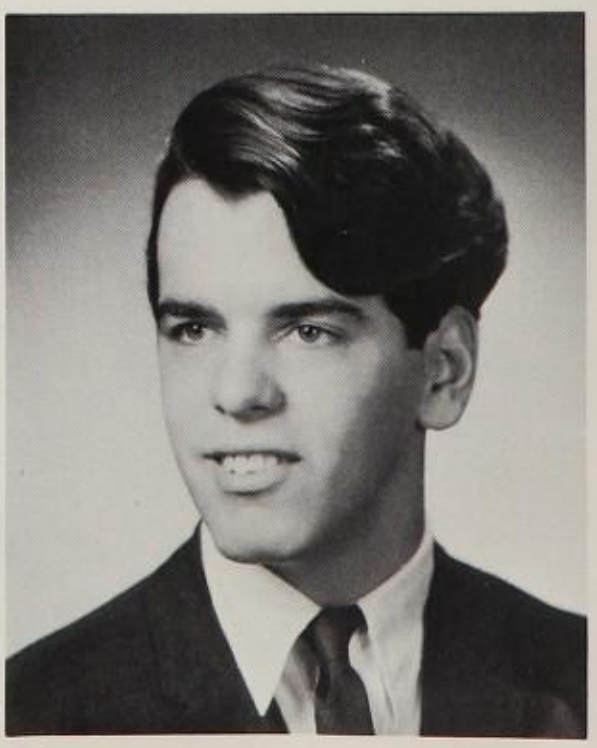
Lorraine has experienced three happy years at Malverne, but because of a part-time job, she was unable to participate in any after-school activities. A good part of her time was devoted to secretarial courses. In her future years Lorraine wishes to continue her secretarial work while working for an airline. She would like to thank Mrs. Hinkel for all her help. To all the underclassmen, Lorraine would like to leave this thought: Be an individualist with your own ideas; you won't get anywhere being a carbon copy.

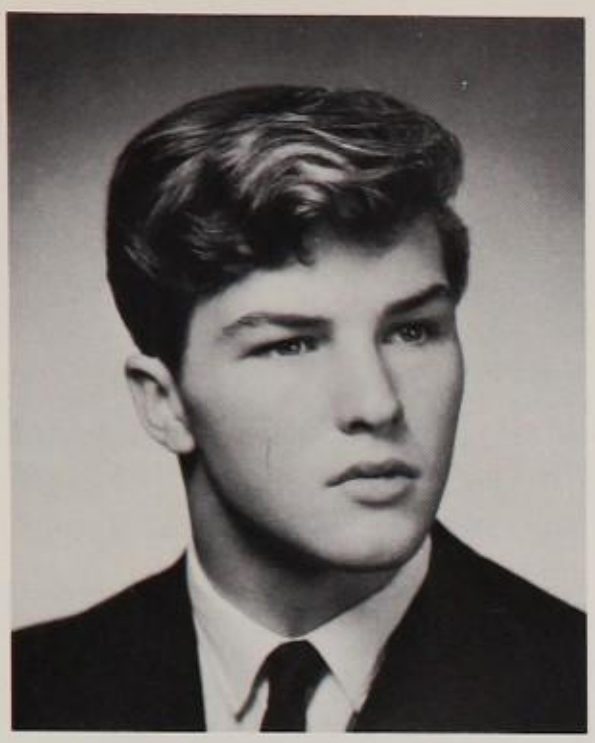
In Curt's three years at MHS, he believes he has received the tools to perform the tasks of effective leadership and citizenship. He has learned to use the English language effectively, and acquired a sufficient knowledge of history and social studies to understand the past and to prepare for the future. Curt participated in football and baseball and has chosen physical education as his college major. He wishes to thank Mr. Fuge and Mr. Archer for their help and influence.

CURTIS FLUKER

Pat's years at Malverne are ones to be cherished. He first came to Malverne in his sophomore year. Since then he has met many people who will always remain his friends. During high school his main interest was cars. He would like to thank Mr. Nerrie for his invaluable guidance which has helped him many times. He thanks all his friends and faculty friends, too. To the underclassmen: Get involved in all the activities you possibly can.

PATRICK FULLAM





JOHN GAGLIANO

John worked on Visual Aids and Stage Crew. His injured knee kept him out of sports. The thing he liked best about school was 3:22! His favorite advisor was Mr. Byrne, who helped Johnny a lot in many different ways. Johnny luvs girls, drums, good parties and good music like the Stones, Vanilla Fudge and Jimmy Hendrix Experience. His years at Malverne have been very helpful to him and he says to always remember to Take it light.

JOAN GELLER

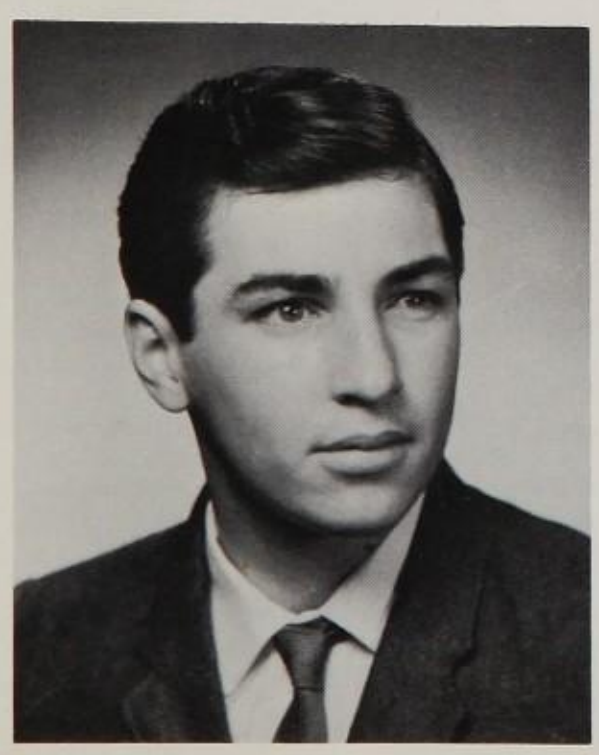
Joan's years at Malverne were happy ones. Some of her memorable activities included president of Teenage Council, vice-president of freshman Student Association, and Mule columnist. She was also a member of the Senior Executive Board, Mulettes, Oracle business staff, Student Police, Color Guard, Assembly Committee, F.T.A., and Leaders' Club. Joan's most rewarding outside activity was being Malverne's chairman for the Cerebral Palsy Drive and tripling their quota. She plans a career in speech therapy.

Robin thanks Malverne for heightening her interests in dramatics. She participated in Drama Club, Thespian Society, the Senior Play, Octette, Nassau County Chorus, Choir, Varsity Cheerleading, "Kiss Me Kate" "Bye Bye Birdie" and "South Pacific." As the years pass, she won't remember the late, tiring rehearsals or crying over losing our last basketball game of the season; rather she will remember Malverne for giving her the opportunity to sing, study, act, cheer, and work in harmony with her fellow classmates.

ROBIN GERSON

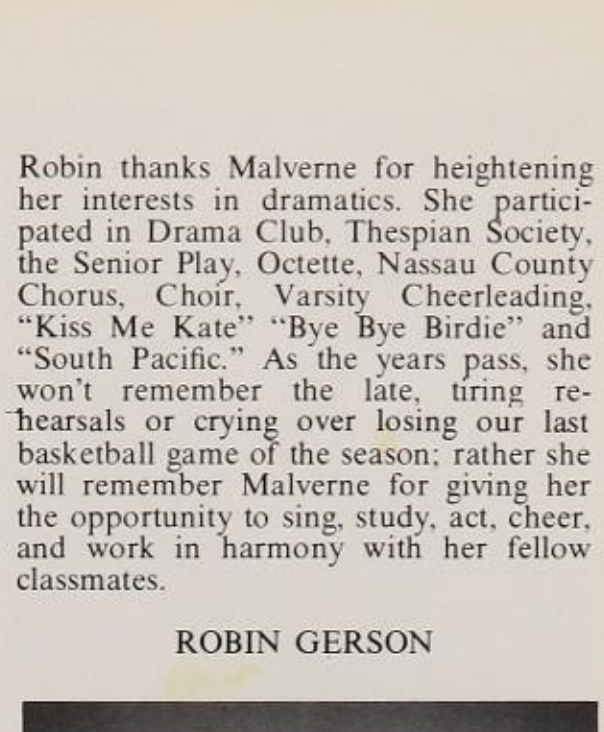
Brian's years at Malverne have been most rewarding. His favorite subject was Retailing, which was taught by Mr. Weinstein. In this wonderful course he learned many things about the world of commerce. Because of a job after school, Brian could not take part in after-school activities. When Brian leaves Malverne, he would like to go into business. He would like to thank all of his teachers for their guidance and understanding.

BRIAN GALLACHER



Cheerleading at 7:45 began Rosemary's day. She also served as secretary of Student Council, president of F.T.A. and feature editor of the Mule. Rosemary feels her greatest moment was her induction into Honor Society. She also participated in Sport Night, Teenage Council, French Club, Student Police, Cadettes and two musicals. Rosemary would like to thank Malverne for the lesson it has taught her: The best way out is always through.

ROSEMARY GELSHENEN



CYNTHIA GILLERSON

Cynthia's school years at Malverne, she feels, have been "swell." The courses she enjoyed most were homemaking, typing and shorthand. Cynthia also attended Westbury Technical and Trade Training Center and studied data processing. Cynthia believes Malverne is a wonderful place to learn understanding of one's classmates. She found Malverne a fine center of learning. Most helpful in the process of growing up, was meeting a lot of people and learning to understand their points of view. To underclass girls: Participate in Sport Night. It is one event you will never forget!

JAMES GIORDANO

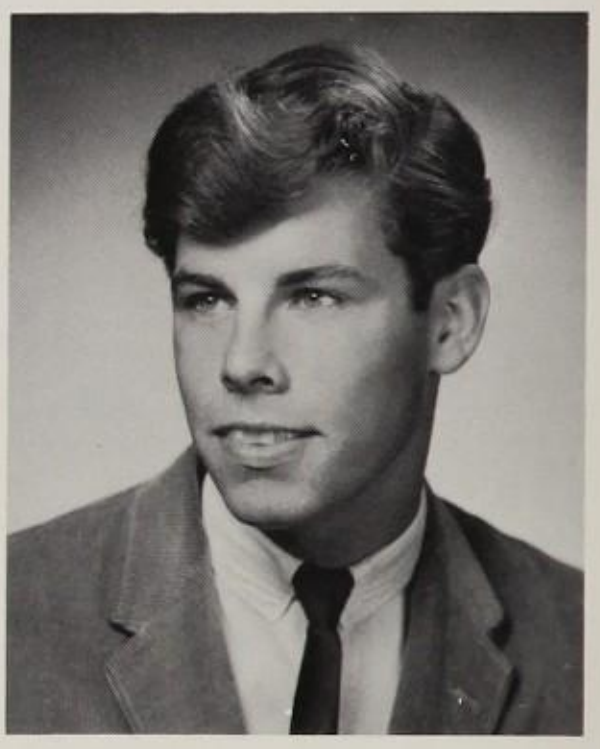
The years Jim has spent at Malverne, have been a truly rewarding experience. Although he was not able to participate in many extracurricular activities, because of a part-time job, he was able to participate in one year of Stage Crew. At Malverne one of his favorite subjects was Auto Mechanics in which Mr. Vogt taught him the fundamentals of cars. He plans to further his education by attending a liberal arts college.

OTIS GLENN

Otis' three years at Malverne were most enjoyable. During those years he participated in basketball and three years of Varsity Football. After graduation, he plans to go to college and study business or physical education. He would also like to thank all is teachers for their guidance, especially Mr. Orta and Mr. Fuge. Otis would like to leave these words to the underclassmen: Have fun, but stick with the books.

Shep is a hard-working member of the Class of '68. His clerking job in a supermarket has kept him from participating in Malverne school activities. However, Shep liked all his subjects and hopes to go for further training in IBM after graduation. In his business subjects, Mr. Weinstein was a great help and Shep wishes to thank him sincerely. Shep hopes to get his IBM training in before entering the Army and service to the nation.

SHEPPARD GONZALES

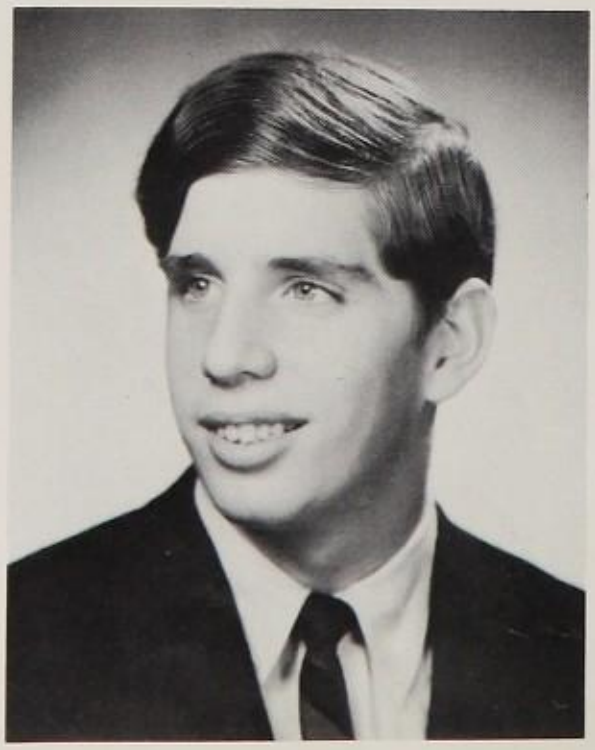


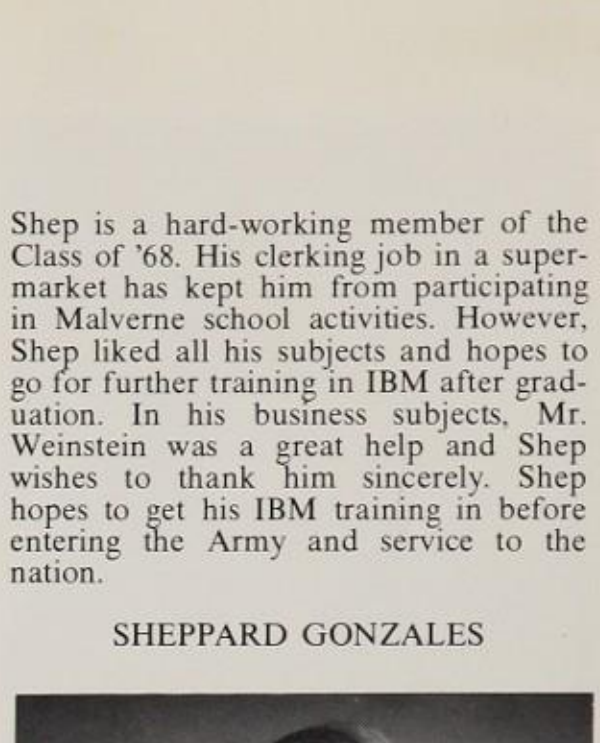
One of Pat's many interests was sports, but because of her part-time job she could not join any school activities. However, Pat loved to cheer the Malverne teams on and took a great interest, too, in girls' sports. Gym was her favorite class. Pat's other interest is nursing, and her future plans are to enter nursing school. After completing school, Pat would like to become a housewife and raise four children.

PATRICIA GIUSTI

Mark's years at Malverne have proved rewarding and enjoyable. He was a member of Student Council, Teenage Council, and Senior Class Council. He participated in J.V. Basketball and J.V. and Varsity Baseball. He was a member of the Biology Club and has written for the Mule. His plans include attending college and later a master's degree in business. An important lesson learned by Mark was: It pays to get along with people.

MARK GOLDSMITH



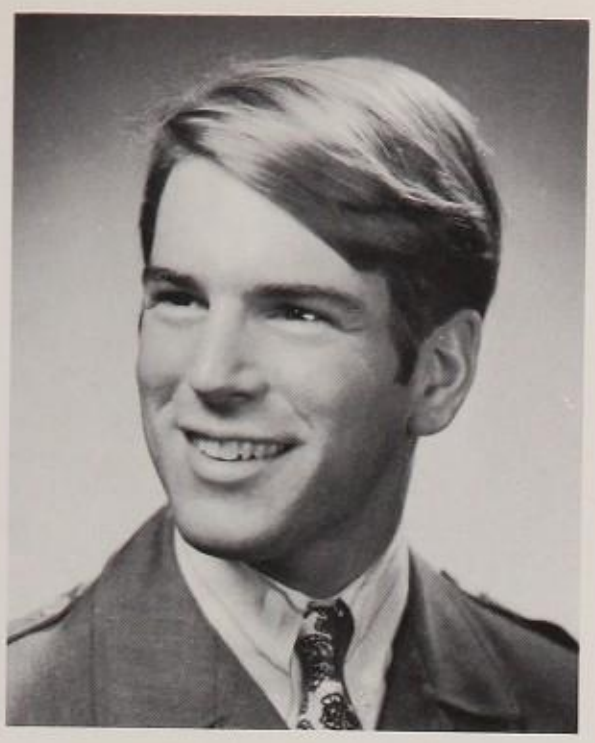


ANITA GREENE

Anita benefited greatly from her Malverne experience. She participated in girls' sports, J.V. and Varsity Cheering, Cadettes, and was an officer of Future Nurses Club. She was also on the make-up committee for Bye Bye Birdie and participated in Orange Sport Night. Anita's deepest aspirations are to attend college and live a happy, successful, and meaningful life. She regrets leaving Malverne, but would like to leave this thought: A worthwhile life is a life of bliss, success, and honesty with oneself.

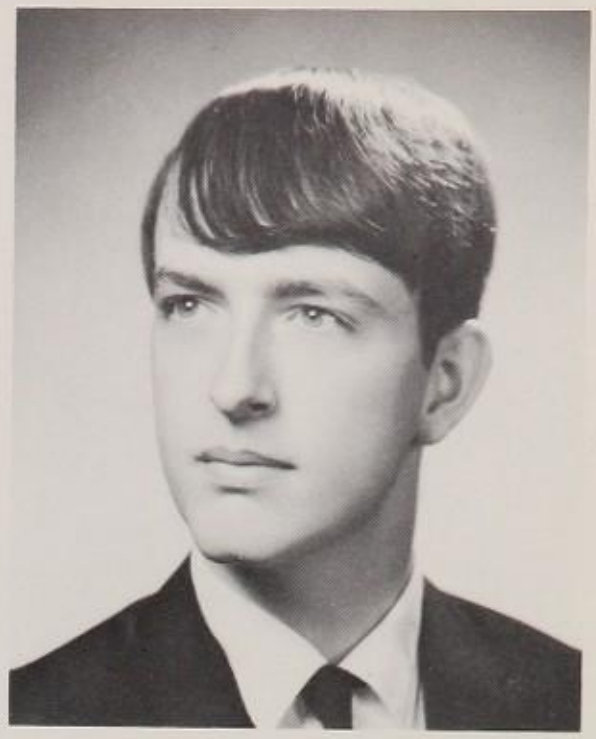
Jay's years at Malverne High School have been a time of athletic and scholastic achievement. He participated in J.V. Baseball for one year, and Varsity Tennis for three years. His future plans include attending college where he will major in European culture. Later, he hopes to put this knowledge to use by teaching World History. Jay would like to thank Mrs. Hvidsten, Mrs. Krefsky, Mr. Rich, and especially Mr. Crehan for their guidance.

JAY GREENSPAN



WILLIAM GUY

Bill's three years at Malverne High have been more than rewarding. Through the help and guidance of the faculty, in particular Mr. Besse, these years have been the most beneficial to him. As a senior he has participated as a member of the Senior Executive Board. After graduation he plans to join the Coast Guard and perhaps apply to the Academy where he will major in political science. Bill's a great guy and faces a successful future in whatever he does.



STEPHEN HALLICK

Steve has taken part in the Malverne Concert and Marching Band throughout his high school years. He also took an interest in helping out with the school social activities. He has written and recorded rock 'n roll songs with a group called THE FIVE. He plans on going to college to get a degree in musical education. Through Mr. Berger and Mr. Schoenberg's influence Steve has decided to keep his future filled with music.

IRA GRUBMAN

Ira's proudest achievements while attending Malverne were election as Student Council president; Malverne High School Bank president, and receiving the lead in the senior play Solid Gold Cadillac. He also enjoyed being in Choir, Teenage Council, Thespian Society, and Drama Club. He would like to thank Mr. Zaccaro for his confidence in him and for helping him through trying moments. To all underclassmen: Get on the stick.

Sylvia's years of high school have been a lot of fun. She participated in Leaders' Club, cheerleading, and worked as a guidance assistant, Inter-Class Night, Sport Night, on the Oracle business staff, as Red Cross representative, recording secretary of the Future Nurses Club, and as a Health Office Assistant. Her activities outside of school included volunteer work at Hillcrest Hospital. After graduation Sylvia plans to attend college.

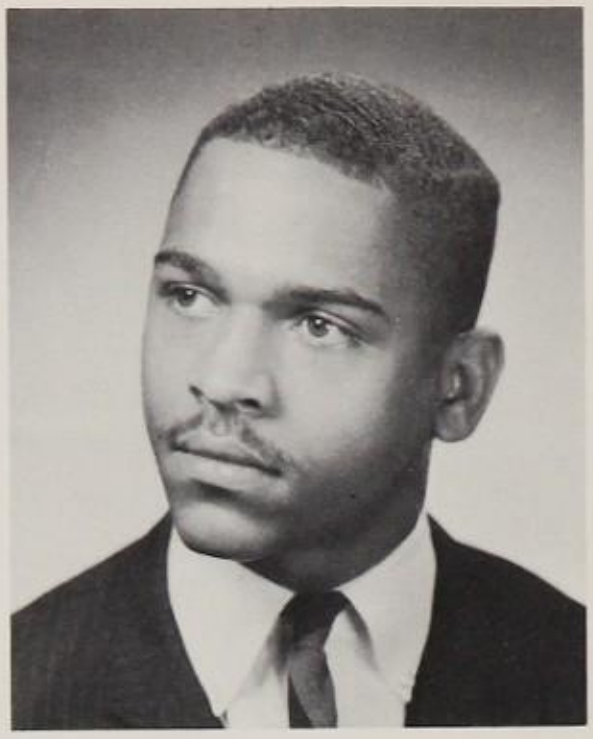
SYLVIA HAGLER

Cheryl came to Malverne during her eighth year of school. She enjoyed school very much, although she has not been able to participate in after-school activities because of a part-time job. Cheryl liked all her subjects and teachers. During her senior year, she attended the Technical and Trade School in Westbury, taking up data processing. Cheryl's advice to underclassmen is to finish school. She is glad she did. Her years at Malverne were happy and rewarding.

CHERYL HARLESTON

COLLETTE HARRIS

Collette's Malverne years have been challenging and memorable ones. The time passed quickly. Working in Drama Club was the most enjoyable and rewarding of her extracurricular activities. Membership in the Debate Club in her sophomore year was brief, but fun. Her future endeavors include attending a liberal arts college, C. W. Post, or Manhattan College, where she will major in either French or English Literature.



KENNETH HARRIS

Ken's years at Malverne have been enjoyable. He thanks the coaching staff of Malverne, especially Mr. Decker, Mr. Orta, Mr. Fuge, and Mr. Gatland. Ken played football, wrestling, and track and won nine letters during three years! During and throughout life, Ken's motto is If we may fall, fall forward. After high school, Ken hopes to go to college or enter the Marines. To underclassmen: Ken philosophizes: Life always gets harder toward the summit. The cold increases, the responsibility increases; and there is never any guarantee of success.

ANDREW HARRISON

Though eagerly awaiting college and hopefully a career in the humanities, Andy leaves Malverne with mixed feelings. Extracurricular activities included: The Mule, Band, the Wrestling Team, tennis, Teenage Council, and a popular rock 'n roll band, The Blades of Grass. Andy would particularly like to thank Miss Anderson, Mrs. Ash, Mr. Crehan, Mrs. Loyd, Miss Pendleton, and Mr. Winzenried for teaching him that academia doesn't have to be dull, and that hard work is important.

Cheryl participated in field hockey as an after-school sport, joined Sport Night, which she enjoyed greatly, and the Homemaking club. Cheryl plans to become a social worker. She feels that this way she can help her people improve their lives. During her high school career, she has discovered that we must make ourselves agreeable to get what we want and to go where we want to go.

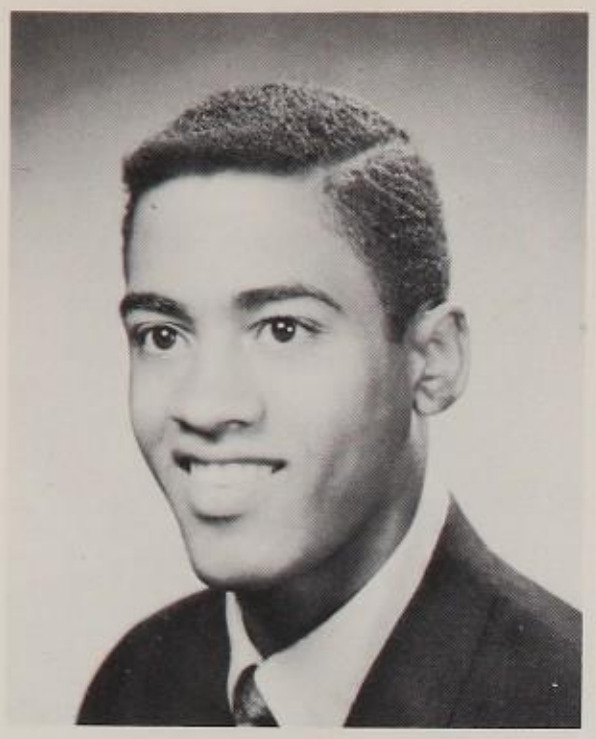
CHERYL HOLMES

As Jim looks back on his years of enlightment, at Malverne, he believes he enjoyed and prospered for them. As a sophomore Jim displayed athletic abilities by participating in Varsity Track, Varsity Football, and wrestling. Jim says his favorite subjects were math and biology. Jim wishes to further his education by attending college next year. He wishes to thank Mrs. Hvidsten, Mr. Savino, and Mr. Johnson for their guidance and encouragement.

JAMES HUBBARD

To Debby, Malverne means wonderful teachers and friendly students. It means an opportunity to get the finest education and to develop strong friendships. It means everything that is worthwhile and good. Debby extends her thanks and love to Malverne. In the words of Shelley: We are as clouds that veil the midnight moon; How restlessly they speed, and gleam, and quiver, Streaking the darkness radiantly.

DEBORAH HUMMEL



ALFRED HUMPHREY

Alfred came to Malverne from Lawrence High School. Here Al's activities were football, basketball, and track. He spent his school mornings at the Westbury Vocational Training Center, studying mechanical technology and computer programming. Alfred's outside activities are listening to jazz and rock 'n roll music. In the future, he plans to enter a vocational college. The teachers who have influenced him in many ways are Mr. Nerrie, Mr. Forman, and his vocational teacher Mr. Larson.

ANTHONY IADANZA

Tony, as his friends know him, has had three great years at Malverne. His years here were highlighted by his being in the musicals, Kiss Me Kate, Bye Bye Birdie, and South Pacific. He would like to thank Mrs. Hvidsten, Mr. Messinger, Mr. Murphy, and Mr. Besse for their help in making his years here great ones. He would like to also thank Mr. Fuge. His future plans consist of attending college and majoring in sociology.

ALPHONSE INNELLA

Al was very proud to participate in Band, Dance Band, and Chess Club. He went to different schools in New York City which did not have any extracurricular activities after school. The activities program is one of the reasons why Al liked Malverne so much. He enjoys music and has a small band of his own in which he plays trumpet. Al plans to go to college and study music.

JAMES JACKSON

The highlights of Jim's school activities were participating in Varsity Football, Basketball, Track and also being chosen captain of the Football Team in both his junior and senior years. Jim wants to thank Mr. Nerrie and Mr. Fuge who inspired him to become a gentleman as well as a competent competitor. Upon graduating, he plans to attend college to further his education. To underclassmen Jim says: Never let a hole in one shoe stop you from walking.

LINDA JAMES

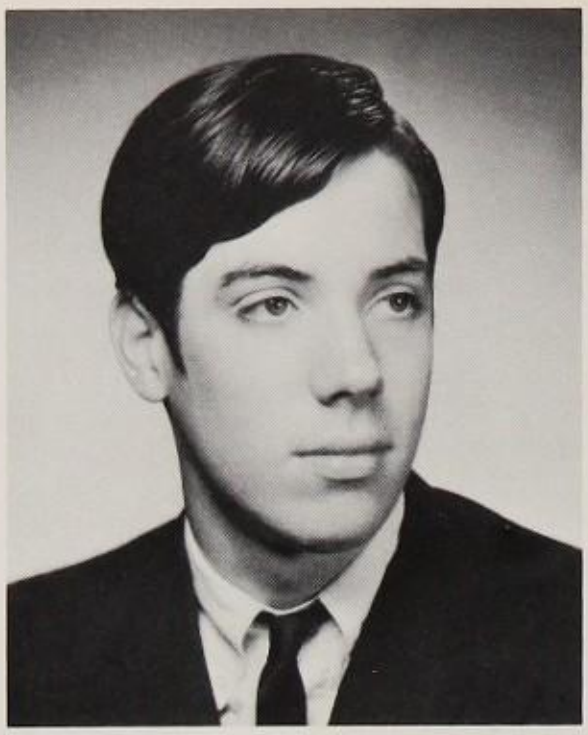
Linda's years at Malverne have been rewarding and enjoyable. She participated in many extracurricular activities: badminton, basketball, Homemaking Club, Nursing Club, volleyball and softball. Linda enjoyed all her courses and co-curricular activities. After graduation Linda plans to go to college. Advice to underclassmen: Stay in school and get a good education because the world outside is full of advantages.

DAYNA JEFFRIES

Dayna has only been in Malverne for a short time, but she has managed to be in Sport Night, and played basketball and volleyball. She has also joined the Homemaking Club. When she leaves Malverne Dayna would like to attend business school for data processing. She would like to thank Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Levitt for their guidance. Malverne has taught her many things including the value of friendship and the importance of education.

Carol came to Malverne in the middle of her sophomore year. Since then, she has participated in many activities associated with music and the theatre. She was in the musical Bye Bye Birdie; she sang in Mr. Zaccaro's Drama Club production; and she was also a contestant in the Kiwanis Talent Show. Being a lover of music, Carol was in Chorus, Choir, and the Guitar Club. Her ambition is to become a French interpreter-translator for the United Nations or the government.

CAROL JOHNSON



KERRY JOHNSON

Kerry's years at Malverne have been enjoyable. Because of an after-school job, he had little time for activities. He, however, was treasurer of the Explorer Post. Kerry plans fo attend college and to major in the fields of math and science. His hobby is electronics; he is an ardent football fan. After college Kerry plans to join the Air Force and become a pilot. He wishes the best of luck to his classmates.

DIANE JONES

In the twelve years Diana has spent in Malverne, she has enjoyed her years in Malverne Senior High most. She participated in Library Council, Homemaking Club, Future Nurses, Sport Night, and intramurals. After graduation Diane plans to continue her education at a dental assistant's school. She wishes to thank Mr. Hollenstein for his interest and encouragement. To the underclassmen: Remember to always strive for the highest things in life.

GAIL JOHNSON

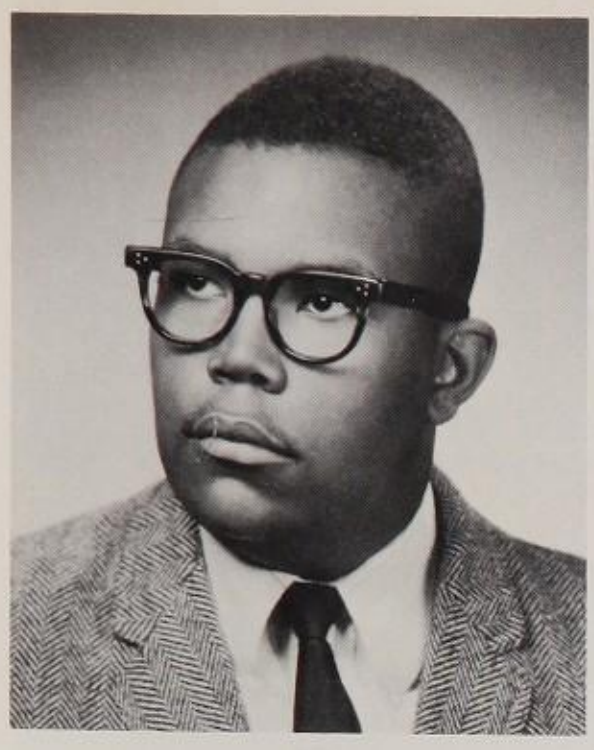
Gail's years at Malverne have been enjoyable and enlightening. She has been a member of Future Nurses Club, Homemaking Club, and Library Council. Her sincerest thanks go to Mrs. Hvidsten for all the help she gave her towards her career as a lab technician. She would like to thank her other teachers for their guidance, also. Gail believes what she learned at Malverne affords her an opportunity for success in the future.

Laura came to Malverne as a 9th grader but left in the first part of her junior year to go to John Adams High School in Jamaica, Queens. She came back just before the end of her junior year. Laura was a member of Homemaking Club and was on the Orange Team in Sport Night. Laura likes English, social studies, and retailing. After she graduates she would like to go to a business school.

LAURA JOHNSON

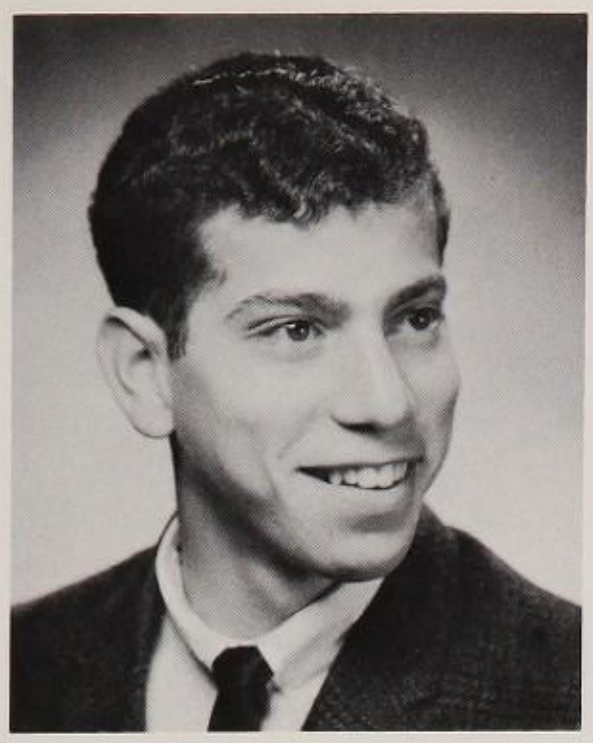
The past three years at Malverne have been three of his most entertaining and educational years. He would like to give special thanks to Mr. Fuge who taught him, as he has other boys on the football team, the importance of mental alertness and responsibility. Upon graduation, Mike plans to attend the Nassau County Police Department Academy. He leaves this thought: Work for yourself; your brother won't make it for you.

MICHAEL JONES



VICTOR JORGENSEN

Known to his friends as Tiny, Victor has enjoyed his years at Malverne. He participated in class activities. He was on the entertainment committee of the Sophomore Dance, Junior Dance, and the Senior Ring Dance. He also participated in Interclass Night, in which he was a cheerleader. Victor was Varsity Basketball manager for three years. Victor's hobbies are dancing and collecting records. He plans to further his education in the field of art.

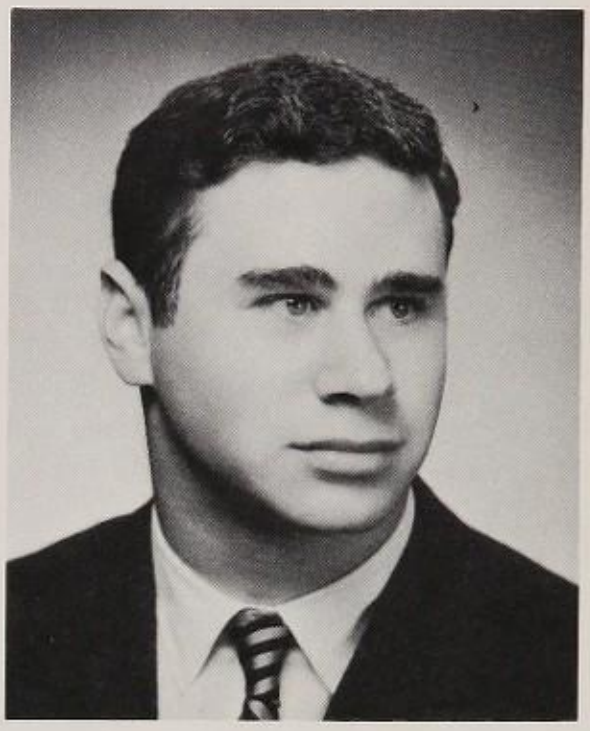


IRA KAY

To Ira, Malverne Senior High School has meant learning in the midst of competition. Whether it was the Honor Society assembly, running for president of French Club, or sweating out Regents' marks, he always seemed to be in the midst of it. However, he could always rely on help from Miss Pendleton, Mr. Holt, or any other of his teachers. Because of this background of competition, Ira is eager to face the challenge of college.

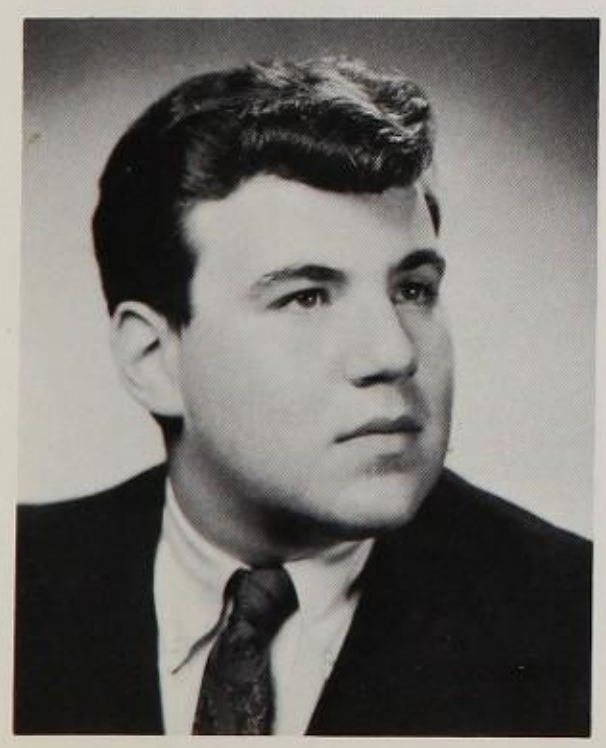
Barry was privileged to be a columnist on the Mule for three years. A proud and gratifying experience was writing the skit for Interclass Night. Barry also enjoyed being on the Baseball and Wrestling Teams, and helping the class of 1967 with their Senior Happening. He would like to thank his parents and teachers, especially Mrs. Hvidsten, Mr. Crehan, and Mr. Winzenried, for their help and guidance throughout his high school years. Barry's future plans include college and a career in writing.

BARRY KIPNIS



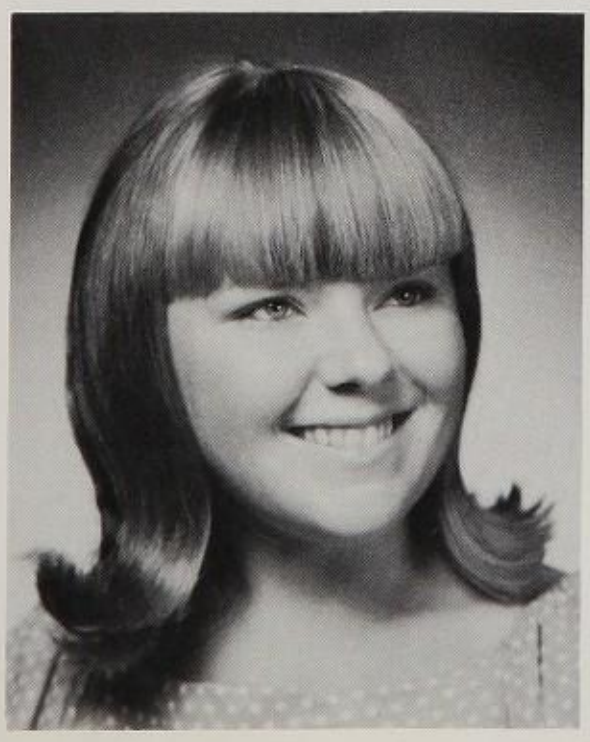
Leonard participated in Debate Club and wrote for the Mule, while at Malverne. Outside of school he enjoyed modern music and wrote modern poetry. Among the many people he wishes to thank are Mr. Crehan and Mr. Murphy. The subjects he enjoyed most were math and social studies. He plans to join the Navy and afterwards study law. He offers this advice to future graduates: The key to success is a positive mental attitude.

LEONARD KATOFSKY



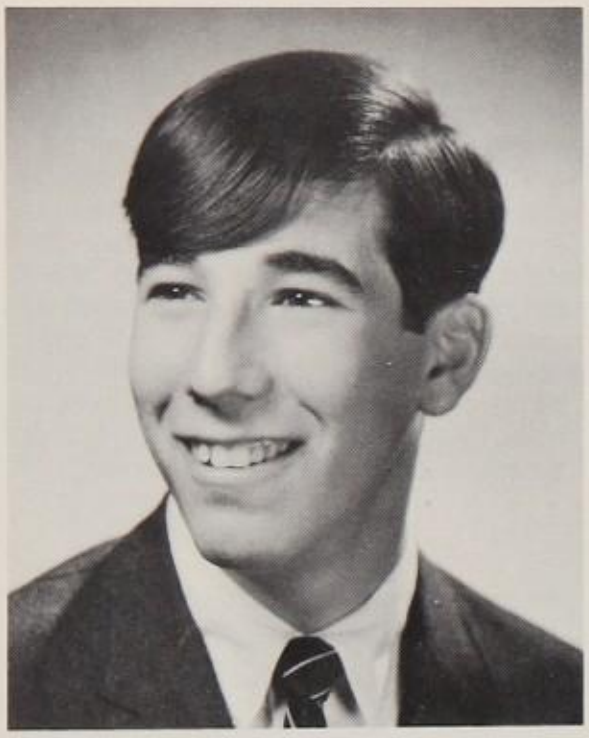
At Malverne Frances has learned the importance of cooperation with classmates and teachers. Participation in Sport Night taught her the value of friendship. From Mr. Wolman and Mr. Johnson she learned the joy of having a teacher as a friend. Frances thanks her classmates for all the memories that they have shared. To underclassmates: The foundation of your future prospect of happiness is formed in school. Be open-minded—let Malverne teach you honesty," cooperation, and respect, so that you can eventually achieve your ideal.

FRANCES KELLIHER



DAVID KIRCHBERG

Dave had many memorable experiences here at Malverne. His part-time job after school limited his extra activities, but he did manage to be a member of the Varsity Bowling Team for three years. Mr. Hill and Mr. Weinstein were especially helpful throughout his high school years. Dave' plans to enter the Air Force after graduation and then move into the field of accounting. He hopes that his talent in mathematics and writing will help in a future career.



EDWARD KRASNOW

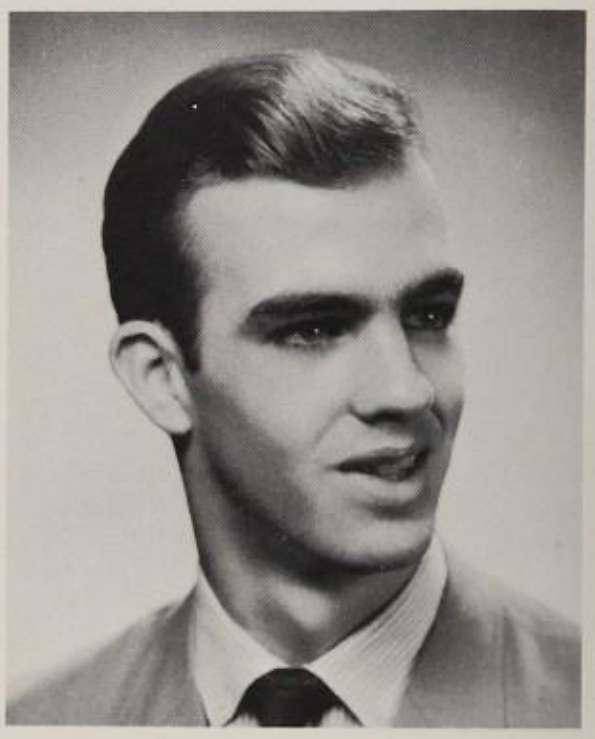
Eddie's activities at Malverne have centered around the class of '68. He served on the Sophomore Class Council and Senior Executive Board. He was also manager of the Magazine Sale. Honored to be chosen Sports Editor of the Mule, Eddie enjoyed this work more than anything. Other activities he took part in were Spanish Club and Intramural Basketball. Eddie also worked hard in building the senior spirit of '68, which has left MHS a better school.

CHARLES LAMB

Chuck found his years at Malverne stimulating and rewarding. Participation in Varsity and JV Football and Baseball and work as Wrestling manager highlighted his school life. He also participated in Interclass Night, Teenage Council, Color Guard, homeroom chairman, and was an active member on class committees. College is his next step in life as he hopes to become a teacher. Chuck would like to thank all his teachers, his parents, and a close friend for inspiring him.

Brian, usually called Cosmo, looks forward to June '68. He was on Stage Crew. All other school activities were curtailed by a part-time job. Cosmo would like to thank and say good-by and good luck to his favorite teachers who helped him so much, and to the rest of the faculty and students. Cosmo's future plans include I.B.M., R.C.A. or the U.S. Army! Life is what you make it and that includes school.

BRIAN LANGAN

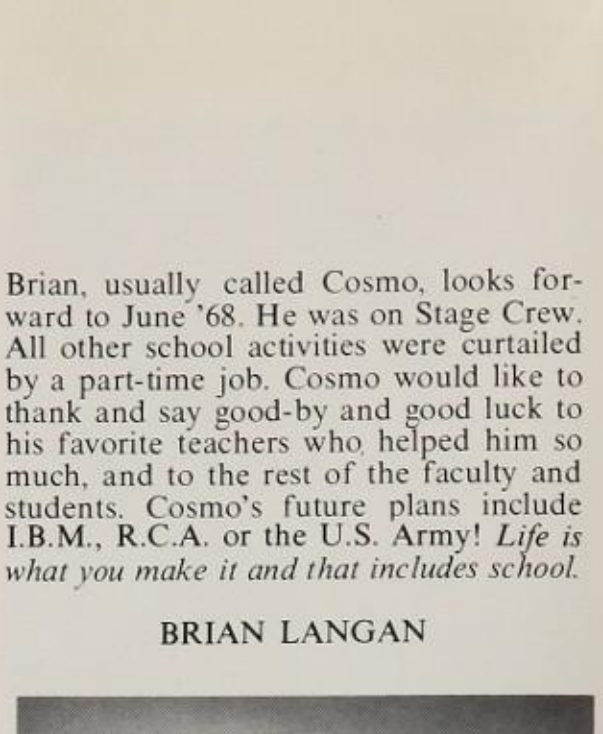


Georgette was an active member of the Class of '68. She participated in badminton, Mule staff, Future Nurses, Homemaking Club, and all Sport Nights. She liked all sports and could often be seen batting the ball around the field or crashing the birdie over the net. Georgette's favorite subject was social studies. She hopes to formulate her future plans and get an interesting job.

GEORGETTE KUSTER

Ferris looks back on his years at Malverne as profitable ones. He participated in Audio-Visual Aids, Math League, and Radio Club. Ferris would like to thank Mr. Rebsamen, Mr. Holt, and Mr. Hill for giving him the encouragement to plan his future career in engineering. He would also like to express his appreciation to the rest of the faculty and the Guidance Department for the assistance they have given him. Ferris looks forward to a successful future.

FERRIS LANDER



KENNETH LEEDS

Kenny played on the Tennis and Track Teams, joined the Spanish, and Debate Clubs, and the Editorial Staff of the Mule. He has worked hard for his class. His future plans consist of college and a study of international law. Ken has spent several summers studying in both colleges and preparatory schools. His interests include reading, writing, debating, and listening to recordings. Ken has had a great deal of fun at M.H.S.

Cecile has had many enjoyable years at Malverne. She would like to thank Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Levitt, and Mrs. Hinkel for their understanding and help. Her future plans consist of being a private or legal secretary. Ceil, as her friends call her, has always found Socrate's philosophy particularly inspiring. She would like to pass his philosophy on to her fellow students: Ask questions and don't take anything for granted.

CECILE LETE

BOBARA LILES

As a member of Library Council, Student Police, Cadettes, and Teenage Council, Bobara learned the true meaning of helping and gaining the respect of others. She especially enjoyed being a Junior Varsity Cheerleader and Mulettes. Fond are the memories of Sport Night Orange team and Interclass Night '66. School clubs and a job working with children were stepping stones toward her goal as a elementary school teacher. Bobara advises: The door to success is opened with the key of knowledge.

JOAN LIPTON

The years spent at Malverne will hold many memories for Joanie. Throughout her active participation in Drama Club, Student Police, the senior play, the Oracle business staff, and various clubs, her motto has been Good things come in small packages. Joanie's years at Malverne have been the most rewarding in her life. She looks forward to the years ahead. Give of yourself and you will be surprized how much you will get in return.

GARY LEVITT

Rise and Shine . . . 8:30 . . . The ringling, tingling of the BELLS, BELLS, BELLS, . . . Mule articles due . . . Dance Band . . . Attention all Library Council members . . . Announcements, Announcements . . . National Honor Society . . . Student Police . . . All right you physicists . . . Take a lap . . . Junior League, Sunday . . . Read the minutes . . . Teenage Council . . . State University at Potsdam . . . Inter-District Band . . . Math Tests . . . MHS . . . To Sleep, perchance to dream—of a future.

Malverne has given Lorraine a background necessary to achieve greater goals in life. She participated in the Mule, F.T.A., Drama Club, Student Police, and represented Malverne on a Hi-Fashion Board at Abraham and Straus. These activities gave her leadership and a place within our society. Lorraine would like to express her appreciation to all her teachers for their guidance. Her future plans are to attend college and major in elementary education.

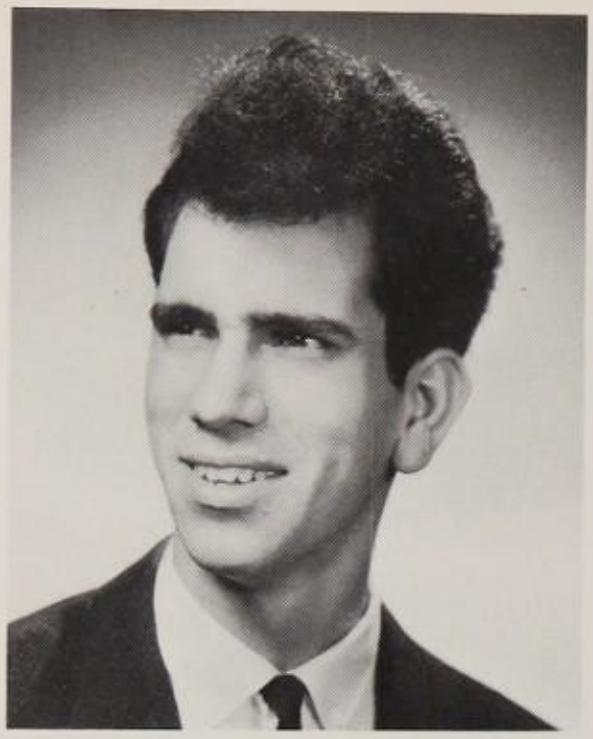
LORRAINE LINDEN

Stephanie enjoyed being a student of Malverne. She was active in Cadettes, Red Cross, Future Teachers, Spanish Club, and also played on the Honor Volleyball Team. Stephanie feels that she cannot give special credit to one teacher, because they all have been influential and inspiring. Stephanie believes that Malverne has offered her a sense of pride and also has been rewarding for future years.

STEPHANIE LLOYD

JAMES LOCKWOOD

James came to Malverne in 1966 from Alabama. He likes MHS and feels he has learned a lot because his teachers took an interest in helping him, especially Mr. Fontana and Mr. Besse. Jim's plans for the future are to continue to study. He is interested in law, mechanics, radio and television repair, woodcraft, and science. Jim thanks his friends and teachers for two wonderful years at Malverne. He wishes the best of luck to his classmates.



VINCENT LOJAC

Vinny was a top notch Stage Crew member for the three years he attended Malverne High. He thanks Miss Grote for her excellent training in stage work. Vinny couldn't indulge his interest in sports because of an after-school job at Pulver & Chase Service Station. Here, however, he could indulge his interest in cars and mechanics. Vincent's immediate future is all planned. He has already joined the Air Force and reports for service in July.

RENEE LOMAX

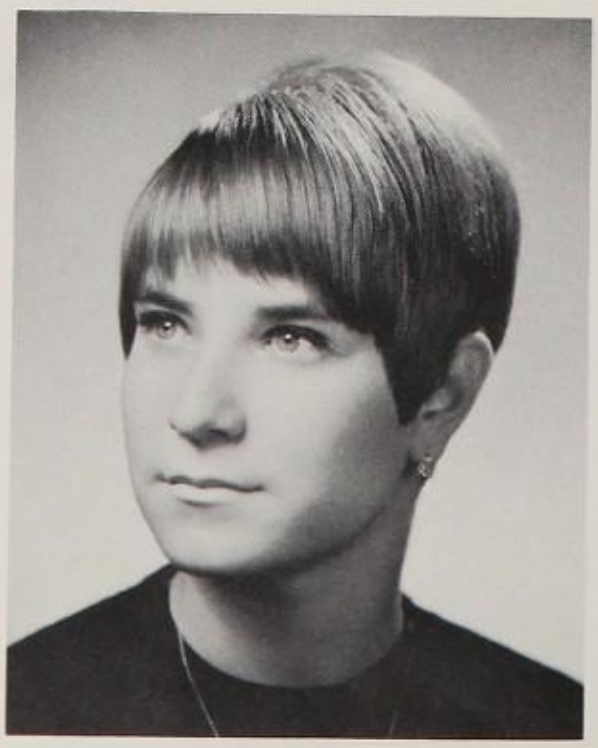
Renee's years at Malverne have been most enjoyable and rewarding. Her greatest honors were being chosen a Sport Night cheerleader and a homeroom president. Renee's other activities were Cadettes, Future Teachers of America, and various intramural sports. She would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Mr. Dye for being the "best dressed" teacher in Malverne. Renee plans to attend college after graduation, and pursue a career in art education.

Phil has enjoyed his years at Malverne. His most fulfilling experience was with the Drama Club. He also worked in "The Solid Gold Cadillac." As one of the managers of the Magazine Sale, he handled over eight thousand dollars for the class treasury. Varsity Tennis and Teenage Council also occupied much of his time. Phil would like to express his gratitude to Mr. Besse and Mr. Zaccaro for their thoughtful guidance and friendship.

PHILIP LONDON

Ruth Ellen has had many happy years at Malverne. Some of her memorable activities included being chosen sophomore representative and cheerleader for Sport Night, four years of cheering, Student Council representative, Future Teachers of America, Spanish Club, make-up for Kiss Me Kate and Bye Bye Birdie. Ruth Ellen would especially like to thank Mr. Savino and Mr. Dye for all their help, patience, encouragement, and guidance. Ruth Ellen plans a career in physical therapy.

RUTH ELLEN LORD

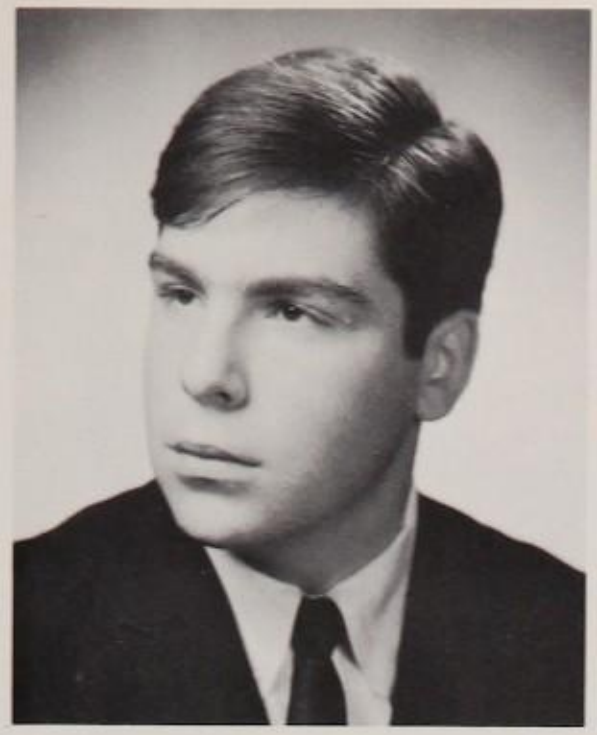


The years Ilene has spent in Malverne have played an important part in her future plans. Seeking a business career, she has taken such courses as typing, office practice, Shorthand I, bookkeeping, and business arithmetic. She would like to thank Mrs. Levitt for her help and guidance. Ilene enjoyed the once-a-week bowling games that she participated in for three years. She also found working in the guidance office both a rewarding and enjoyable experience.

ILENE LUBING

PATRICIA LUCAS

Pat's three years at Malverne have been most exceptional. She participated in girls' Sport Night, badminton, hockey, volleyball, Future Nurses, Homemaking, Future Teachers Club, and Cadettes. During these past three years, she has learned what knowledge really means and wishes to thank everyone here for inspiring her in her work. Pat plans to enter Howard University and major in the field of art and design, or secretarial business.



STEVEN MACK

Steve's years at Malverne have been rewarding. He was an active member of Audio-Visual Aids and the Bowling Team. His outside activities have consisted of many part-time jobs and a steady job as a general worker in a factory during the summer months. In the future, he plans to attend a local college. Steve wishes to take this opportunity to thank his teachers and classmates for making his years at Malverne a memorable experience.

HELENE MAGARIK

In the words of Omar Khayyam:
Then of Thee in Me who works behind
The Veil, I lifted up my Hands to find
A Lamp amid the Darkness; and heard,
As from Without—"The Me within Thee Blind!"
Then to the Lip of this poor earthen Urn
I lean'd, the Secret of my Life to learn:
And Lip to Lip it murmur'd—"While you live
Drink!—for once dead you never shall return."

Ilsa is her nickname. She was a Varsity Cheerleader. Ilsa enjoyed many sports such as basketball, football, baseball, and others. Horseback riding, ice-skating, and swimming were her outside activities. She is talented in music. She plays the organ, sings, majors in the violin and is able to learn another instrument in a couple of weeks. Her future plans are to become a missionary or continue in music.

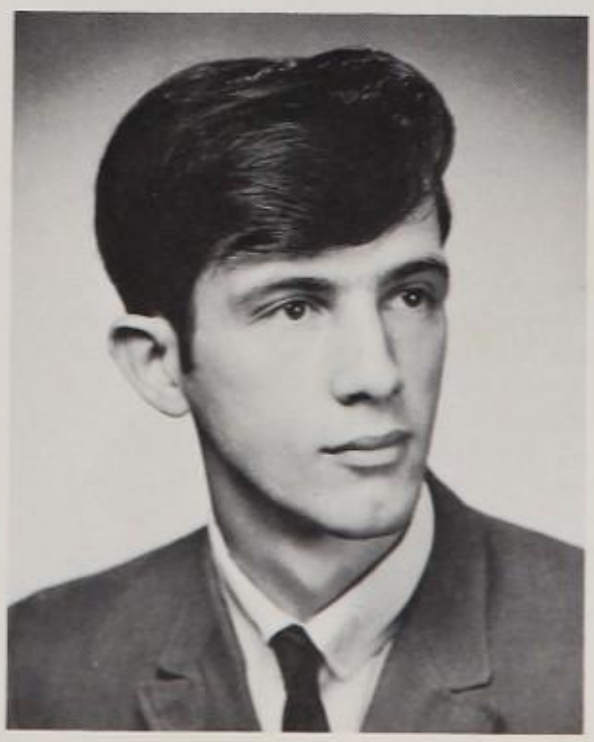
HIRLSA MALDONADO

Memorable best describes Barbara's years at Malverne. Because of a part-time job, she was unable to participate in many after-school activities, but she did join the make-up committee for Kiss Me Kate. After taking two years of a college course and two years of business, she intends to continue in the field of business. Following graduation, Barbara plans to go to a business school and then hopes to work in an airport.

BARBARA MANNING

Anthony is a real car enthusiast and anything that pertains to cars always catches his eye. He is always tinkering around automobiles and never is happier than when he is upside down in an engine, covered with grease and oil, or behind the wheel! Having a part-time job after school kept him from joining any school activities. Anthony's future plans are to attend Farmingdale Tech and become a draftsman, hopefully in the auto industry.

ANTHONY MARCHIONNE



Malverne has been enlightening and enjoyable for Barbara. She has participated in badminton, bowling, and Future Teachers of America. Sport Night has also left her many fond memories and helped make high school a truly rewarding experience. Barbara enjoyed her activities and worked hard on her studies. After graduation Barbara plans to further her education and become a successful teacher. She gives the underclassmen a word of advice: If you don't have confidence in yourself, who will?

BARBARA MARSH

MARGUERITE MASCIELLO

Marguerite found her years at Malverne enjoyable. Mainly interested in a business course, Marge limited her activities in sports. Her future plans are to attend a business secretarial college and afterwards work as a secretary. Marguerite has learned much at Malverne and leaves some good advice to the underclassmen: You have to work hard in Malverne, or any school, in order to reach your specific goal. Things won't come to you from the air.

ELIZABETH MATTHEWS

A volleyball enthusiast, Elizabeth liked all Malverne sports. She participated in Sport Nights and was a cheering spectator at many sports events. Clerking at A & S part-time kept her busy after school. However, she still found time for parties and singing, Elizabeth's favorite hobby. Elizabeth likes all music in which she can see a point. She hopes to attend a trade school and study office machine operation, aiming for a job as an operator someday.

ROY MARTIN

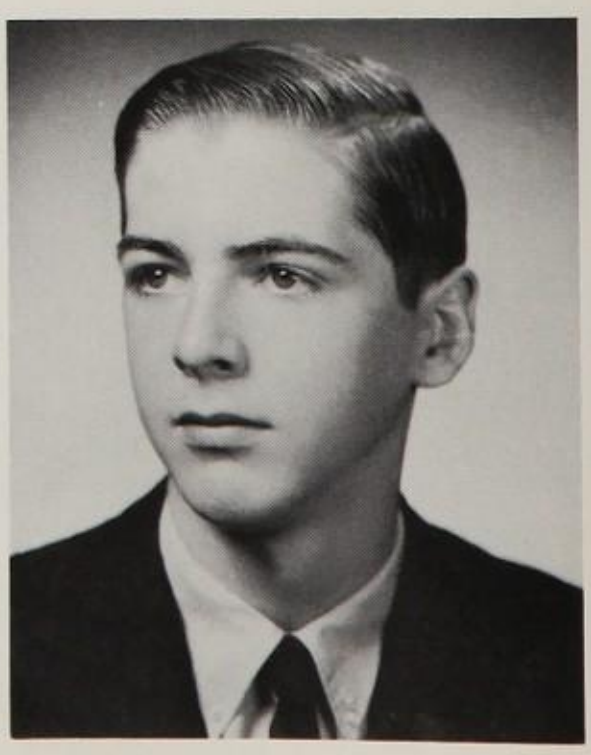
Memorable and rewarding describes Roy's years at Malverne. Having learned that education is the only possible means in which to obtain success, he endeavored never to forget each fun-filled and rewarding moment. He enjoyed very much participating in Varsity Football and serving as homeroom chairman. Roy plans to continue his education with all certainty of achieving his goal in life. To underclassmen: The doors of success are only opened by keys of education.

Deborah will long remember her years at Malverne, for they have been rewarding and fruitful. The experience she obtained will greatly help her in her future life. She participated in Student Police, Library Council, and ushered at the school plays. Her future plans include college and teaching secondary mathematics. She would like to thank the teachers of Malverne and her parents for encouraging her to continue her education.

DEBORAH MASON

After spending two years in a parochial school in Brooklyn, Tom came to Malverne in December of 1966. During his two years in Brooklyn, Tom managed the J.V. Basketball Team, was on the Dance Committee, and was a member of the Sophomore Sodality. He also participated in intramural athletics. Since Tom spent his time after school working after he came to Malverne, he was not able to participate in extracurricular activities, although he was a prominent member of the Breakfast Club. Tom would like to thank all his teachers at Malverne for their help and assistance.

THOMAS McDONALD



IRA MEISTRICH

Ira supposes that the most interesting thing of his years at Malverne was his association with some of the people he got to know. Also, being a contributing editor for the Mule gave him some frantic moments. His active participation in Chess Club was the bane of everyone else there. Ira enjoys writing, but hopes to pursue a career in archaeology. He poses this thought: A beacon would not shine in light.

MICHAEL MINEO

Michael's years at Malverne have been enjoyable and rewarding. He was on the football Team in his sophomore, junior, and senior years and on the Baseball Team in his sophomore and junior years. In addition to participating in athletics, Michael has served on Student Police for two years. He would like to thank his teachers for their help. After graduation he plans to further his education in the field of science and mathematics.

Darleen enjoyed working in Kiss Me Kate, Bye Bye Birdie, and South Pacific. She would like to thank Mrs. Hvidsten, Mr. Savino, Mr. Besse, and Mr. Hanson for making her years at Malverne memorable ones. She gives special thanks to Mr. Messinger for showing her the theater as something more than entertainment. To the underclassmen she leaves these words: Our species is the only creative species, and it has only one creative instrument, the individual mind and spirit of man.

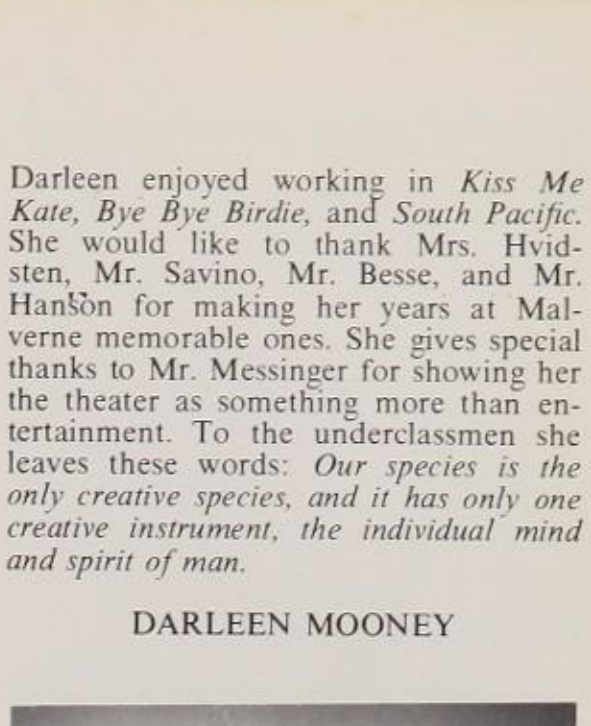
DARLEEN MOONEY

Judy's after-school activities were limited because she held a part-time job. She did join Sport Night and also was on the make-up committee for the musical Kiss Me Kate. After graduation, Judy plans to attend an airline training school, and secure a position in that field. She would like to thank all her teachers for their help and patience. She would like to extend her special thanks to Mr. Pasquerella for his friendship, guidance, and understanding.

JUDITH MELE

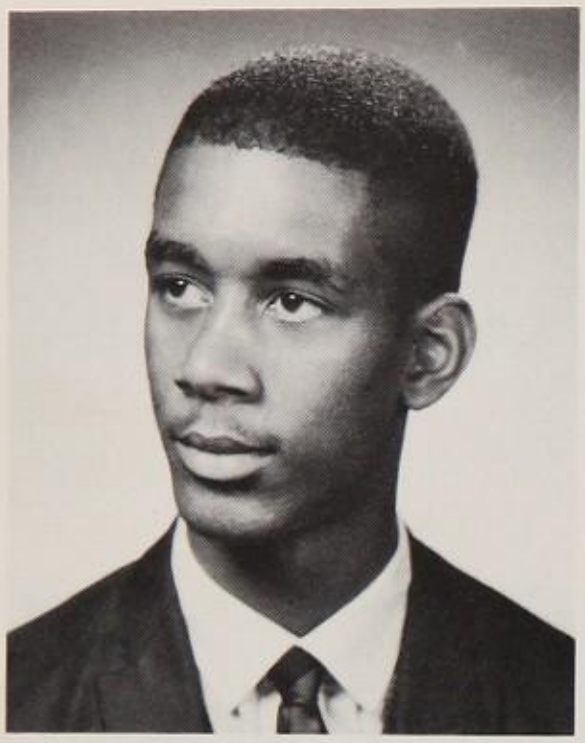
Michelle previously attended Brighton High School in Boston, where she participated in French Club. As a new addition to the Malverne senior class of 1968, she did not really have enough time to know Malverne High School or her fellow students very well. Her future plans are in the dress designing field. Whether she will attend Rhode Island School of Design or receive her schooling in Paris, she hopes she will be a big smash in the fashion world.

MICHELLE MONTGOMERY



MADELINE MORAN

Madeline's years at Malverne have been happy and rewarding. She particularly enjoyed participating in Sport Night and was also active in Cadettes, F.T.A., volleyball, tennis, badminton, and table tennis. Madeline would like to take this opportunity to thank all her teachers for their help and guidance, especially Mrs. Hinkel. Madeline will always remember the class of '68 for their warm friendship. After graduation, she plans to attend a business school or a two-year college.



PARRIS MORGAN

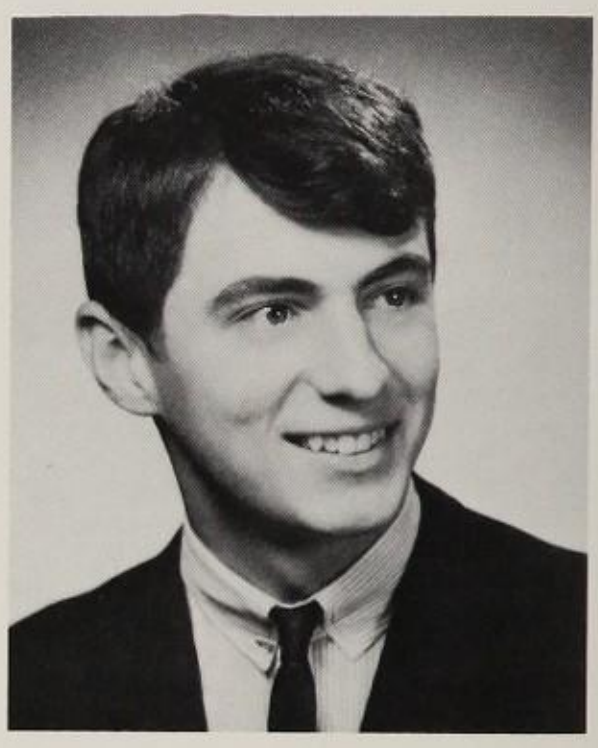
Parris' years at Malverne have been full and richly rewarding. He participated in wrestling, Interclass Night, sang in the A Cappella Choir, and played for the Malverne Band. Parris found Malverne lively. Malverne was always on the move. Parris plans to further his education in college. To the underclassmen he leaves a suggestion: Don't just go through Malverne; let Malverne go through you.

FERDINAND MOTLEY

Fred has enjoyed his years at Malverne. He participated in Band, Dance Band, and served as a member of Teenage Council. His various outside activities were his church basketball team and rock 'n roll group The Blades of Grass. Fred's most memorable experiences at Malverne were having the class of '68 win Interclass Night as sophomores and being selected for Interdistrict Band. Fred would like to thank Mr. Besse, Mr. Savino, Mr. Fuge and Mr. Berger for making Malverne a memorable experience.

Bill's last years at Malverne have been the most satisfying and rewarding of his high school career. Most of his main interests have centered around sports both inside and out of school. He played for Malverne's Baseball team through all his four years. His thanks go to Mr. Decker for his coaching and assistance throughout the season. In the future, Bill plans to further his education by attending a liberal arts college.

WILLIAM MUDRY

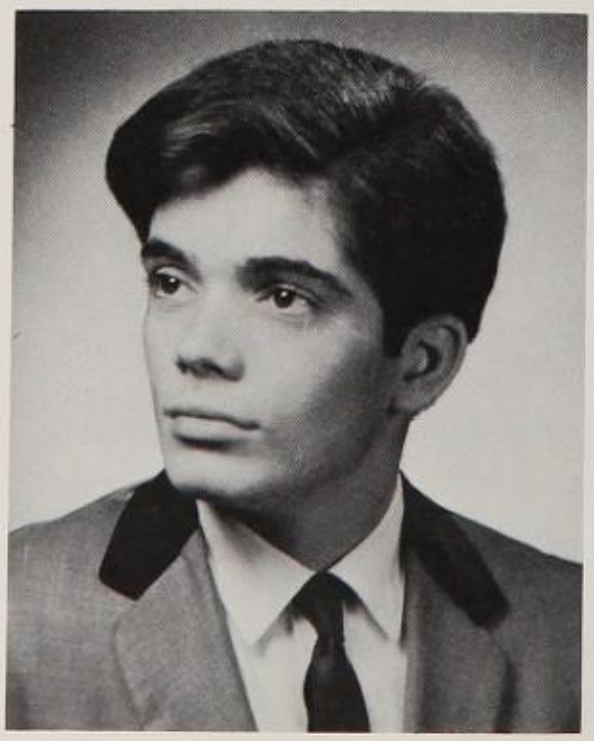


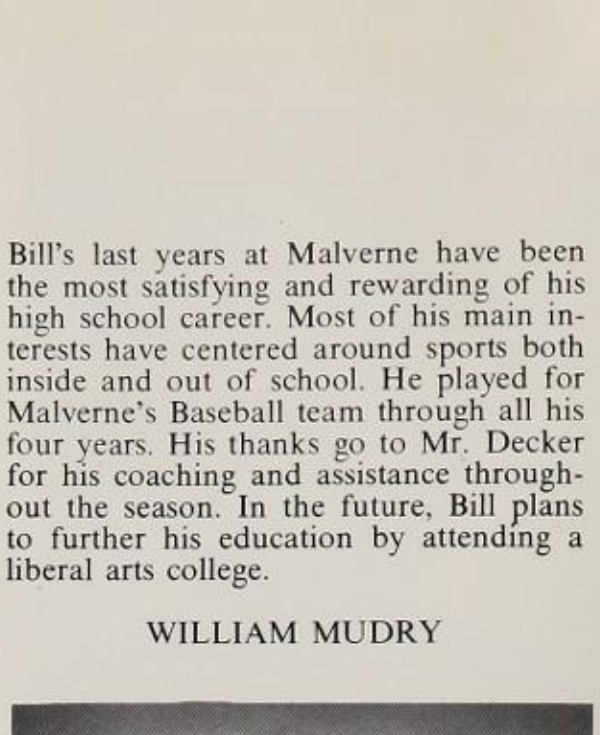
Benni Sue will always hold dear those persons and experiences which enhanced and enriched her years at Malverne. Such highlights as Sport Night, Interclass Night, Cadettes, Red Cross, J.V. Cheering, and the Senior Executive Board are wonderful memories. Her post graduate plans include majoring in education at New York University, after which she intends to pursue a career in musical composition and choreography.

BENNI SUE MORRISON

James limited his activities except for Stage Crew. He enjoys participating in sports, but never seemed to get around to joining any Malverne teams. Jim would like to see more school spirit at Malverne and is noted for contributing his efforts toward that direction. He thanks his parents for urging him to get the most out of life and hopes someday to learn the truth of their advice. James enjoyed his science courses most of all; he found English difficult, but learned in spite of himself.

JAMES MOYLES



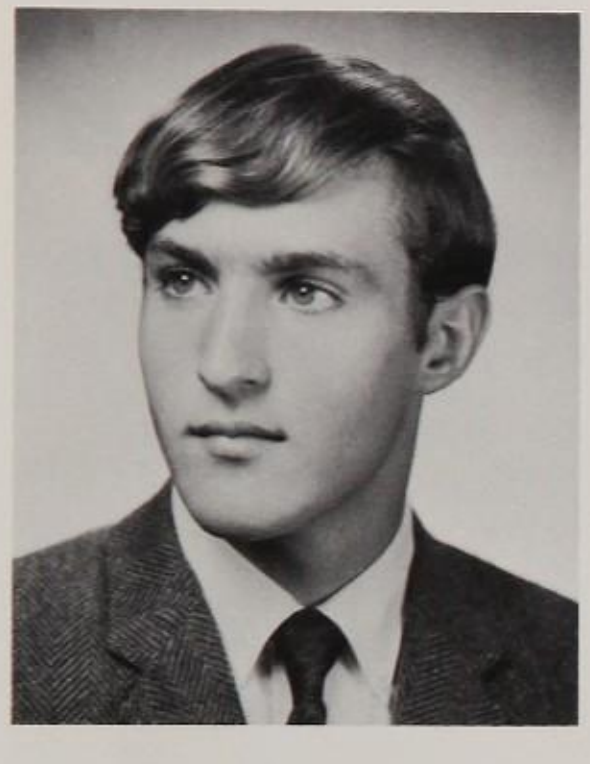


ROSEMARY MURRAY

During her years at Malverne, Rosemary participated in Sport Night '66 and Future Nurses Club. She also sang in Chorus and Choir and was on Oracle business staff for three years. Her biggest thrills were having roles in the MHS productions of Bye Bye Birdie and South Pacific. For the immediate future, Rosemary plans to become a childcare technician, with future hopes of becoming an airline stewardess. She wishes to thank all her teachers, especially Mr. Hollenstein, for their patience and understanding.

Nap believes that if you want to get something out of school, you have to put something into it. As a result, he has participated in many extracurricular activities. Nap is proud to have been a Varsity letter holder in Cross Country and Track. The highlight of high school came when he was elected Student Council treasurer. Nap will long remember his varied experiences while in school and hopes to have learned something from them.

ROBERT NAPOLITANO



KONG NG

In his years at Malverne, Kong has been active. His activities included the Math Team, Concert and Dance Bands, Teenage Council, Class Council, and the Track Team. The highlights of his years at Malverne are his induction into Honor Society and the election to Student Council as vice-president. The Science Department has inspired him the most. With the help of Mrs. Hvidsten, Mr. Duffy, and Mr. Hill, he hopes to be a physicist.

INGRID ORTENREITER

Looking back over her years at Malverne, Ingrid can recall numerous memorable and happy times. She enjoyed Drama Club, FTA, Student Police, Oracle business staff, Senior Executive Board, and other activities. Ingrid appreciated the help and understanding given her by Mr. Duffy. She also wishes to thank Mr. Zaccaro. Plans for the future include college with teaching in mind. To underclassmen a quotation from Thoreau: Men are born to succeed—not to fail.

CATHY ANN NEILSON

Cathy participated in Spanish Club, Future Nurses Club, and various sports. Cathy is also active in church work, especially with children. Upon leaving Malverne, Cathy hopes to study for a medical career. She would like to thank her family; her minister, Martin Geehan; and all her teachers and friends for their help and encouragement. To the underclassmen Cathy would like to say: I hope that your years at Malverne will be as happy and rewarding as mine.

During her years in Malverne, Audrey participated in girls' intramurals and has been a member of Future Teachers of America, Nurses Club, Homemaking Club, and Cadettes. In the future she plans to attend the Berkley Business School to become a medical secretary. Her favorite teacher was Mr. Besse, her social studies teacher, who always takes a genuine interest in his students and their problems.

AUDREY NIPPER

During his years at MHS, Bruce developed a liking for gym, mechanical drawing, and auto mechanics. Outside of school his interest lies in the area of mechanics and cars. He also enjoys weight lifting. During his senior year, Bruce held an after-school job. His activities were limited, therefore, but Bruce managed to be a vital member of the class of '68 even so. After graduation he plans to attend college or enter the Armed Forces and serve his country.

BRUCE PALMER

LEIGH PANSINI

Leigh's years at Malverne were fun. Some of her activities included: secretary-treasurer of her homeroom, Future Teachers of America, Chorus, and secretary of Choir. The highlight of her sophomore and junior years was participating in Kiss Me Kate and Bye Bye Birdie. She thanks all her teachers for their guidance and understanding. Leigh will remember Malverne for all the wonderful friendships she has made and will never forget her years here.

JACQUELINE PANZARELLA

Always ready to participate, Jackie's years at Malverne were filled with many activities. She was a member of FTA, executive board, business and art staff of the Oracle, Student Police, office assistant, and Teenage Council. Jackie was also active in Sport Night. In her senior year she was elected homeroom president. She was the high dollar awards winner in the 1967 Magazine Drive! Jackie plans to attend college and make occupational therapy her career.

MARJORIE PETERSON

Margie's years at Malverne have gone by fast. Her interests are in art; she likes painting and drawing, and homemaking; she enjoys cooking and sewing. Margie would like to see more school spirit at Malverne. When a school does not have spirit, it is missing out on a lot. Margie's plans for the future are getting married and having a meaningful life. Her advice to classmates is Be happy and live your life to the fullest.

BETTY PLATT

Betty has spent three enjoyable years in Malverne High. She participated in Volleyball Honor Team in her sophomore year, and has also been a member of the Homemaking Club for three years. Betty's plans, after she leaves Malverne, are to go out into the business world. Her advice to underclassmen: You have to take both the good and the bad in life to reach your goal, so stick with it and try hard and you'll reach that goal.

DAVID POLLOCK

David spent an enjoyable three years at MHS, but he is eagerly looking forward to going to college and pursuing his interest in engineering. David's greatest honors while at Malverne were being named a National Merit Scholarship semi-finalist and attending a National Science Foundation summer program. During the senior year, his most important activities were Student Police, Library Council, Mule staff, and participation in the senior play, The Solid Gold Cadillac.

DAVID PORTER

Cross Country, Drama Club, Mule, Student Council, Student Police, Teenage Council, track, and tutoring were among David's activities. He was awarded a letter in track and inducted into the Thespian and National Honor Societies. Dave recalls lines from a poem by Stephen Crane which sum up his philosophy: I saw a man pursuing the horizon . . ./ "It is futile," I said/ "You lie," he cried, and ran on.

LAJANA POWELL

LaJana enjoyed her three years at Malverne, and most of all her senior year, because there was so much to do. Also she has been in the Homemaking Club for three years, participated in a number of sports, especially volleyball and basketball. The most enjoyable thing that Lajana really liked was the two years she was in Sport Night, working together with so many different girls for about four whole weeks including Saturdays! It was all great fun! She would like to thank Mr. Besse and Mr. Zaccaro for inspiration and friendship.

ELIZABETH PRICE

Elizabeth will always remember her years at Malverne as part of the happiest time in her life. She enjoyed being a member of Future Teachers of America, Red Cross, Student Council, French Club, Cadettes, and the Oracle business staff. She also participated in Sport Night and several girls' sports. She would like to thank Mr. Hill for making physics as much fun as she hoped it would be. After graduation she plans to continue her education in college. During her life, she hopes to see as much of the world as possible.

MARY ANN PRIOLO

During her years in MHS, Mary Ann has had much fun being in Sport Night on Orange Team for two years. She urges everyone to try out for the musicals. Participating in Bye Bye Birdie as Ursula and in the musical South Pacific, were the highlights of her school years. Choir was another of her after-school activities. Mary Ann plans to be a secretary when she is graduated from Malverne. She looks forward to working in the fascinating world of business.

PATRICIA RAIRDEN

Pat has attended the Malverne schools since kindergarten. Her favorite courses in school have been art and history. In the future she hopes to attend an art and design school. After she has finished training, she would like to become a fashion designer. Pat's favorite teachers are Mr. Besse, Mr. Crehan, and Mr. Pasquerella. Pat's advice: Plenty of people miss their share of happiness, not because they didn't find it, but because they didn't stop to enjoy it.

BRUCE RAYNOR

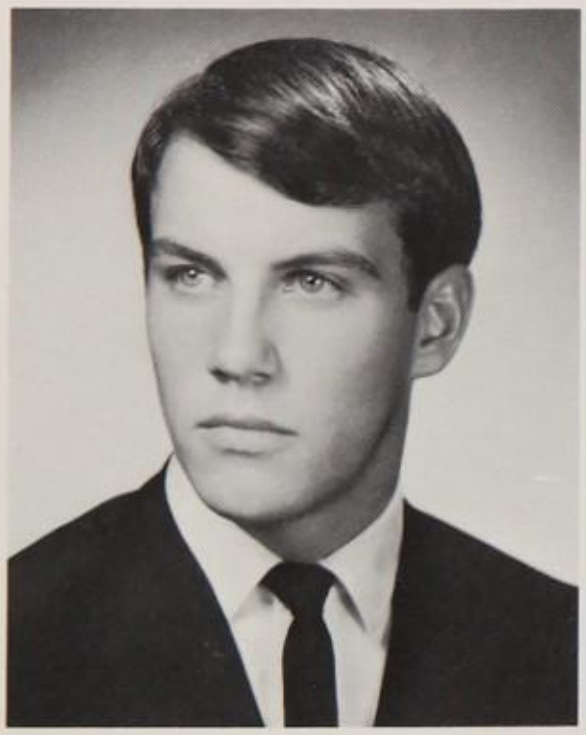
In his years at MHS Bruce learned much, in and outside the classroom. He learned how to get along with many different types of people. Most important of his activities were four years of track and writing for the Mule. He would like to give special thanks to Mr. Zaccaro whose teaching and guidance will never be forgotten. Bruce's motto in life is: Little things affect little minds.

ELLEN REA

Ellen's years at Malverne have proved to be memorable ones. She was a member of Cadettes. Because of an after-school job she could not participate in extracurricular activities. After she graduates she plans to enter the field of fashion design. Ellen wishes to thank Miss Grote for all her advice and help in art. To underclassmen: Don't judge others harshly, for one day you'll be judged also.

John's years at Malverne have been enjoyable. He regrets that they have gone by too fast. He has been an active member of the Cross Country Team for two years. He has also participated on the Track Team for two years. After graduation John plans to continue his education at college. His primary interests are in the field of forestry and conservation. John wishes to thank Mr. Morgan who taught him the importance of teamwork and sportsmanship.

JOHN RENAGHAN



MITCHEL RHODES

Mitchel's years at Malverne have been fun and educational. He has participated in wrestling and J.V. and Varsity Football. The class he enjoyed most was Industrial Arts, but at one time or another, he has enjoyed all his classes. After leaving Malverne, he plans to further his education in college. He would like to thank all the teachers and friends for all the enjoyable moments at Malverne. Mitchel plans to work hard for a successful future.

SHARON RIDDICK

Sharon's three years in Malverne have been great! And she hates to see the year end. She would like to thank Mr. Zaccaro for all the help he has given her in social studies, and the other problems she has had. Sharon participated in Homemaking Club, and Sport Night, and many other school activities. After Sharon finishes high school, she plans to go to a business school.

DENISE RESPOL

During her years at Malverne, Denise has found her studies stimulating and inspiring. She especially liked her business courses and tried to excel in all aspects of the world of commerce. Denise also liked social studies and gym classes, as well as other subjects. She wishes to thank her teachers for making her high school years so enjoyable. She participated in Sport Night and found it very rewarding. She plans to go to business after graduating.

During her years at Malverne, Jennifer has learned many useful things that will be helpful to her in later life. She is thankful to Malverne for enabling her to mature mentally and academically. Her future plans include college and afterwards teaching abroad. Jennifer enjoyed all her courses and found a natural interest in all things she studied. She liked to read and feels all students should learn to apply themselves to their lessons with enthusiasm and hard work.

JENNIFER RICHARDSON

Vernon liked Malverne because he learned a lot. Some classes he found easy and some he found difficult. Vernon liked his teachers and made many friends. In sports he played football, basketball, baseball, and track. Vernon was a member of the Football Team and hopes to enter Kansas State. He thanks Mr. Fuge for his helping hand in learning school work and sportsmanship. Vernon's memories of Malverne are happy ones and he wishes his classmates the best of luck.

VERNON RIGGINS

LOIS RIGHTMYER

The past few years at Malverne have been enjoyable for Lois and have gone by quickly. She participated in Cadettes, Chorus, Choir, and Future Teachers of America, and also worked on the Oracle business staff. Every year she looked forward to Sport Night. All of Lois' activities proved rewarding and fun. But the best thing about Malverne, she feels, is all the friends she made. Lois' future plans include college, with a major in languages.

ROBERT ROARKE

Robert's years at Malverne were enjoyable ones. Although a part-time job prevented him from entering into extracurricular activities, he was able to participate in the J.V. Football Team in his sophomore year. He hopes to attend Farmingdale University majoring in electronics, after he graduates at the end of this year. Robert would like to thank all his teachers and advisers, especially Mr. Byrne, for helping him through the years.

Earnestine has enjoyed her three years at Malverne. She thanks all of her teachers for their help and guidance. She participated in: Honor Team Basketball, Softball, Volleyball and Sport Night, and Homemaking Club for three years. Her plans after graduation are to go to Browne's Business School for I.B.M. training and then to the Francis' Beauty School. To the underclassmen, she says: Hold your head up high until you make that goal.

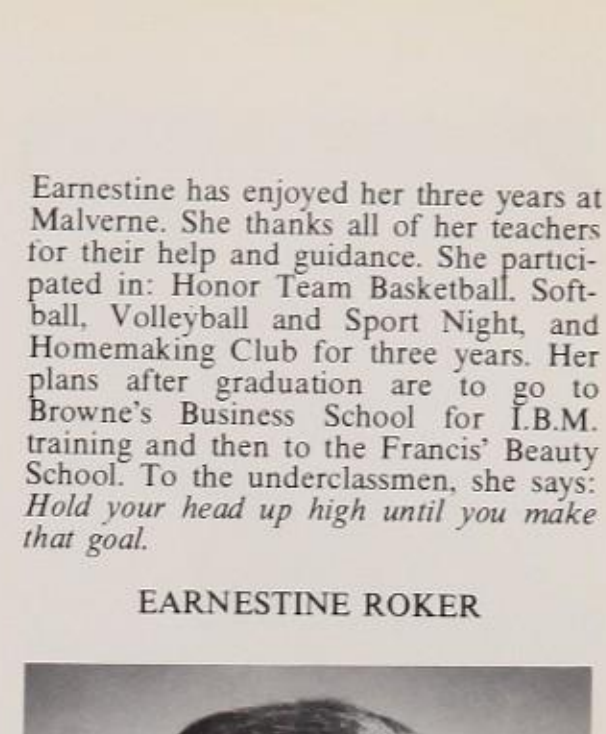
EARNESTINE ROKER

Hattie came to Malverne in 1965 in her sophomore year. She enjoyed her two and a half years here and hates to leave. Hattie says her teachers have done so much for her that when she leaves she doesn't know what she will do without them! They have really been great, especially Mr. Zaccaro. Hattie participated in Homemaking Club for two years and enjoyed every moment of it. The subject she liked best was English. In the future Hattie plans to enter modeling school.

HATTIE RIVERS

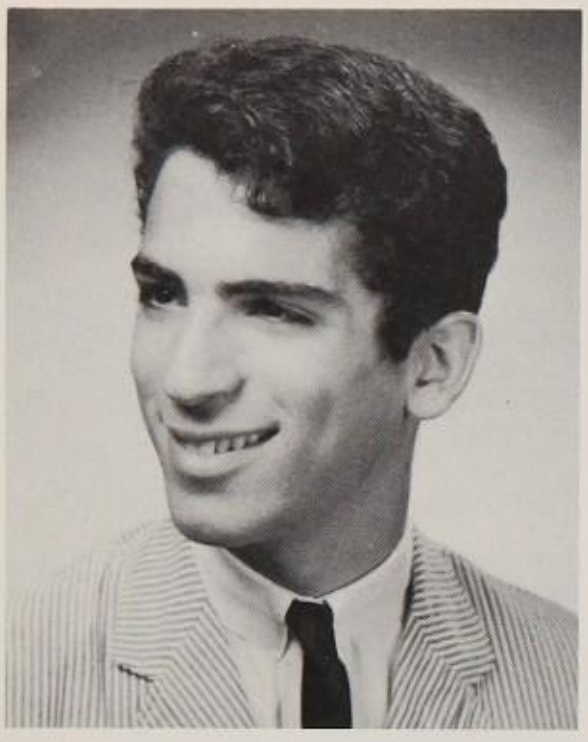
Vernon really had a good time during his stay at Malverne High. In his three years he has played J.V. Basketball for one year, and in 1966 was a member of the League Championship Team and went on to make Varsity in his senior year. His band, The Atlantics, really enjoyed performing at occasions such as Senior Madness and many other affairs of the school. He leaves this thought to the underclassmen: Only a fool drops out of school.

VERNON ROBINSON



EDWARD ROSENBERG

Eddie's years in Malverne must be rated as the best of his life. He worked on Student Police, Teenage Council, Audio-Visual Aids, class functions such as Inter-Class Night, and various dances and parties. His greatest honor was being appointed business manager of the '67 successful magazine sale. This year he is looking forward to working on the senior play. After graduation he plans to attend college to study electrical engineering.



ERIC ROSS

Rick has not had much time for extra-activities because of an after-school job and various outside activities, but he has found time for Guitar Club and Debate Club. He also performed in the Class of '67 show last year. His main interest is fold music. Rick plans to continue his education in college and possibly become a teacher. Greatly influenced by Mr. Crehan, he wants to study and possibly teach political science on a college level.

ROSE SABIN

Rose wants to thank all her teachers at Malverne. She worked in the Mule Shop in her Senior year, which gave her experience in the field of selling. School activities were limited due to the fact that she worked after school. Rose would especially like to thank Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Levitt, and Mr. Weinstein for all their patience and guidance. Upon graduation Rose would like to enter the business world.

Dear Class of '69
Friendship we have Keep in touch.
Rose D.

Denise enjoyed her years at Malverne. She plans to attend business college. She would like to thank Mrs. Levitt for a rewarding and pleasurable year. Due to an injury, Denise could not participate in sports, however, she contributed to Malverne High School by working in the nurse's office, and Guidance Department. Denise says to the class of '69: The best is not good enough; there's always room for improvement.

DENISE SAVASTANO

Manny has enjoyed his years at Malverne. He participated in Bye Bye Birdie and worked for a part in South Pacific. Although he did not go out for any sports, he did attend most of the football and basketball games. As a senior, Manny was elected homeroom president. Manny would like to thank Mrs. Hvidsten and Mr. Murphy for their help. After high school he plans on going either to college or to the Navy.

MANUEL RUIZ

After graduation, Arthur plans to attend a college on Long Island in preparation for a career in business. As a member of Stage Crew for two years, he learned many new and valuable skills. Arthur also wishes to thank his teachers for their help and patience during his years at Malverne High School. Arthur's advice to the underclassmen: Prepare for the future. Set your goals high. Then reach them.

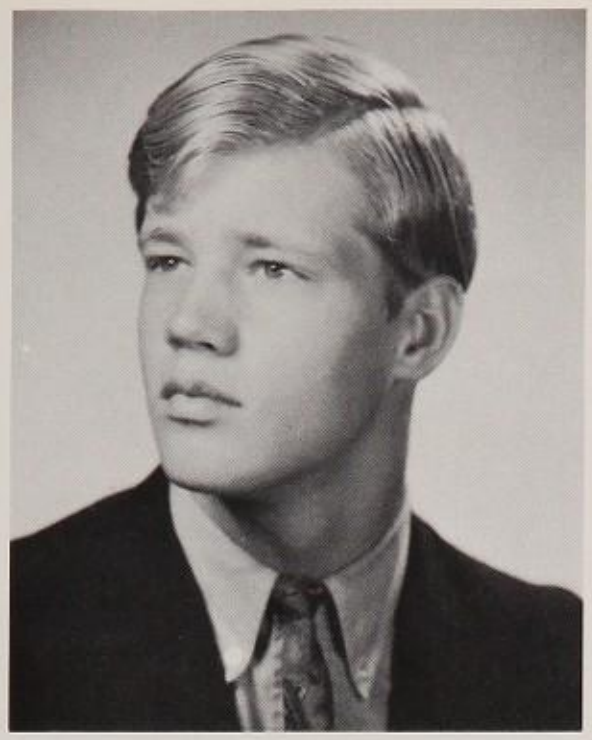
ARTHUR SARACINO

JAMES SAVINO

His years at Malverne High have proved to be active and profitable. He participated in baseball and Varsity Bowling in his sophomore and junior years and was homeroom chairman and Red Cross representative. He would like to thank Mr. Besse, especially for his patience and understanding. James feels that his high school years have provided a strong educational foundation and have prepared him for his future scholastic endeavors.

Chris has enjoyed her years at Malverne, participating in the Band and Sport Night. Among her other activities were Nursing Club, treasurer of her class, and Red Cross representative. Chris' future plans are to go on to nursing school and continue in that field. She would especially like to thank Mr. Berger for all his help and guidance through the years. Her only advice to the underclassmen is make the most of the coming years.

CHRISTINE SAYD



NEAL SCHUERMANN

Neal attended Malverne for two and a half years, and in that time he has met many interesting people. He would like especially to thank Mr. Besse and Mrs. Poe for their help and interest. Activities included Stage Crew, Public Address, and Audio-Visual. Neal would like to say Good Luck to the class of '68.

THOMAS SHAW

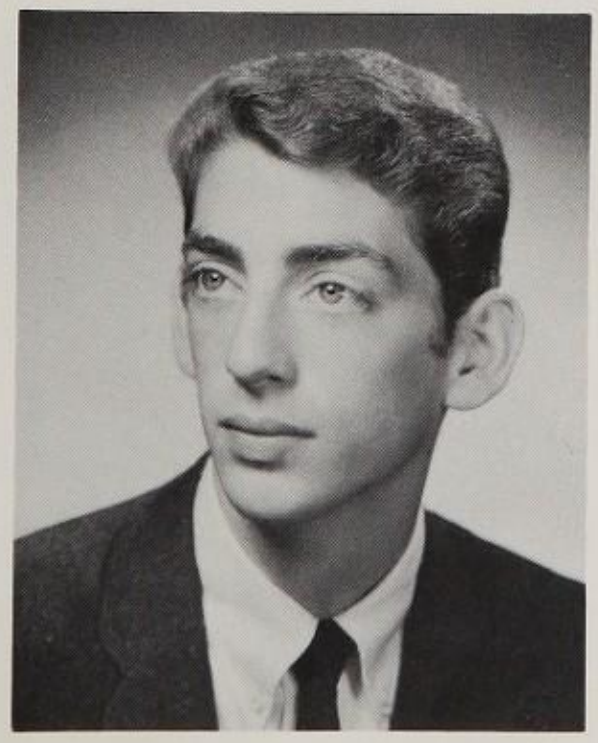
In his three years in Malverne, Thomas has experienced both the good and the difficult of high school. Tom played baseball for three years. After his graduation, he plans to attend IBM training school and make a career of programming. The biggest highlight of Tom's schooling was his graduation! He is deeply grateful to Mr. Nerrie for keeping him in shape and guiding him in his school work. Tom now realizes it is smart to work hard in order to do well from the start.

ILENE SCHAPIRO

Ilene's years at Malverne have been very eventful, busy, and challenging. She has served as a member of Student Police, Teenage Council, and the Senior Executive Board. Ilene has participated in Sport Night and Interclass Night. Outside of school Ilene has been active in B'nai B'rith Girls Youth Group, and has taken several art courses. Her future plans include attending a university to pursue a liberal arts-engineering study program.

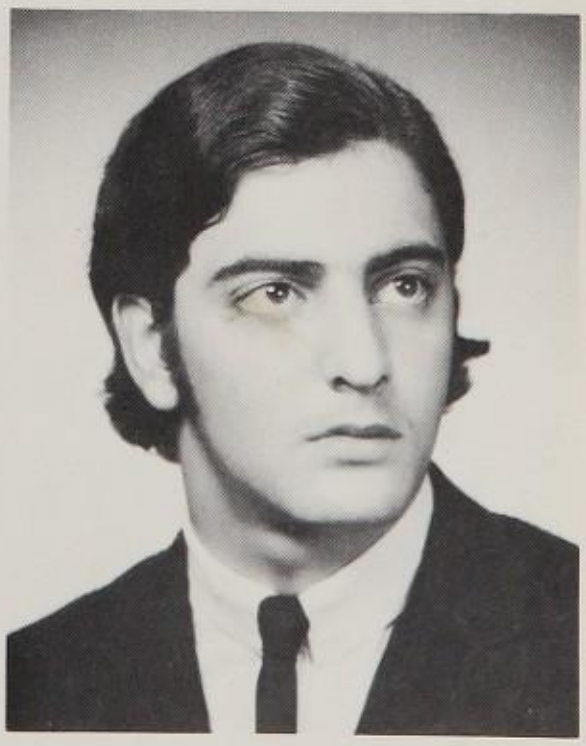
Bob's years at Malverne have been rewarding as well as enjoyable. During these years, he participated on the Varsity Tennis Team, and the Sophomore Class Council. His other activities included working on the financial committee for the Magazine Sale, Spanish Club, and Intramural Basketball. Bob enjoyed his classes and extracurricular activities. He feels he learned much at Malverne. After graduation Bob plans to attend college.

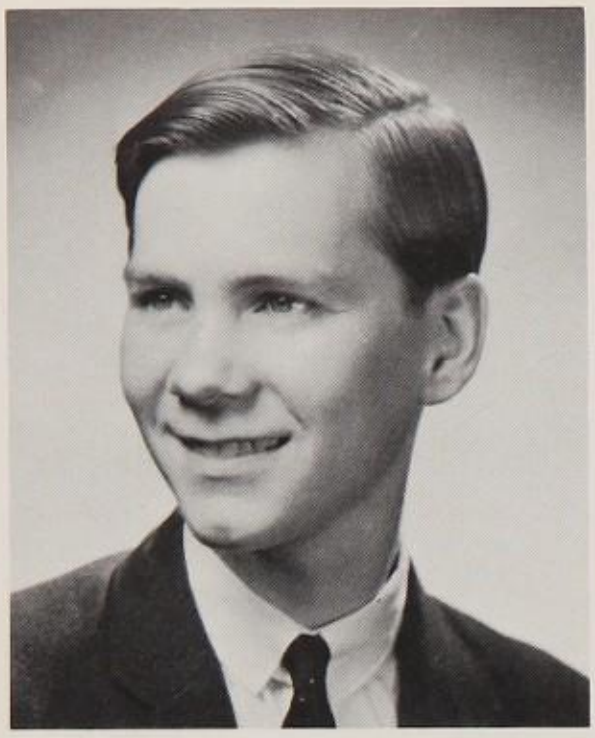
ROBERT SHAW



Eddie has attended Malverne High School for the past four years. Because of a part-time job, he has had little time for extra school activities. His immediate plans for the future are a job and more study. After graduation you may find him continuing his studies but also working at a full-time job. Ed plans to continue his education by attending a technical school specializing in mechanics.

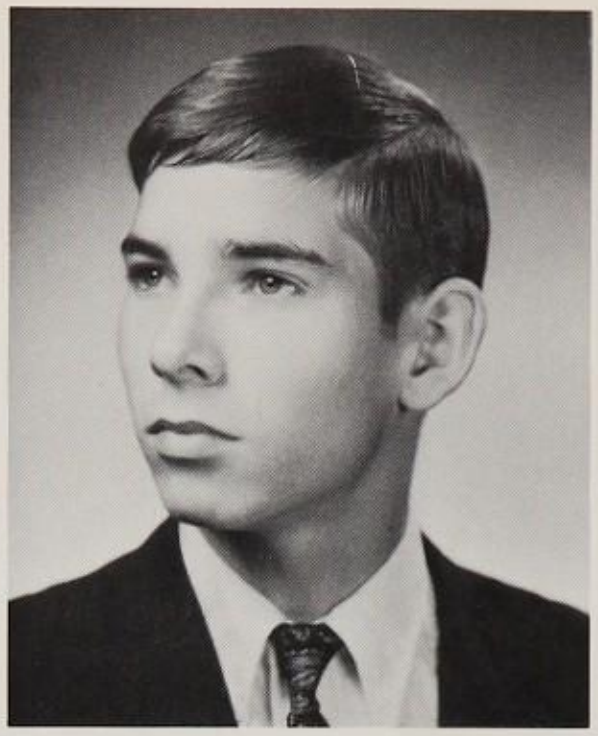
EDWARD SILVESTRI





GEORGE SIMMONS

George's first year in Malverne was the ninth grade. Before that he spent his school days at Our Lady of Peace in Lynbrook. In tenth grade he started to attend the Westbury Technical Trade Training Center of Nassau County. His favorite courses at Malverne were mechanical drafting and machine shop which included math, electricity, programming, and design. Cross country and track were his sports interests. As captain of his teams, George delighted in Malverne's victory in the state championship in 1965.



RICHARD SIMMONS

Realizing that his days at Malverne are closing, Richard finds himself without the seemingly ambivalent emotions of such a large majority of students—those emotions which have produced so many paradoxical Oracle statements in the past. Wishing to sum up his feelings of Malverne as clearly as possible (if somewhat wordily), Richard would quote Bob Dylan: I'm ready to go anywhere. I'm for fade into my own parade. Cast your dancing spell my way. I promise to go under it.

GWENDOLYN SLACK

Gwenn, enjoyed high school. She enjoyed participating in Homemaking Club, Future Teachers Club, Inter-Class Night, and Sport Night. Gwenn would also like to extend her appreciation to her teachers and her class adviser Mr. Besse. Her future ambition is to become a home-economics teacher. She offers this quotation to her fellow students: A Man's reach should exceed his grasp; or what's a heaven for?

WINIFRED SMITH

Winnie would like to say that her years in Malverne have been most rewarding. She came from Jamaica, where the school system was completely different. Winnie wants to thank all her teachers who took time out to help her. She hopes to continue her education, and go to college, and major in mathematics. She would like to thank Mr. Hollenstein who helped her come to this conclusion. She participated in Sport Night, Nursing Club, Inter-Class Night, and Future Teachers of America. To the underclassmen: The golden door is opened to any one who knocks.

LINDA SOBEL

Linda's years at Malverne have been greatly rewarding. She has been in many clubs and activities. An outside job has helped to provide a good financial start for Linda. She plans to attend college, where she will major in medicine, hoping to become a pediatrician. She believes that only by mingling with others can one fully understand their problems. Her advice is to forever try and never be satisfied, for satisfaction is the ruination of invention.

WENDY SOMAN

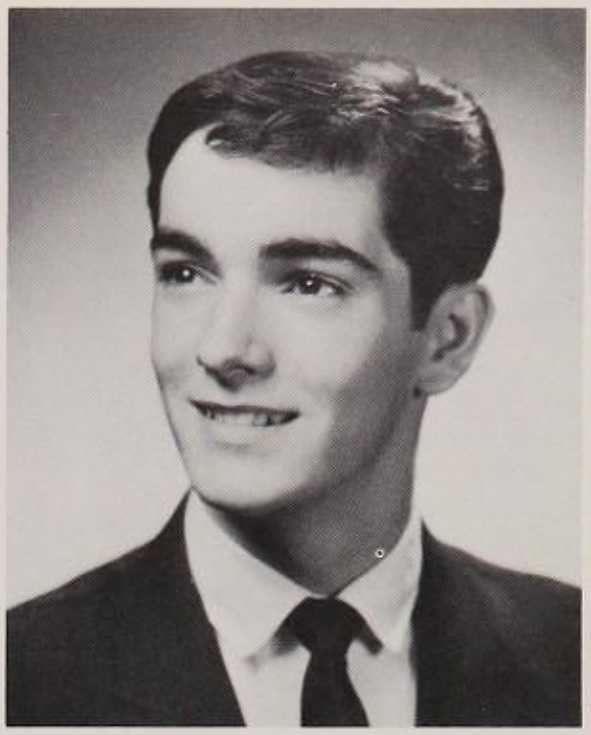
Wendy feels that Malverne has given her excellent preparation for her college years. Student Council introduced Wendy to student government and the organization of activities for G.O. members. As homeroom chairman, Wendy was able to represent her fellow classmates even further. She had a chance to help with the turnout of Malverne's yearbook while on the Oracle business staff. Sincere and special thanks go out to Mr. Hollenstein for his understanding and guidance.

DOUGLAS SOMMER

Hail to Malverne . . . Best school in the land. These are words Doug firmly believes. He would like to think he has helped keep them true. Doug has been a member of the Band, Student Police, and Teenage Council. He participated in Cross Country and Track and thanks Mr. Morgan, Mr. DeFrancis, and Mr. Fuge for their assistance. He would also like to thank Mrs. Hvidsten, Mr. Crehan, and Mr. Berger for their excellent instruction.

LYNN SORLY

Lynn's years at Malverne have been enjoyable and memorable ones. They have provided her with a good education and prepared her for her future. She has learned to know and understand many different personalities while attending Malverne. Her favorite class was social studies with Mr. Besse. She would also like to thank Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Hinkel for all their help in her secretarial course. Lynn plans to go to Claremont Business School when she graduates.



ROBERT SPENCER

Robert has spent all his school years in Malverne. In his junior year he participated in Cross Country. He plans to further his education by going to college. Robert's outside interests include scouting and boating and he served on the Malverne Village Youth Board, helping to plan activities for the youth of Malverne. Robert would like to thank his friends and teachers for giving him an enjoyable three years. Good luck to all his classmates!

IVAN STRASFELD

Ivan would like to thank his teachers and friends for making his years at Malverne so enjoyable. He participated in Spanish Club, Student Police, and many homeroom activities, including the Magazine Sale. His outside activities included a part-time job and membership in a youth group. After graduation, Ivan would like to go to college with the hope of majoring in math and science. He recommends to his underclassmen that success can only be attained through hard work.

BARBARA STRATTON

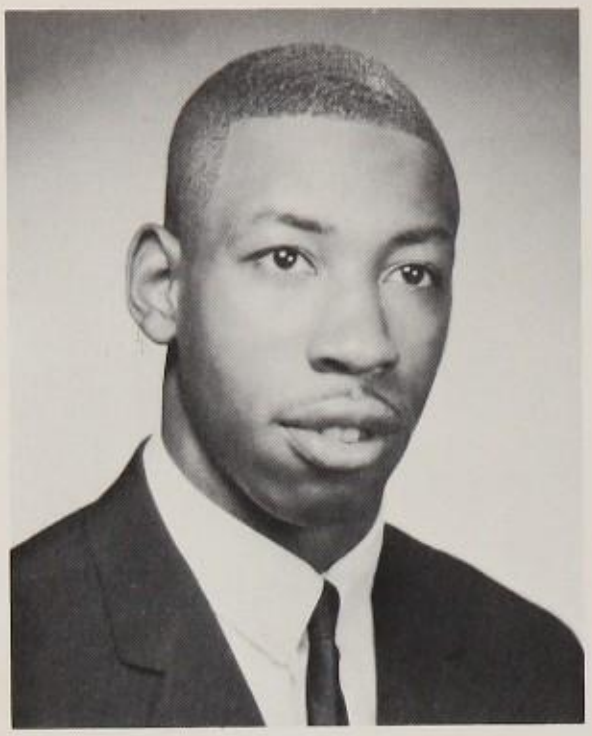
Barbara's years at Malverne have been not only intellectually enlightening but memorable. She feels that Malverne has created and firmly established a foundation on which to base further education. Barbara actively participated in a number of varied extracurricular activities which encompassed athletic and school service organizations. She wishes to thank her parents, friends, and teachers who have aided her greatly in the successful completion of her high school career.

JEAN STRIDER

Jean has been an active member of the Malverne Cadettes. Under the direction of Mrs. Arnone, she has won awards from the Long Island Girls Association. She has majored in the field of business and plans to enter a business college upon graduation. With the help of Mrs. Hinkel, Mrs. Pratt, and Mrs. Levitt, she has won typewriting awards. She thanks the staff of Malverne for all the guidance they have given her.

Mary's years in Malverne have been rewarding. She enjoyed her subjects, teachers, and would like to express her gratitude for their guidance. She found joy in the activities in which she participated, expecially Sport Night '67. Her plans for the future are to go to a business college, in hopes of becoming a successful secretary. To underclassmen: Success seems to be the aim of men, but don't let its cast be a friend.

MARY TEASLEY

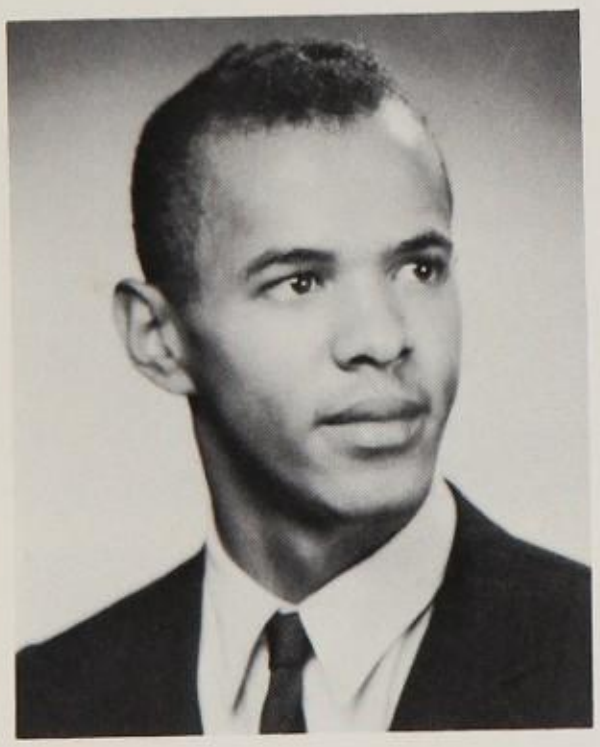


FRED THAGGARD

The years in Malverne have been memorable and enjoyable. As a participant of Cross Country and Track Teams, Fred found the meaning of team sportsmanship and school spirit. He is also gratified with the advice of his parents who, throughout these last three years, have encouraged him to work hard. His future plans are to attend college, and major in chemistry. To undergraduates: Opportunity and success come only once in your life, and only with the aid of education will you achieve either one.

JESSE THOMPSON

JV Basketball was a better team for having Jesse as a member. His interest in sports and his talents, in basketball in particular, made him a valuable Malverne player. Of all his subjects, he liked Driver Training best. Here he could indulge his interest in cars and mechanical problems. Jesse has many happy memories of Malverne and wishes to thank his teachers for their indulgence. For the future Jesse hopes to be a good citizen.



PETER TEJADA

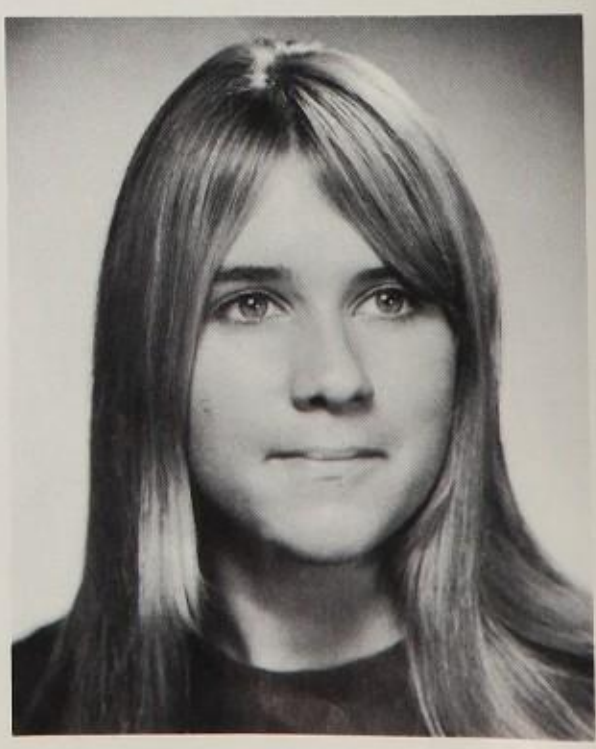
Peter is a happy-go-lucky young man with a serious mind. He was friendly with the faculty as well as the students. While in Malverne, Peter joined one club called Drama Club. He chose the club because he liked technical work. He learned how to set up lights and learned a little about the stage. Peter received a few honor certificates for both drama and regular school work. Peter's comment on Malverne and its students is Business and friendship do not mix, but Malverne and friendship go hand in hand.

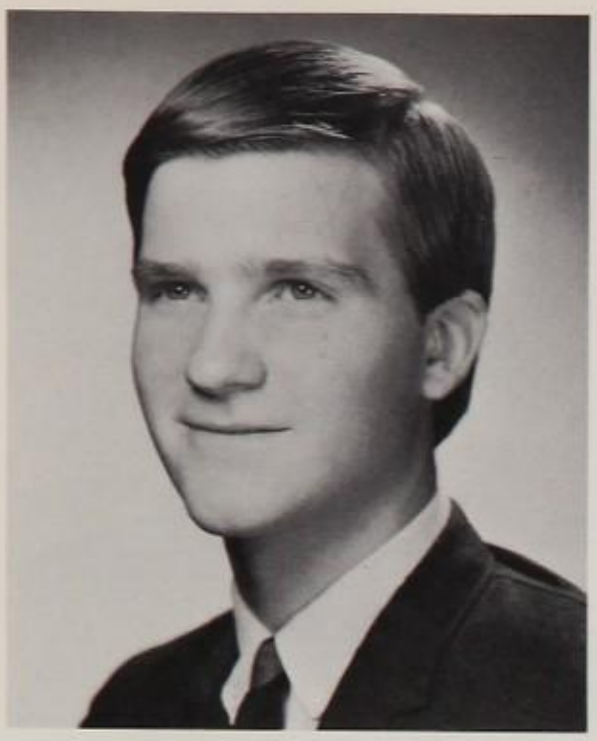
Nancy's years at Malverne proved to be rewarding and interesting. She was most enthusiastic in her business courses. Nan would like to convey her gratitude to Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Hinkel. She was a member of A Cappella Choir in her sophomore year and enjoyed participating in Sport Night in her junior year. She enjoyed such sports as badminton, tennis, and archery. Nancy hopes to attend Farmingdale Junior College, where she will further her business education.

NANCY THOMAS

Carol found her years in Malverne enjoyable and rewarding. She took part in Student Police, Interclass Night, Sport Night, and various after-school clubs and activities. Carol thanks all her teachers for the inspiration and help they have given her, especially Mrs. Hvidsten. After graduation Carol plans to go to college and major in psychology. She gives this advice to the underclassmen: Set your goals early, work hard for them and never put off decisions.

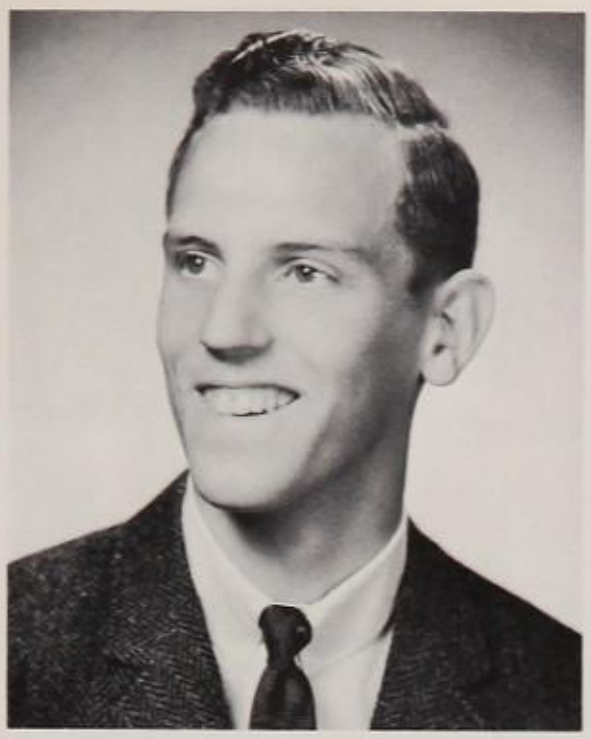
CAROL TRESTER





WALKER TRUSSELL

An exciting and memorable school career was highlighted by induction into Honor Society, National Thespian Society, and the opportunity for leadership as captain of Student Police. Participation as vice-president of Drama Club, news editor of the Mule, head of Public Address, and Teenage Council, Audio Visual Aids, the Senior Play, and close association with faculty and students. Appreciation is extended to all for their patience, encouragement, support, and friendship.



ROBERT VAN NORDEN

In Robert's estimation, sincerity in word and study, and respect toward all teachers and classmates are two important qualities that a student should possess. Bob feels that the friendship he has acquired in MHS is as important as his acquisition of knowledge, because high school is really the preparation for adult life. Robert's activities varied widely: Teenage Council, Student Police, Senior Executive Board, Mule staff, Choir, and school plays. Bob hopes for future success.

Michael's years at Malverne have been gratifying. He participated in Malverne High School Band and Dance Band. Michael participated in All-State Band and played in the orchestras for My Fair Lady, Kiss Me Kate, Bye Bye Birdie, and South Pacific. He was a student director of the Band and a member of Teenage Council. Michael played baseball and ran in Cross Country. He plans to study music education. Michael wishes to thank Mr. Berger for his guidance.

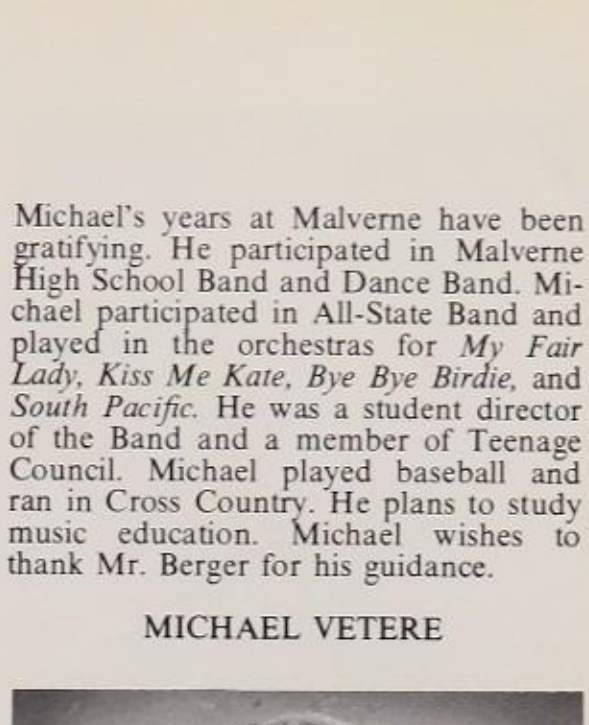
MICHAEL VETERE

Mary is an industrious student. She always tries her hardest to accomplish her goals. Mary hopes to be an I.B.M. programmer. Math is her favorite subject. She participated in Sport Night, bowling, and was treasurer of her homeroom. Finally she wants to thank all the teachers she had for helping her further her education.

MARY TUSA

Ralph enjoyed his years at Malverne and wishes to thank all his teachers for their inspiration and guidance. His activities included bowling and baseball, for which he received a letter. After graduation he intends to go to college. He would especially like to thank Miss Anderson for her guidance and understanding in helping him decide on future plans. To his underclassmen he leaves these words: Work hard and strive to the best of your ability because it pays off in the end.

RALPH VENEZIA



VALERE VISCONTI

Val's years at Malverne have been very rewarding. She went to Westbury Trade School during her eleventh year. She decided to go to a professional beauty school after graduation. Val found out cosmetology is what she wants to do. Val says: If you are just coming into Malverne High School, don't fool around; it doesn't pay. Val isn't talking from hearsay, she is talking from experience. Valerie looks forward to a successful career.

JOHN VUINI

John came to us from Erasmus Hall High in his junior year. He plans to major in journalism in college; and hopes to someday write for a well-known organization. John is an active member in the Chess Club, but in Erasmus he also worked in the office and on Student Police. Some of his outside activities are playing the accordion and singing, which he enjoys immensely.

MICHELLE WADE

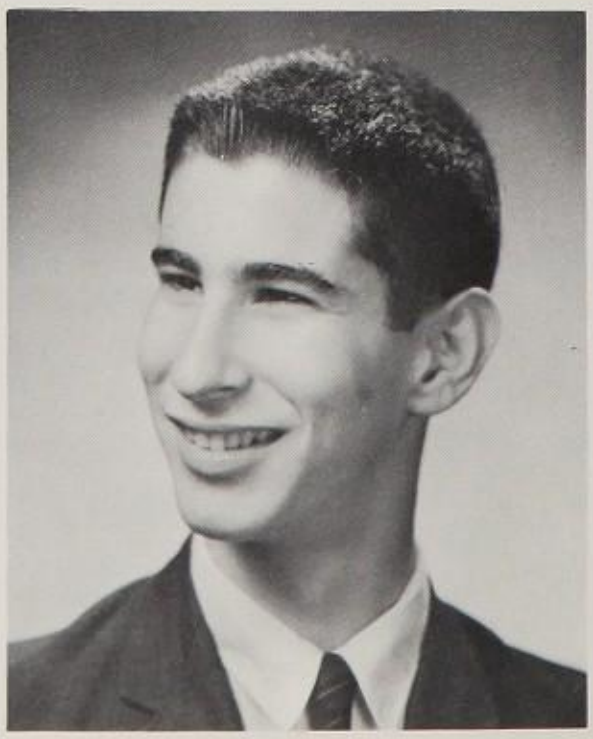
In Malverne, Michelle obtained a strong foundation of knowledge and understanding on which to build her future. Her years have been highlighted by participation in JV and Varsity Cheering, Cadettes, Sport Nights, Health Careers Club, girls sports, Red Cross, make-up committee for Senior Happening, and Oracle business staff. After graduation, she would like to enter college and major in the field of secondary education. The contacts with teachers and classmates are the wonderful aspects of Malverne that Michelle will always remember. To the underclassmen: The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet.

DAVID WAGNER

Every fear, frustration, and hate inevitably leads to hope, success, and love. So even if every moment wasn't pleasant, and David would not want to go through it all again, he wants to thank Malverne High School for three exciting, different, and wonderful years. It was through track and cross country that David learned guts and dedication. It was here through his subjects and activities that David learned to respect every man's thoughts, but to be loyal, only to his own.

SONDRA WAGNER

Sandy has enjoyed her years at Malverne. She appreciates all the help and guidance her teachers have given her. She would especially like to thank Mr. Zaccaro and Mr. Holt. Sandy has participated in National Thespian Society, Drama Club, Cadettes, Band, Sport Night, and Interclass Night. Her future plans include college and a major in physical therapy. She hopes that the future students of Malverne will reap all the benefits that Malverne has to offer.



WALTER WALK

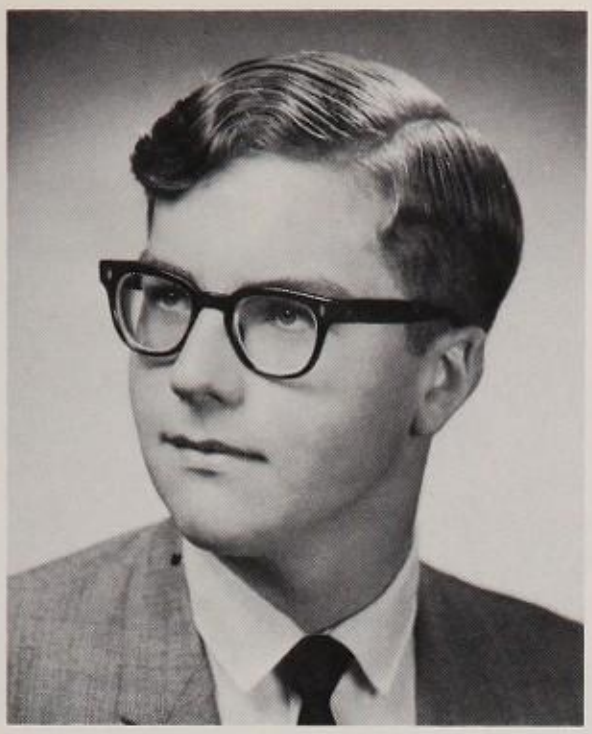
Walter has been going to the Malverne Schools since he started Kindergarten, at the Woodfield Road School. He now hopes to go to college in New York State. Walter wishes to major in computer technology, preferably at Stony Brook or Brocklyn Polytechnical University. He has been active in the Chess Club during his junior and senior years. Walter says that Mr. Dye and Mr. Besse have had the greatest effect on his outlook in life.

CLAUDIA WALKER

Claudia's years in Malverne have been filled with excitement. She was a member of the Mule Shop, a Mule editor, a member of Drama Club, and Sport Nights. She thanks Mr. Zaccaro for his stage training and for giving her confidence. Claudia plans to attend the Fashion Institute of Technology and The American Negro Academy of Dramatic Arts. She feels that education is of utmost importance to all.

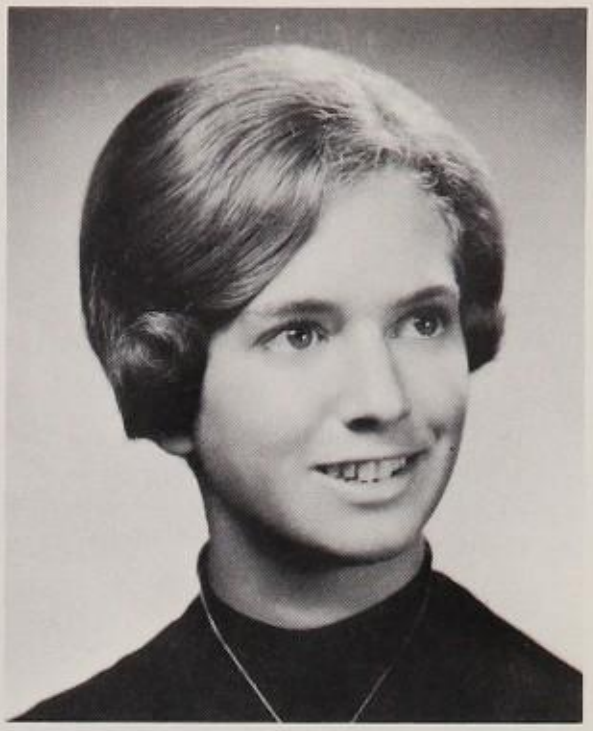
JOANNE WALKER

Joanne has enjoyed and will always remember the years she spent at Malverne. She has participated in some after school activities and was a member of Homemaking Club for three years. She would like to thank her teachers for their understanding, most of all Mr. Zaccaro for the extra push he seems to give. Her plans after high school are to attend a fashion institute and then go on to a beautician school.



ROBERT WALKER

Robert has obtained a solid background at Malverne for future studies. His activities have included Library Council, Teenage Council, JV Football, and Spanish Club. He has participated in class activities such as the Junior Dance Committee, Senior Executive Board, and the Senior Play. His special appreciation goes to Mr. Holt and Mr. Johnson, who have been his teachers in mathematics. Future plans include college, where he will major in math and eventually become a teacher.



BARBARA WALLACH

Barbara's years at Malverne have been enlightening and rewarding. She will always fondly remember all the hard work and fun of actively participating in varied scholastic, athletic, and service organizations. She wishes to thank her parents and teachers for their help and inspiration. At Malverne, Barbara feels she has established a solid foundation upon which to build her future, which includes a college education and a career in medical research. Barbara believes: Life is only what you make it.

JOANN WELLS

JoAnn has gained much during her years at Malverne. She is an officer in Future Teachers of America and is also active on Oracle business staff, in Spanish Club, Future Nurses of America, and Sport Night and cheerleading in her junior year. JoAnn plans to further her education in the medical field and become a nurse. Her advice to underclassmen is: Make your school years memorable but keep up with your studies.

FREDRIC WOOCHER

Religious and musical activities took up much of Fred's co-curricular time. He has continued with his Hebrew studies and has sung in school and temple choirs. He has served on Student, Library, and Teenage councils, and was a member of Student Police, in addition to being in The Solid Gold Cadillac. Fred plans to attend college and hopes that he can use the knowledge he has gained at Malverne High to better himself and his world.

ANNE MARIE ZACCARO

Anne Marie has attended Malverne for four years, and she will miss high school very much. She participated in Junior Varsity and Varsity Cheering, Sport Night, Interclass Night, Teenage Council, and she was Red Cross representative. She was also a secretary of Chorus in her junior year. Her fondest memories are of the friendships she has shared while at Malverne. Anne Marie looks forward to a happy future.

CRAIG ZAFFE

Known by his friends as Zaf, Craig has enjoyed his years at Malverne. The highlight was when he danced in Bye Bye Birdie. He also was on the Wrestling Team. On the weekends, Craig has been working as a busboy. Craig would like to thank Mrs. Hvidsten and Mr. Murphy for all their help. His future plans are to attend college and to major in physical education. Best of luck to the Class of '68.

EDWARD ZIMMERMAN

Ed believes that he has gained much through his many experiences in M.H.S. His favorite memories include Drama Club, Teenage Council, and induction into Thespian Society. He also took part in Student Police, A.V.A., and baseball. Ed would like to thank all of his teachers for their understanding and guidance. Ed's plans for the future are college, where he will take courses in business administration and a career in accounting.

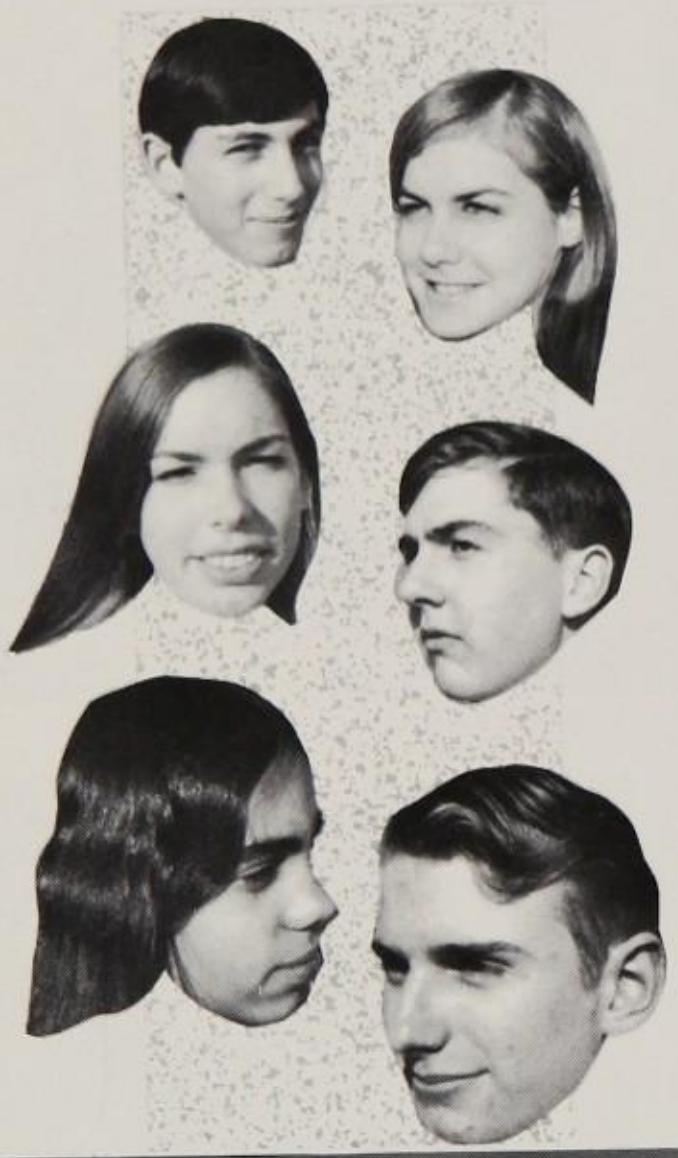
High school is early morning stair duty, finding the oxidation number, heartbreaks, Man of La Mancha, sophomore victory in Interclass Night, rushing to work, extra-help classes, Teenage Council, studying French, P.T.A. dinners, test worries, friendships, fire drills, Spanish Hawaii, Orange and Blue, basketball games, magazine sales, and senior rings. Roberta would like to give special thanks to her teachers and friends for their help and advice throughout her high school years.

ROBERTA ZEIGER

During her freshman and sophomore years, Millie prepared for college. In her junior year, though, she switched entirely to a business course. Although she did participate in Sport Night, her activities were limited because of her part-time job. Upon graduation, Millie hopes to take a civil service test and enter the business world. She wishes to thank the school staff, especially Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Hinkel, and Mr. Besse for their interest in her.

MILDRED ZIZZO

NÚMERO UNO



Tony,
It's been great knowing you this year (esp. Soc especially Mr. D's class). Good luck with (very) little the class interesting good summer Give Georges hard times Love, Irene

UNDERCLASSMEN

The CLASS of 69

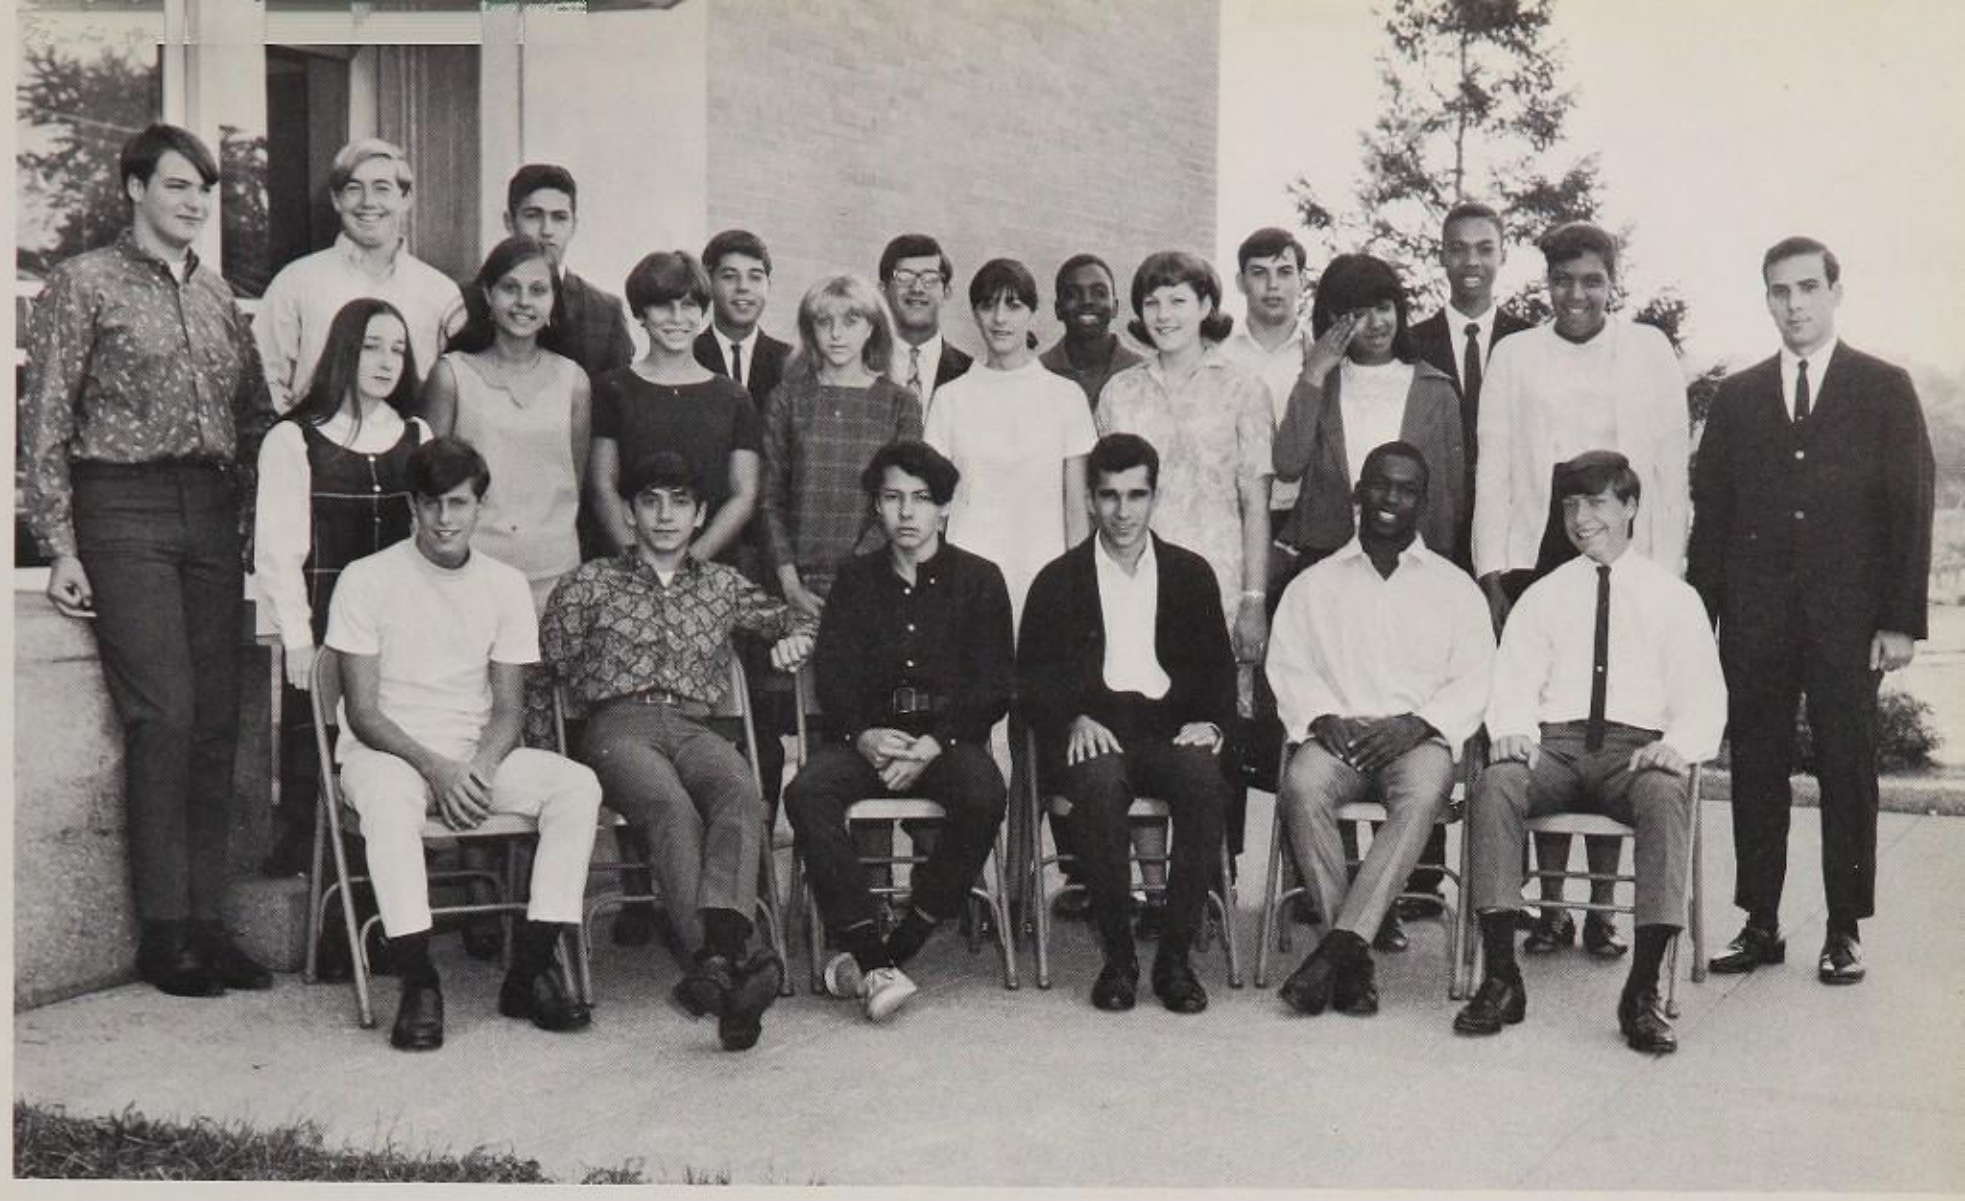
OFFICERS

JOSEPH LENTINI
President
PETER VAN NORDEN
Treasurer
HERBERT HARRISON
Vice-President
DAVID GUC
Secretary
MR. DOUGLAS DYE
Adviser

As members of the class of 1969, we Juniors have forged ahead, spreading our spirit through Malverne's halls and making our class one of the most remembered and respected class in Malverne's history. This year we welcomed Mr. Douglas Dye as our new class adviser, a man who has shown himself to be a loyal and hardworking friend to our class. We Juniors soon learned that unity was the most important factor in a successful prom and, therefore, we joined together as a solid group ready to face each challenge before us. The officers, filled with a determined drive and intelligent ideas for planning, have guided the rest of the student body through a successful Junior year. The spirit of the Juniors is unbeatable, proven by their rousing cheers at our sports events and our eager sales techniques in the course of our magazine drive during the fall. The Juniors are deeply involved in decisions over future pursuit of knowledge in college, or our chosen vocations. The class of '69 may be described as both scholarly and fun-seeking. We trust we have developed the maturity and wisdom to lead our school in an outstanding senior year to come!



HOMEROOM 321

Front row: Ronald Perlman, Charles Moyles, Donald Paone, Jose Noa, Thomas Ray, George Priolo. Second Row: Donna Murphy, Miriam Petruck, Angela Negron, Denise Mount, Anna Pagano, Barbara Randell, Linda Pierce, Charlene Phillips, Mr. Wolman. Third row; Keith Owen, Peter Ramsay, John Natoli, Richard Pittelli, Peter Ninivaggi, Terrill Nolen, Mark O'Dare, Stanley Ransom.

HOMEROOM 316

Front row: Irene Moser, Diana Luccaro, Carol Martin, Paula Mazzara, Susan Lushbaugh, Michael Moe, Clifford Morse, Christine Maquire, Carter Morrison, Robert Monroe. Back row: Mr. Dye, Jacqueline Martin, Jacqueline V. Martin, John Monaco, Phillip Millee, Diana McCray, Beverly Moore, James MacDonald, Bruce McLean, Lawrence Morgan, William Morton.

HOMEROOM 301

Front row: Roderic Avetabile, Thomas Bagensie, John Burchill, Sharon Bell, Saundra Bass, Jeanette Arndt. Second Row: Joan Brooks, Betty Bell, Hattie Boone, Elizabeth Berg, Carol Billups, Connie Boone, Fern Bleckner, Deborah Bates, Mrs. Krefsky. Third row: Jane Camardella, Lorrine Brown, Abby Bard, Steve Altmann, Vincent Altadonna, Gerald Browne.

HOMEROOM 308

Front row: Michael Guerrieri, Herbert Harrison, Charles Glover, Bruce Hyland, Janice Gagliano, Rosemary Hickey. Second row: Mary Gregory, Colleen Gelshenen, Joy Gardner, Marie Ilardi, Alice Freund, Denise Incorvaia, Mr. Craig. Third row: Patricia Guidice, Lucille Guecia, Eleanor Giordano, Judy Goldstein, Lynn Hoffman, Susan Henny, Joseph Graffeo, Joe Gong. Back row: Peter Greis, David Guc, Peter Gubing.

Front Row: Joseph Lentini, Marcus Johnson, Fred Incorvaia, David James, James Kay, Arthur Landi. Second row: Meryl Levy, Marilyn Karhan, Barbara Jones, Georgette Kuster, Pia Kabin, Paula Johnson, Marie Jones, Susan Joyce, Mr. DeGraff. Third row: Jennifer Lees, Barbara Kaitz, MaryAnn Lesneski, Carolyn Johnson, Paul LoRaso, Richard Kenny, Stephen King, Stephen Kenny. Back row: John Krapf, Kenneth Lambert, Richard Lavelle.

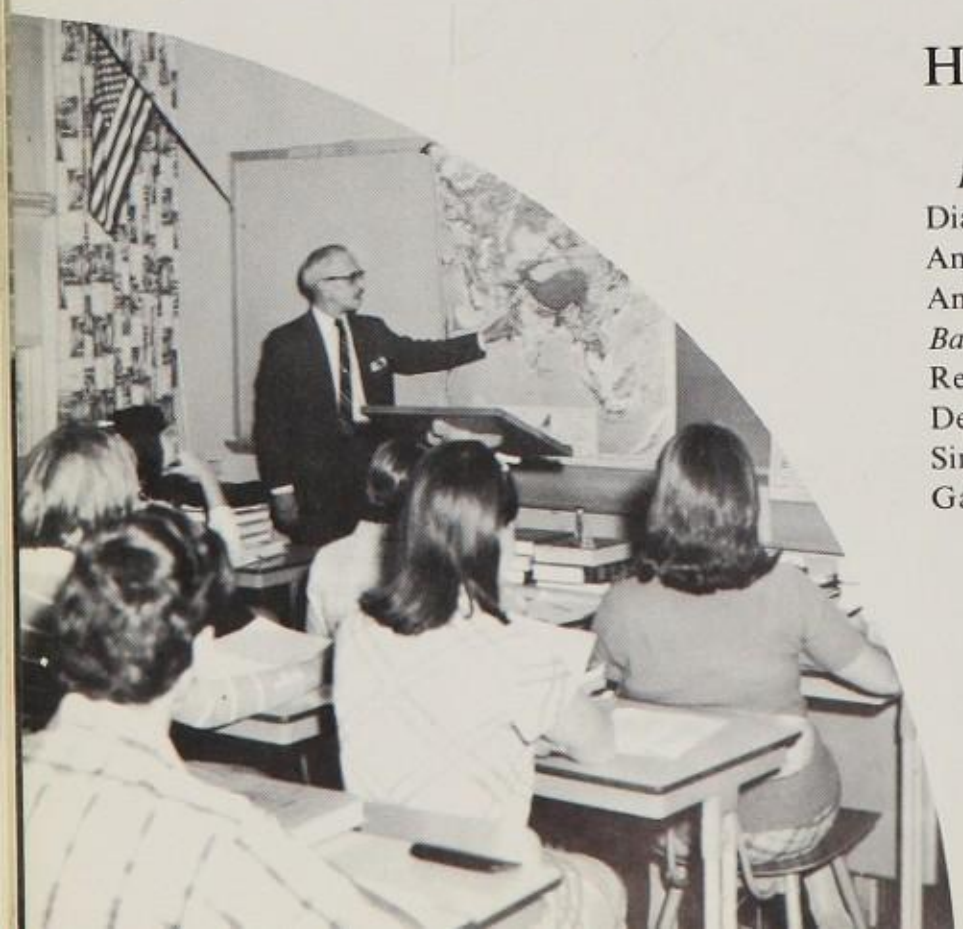
HOMEROOM 309

Front row: Lonnie Stevens, Edward Strube, Nicholas Tishler, Frank Tosner, William Tilles, Lawrence Smith. Second row: Andrew Tennin, David Ulmer, Peter Tejada, Joanne Smith, Eva Soalt, Melanie Smith, Christine Sorenson, Janice Smallwood, Mrs. Leavitt. Third row: Audrey Thompson, Deana Snypse, Gail Sterling, Janet Sobel, Dale Teitel, Edythe Vanderbeck. Fourth row; Johnnie Truitt, Charlene Tusa, Maria Sparano, Robert Sylvia, Robert Sobel, Barbara Teitel.

HOMEROOM 214

HOMEROOM 303

Front row: Joan Camardella, Virginia Crowley, Alice Collura, Geraldine Conte, Evelyn Carr, Rosalba Colombini, Paulette Chriss, Elaine Costen, Diane Coronetz, Margaret Clarke, Corie Commander, Lorol Cerda, Mrs. Ash. Back row: Tommy Delerario, Leslie DeGraff, Richard Deede, Allen Cooper, Louise Campbell, Calvin Cunningham, Mitchell Cypress, Glenn Cassis, Warren Dantzler, Kevin Chetel, Pamela Corbin, Robert Chase, David DeSilva.



HOMEROOM 212

Front row: George Scola, Bette Rothstein, Diane Slavin, Sondria Sellers, Anita Schubert, Amy Schwartz, Shira Siegel, Albert Russo, Andrew Safyer, Harold Rhodes, Gerard Sims. Back row: Alan Sklover, Steve Schwalb, Paul Renaghan, Richard Safrath, Thomas Slater, Dennis Sharkey, Patricia Russell, Cassandra Simpson, Rodney Shelto, Harold Rhynie, Gary Rick, Mr. Pasquerella.

HOMEROOM 306

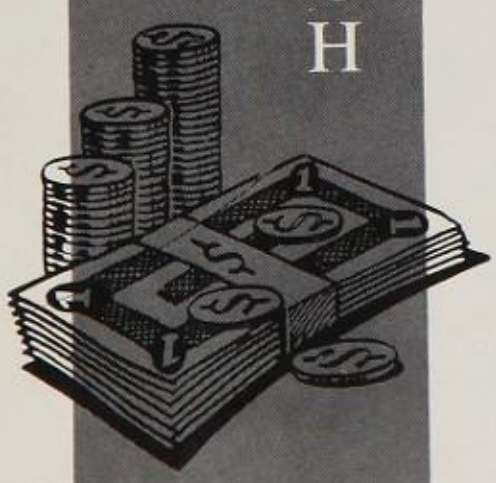
Front row: Bertha Evans, Linda Francis, Wendy Forray, Anna DiVita, Sandra Elrod, Perter Ehrenhaus, Peter Fitzpatrick, Douglas Francis, Wendy Freedman, Deborah Evans, Miss Trayner. Back row: Diane DiVergilio, Roberta Elliot, Helen Fisher, Virginia Dowell, Richard Duchinsky, Wayne Faber, Guy DiGiovanna, Michael Fitzpatrick, Patrick Ehlen, William Evans, Robert Eiler, Randolph Epner, Gregory Fierro.

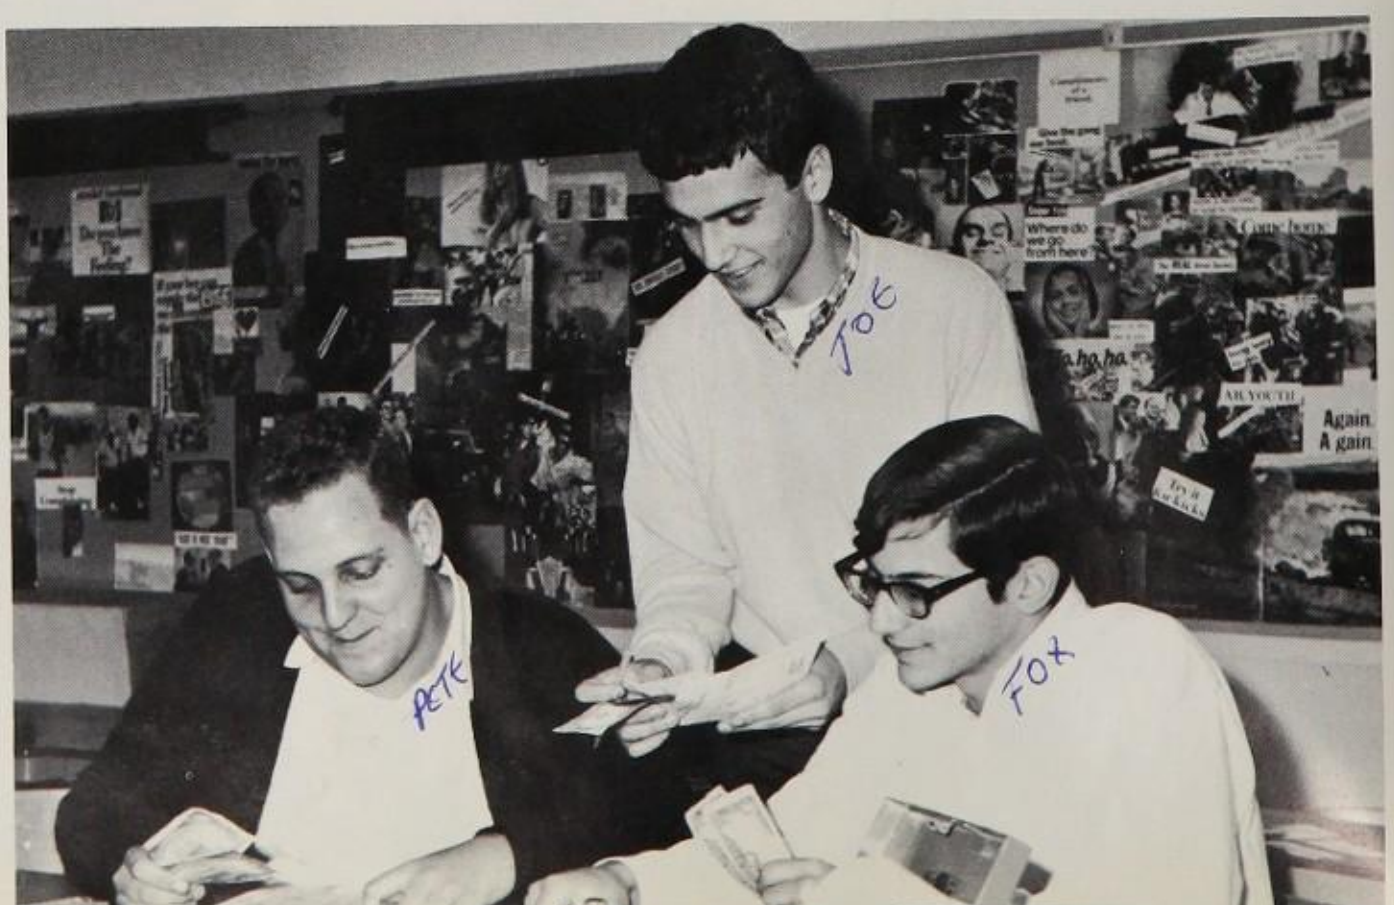
GOOD SALESMEN

Bob

PRODUCE

MUCH



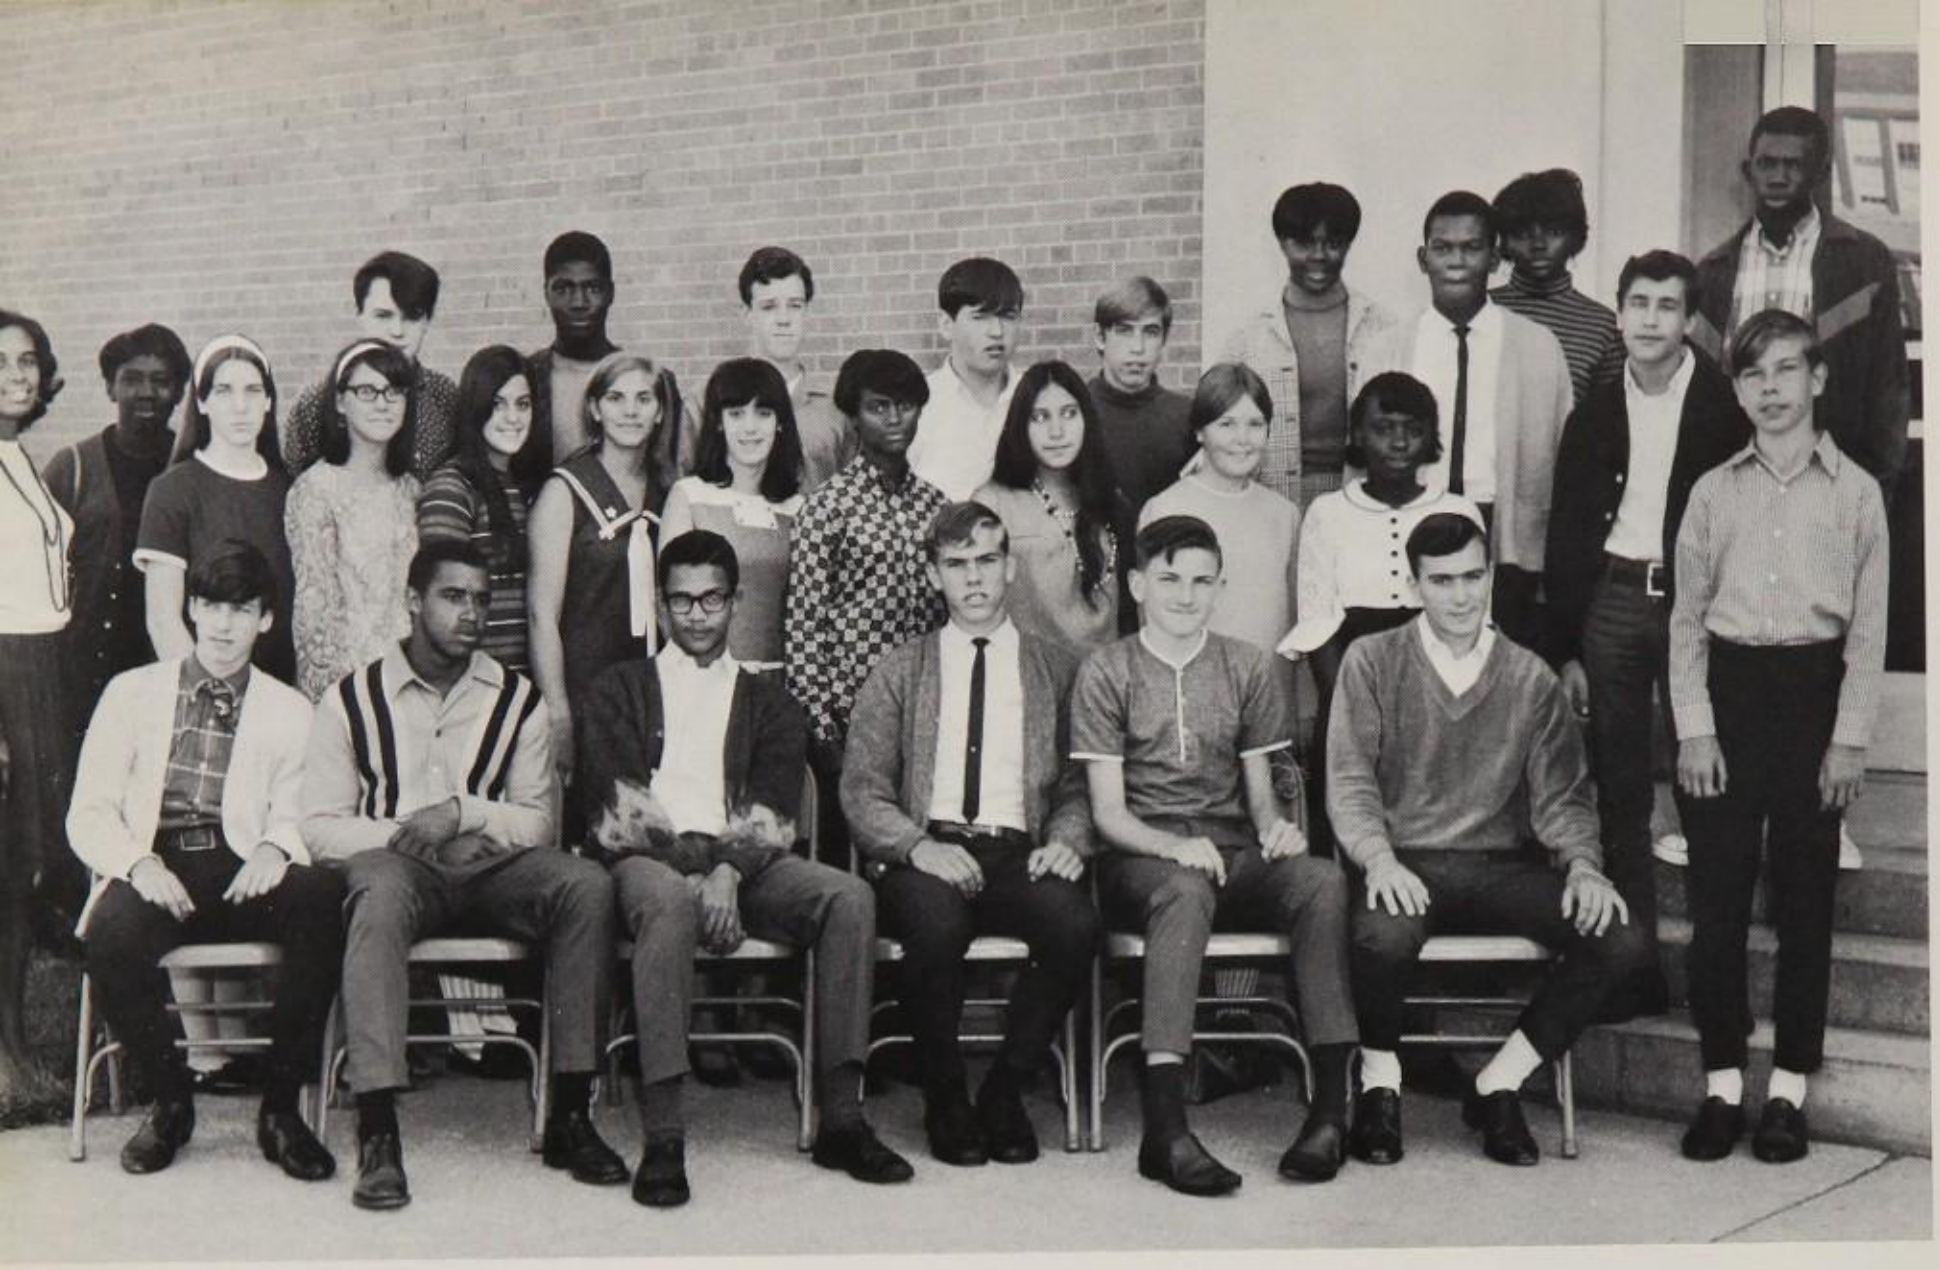


VOCATIONAL HOMEROOM

Front row: Robert Humphrey, Nikola Kumbatovik, Horace Bramley, Allen Fields, Wade Fowler, Eddie Brower, James Murray, Thomas DeVries, Alfred Humphrey. Second row: Mr. Jaffe, Cynthia Gillerson, Cheryl Harleston, Kathleen Rea, Barbara Regnier, Manie Leonard, Lynn Balistti, Carol DiGiovanna, Judy Esposito, Carol Nostrand, Benita Jennings, Patricia Cooper. Back row: Kenneth Harris, Spurgeon Parchment, James McCants, Leon Russ, Bradley Hinton, George Simmons, Joseph Gibson, Cahrles Hurdle, Charles Phillips.

Fire Drill weather

HOMEROOM 116



Front row: Andrew Warten, Clifford Yearby, Calvin Watson, Robert Valenati, Charles Weggler, Bruce Verdecanna, Kenneth Weber. Second row: Miss McKinney, Natalie Walker, Leona Watson, Debra Thoma, Susan Wittenberg, Joanne Zabatta, Lorraine Tufuriello, Marcia White, Irene Vogel, Heide Wattaul, Cindy Williams. Back row: Richard Wodieka, Robert Williams, David Walsh, John Wren, Christopher Walsh, Joann Webb, Brian Walton, Mamie Thomas, Robert Zeigler, Harold Wiggins.

HOMEROOM 217

Front row: Barry Wechsler, Peggy Wilson, June Williams, Susan Wiggins, Largnet Winegan, Alice Ann Weatherston, Patricia Walton, William Winston, Deborah Walton, Barry Wells, Diane Wekony, Janine Villela. Back row: Randolph Walker, Jose Vives, James Weggler, Philip Zam, Douglas Winkel, Michael Walker, Donald Wallace, Raymond Woolsey, John Wiggins, Mr. Mordaunt.

The CLASS of 70

OFFICERS

SUSAN KNAP
Treasurer
MR. THOMAS CREHAN
Adviser
GLENN FINLEY
Vice-President
RALPH COSTEN
President
WILMA RUSS (not shown)
Secretary

The Sophomores, the newest addition to Malverne Senior High, have successfully made the adjustment from junior to senior high school. Leaving an impressive past record, members of the Class of 1970 look forward to showing their enthusiasm and eagerness to participate in their high school years. In holding a successful candy sale and a memorable dance, the Sophomores have made their mark. We Sophomores thank all those who helped make our entrance into high school pleasant and memorable: teachers, guidance counsellors, and our class adviser, Mr. Crehan. Mr. Crehan guided us wisely in all phases of our lives as Sophomores. We are confident now and members of '70 are ready to serve Malverne Senior High School as juniors next year.

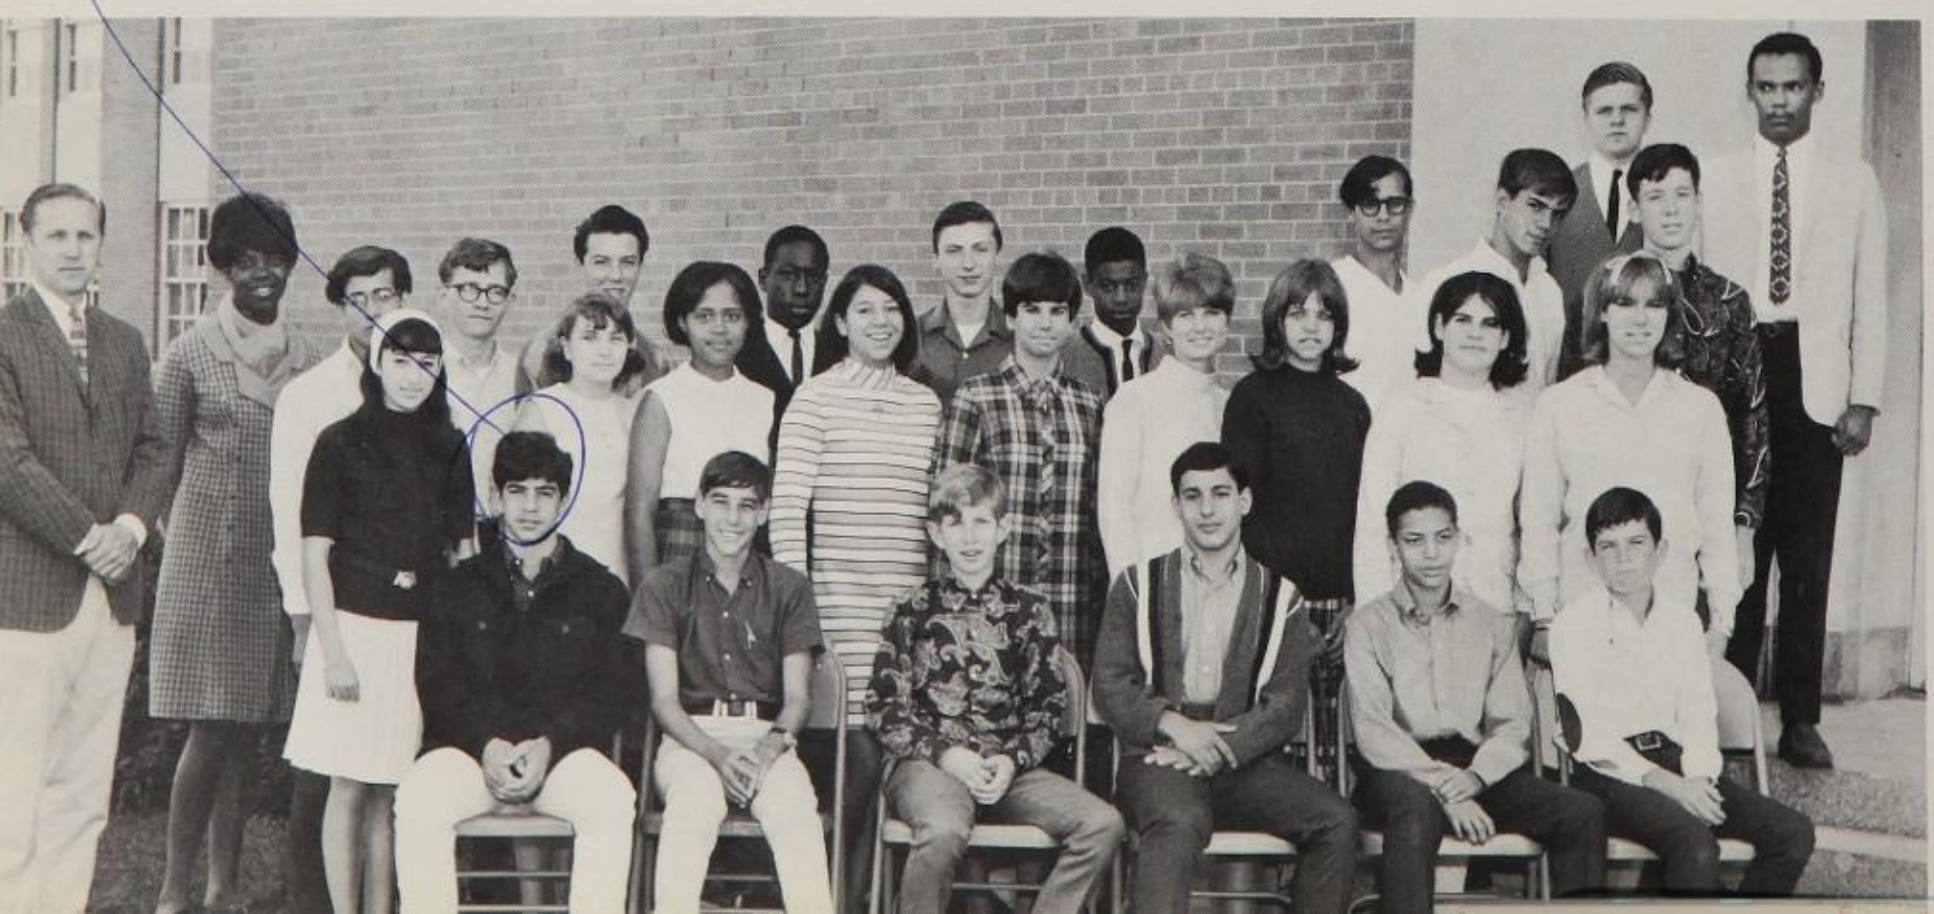
HOMEROOM 112

Front row: Paul Simmonds, David Stark, Tracy Simmonds, Andrea Seepo, Audrey Single, Christine Schoenberg, Vicki Silkiss, Jacqueline Stinson, Tom Schlegel, Paul Spielman. Back row: Mark Strasfeld, Robert Speight, Theadora Sutton, Audrey Sobel, Donna Schwartz, Morris Scott, James Scott, Thomas Smith, Edward Smith, Stuart Strasfeld, Eric Sharpe, Larry Sintal, Mr. Diner.

Morning announcements.

Front row: Emil Botti, Mitchell Abrams, Thomas Butler, Joseph Carluccio, Michael Campbell, Gerard Brooks. Second row: Carol Brocco, Beverly Allin, Wanda Barker, Mary Battaglia, Debra Bejarano, Susan Bennett, Elaine Altein, Eileen Barat. Third row: Mr. Frank, Doris Bell, Vincent Capasso, Karl Aarseth, Thomas Caronia, Simon Anderson, Stephen Bartkus, James Brunson, Joseph Caliendo, Robert Bishop, Timothy Aland, James Adolphus.

HOMEROOM 304



Ah, there it is!

HOMEROOM 310

Front row: Carol Colombarini, George Cress, Robin Delany, Philip Derenze, Deborah Cohen, Patricia DiMaio, Patricia Compagnoni, Cynthia Charles, Joanne DiGeorgio. Back row: Raymond DePrado, Gail Daniels, Dwight Carroll, Ralph Costen, Robert DeRosa, Naomi Clarke, Amy Danielson, Joel Domow, David Castleman, Mr. Crehan.

Front row: Mark Gardner, Allison Gilbert, Calvin Fearrington, Gerard Hall, Nathan Gus, Glenn Finley. Second row: Mr. Kornfield, Nannette Goddard, Diane Fitzgerald, Shirley Grube, JoAnn Geiger, Lauren Goodman, Deborah Dumpson, Hazel Gibbons, Marie Graham, Marcia Fein, William Doucette. Third row: Sondra Evans, JoAnn Doyle, Alan Fein, Michael Esposito, Karin Eiler.

HOMEROOM 314

HOMEROOM 204

Front row: Kay Odame, Rhea Mitnick, Jennifer Panzarella, Suzanne Payne, Debbie Ogilvie, Claudette Palmer, James Murray, Henry Meachmam, Susan Mott, Margie Merrick, Joan Michael, Gale Penha. Back row: Miss Glickman, Rande Meltzer, Douglas Negron, Kevin Meehan, Dennis Musto, John Murply, John Minerva, Adele Overton, Alphea Meyers, Walter Muller, Louis Mull Jamie Morrison.

HOMEROOM 317

Front row: William Hill, Robert Hochstaetter, Haywood Hammond, Lawrence Hyler, William Haskins, Carl Himmel. Second row: Mr. Hollenstein, Lawrence Hall, Rosemarie Innella, Alvin Jordan, Charlotte Houlroyd, Lon Jones, Blair Jones, Jane Horowitz, Mary Johnston, Deborah Hawkins, Virginia Hull, Tonetta Henderson, Doryne Jackson, Susan Knap, Era Holmes. Third row: Gerald Keen, Alvin Holmes, Claude James, Eileen Kenny, Fay Johnson, Nancy Harrigan, Susan Hanusch.

Front row: Marlene Russo, Lucille Santora, Patricia Rhinehart, Lori Salvani, Sharon Prevost, Eric Rhodes, Serena Richardson, Roberta Pepe, Hillary Port, Kathleen Rairden, Janet Regina, Nathan Posner. Back row: Mrs. Bachmann, Brenda Person, Peter Sass, Michael Russell, Maria SanFilippo, John Pusateri, Bonnie Portman, Jacqueline Pirozzi, Thomas Sannuto, Herberg Puryear, Wilma Russ, Joseph Robinson, Mary Reaves, Janie Person.

HOMEROOM 104

Dear Tony
you're a sweet boy we've had lots of fun, stay as sweet as you are Love
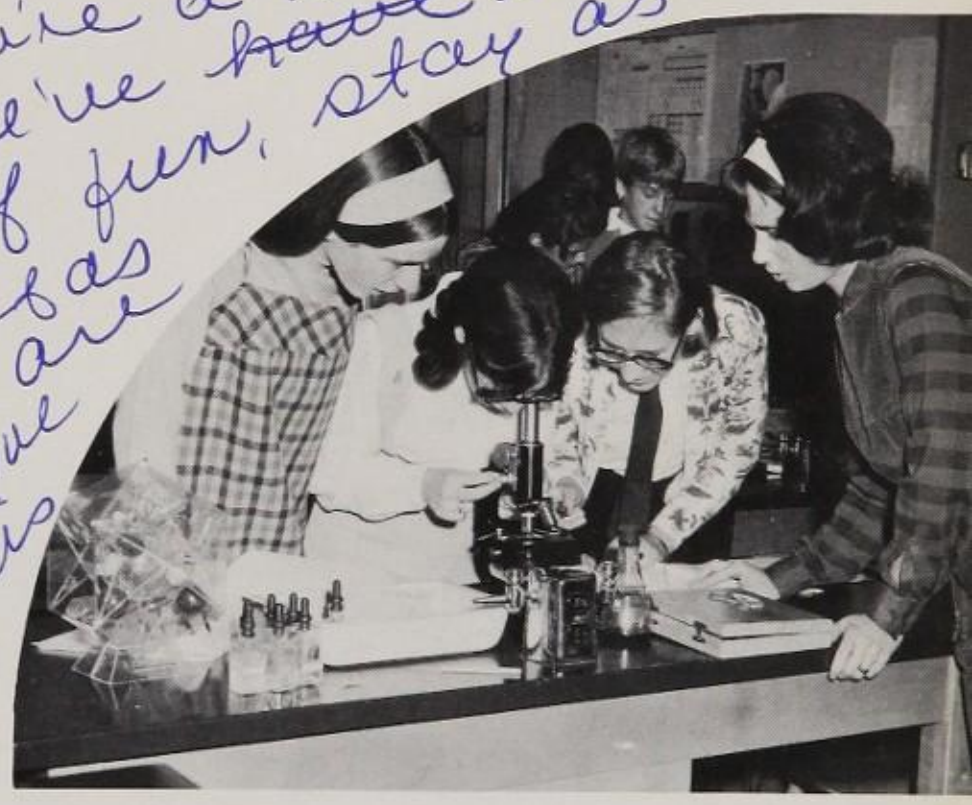
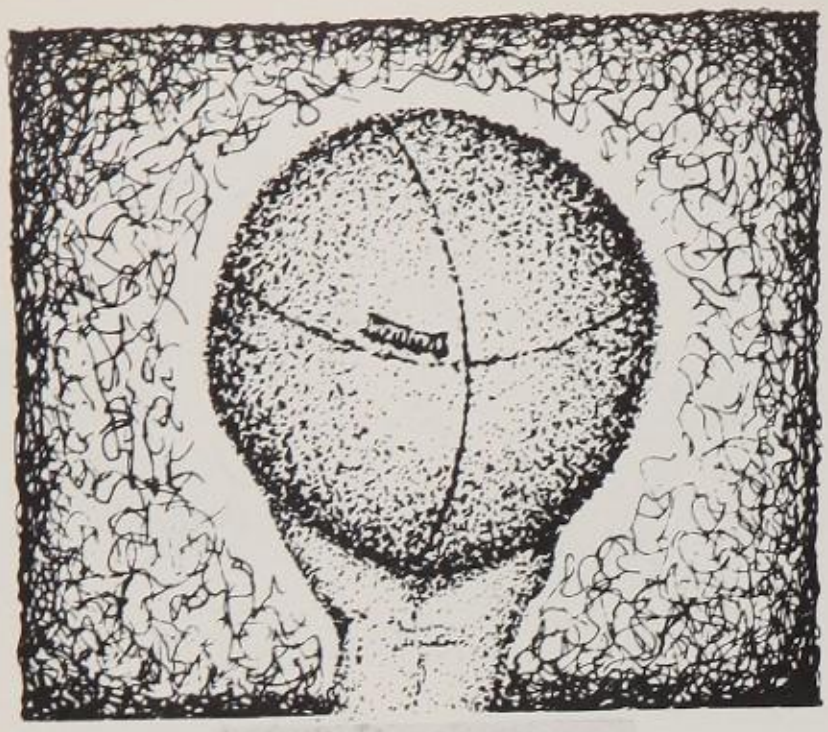
Kris



HOMEROOM 318

Front row: Michael Lowe, Mark Lynch, Michael Krasnow, Michael Marion, Waddie LaHimer, Ronald Mason. Second row: Mrs. Hividsten, Barbara Koechel, Lynne Lynn, Ann Lerza, Christine Lazzaro, Linda Lugo, Roseanne Massano, MaryAnn Lauelle, Ilene Litwin. Third row: Christine Martin, Rochelle Martin, Teresa Maria, Christine Lowery, Carolyn Lowery, Mae MaKerson, Karen London, Denise Machlin. Last row: Pat Manning, Barbara McLean, Janice Lamback.



ATHLETICS

MULES
43

VARSITY

Kneeling: Deborah Coleson, Marva Brunson, Rosemary Gelshenen, Hirlsa Maldonado. Standing: Colleen Gelshenen, Sandra Elrod, Fern Bleckner, Helen Fisher, Robin Gerson, Patricia Devlin.

CHEER

MULETTES

Patricia Compagnoni, Joan Michael, Nan Goddard, Wilma Russ, Amy Danielson, Eileen Barat, Andrea Port, Gale Penna, Carol Colombarini.

JAYVEE

LEADERS

Standing: Ann Lerza, Janice Smallwood, Elizabeth Covington, Gloria Carroll, Virginia Dowell, Denise Macklin, Patricia Russell, Carolyn Johnson, Deborah Walton, Jeanette Arndt, Susan Lushbaugh, Dori Salvani. Kneeling: Renee Larrier and Joan Geller, co-captains.

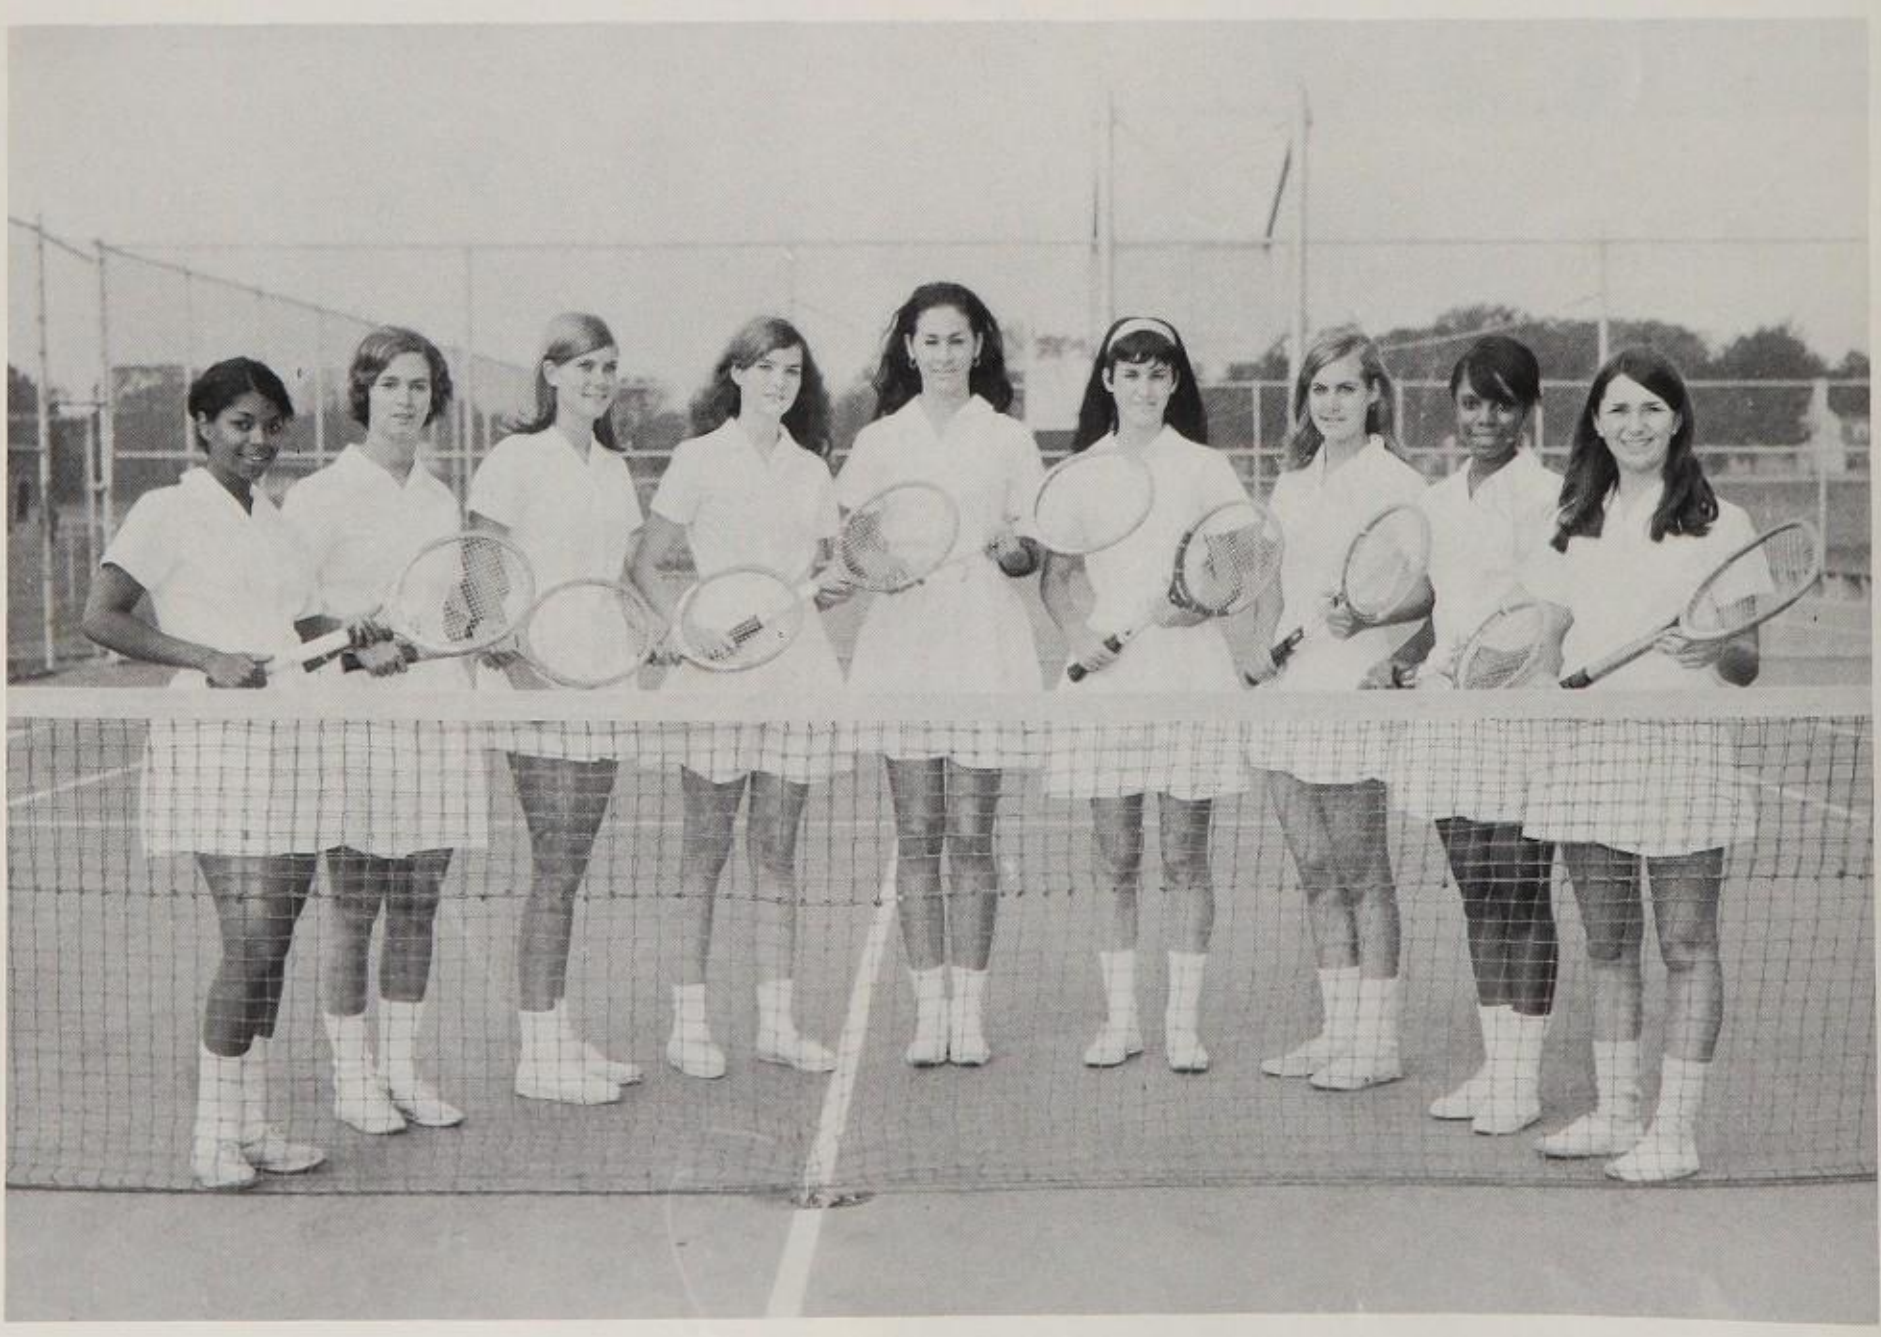
GIRLS SPORTS

Malverne's Girls Physical Education Department is noted for its excellent program of physical fitness and its co-curricular sports program. Under the supervision and instruction of Mrs. Elizabeth Arnone and Miss Linda Koch, an outstanding number of girls sports activities are offered each season. Any sports-minded Malverne girl can take her choice and develop knowledge and skills in many sports. Added to her own interest and sports knowledge, the activities program enables national sports events to become meaningful to the feminine spectators. On these pages are pictured many of the sports offered in the program. The teams are enthusiastic and skillful. Malverne is proud of their records in competition with other schools and in the general success of the girls sports program.

In tennis vigorous exercise, skill, and fun are experienced by the players as the girls practice in the fall and spring seasons. Such skills as serving, backhand, and forehand are perfected in preparation for the inter school competition in the spring. Tennis is more of an individual or doubles sport, but the cooperation and sportsmanship of the members makes it a worthwhile competition for all who join. Malverne High School is fortunate to have fine tennis courts on its wide campus. After working hard, the results of the intramural and interschool competitions are most rewarding. The girls of the Tennis Team know they have played a fine game and an outstanding national sport.

TENNIS

Anita Greene, Burlain Wallach, Susan Joyce, Madeline Moran, Robin Kravitz, Debra Birkel, Fern Bleckner, Michele Wade, Rose Mary Gelshenen.



BADMINTON

Audrey Nipper, Pamela Corbin, Linda Francis, Helen Fisher, Gloria Carroll.

Badminton, in addition to the fun it provides, requires plenty of ambition and long hours of practice. The girls were extremely eager and capable of success in their efforts this season. The sophomores, new to the school, plunged right into the intramural games, and along with the juniors and seniors, enjoyed each day of badminton playoffs. Malverne's more athletic girls look forward to their scheduled games in order to perfect their skills and to enjoy the game in competition. The birdie is rarely seen soaring downward to our gym floor!

TABLE TENNIS

Table Tennis, more commonly known as ping pong, is one of the many sports offered to the girls at Malverne. Those who participate spend two or more days a week after school in the development of their skills in serving, returning, volleying, and generally outwitting one's opponent. At the end of each season, the girls determine the best team through a tournament. Malverne Table Tennis Team this year set an enviable record. Top scores were achieved by attention to accuracy, skill, and good sportsmanship.

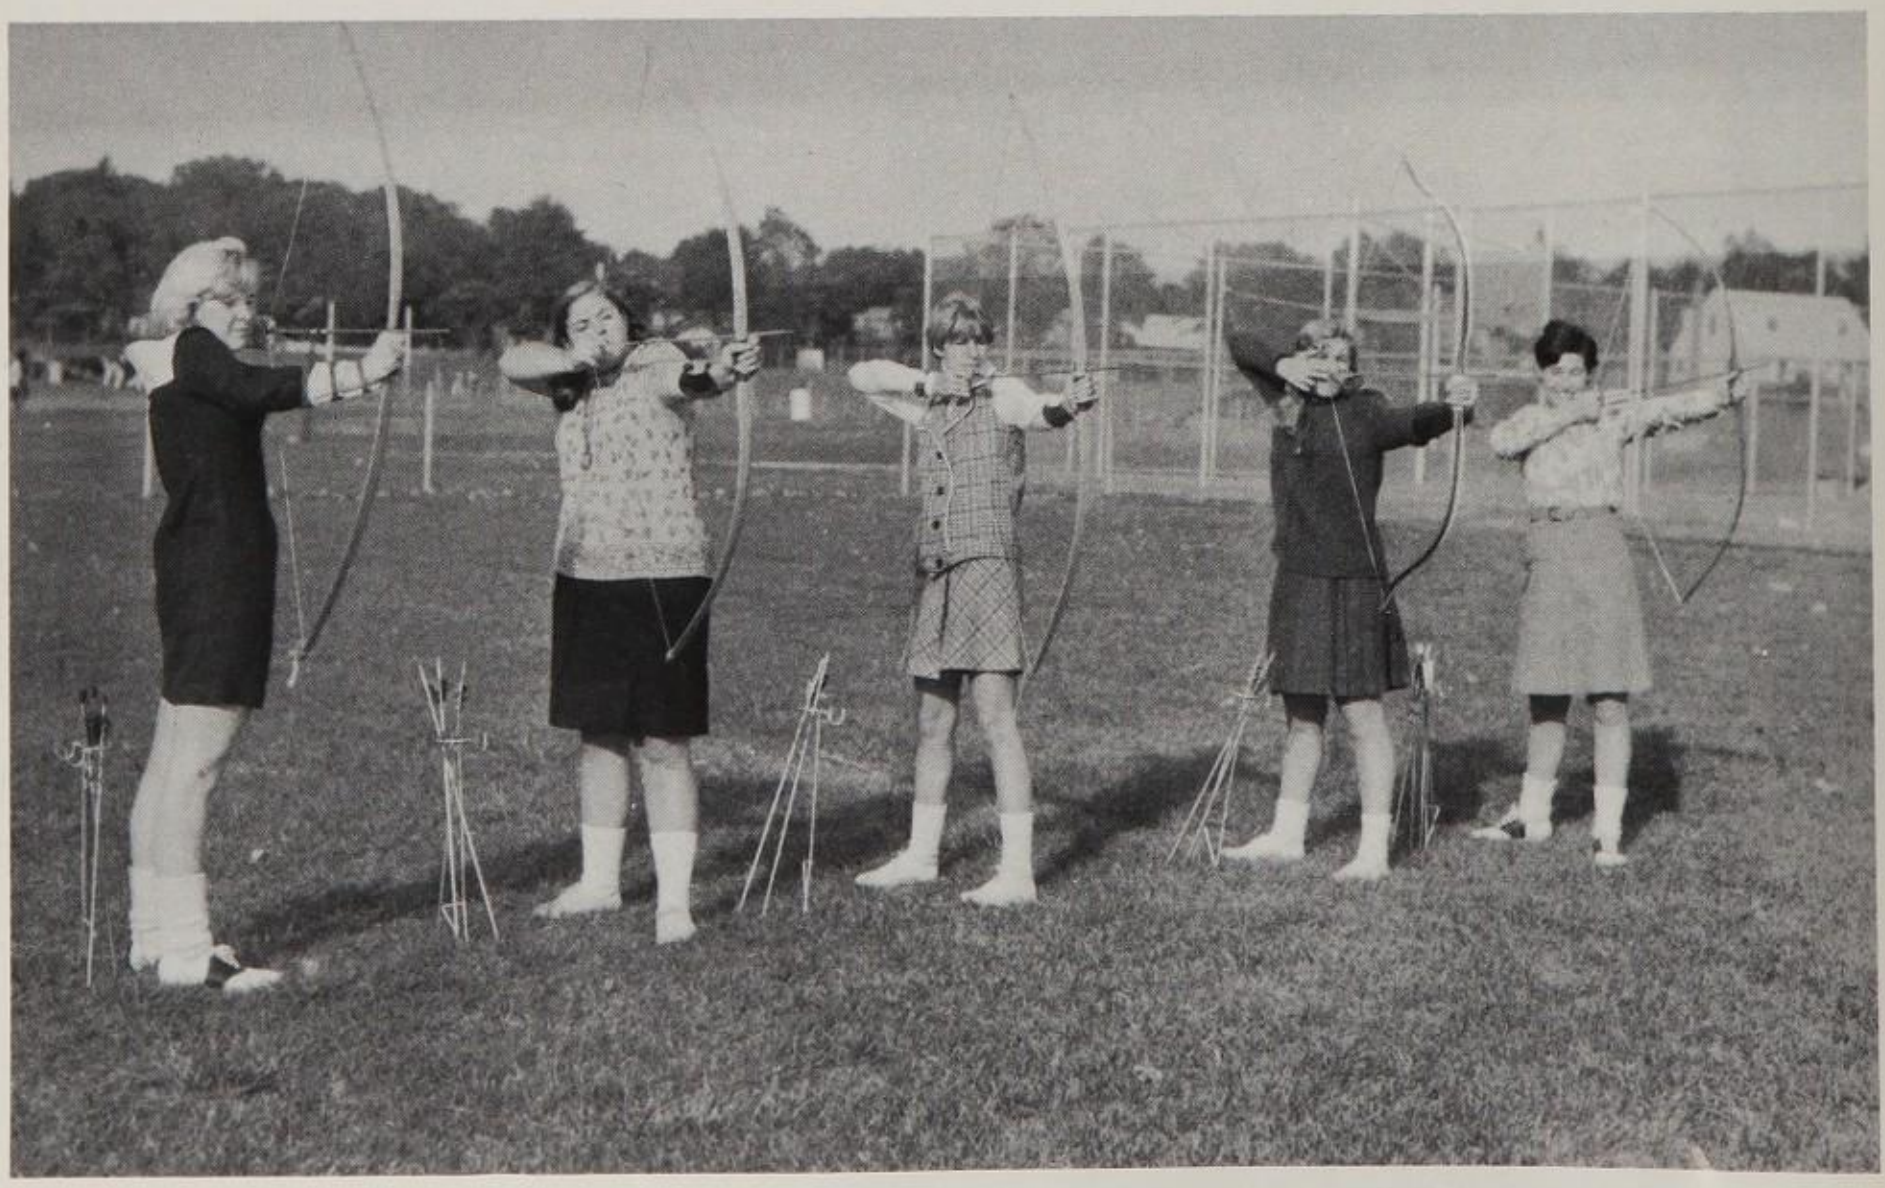
"Keep your eye on the ball!" Table Tennis in action.

BASKETBALL

Front row: Rose Mary Gelshenen, Marva Brunson, Pamela Barney, Jackie V. Martin. Back row: Wilma Russ, Marie Jones, Jean Strider, Elaine Costen.

ARCHERY

Patricia Devlin, Helene Magarik, Carol Drath, Sondra Wagner, Robin Gerson.



Basketball for Malverne's girls is a rugged sport. The participants not only shoot for baskets but also acquire a deep understanding of true sportsmanship. Practicing after school, the girls have been incorporated into several teams. Under the Long Island Girls Association, these include the honor and reserve teams. Not all the girls see play at one time, for the details of scoring, timing, and generally officiating must be mastered. Malverne girls readily volunteer for these duties. As well as excelling in skills, each Malvernite practices sportsmanship, classic theme of our Alma Mater, whether in competition or regular play. The sport of basketball carries the notice of a national sport. Malverne girls enjoy playing this typically American game.

Archery requires a good sense of direction, a steady aim, and patience. Over the years, this sport has become increasingly more attractive to Malverne girls. Today's participants have an acute sense of sportsmanship, for besides being fun, archery develops their athletic skills. The basic equipment needed for archery includes an arrow stand (target), finger guards, arm guards, and bow and arrow. Though archery may appear to be an easy game to the observer, it takes much practice (and muscles) to hit the bullseye. On a clear sunny day, the team displays its talents, for as in most sports, practice makes perfect. The girls on Malverne's archery team are to be commended for their dedication to this ancient and honorable sport.

Hockey is a sport which enjoys general enthusiasm. Malverne's girls worked hard to master the skills required of good hockey players. They practiced after school; learned to wield the new equipment, and to care for it, also; and learned to display the qualities of good sportsmanship. They played other schools at home and away and ended the season with a good record. Hockey is a sport girls like particularly because it emulates the noted boys' sport. The real exercise involved enables the girls to not only improve their skills but to better understand the national game. Watching the girls on the field on a sunny day is a special treat: an example of Malverne sportsmanship and feminine skills.

Front row: Sandra Elrod, Renee Larrier, Debra Hawkins, Audrey Thompson, Evelyn Carr, Linda Francis. Back row: Carol Covington, Pamela Barney, Jackie V. Martin, Sandra Evans, Joanne Doyle, Marva Brunson, Fay Johnson, Elaine Costen.

HOCKEY

SOFT

Front row: Gloria Carroll, Sandra Elrod, Sondria Sellers, Edith Brockenborough, Johnnie Truitt. Standing: Mrs. Gruber, Bennie Sue Morrison, Judy Neff, Marie Jones, Denise Macklin, Elaine Costen, Jackie V. Martin, Jackie C. Martin, Angela Negron, Evelyn Carr.

Volleyball is a great sport and Malverne girls excell in learning its skills and perfecting the game. This year the team record was very good as we had four winning games to two loses. As always, in competition with one another and with other schools, Malverne believes in good sportsmanship whether we win or lose. Each girl strives to win, but at the same time to win fairly, to congratulate her opponent upon a fine game, and to generally bring good will and enthusiasm to all sports. As a result, Malverne girls have made friendships all over Long Island by displaying the true Malverne spirit. Malverne is proud to cheer the girls' Volleyball Team for its victories and fair play.

VOLLEY BALL

Front row: Patricia Devlin, Peggy Gregory, Susan Mott, Johnnie Truitt, Anita Greene, Patricia Russell, Pamela Corbin, Miss Koch. Back row: Helen Fisher, Elaine Costen, Pamela Barney, Marva Brunson, Denise Macklin, Susan Joyce, Marie Jones, Jean Strider, Jackie V. Martin.

BALL

Kneeling: Gloria Carroll, Benni Sue Morrison, Joanne Smith, Diane Costen, Johnnie Truitt. Standing: Angela Negro, Audrey Nipper, Barbara Liles, Denise Macklin, Marie Jones, Jean Strider, Jackie C. Martin.

Softball is a team sport that requires stamina, skill, a winning spirit and cooperation. The girls practice hard, developing techniques that pay off in competition. Batting, catching, pitching, and running are a few of the skills needed for softball, as well as other sports. Spring afternoons one may find the girls' team on any one of Malverne's fields, playing a satisfying game. Later, when watching a professional game, the girls' knowledge of softball makes the game much more exciting and meaningful for them. Participation in a team sport is excellent experience. Creating a successful team out of a group of girls takes organization and skill. Malverne girls welcome the opportunity to show their true mettle!

Of particular interest this year is Malverne's pride in having a second award winner in the State Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Last year Principal John K. Archer was honored by the Association for his many years of service to high school athletics. This year, Mrs. Elizabeth Arnone received the Distinguished Service Award. As students we appreciate the guidance and experience of these fine educators, and we are proud that they belong to Malverne. Congratulations for the 1967 award to Principal John K. Archer; and congratulations for the 1968 award to Mrs. Elizabeth Arnone.

TENNIS

Seated: Coach Lester Hanson, Harold Rhodes, Michael Abrams, Michael Krasnow, Eric Kayne, Steven Schwalb. Standing: Andrew Harrison, James Weggler, Randy Epner, John Birchill, Jay Greenspan, James Freedman.

The 1967–68 Tennis Team racked up a record of 1–11. However, on five occasions the team lost by a score of 3–2, which shows how closely they and their opponents were matched. Two players on the team held a winning record: Captain Jay Greenspan, playing second singles (9–3), and Randy Epner, playing first singles (8–4). In addition, James Freedman, a freshman, playing third singles, has a great potential in being Malverne's number one man in the coming years. Harold Rhodes, Mitchell Abrams, Steve Schwalb, James Weggler, Eric Kayne, Andy Harrison, John Birchill, and Michael Krasnow were other star performers on the team. The team's record will be improved by increasing support and interest in the game on the part of Malverne spectators. Wait till next year!

A Malverne doubles in full swing.

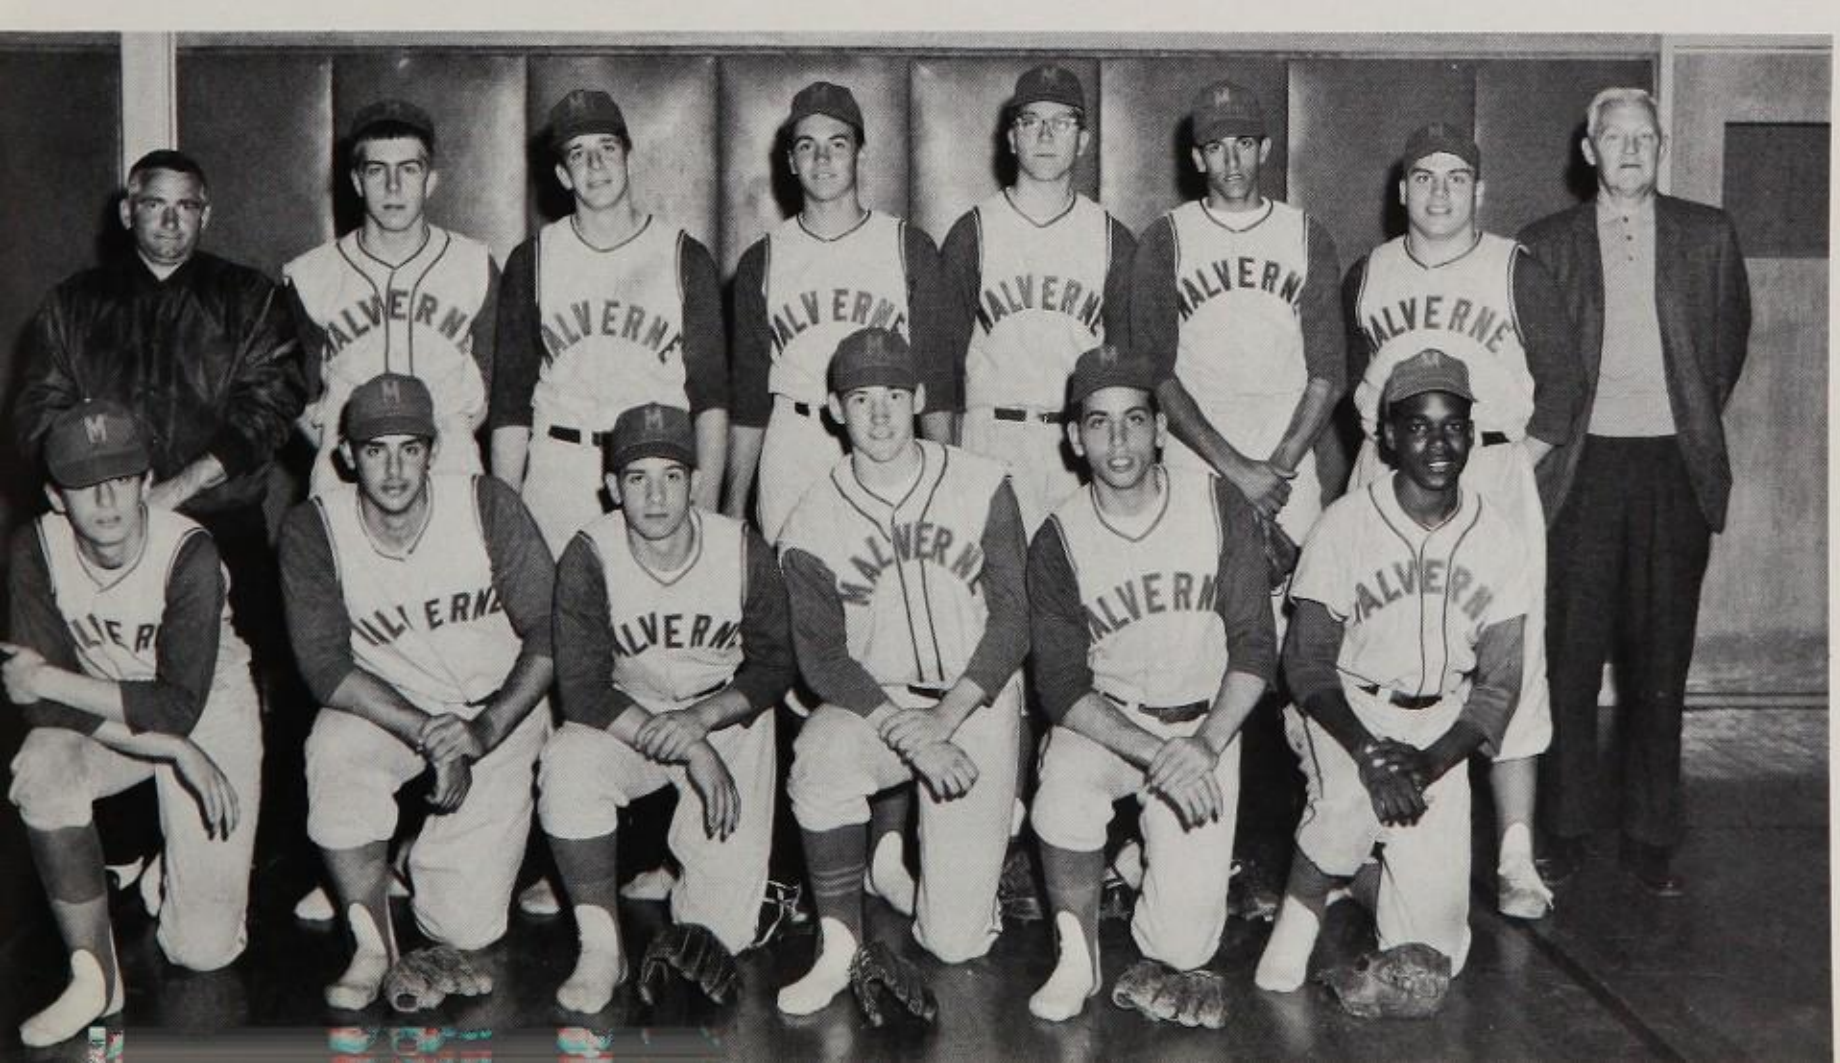
Photos prove Malverne's Baseball Team plays a rough and tumble game!

Front row: Michael Vetere, Steven Schwalb, Ronald Perlman, Wayne Faber, Andy Tennin, Charles Camisa, Charles Glover. Standing: John Natoli, Michael Mineo, Thomas Bagensie, Raymond Wedell, Jeffrey Allen, George Scola, James Weggler, Charles Lamb, Coach Ronald Rice.

BASEBALL

This year's, Malverne's Baseball Team, under the supervision of Coach Lou Orta and Coach Lester Hanson, had another good season. Although the team will suffer the loss of several of its best senior players, a large and talented J V squad will be able to fill the gap. With the experienced pitching of Craig Buschman and some good prospect hitters, Malverne plans to be a contender in the county playoffs. The success of the team depends on the J V group under the direction of Coach Ronald Rice. Both teams worked as a unit, and the enthusiasm of the older players was reflected in the cooperation and teamwork of the rookies. As always, a deciding factor in producing a winning team is the participation of the student body. Win or lose, the backing of a loud and cheerful rooting section is all important. The future promises a super baseball lineup, so, Malvernites, come out and cheer us on to victory!

Front row: William Mudrey, William Lombardo, Ralph Venezia, Joseph Alta, Joseph Forstot, Glenn Cassis. Back row: Coach Louis Orta, John Bagensie, Peter Stone, Craig Buschman, Michael Alban, Joseph Buonaiuto, Reid Hirschenbaum, Coach Lester Hanson.



BOWLING

VARSITY

Robert Walker, Robert Parrotta, Randy Epner, Kevin Chetel, David Kirchberg, Coach Douglas Dye.

Malverne's Bowling Team, under the leadership of Coach Douglas Dye, had a winning season in the traditional Malverne manner. Malverne's Varsity was led by junior bowler Kevin Chetel and team captain David Kirchberg. Other bowlers backing up the Varsity were seniors Douglas Blaisdell and Robert Walker, and juniors Andrew Tennin and Randy Epner. Malverne's Junior Varsity bowled this season with juniors Steve Schwalb, Vincent Altadonna, and Jim Weggler looking toward the future of the Varsity goal. Malverne looks in anticipation toward next season, when once again we will continue in the tradition of superior bowling. Bowling, a national sport, is near and dear to Malverne sport enthusiasts. The fellows who learn to bowl and who make up our fine teams set a pattern for years to come in skill and sportsmanship.

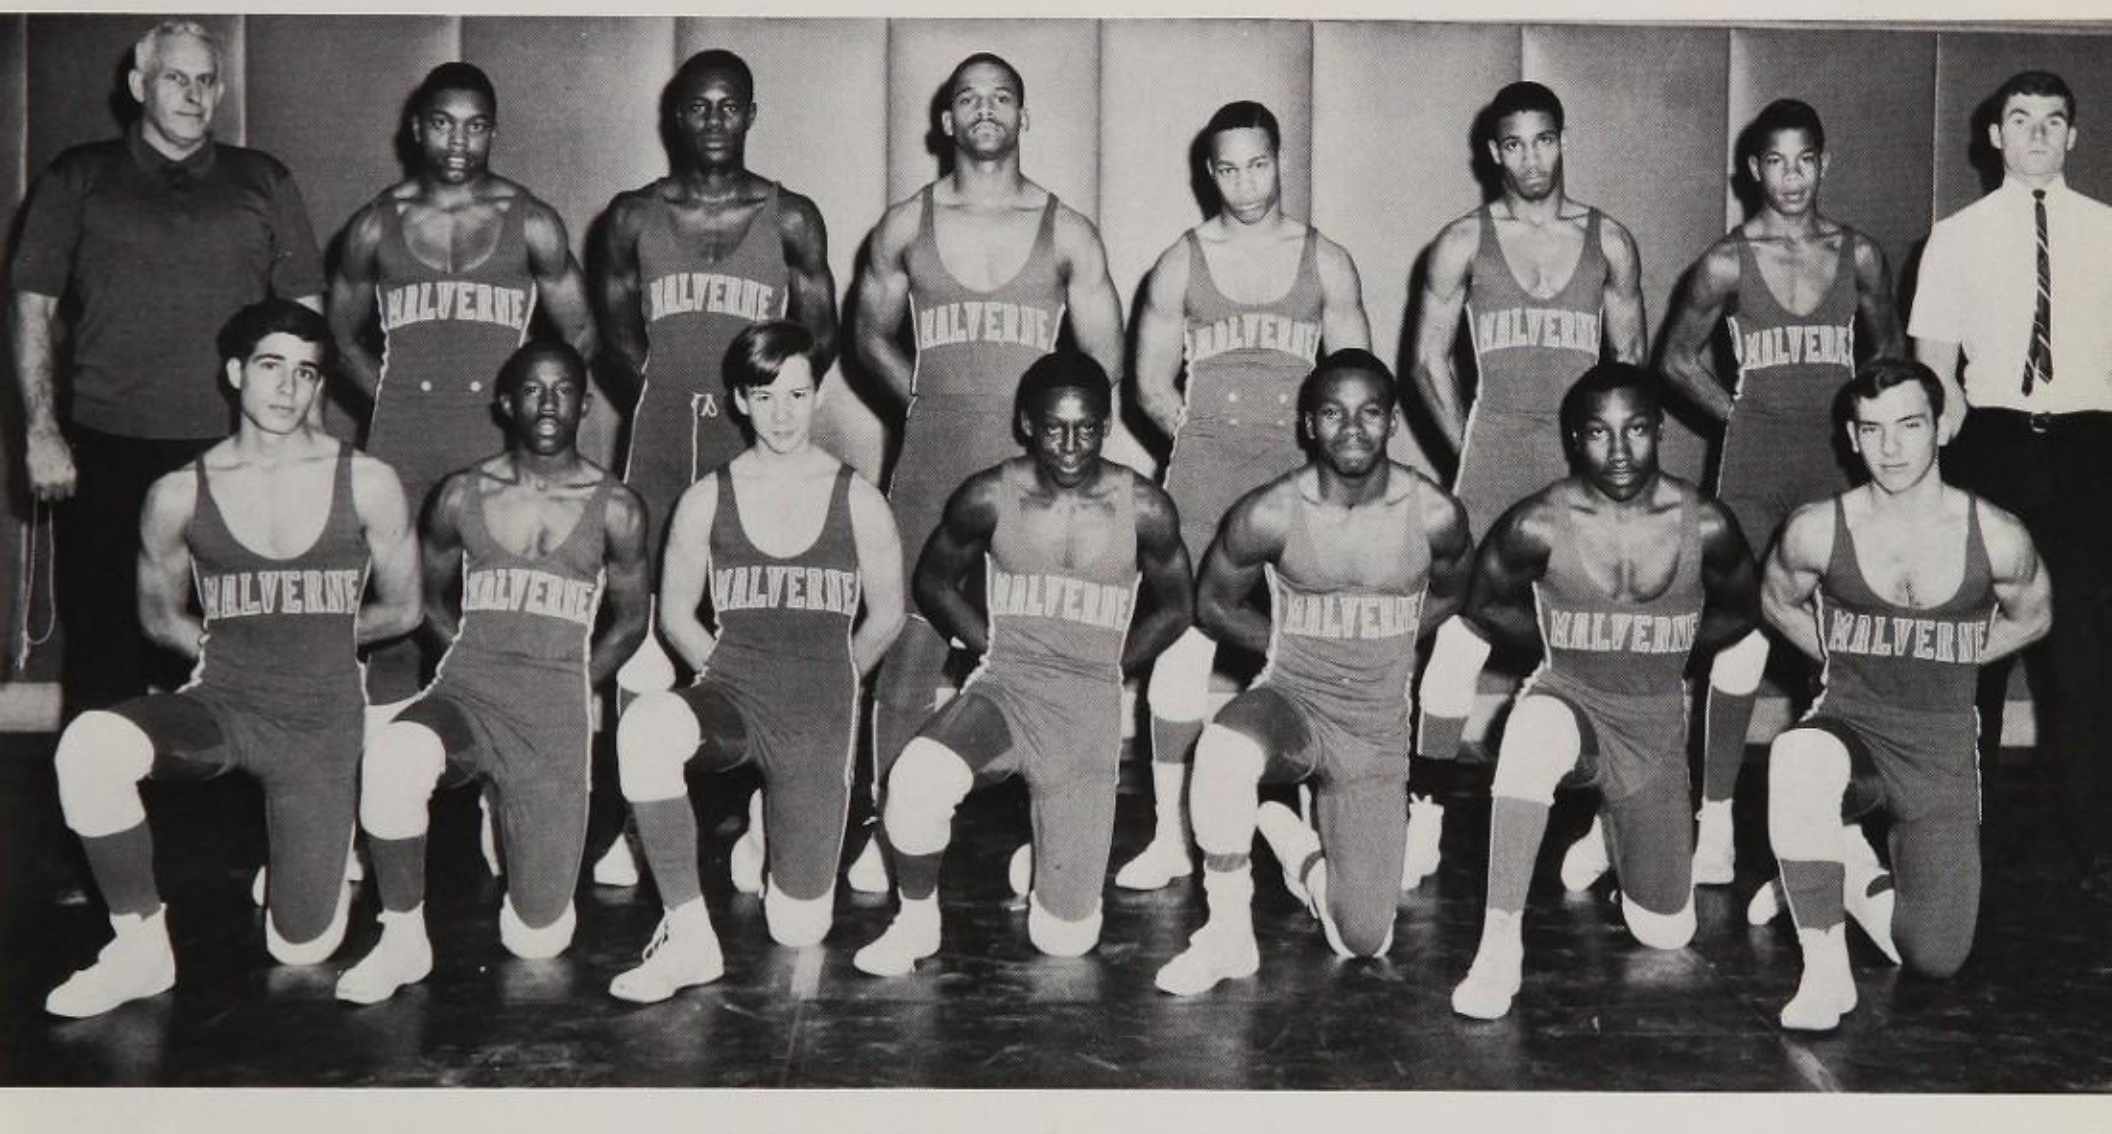
JAYVEE

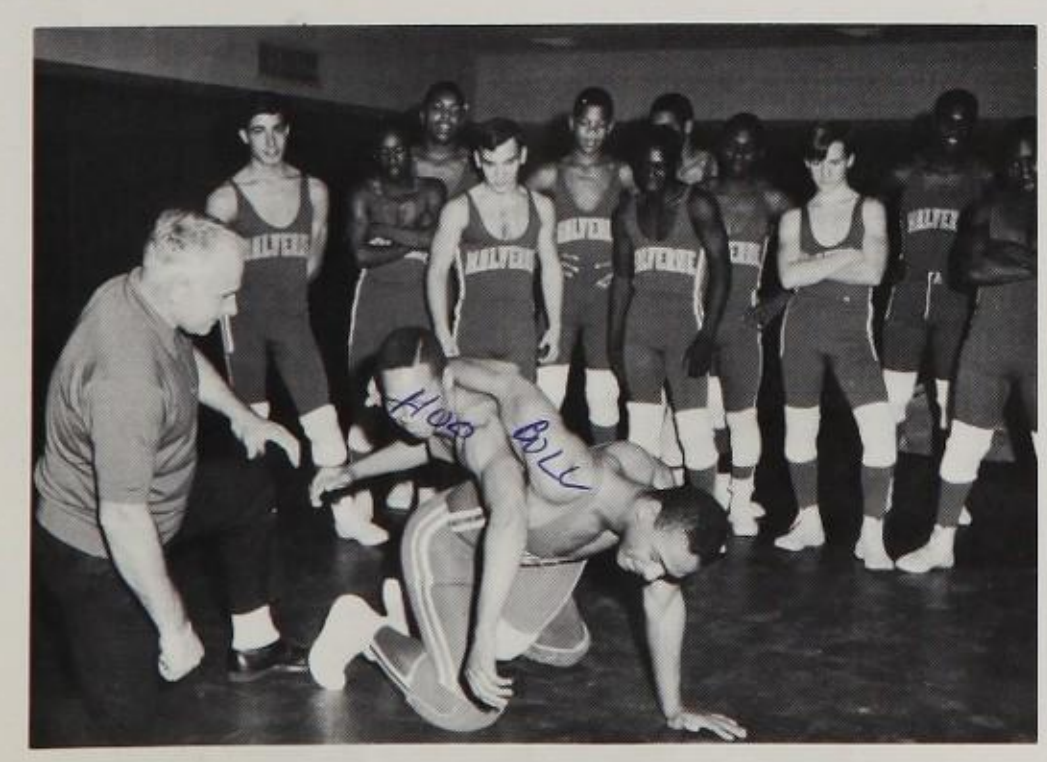
Steven Schwalb, Calvin Fearington, Steven Mack, Eric Kayne, James Giordano, Richard Lavelle, Coach Dye.

Front row: James Capasso, George Smith, Peter Sass, Eric Rhodes, Alvin Jordan, Lon Jones, Alan Fein. Standing: Coach Charles Fuge, Waddie Lattimer, William Haskins, Kenneth Harris, James Hubbard, Brian Goodden, Claude James, Manager Charles Lamb. Not shown: Steve Altman, Guy Penna, Michael McCormick, Clifford Yearby.

WRESTLING

Malverne's Wrestling Team is comprised mainly of first-year men. However, it shows great potential as a team and boasts several superior wrestlers. At a loss for matmen to fill the 106 pound and unlimited weight classes, Malverne, nevertheless, put up some tough matches against experienced and veteran teams. Our veterans, who made up the backbone of the team, were Kenny Harris, James Hubbard, and Guy Penna. Noteworthy performances were turned in by sophomores Alvin Jordan, George Smith, Eric Rhodes, and Waddie Lattimer, and junior Steve Altman. Under the direction of Coach Charles Fuge, the team developed from a young and inexperienced squad to one that shows fine potential for the future.

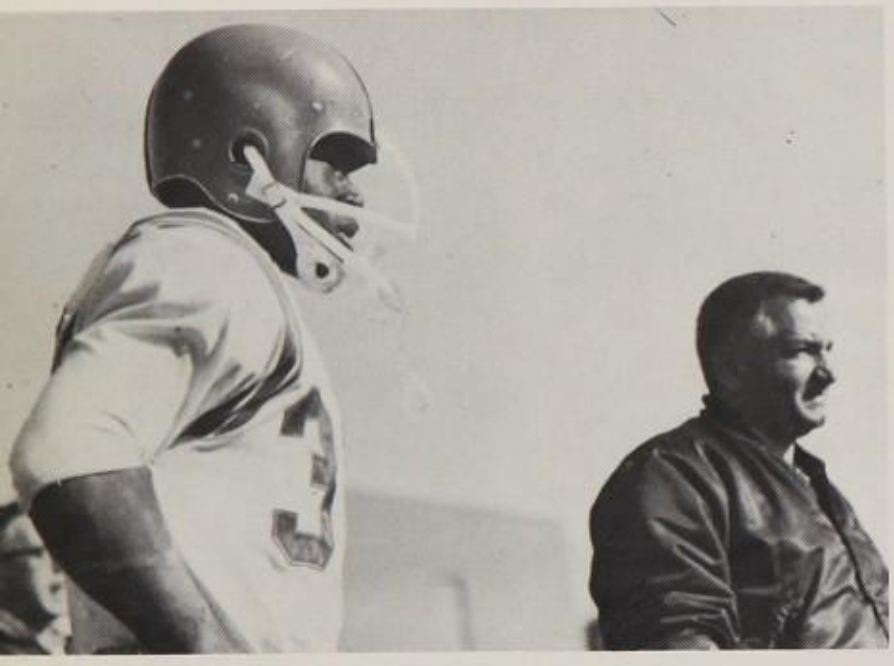




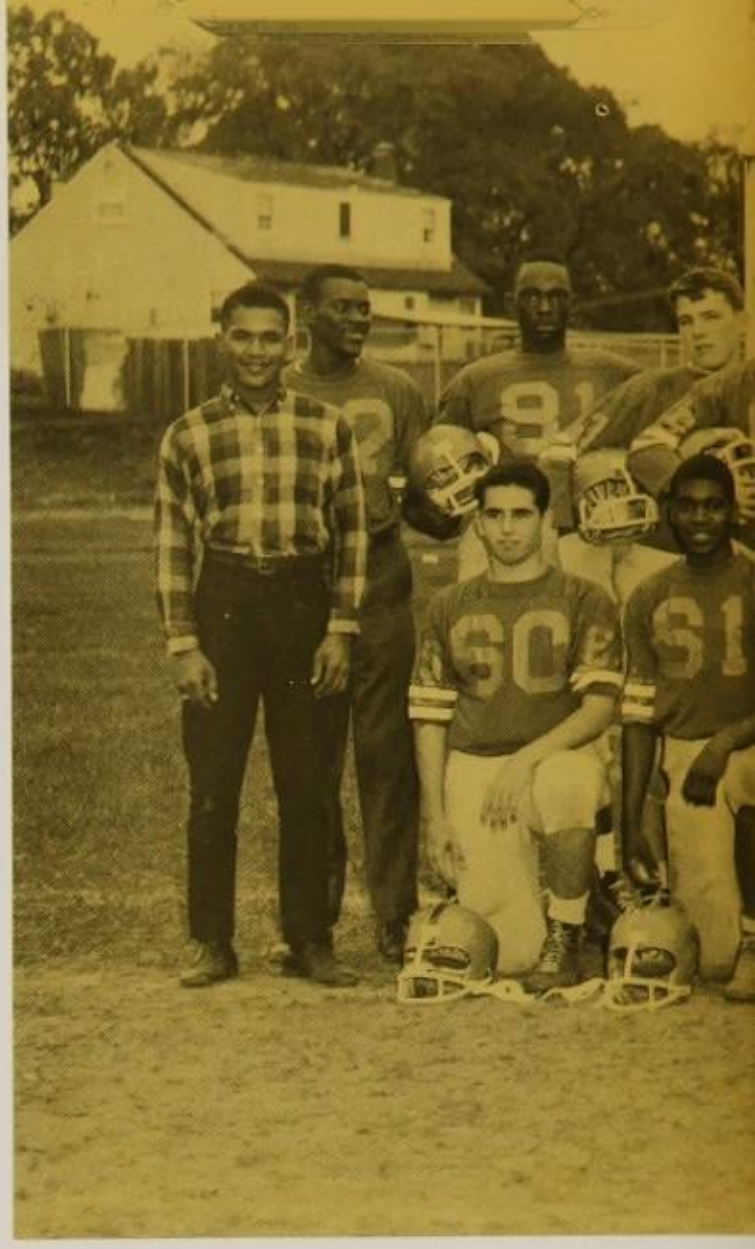
After some bad starts at the beginning of the year, Malverne began to take hold in this demanding sport of wrestling. Individually strong, the Malverne team now seeks men to fill the required weight classes that go to make up a wrestling squad. If we strive to give the boys our full support in the future, Malverne can become A–1 in the wrestling field. It is a rugged sport which builds body strength, skills, and personal character. The element of fair play is important in such an artful sport, and Malverne boys learn fast to plan their strategy as they struggle to fell their opponents. The future of wrestling in Malverne is bright if we as students and participants alike give our teams the necessary support and encouragement.

FOOTBALL

The season opened with the team winning a 13–6 victory over West Hempstead! The year looked bright. However, injuries began to plague the Malverne team, even as the great pros have trouble. For example, we lost the services of a great quarterback when Warren Benson was forced to give up football because of a knee injury. Injuries also hit starters Carter Morrison, David DeSilvia, Mark Lynch, and Vernon Riggins. But there were a few bright spots! Captains James Jackson and Ken Harris, along with Otis Glenn, were those bright spots.



On a clear day, you can see forever . . .

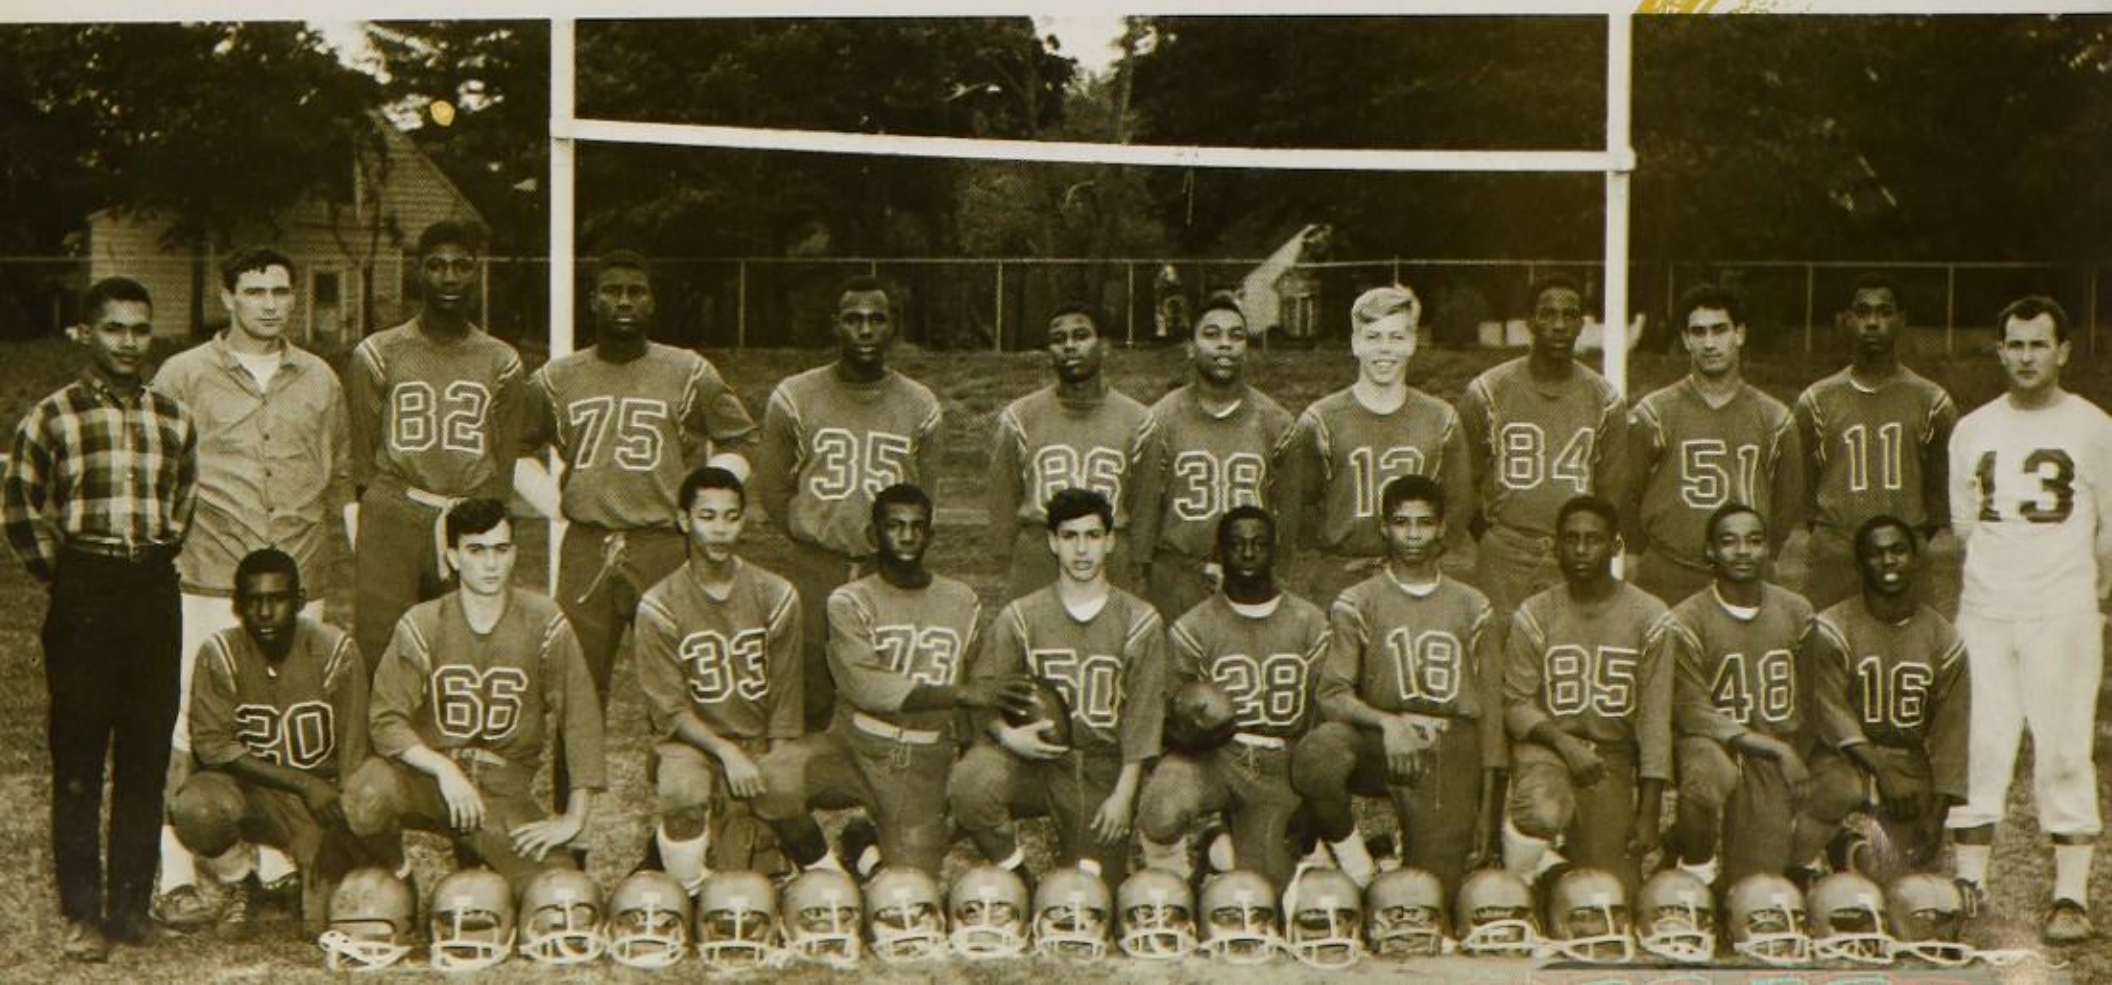


VARSITY

Kneeling: Michael Mineo, Glenn Cassis, Thomas Hammond, Alfred Humphrey, Mitchell Rhodes, Curtis Fluker, Mark Lynch, James Hubbard, Tony Anderson, Otis Glenn, Vernon Riggins. Standing: Manager Morris Scott, Michael Jones, Elliot Cooper, Patrick Ehlen, Charles Lamb, Mark O'Dare, Rodney Shelto, Kenneth Harris, James Jackson, Warren Danzler, Carter Morrison, Dave DeSilva, Barry Evans, Paul Renaghan, Jose Vives, Jeffrey Allen, Coach Louis Orta.

JAY VEE

Kneeling: Herb Puryear, Bruce Verdecanna, Calvin Watson, Harold Wiggins, Danny Carluccio, Eric Rhodes, Joseph Robinson, Barry Wells, Ralph Costen, Thomas Ray. Standing: Manager Morris Scott, Coach Richard Rice, Robert Williams, Ronald Mason, Bill Haskins, Charles Philips, Waddie Lattimer, Thomas Bagensie, Calvin Fearington, Nick Kumbatovic, James Morrison, Coach Dennis Craig.



Two of the best players proved to be Harris and Glenn in Division 4 results, and Harris made the All-League Team. Jackson not only made the All-League but the All-South Shore Team and was on the 2nd All-County Team. Though this was less than a banner year for Malverne, and the fact that Jackson, Harris, and Glenn will be graduated, the outlook for next year is good. Jamie Morrison, Ralph Costen, Nick Kumbatovic, Dan Carluccio, and Robert Williams lead a strong J.V. Team that hopes to bring Malverne football back to a winning team.

Touchdown on its way!

MART 40
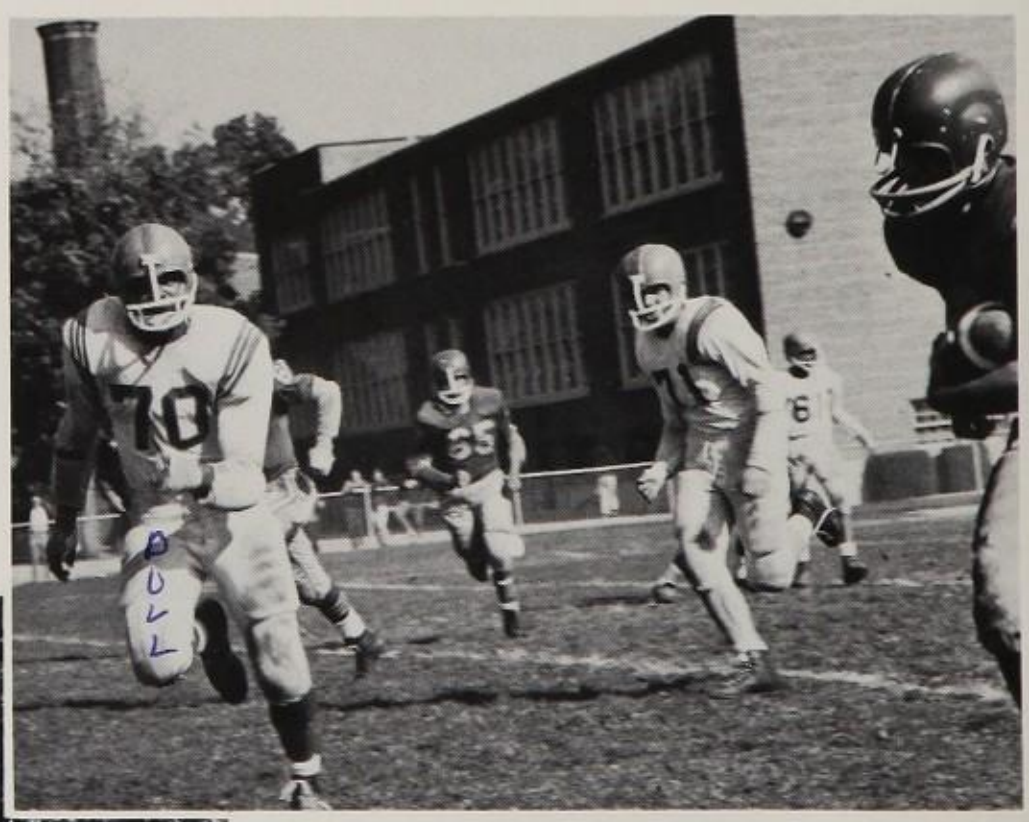
OTIS
33



70
BULL
65

71 73
J. Bop
27
32

Malverne played some powerful games this year. Pictured on these pages are some of the most memorable examples of the Malverne spirit. Those of us who supported our teams and cheered them on shared with them the excitement of the game and of their valiant efforts. The truly American sport personifies the ideals behind our teams' efforts to win with teamwork and a spirit of fair play.

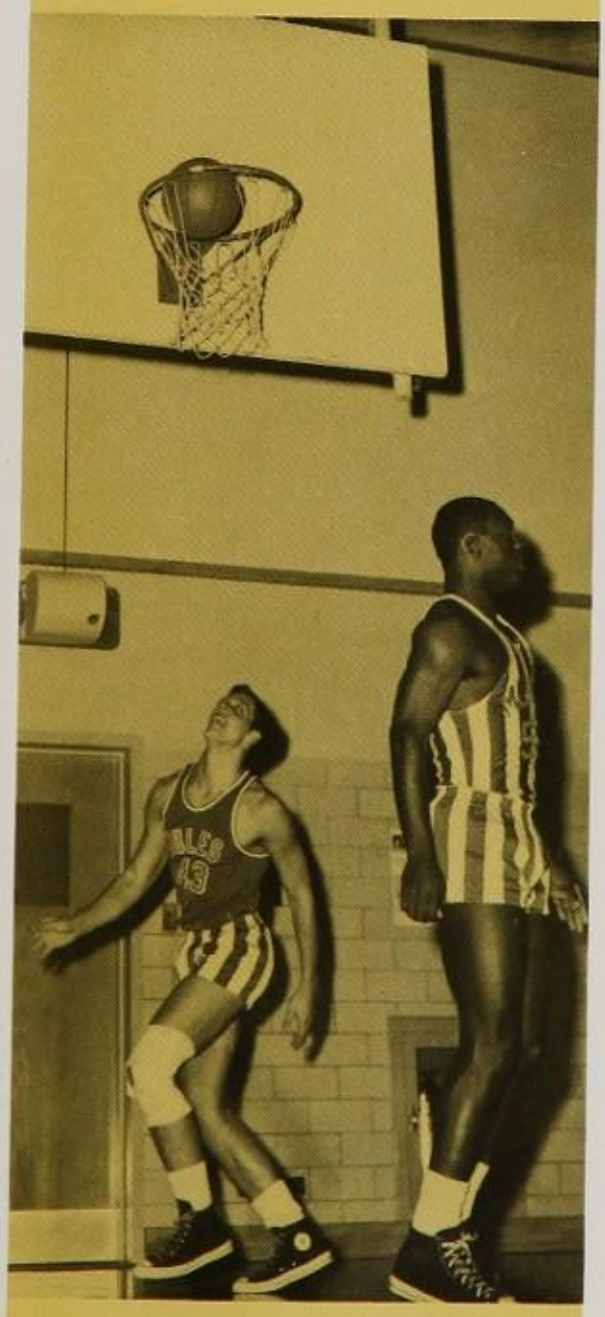
BASKETBALL

JAY VEE

Kneeling: Thomas Bagensie, Alfred Humphrey, Calvin Cunningham, LeRoy Allen, Ronald Perlman, Mark O'Dare, Eric Marshall. Standing: Manager Victor Jorgensen, Vernon Robinson, Craig Buschman, Leon Russ, James Jackson, Elliot Cooper, Warren Benson, Coach Ray Nerrie.

VARSITY

Kneeling: Nick Kumbatovic, Alexander Cribbs, Robert Valenoti, Nathan Guc, Horace Bradley, Mark Lynch, Bradley Hinton. Standing: Manager Ralph Costen, David Castleman, Charles Weggler, Richard Hochstaetter, Larry Sintal, William Hill, Spurgeon Parchment, Robert Williams, Edward Smith, Coach Arnold Jonas.



MULES

30

WHOPPER

MULES
18 10 12 30

47

CAROL

30

13

40
48

55

TRACK

Front row: David Waldron, Warren Danzler, Robert Napolitano, Joseph Battaglia, Allen Coles, John Umphlett, Guy Penna, Herbert Harrison, Larry Costen, Michael Battaglia, Douglas Sommer, David Wagner, William Winston. Standing: Coach Morgan, Joseph Darville, Bruce McLean, Kevin Colwell, Nick Kumbatovic, Kenneth Amann, Lewis Furman, Alfred Humphrey, James Jackson, LeRoy Allen, Skip Butler, Reginald Dunlap, Leon Russ, Larry Morgan, Kenneth Harris, José Vives, Paul Renaghan, Lonny Teasley, Coach Fuge.

Malverne's Track Team saw an extremely successful season this year. Losing very few seniors from last year's team, which lost only one league match, we were in contention for the top spot! Under the guidance of Coach Charles Fuge and Coach Harding Morgan, Malverne was strong in both the field and running events. With a host of long-distance runners back after a good season of Cross Country, Malverne saw an excellent performance from Robert Napolitano, David Wagner, Edward Smith, and Herbert Harrison, to mention only a few. In the field events, James Jackson, Kevin Colwell, and Kenny Harris did well, while Alfred Humphrey and many others dominated the short-distance running events. Having something for everyone, track and field is a fine sport. It is also a good spectator's sport. For this reason we should all come out to the events and cheer our squads on to victory. The good will and fine performances of the team are in the true tradition of Malverne school spirit.

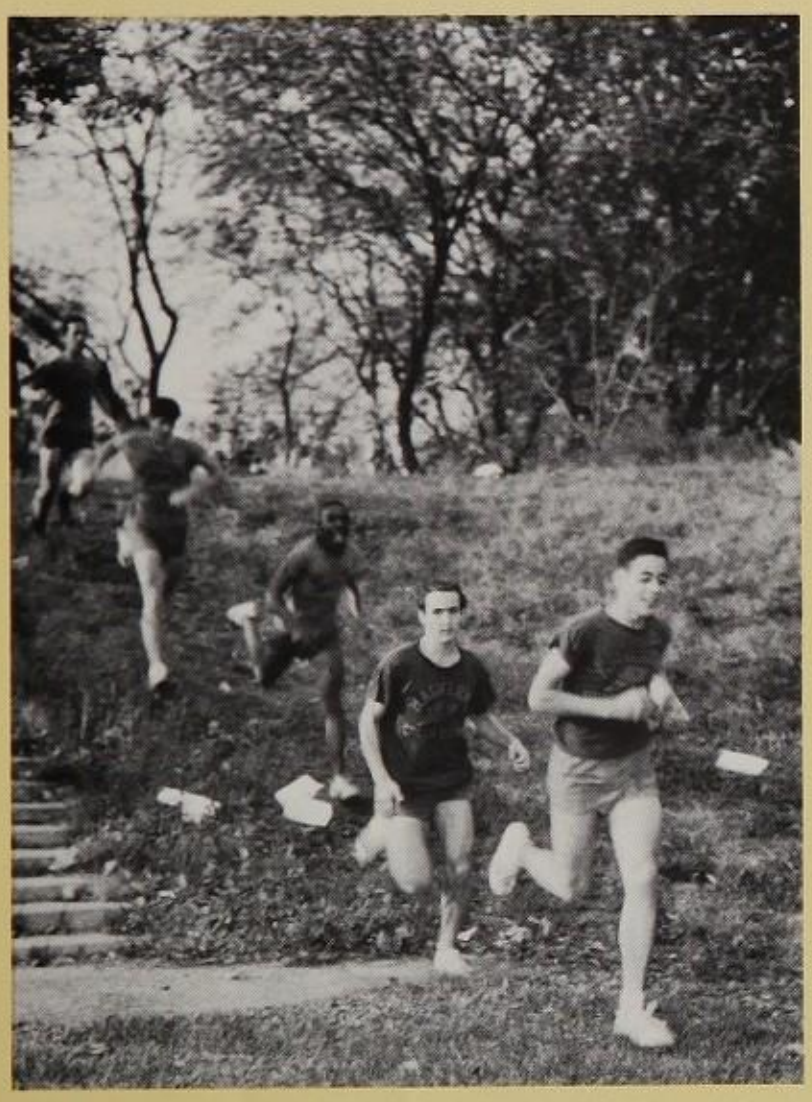
Front row: Guy Penna, Douglas Sommer, Barry Wexler, Robert Napolitano, George Scola, Herbert Harrison, Alan Fein, George Smith. Standing: Coach Harding Morgan, George Simmons, Fred Thaggard, Charles Weggler, Timothy Aland, John Bagensie, David Wagner, Edward Smith, John Renaghan.

CROSS COUNTRY

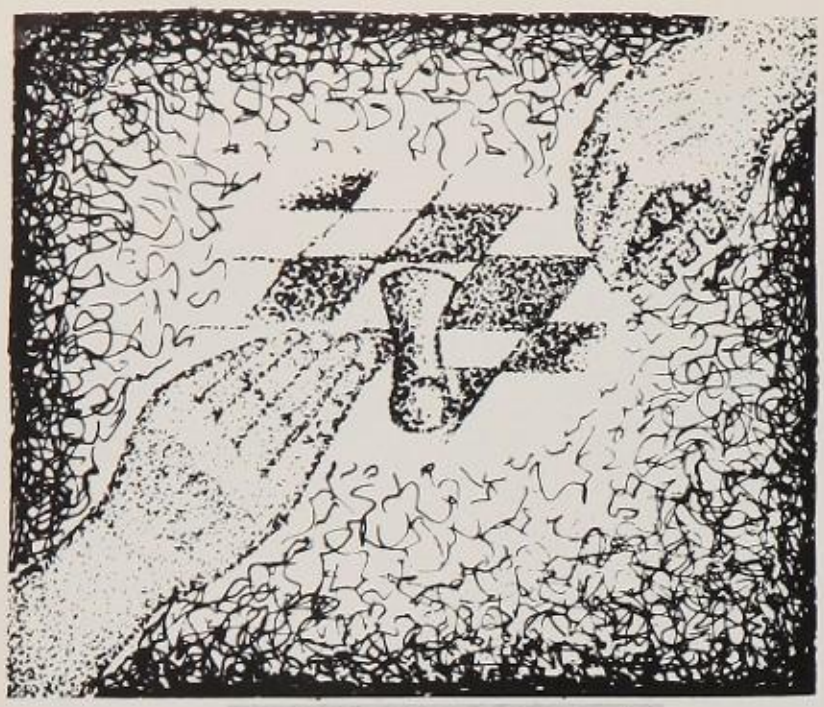
Ready! Get set! Bang!

Decending Malverne's Everest.

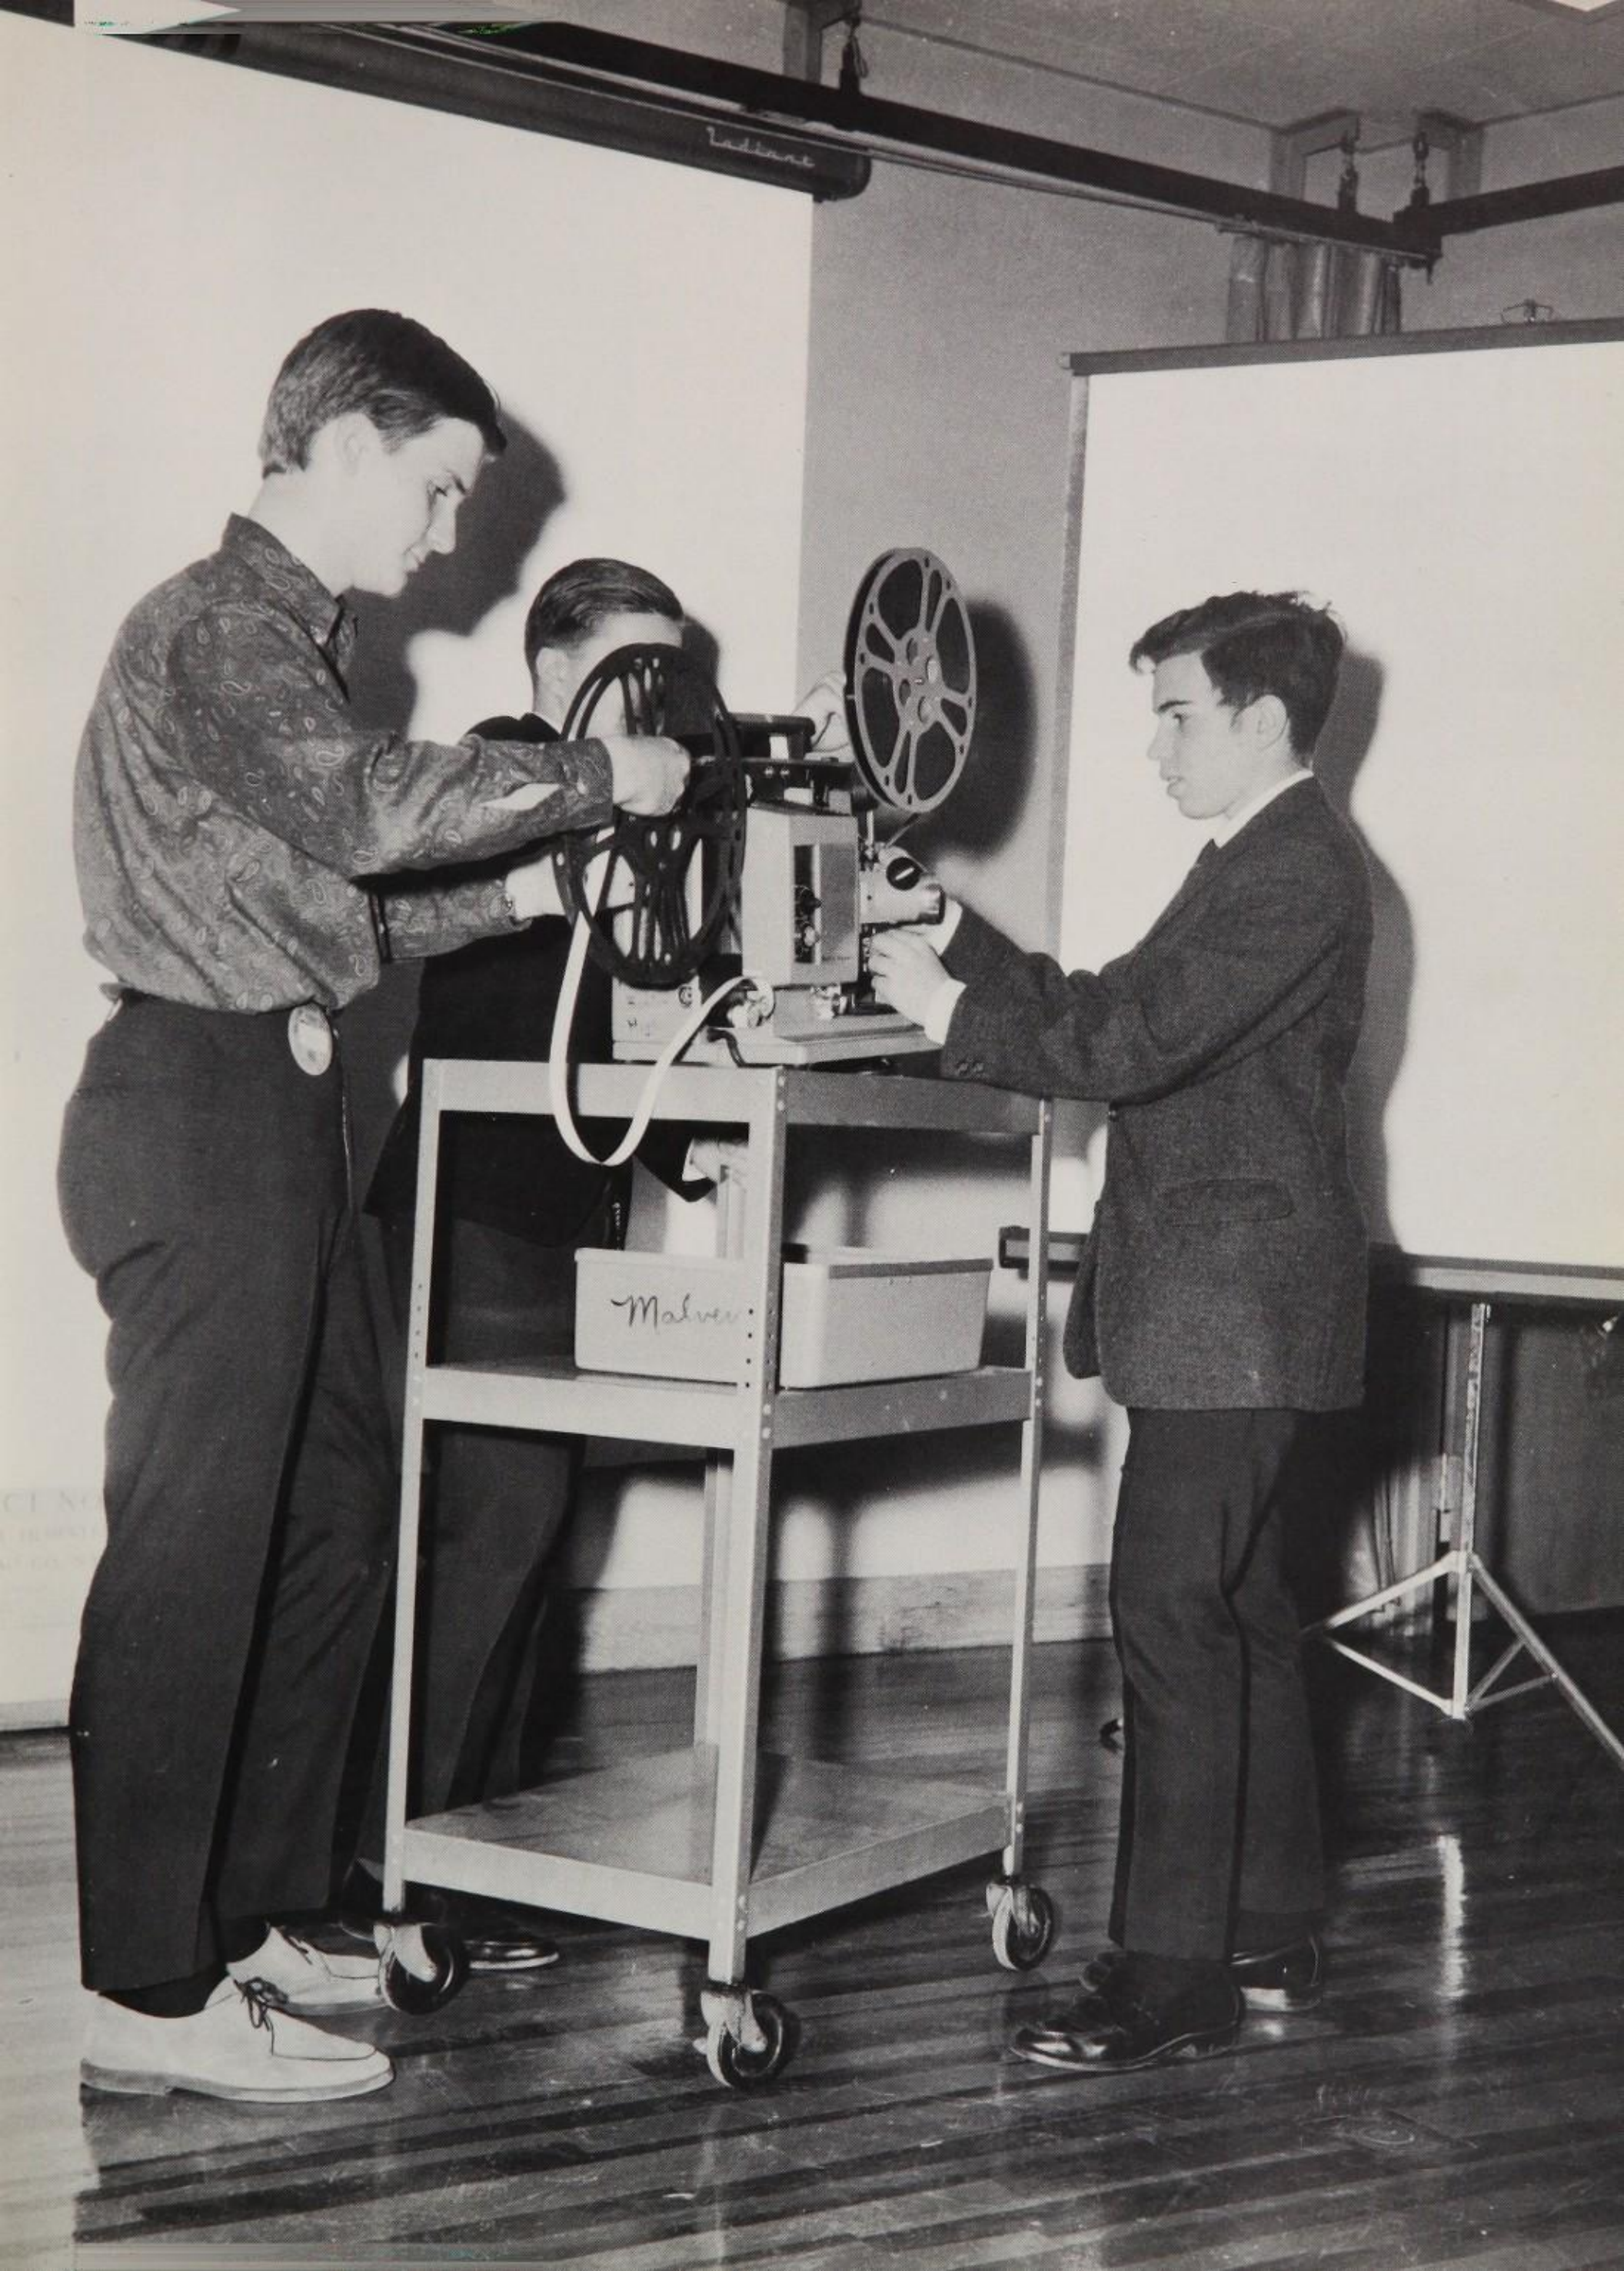
Malverne men kick out on the backstretch.



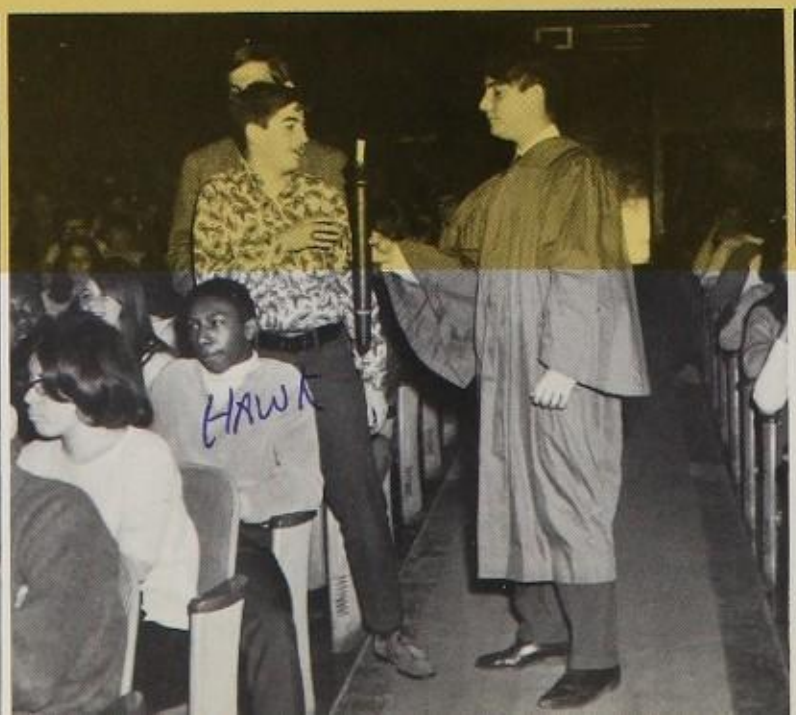
In the building process for the past two years, Malverne's Cross Country Team has sought to regain the state championship it reached two years ago. Under the guidance of Coach Harding Morgan, the roadrunners turned in a respectable win-loss record of 8–5. Composed mainly of underclassmen, Varsity veterans were Robert Napolitano and George Simmons, although the consistently best runner was Ed Smith. Other Varsity runners, who put in good efforts each week, were junior Herbert Harrison, and newcomers Fred Thaggard and David Wagner. Seniors Kevin Colwell, Guy Penna, Doug Summer, and John Renaghan comprised the other veteran runners of the team. Although a tenth place was the record of the Malverne harriers in the Sectionals, good prospects and a fine-spirited team give strong hopes for Cross Country next year. Cross Country is a strong college and high school sport, and many boys join their college teams and make good showings. This is a sport which spectators cheer and which participants also like because of the expert skills one can develop and the records always to be broken. Malverne's team joins the best in this great sport.

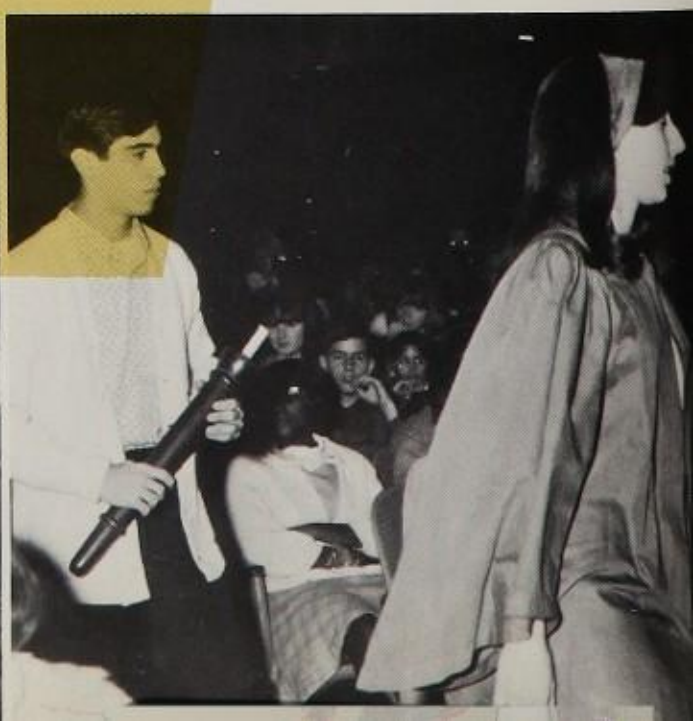


ACTIVITIES



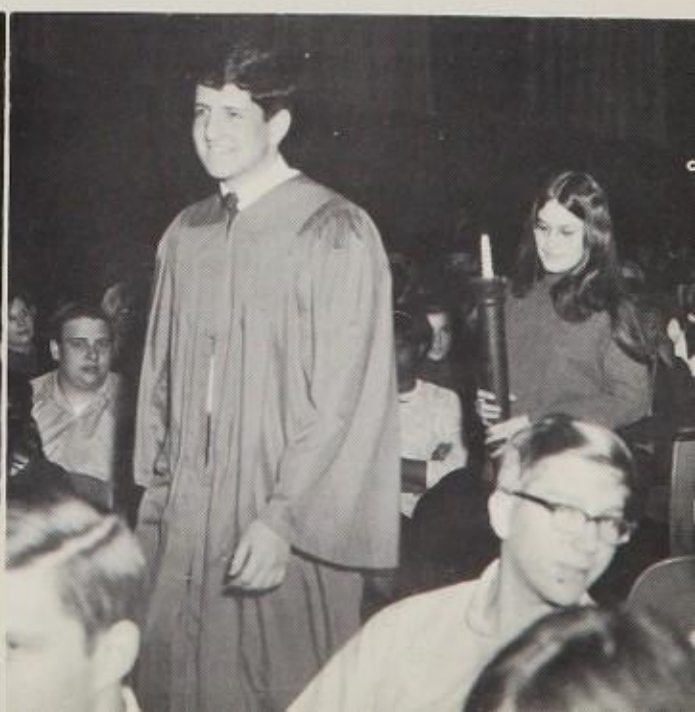
Every year no more than fifteen percent of the junior class and ten percent of the senior class are inducted into Malverne's chapter of the National Honor Society. In an impressive spring assembly, the scholarship, leadership, service, and character of Malverne's finest are rewarded as they are inducted into the organization in a candle-lit ceremony. The Society conducts this assembly, preparing speeches of inspirational quality, under the direction of adviser Mr. Allan Johnson. Before the entire student body and invited guests, new Honor Society members are brought to the stage to recite the pledge and receive their membership cards and pins. These are more than top honor students, they are the leaders of our school. They display school spirit and loyalty by participating in sports, clubs, and service projects. Indeed, one often finds an Honor Society member giving active support and leadership not only in school organizations but also in community projects. These outstanding students deserve commendation for their achievements, for they are the serious-minded young men and women who will become America's future leaders.





NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Seated: Fred Woocher, Stefanie Forray, Laura Freundlich, Mary Hill, Lois Rightmeyer, Rosemary Gelshenen, Renee Larrier, Jeanne Dowell, Raymond Harvey. Standing: Mr. Johnson, Craig Bushman, Gary Levitt, Michael Castleman, David Porter, Kong Ng, Ira Kay, Arnold Feist, Guy Penna, Eugene Coronetz, Walker Trussell.



ATTENDANCE ASSISTANTS

Clifford Morse, Michael Battaglia, Fern Bleckner, Christine Sorensen, Paula Mazzara, Deborah Bates, Juno Williams, La-Jana Powell, Carole Drath, Irene Castelle, Yvette Carr, Joan Brooks, Anne Marie Zaccaro, Barbara Brooks, Linda Pierce, Gale Penna.

Malverne High School has many student assistants, but none is more important than the Attendance Assistants. Every morning they distribute attendance cards to each homeroom and, at the end of that period, they collect the records. The adviser for the squad is Mrs. Mildred Francis. The job includes giving up free time during homeroom and study periods—when other students are busy preparing their homework! In addition, the job includes much responsibility because attendance workers collect class slips every morning and afternoon and take enrollment counts every week. Because they do their job efficiently and cheerfully, MHS records are accurate for the New York State requirements and for students' records. Assistant Principal James P. Byrne inspects these procedures and congratulates the members of this important organization for their devoted and accurate assistance.

Mr. Byrne, William Trussell, Captain; Michael Castleman, Sergeant; David Porter, Sergeant; Eugene Coronetz, Sergeant.

STUDENT POLICE

Malverne High School is proud of its Student Police force which is under the leadership of Assistant Principal James P. Byrne. Besides directing the lost sophomore and keeping the unruly juniors and seniors in line, while maintaining an orderly flow of traffic between classes by using the basket system, the Student Police are also responsible for order at athletic events. They also have the daily chore of early morning stair duty. By checking passes after 8:05, the force prevents illegal entry into the building. They also assist at numerous assemblies and programs in the auditorium. Indeed, the Student Police are a vital part of our school, and they play a part which performs well in its assigned tasks. A member of the force can be very proud of a job well done. As a member of a service organization, a student policeman prepares himself in many ways: learning to accept, honor, and live-up-to responsibilities; giving assistance in the form of directions and orders to friends and strangers equally; developing service and responsibility to all students and faculty; working out procedures and taking orders, as well as giving them; quickly grasping, analyzing, and coping with problems as they arise. Being a member of Student Police is, indeed, an honor, but it is also an opportunity to be of service to one's school in a necessary area.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is the leading service organization of Malverne High School. Under the guidance of Mr. Bradley Hansen, officers and members meet once a month to review student activities and school policies. The Council acts as the "voice of Malverne students." The school year 1967-68 saw many fine activities which included traditional projects as well as innovations. Some of these projects were major contributions to the Malverne Scholarship Fund; underwriting the cost of honor certificates and assisting in their distribution at the Awards Assembly; being host to our foreign student, Mark Abbot of New Zealand; decorating the lobby at the Christmas season with a beautiful and inspiring tree; hosting the Electric Happening, a really shockingly delightful dance for all Malvernites held on March 2. Working on Student Council gives students an opportunity to realize the responsibilities of self-government as well as its benefits.

Seated: Patricia Compagoni, Lauren Goodman, Mary Battaglia, Ruth Lord, Kong Ng, Rosemary Gelshenen, Ira Grubman, Robert Napolitano, Carole Drath, Frances Kelliher, Susan Wiggins. Standing: Mr. Hansen, Fred Woocher, Mark Lord, Susan Joyce, Christine Martin, Domonic Altadonna, Joann Zabatta, Wendy Soman, Carl Bejarano, Steve Schwalb, Jacqueline Martin, Elizabeth Price, Louise Campbell, Ronnie Perlman, Alice Freund, Edward Strube.

OFFICERS

Ira Grubman

President

Rosemary Gelshenen

Secretary

Mr. Bradley Hansen

Adviser

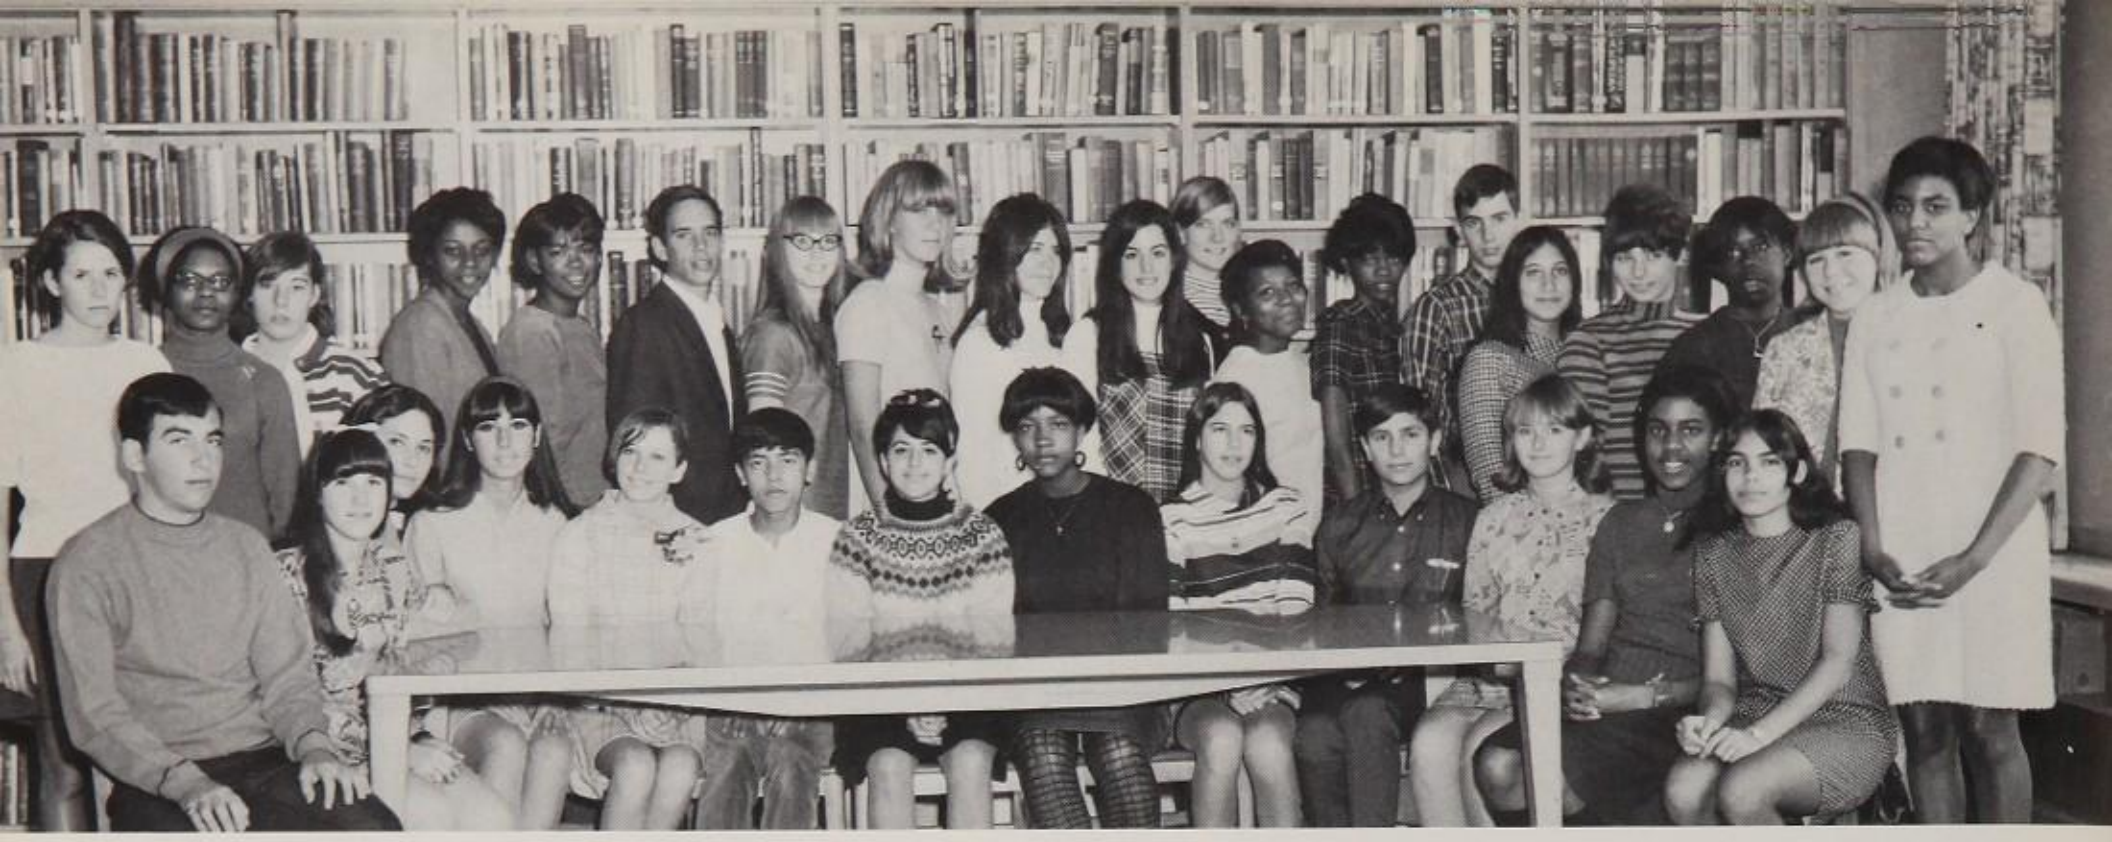
Kong Ng

Vice-President

Robert Napolitano

Treasurer

"and Santa really came!"



UNDERCLASSMEN LIBRARY COUNCIL

LIBRARY COUNCIL

OFFICERS

Mrs. Louise Wagner, Librarian: Fred Woocher, Secretary; Jeanne Dowell, President; Gary Levitt, Vice-President.

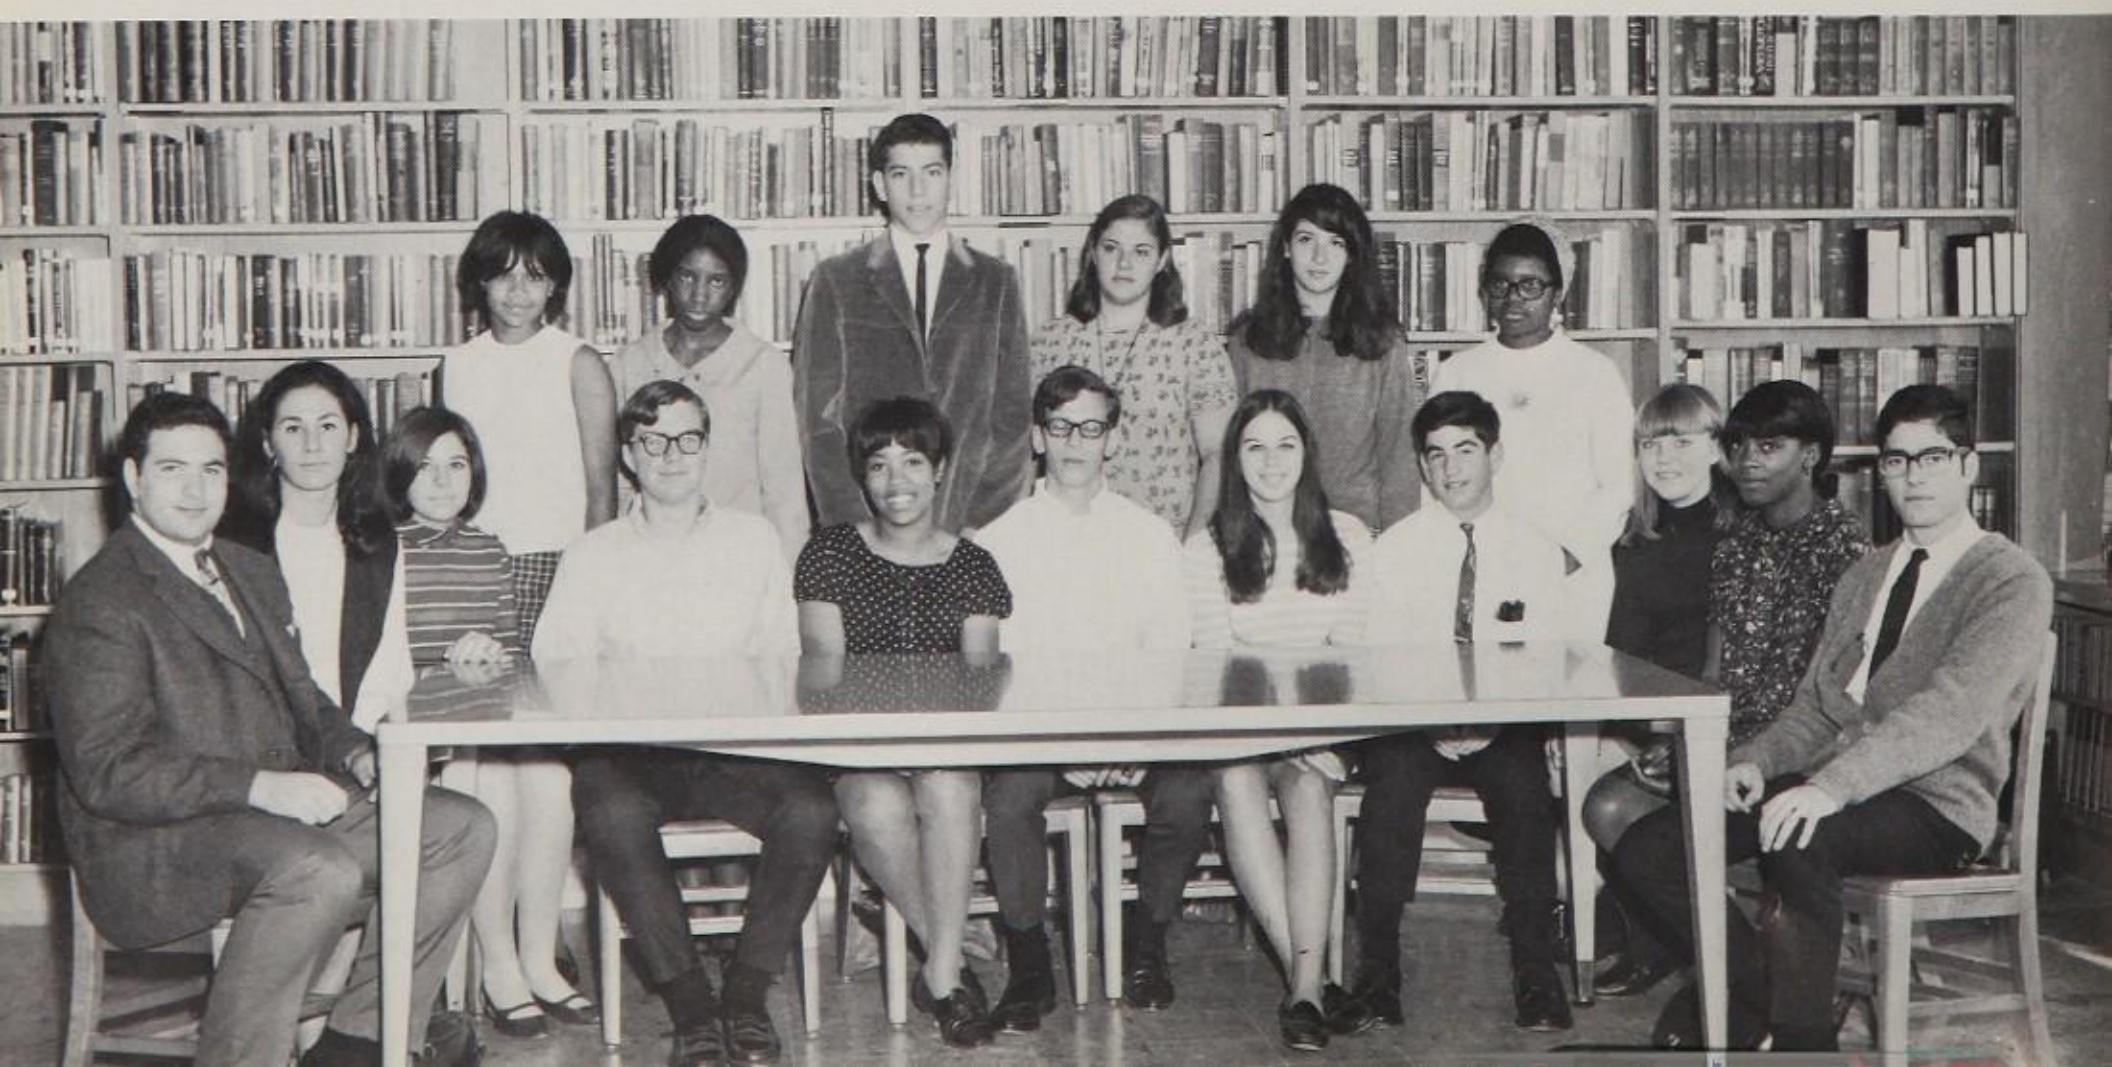
SENIOR LIBRARY COUNCIL



The task of attending to MHS 's well-stocked library is charged to Library Council members. Under the direction of librarian Mrs. Louise Wagner, members check books in and out, shelve and slip books, prepare incoming magazines for circulation, and tabulate the number of books on each subject which are circulated each day. The care taken in library efficiency is performed by many earnest Council members each day from 7:30 A.M. to about 4:00 P.M. Happily, there is a reward to Council members for all their hard work. In the spring they all travel to Broadway to see a hit show! They also enjoy a gala dinner at which they entertain with skits and songs. Council members come into greater contact with the fascinating volumes of reading material than any other service students in the school. Does this give them greater insight into all subjects? Being around books often involves learning about them. Thus, there are other benefits in Library Council membership. They are a devoted and efficient group, and we salute their fine work!

ORACLE

EDITORS

Associate Editor Patricia Joseph; Art Editor Jean Masciale; Editor-in-Chief Mary Hill; and Associate Editor Guy Penna sort pictures and plan the layout for the 1968 ORACLE.

ART

LITERARY

STAFF

ADVISERS

Mr. Walter Holt, General Director; Miss Helen Pendleton, Treasurer; Mrs. Helen Loyd, Literary Adviser; Miss Ethel Grote, Art Adviser.

TYPING

Associate Editor Rita Vignali
Editor Mary Ann Karp

PHOTOGRAPHY

Michael Robinson
Eric Kayne

BUSINESS

MALVERNE MULE

MALVERNE HIGH SCHOOL - MALVERNE, NEW YORK

EDITORS

Seated: Rosemary Gelshenen, Feature Editor; Laura Freundlich, Editor-in-Chief. Standing: Walker Trussell, News Editor; Edward Krasnow, Sports Editor; Stephanie Forray, Editorial Editor; David Wagner, Contributing Editor.

Perhaps the most rewarding activity all MHS students may participate in is writing for the Mule. Here, a student has the chance to develop his writing skills and to express his views to the entire student body and faculty. He learns to meet deadlines and to bring interest to a subject. Most of all, he learns to work in cooperation with the rest of the staff in meeting his responsibilities and objectives. The satisfaction and excitement generated in bringing a news story to print can hardly be equalled! The many details involved in the publication of the Mule make it a job which requires the contributions of many students. It is an activity which truly demands the utmost care on the part of all involved but which returns a profit hard to gain anywhere else. Although the Malverne Mule is informative as well as entertaining, it is far more valuable as a means of student expression. A winner in school newspaper contests, the Mule is of a literary caliber not often found in high school publications. Under the guidance of Mr. Harry Winzeried, a writer for the Mule learns to develop his style as well as the journalistic discipline needed to meet deadlines. Mule editors become accomplished in choosing appropriate topics, altering and revising articles, and proofreading final copy before the newspaper goes to press. Careful attention to all facets of newspaper publishing guarantee provocative reading in each edition of the Mule.

ADVISERS

Newspaper adviser Mr. Harry Winzenried confers with Mule treasurer Mrs. Mildred Levitt.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
COLUMNISTS
TYPISTS

Front row: Eric Kayne, Susan Wittenberg, Joan Michael, Gloria Carroll, Barry Kipnis, Rita Vignali, Mary Ann Karp. Back row: Michael Robinson, Andrew Harrison, Alan Sklover, John Bagensie, Kathleen Marion.

Journalism class working on the MULE center; Staff members gathered together below.

TEEN AGE COUNCIL

OFFICERS

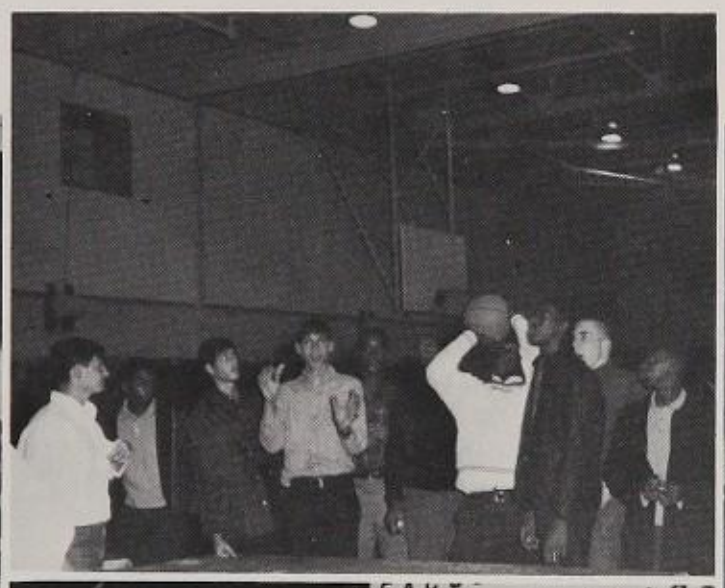
Kathleen Marion, Recording Secretary; Frances Kelliher, Corresponding Secretary; Eugene Coronetz, Treasurer; Joan Geller, President; Craig Buschman, Vice-President. Standing: Advisers Mr. Peter Hollenstein and Mrs. Elizabeth Ackerman.

The Teenage Council, under the joint guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Ackerman and Mr. Peter Hollenstein, has enjoyed a successful year. The members, who devoted their time delivering newspapers and selling coke at basketball games, were proud to make their annual contribution to the scholarship fund. On the day of the Carnival, they cheerfully spent Saturday morning painting murals, building a jail, and blowing up hundreds of balloons. Joan Geller, president of the Council, cited this year's Carnival as "a success and lots of fun." Among the booths were a "swinging salami," good ol' balloon shaving, a turtle race, and a courthouse! Mrs. Ackerman, the founder of Teenage Council, a truly unique service organization, is to retire in June and will not be leading the Council next year. However, her principles and ideals will be upheld by Mr. Hollenstein, who has shown a dedicated interest and participation in the Council's affairs. Members of Teenage Council plan and execute many worthwhile projects. Their contributions to the Malverne High School Scholarship Fund are well known, and it is the hope of the Council to maintain and increase their contributions in the future. In addition, to the Carnival, Council members raise money through frequent candy sales at games and after school. The famous Newspaper Squad gives a fine service to the school by ordering and distributing the New York Times to faculty and students every school day. Teenage Council members work closely with the Assembly Committee to bring interesting assembly programs to Malverne and to instill in our students the lasting ideals of Americanism. To be a member of Teenage Council is a lasting and broadening experience. Members learn to work as a team, develop individual initiative, carry out responsibilities, and reap the joys of projects performed well with good will, and with intelligence and efficiency.

TEEN AGE COUNCIL

NEWSPAPER SQUAD

CARNIVAL



SERVICE

CADETTES

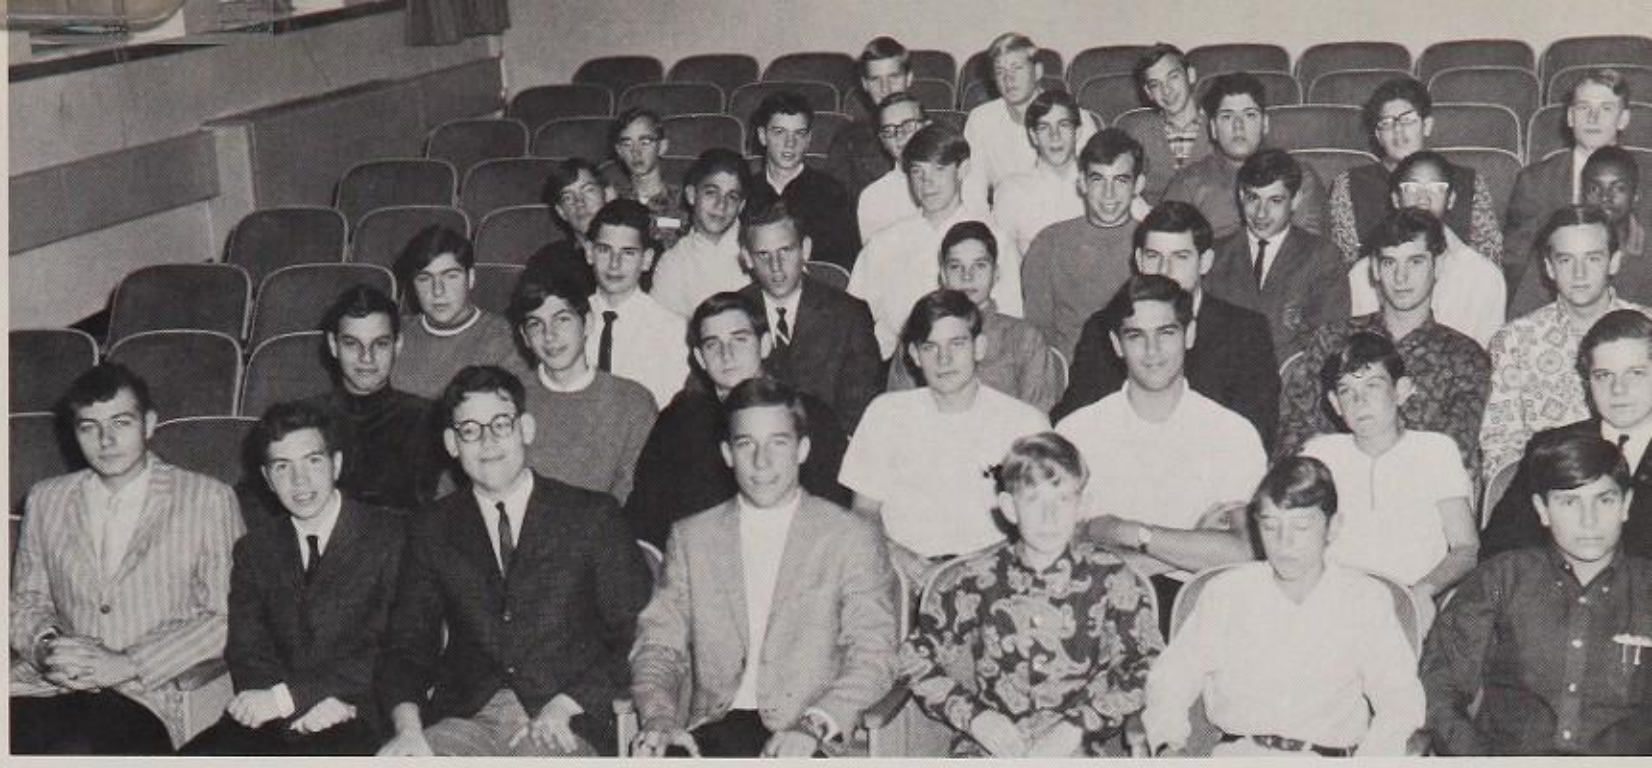
Cadettes is a service organization under the guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Arnone, Miss Linda Koch, and organization president Pamela Barney. The girls who are selected as members serve the Physical Education Department, the school, and the community. To become a Cadette a girl must be capable and reliable and have a superior knowledge of all sports. A Cadette assists during gym periods, at school programs, and at intramural activities. To raise money for their good-will projects, the girls sell refreshments at football games. They specialize in cupcakes and cookies! The money they earn goes toward their yearly project of adopting needy families. Food baskets are prepared by the members and sent to the chosen families at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Money is also donated to other charities and sometimes used to buy necessary uniform replacements. The group also supports interclass tournaments. Malverne is proud of this fine group of girls.

Tis the season to be jolly!

STAGE CREW

To be a responsible member of Malverne's Stage Crew means to be always busy and available for work. Scene construction, elements of lighting, rehearsal attendance, solution of countless staging problems are only a few Stage Crew responsibilities. Supervised and instructed by Malverne's scenic designer, Miss Ethel Grote, members of this important group deserve great praise for their superior work. Without these "men behind the scenes" Malverne's stage productions: assemblies, community projects, etc. could not have the professional qualities for which they are famous.

VISUAL AIDS



Audio Visual Aids is one of the most important services in which Malverne students participate. Instruction through such devices as films records, tapes, and slides is vital to modern education. In fact, the federal government considers these new methods so highly that funds are available to increase the quality and quantity of audio-visual materials. Therefore, the function of the AVA squad, which is under the direction of Mr. Harry Winzenried, is of growing importance, By aiding the faculty in utilizing modern materials and equipment, the trained operators contribute to the education of all Malverne students in a most lasting way. The boys of Visual Aids deserve our praise!

P.A. ANNOUNCERS

Neal Scheuermann and Walter Trussell at the mike.

RED CROSS

Twenty-nine homerooms selected fifty-eight representatives and alternates to form the Malverne Senior High School Junior Red Cross Council. These dedicated young people work under the direction of Miss Helen A. Pendleton, who is assisted by the group leaders Randolph Epner, Debra Ogilvie, Rose Marie Jones, and Linda Sobel. Coordinating the work of the entire Council, our school was able to make a most generous contribution to the Nassau County Chapter of the Junior Red Cross. During the year, there were several other activities in which members of Red Cross served with members of the Health Careers Club. The Red Cross is well supported in Malverne, and we are happy and grateful to be a part of this nation-wide organization for service.

President Grubman speaks to the classes.

Mr. Archer congratulates College Bowl contestants.

The Band performs at the Christmas assembly.

Christmas music.

Trampolene act!

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

ASSEMBLIES

Organist Raymond Harvey

Front row: Rosemary Gelshenen, Karen Kaitz, Joan Geller. Second row: Leslie DeGraff, Jeanne Dowell, Stephanie Forray, Kenneth Duchin. Back row: Eugene Coronetz, Gary Levitt, Charles Lamb, Craig Buschman, Raymond Harvey.

Assembly day is always one of anticipation and excitement in Malverne. Crossing the symbolic ocean is fun! As students tramp across the street to the auditorium, they enjoy being the object of commuters' automobile horns. Facing these "perils" is rewarded, however, by the interesting and educational assemblies planned by Mrs. Elizabeth Ackerman and her Assembly Committee. The organ music, the color guard, the pledge, the Star-Spangled Banner, and the Alma Mater all contribute to the assembly atmosphere. Programs offered at assemblies in the past year included: Boys' and Girls' State speakers, the Honor awards, Sports awards, Christmas Concert by Chorus and Band, and the solemn National Honor Society inductions. One of the most exciting new features was a College Bowl competition between Orange and Blue Teams of Malverne! Complete with Cheerleaders, this was a super assembly. Even the audience actively participated in the question and answer game. The extra interest and education a Malverne High School assembly provides makes us grateful for Assembly Committee planning.

Band Leader Robert P. Berger and Student Directors Raymond Harvey and Michael Vetere.

Playing at the home football games, the Malverne High School Band began another season of concert performances. The Band and Dance Band are proud to be representatives of their high school. The Band is, indeed, an esoteric group! Anyone can play an instrument, but a select few are resourceful enough to develop their talents and skills, and dedicated enough to serve their school through the services of the Band. The organization demands a high degree of excellence from each player. All members learn to work harmoniously with the others in their section and with the entire band to produce the most stirring and exciting sound in the world—band music!

School spirit personified in the shouts: "Move on up to Victory!"

MALVERNE DANCE BAND

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

MALVERNE
HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The Dance Band, having developed its excellence over the past few years, will continue its many performances both in and out of school. The group arouses interest and attention from all listeners. Under the direction of Band Leader Robert P. Berger, Malverne's Band and Dance Band groups have developed noted reputations. Nothing is so inspiring as a big brass band, as it leads a parade, or excites a team on to victory, or arouses spectators to a frenzy of team support! In contrast, nothing is sweeter than the gentle swing of a dance band or even the ultra-modern beat, as listeners respond to the rhythm of the music men of Malverne.

Mr. Berger, and Band Officers: Fred Motley, Secretary; Douglas Sommer, Treasurer; Ira Grubman, President; and Gary Levitt, Secretary.

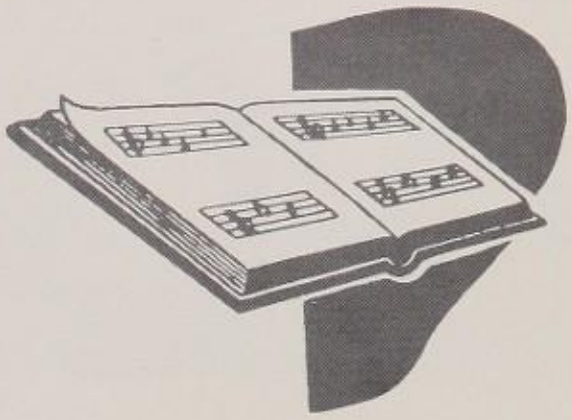
MALVERNE HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

Malverne is fortunate in having so many vocal organizations to offer interested students opportunities to develop their talents. Including Chorus, Choir, Octet, and the annual Musical, vocal music has reached a distinguished level in Malverne. The Chorus, which meets every day, consists of some forty or fifty students who, under the direction of Mr. George Schoenberg, learn the arts of blending, expression, and projection in a choral group, along with numerous religious and popular songs. The A Capella Choir is an organization of about the same size which meets every Tuesday night to practice regular choral pieces and additional ensemble work. The Choir usually combines with Chorus at concerts to give additional strength to the organization, and naturally, increase the quality of the performance. Mr. Schoenberg has also organized an Octet of selected singers, chosen through audition. This group performs at various school functions and also away-from-school activities, whenever conditions permit. In addition, the Octet has the opportunity to work on choral pieces of greater difficulty. The annual production of a musical gives students the enjoyment derived from hard work and also exposes them to the creative field of musical drama. Certainly Mr. Schoenberg has his hands full! But the results are most gratifying to him, as well as to us, and Malverne High School and the community are indebted to our talented music man.

OCTET AND ALTERNATES

Mr. George Schoenberg, first row: Coleen Gelshenen, Carol Johnson, Hirlsa Maldonado, Nan Goddard, Robin Gerson, Denise Macklin, Susan Miller, Christine Schoenberg, Joan Brooks. Back row: James Kay, Paul Spielman, Carl Bejarano, Michael Robinson, Peter Van Norden, Harry Baker, Raymond Harvey, David Guc.

VOCAL MUSIC



CHORUS OFFICERS

Carl Bejarano, President; Hillary Port, Secretary: Harry Baker, Vice-President; Joan Brooks, Treasurer; Mr. Schoenberg.

CHOIR OFFICERS

Joan Brooks, Vice-President; Raymond Harvey, President; David Guc, Secretary; Barbara Brooks, Treasurer; Maestro Schoenberg.

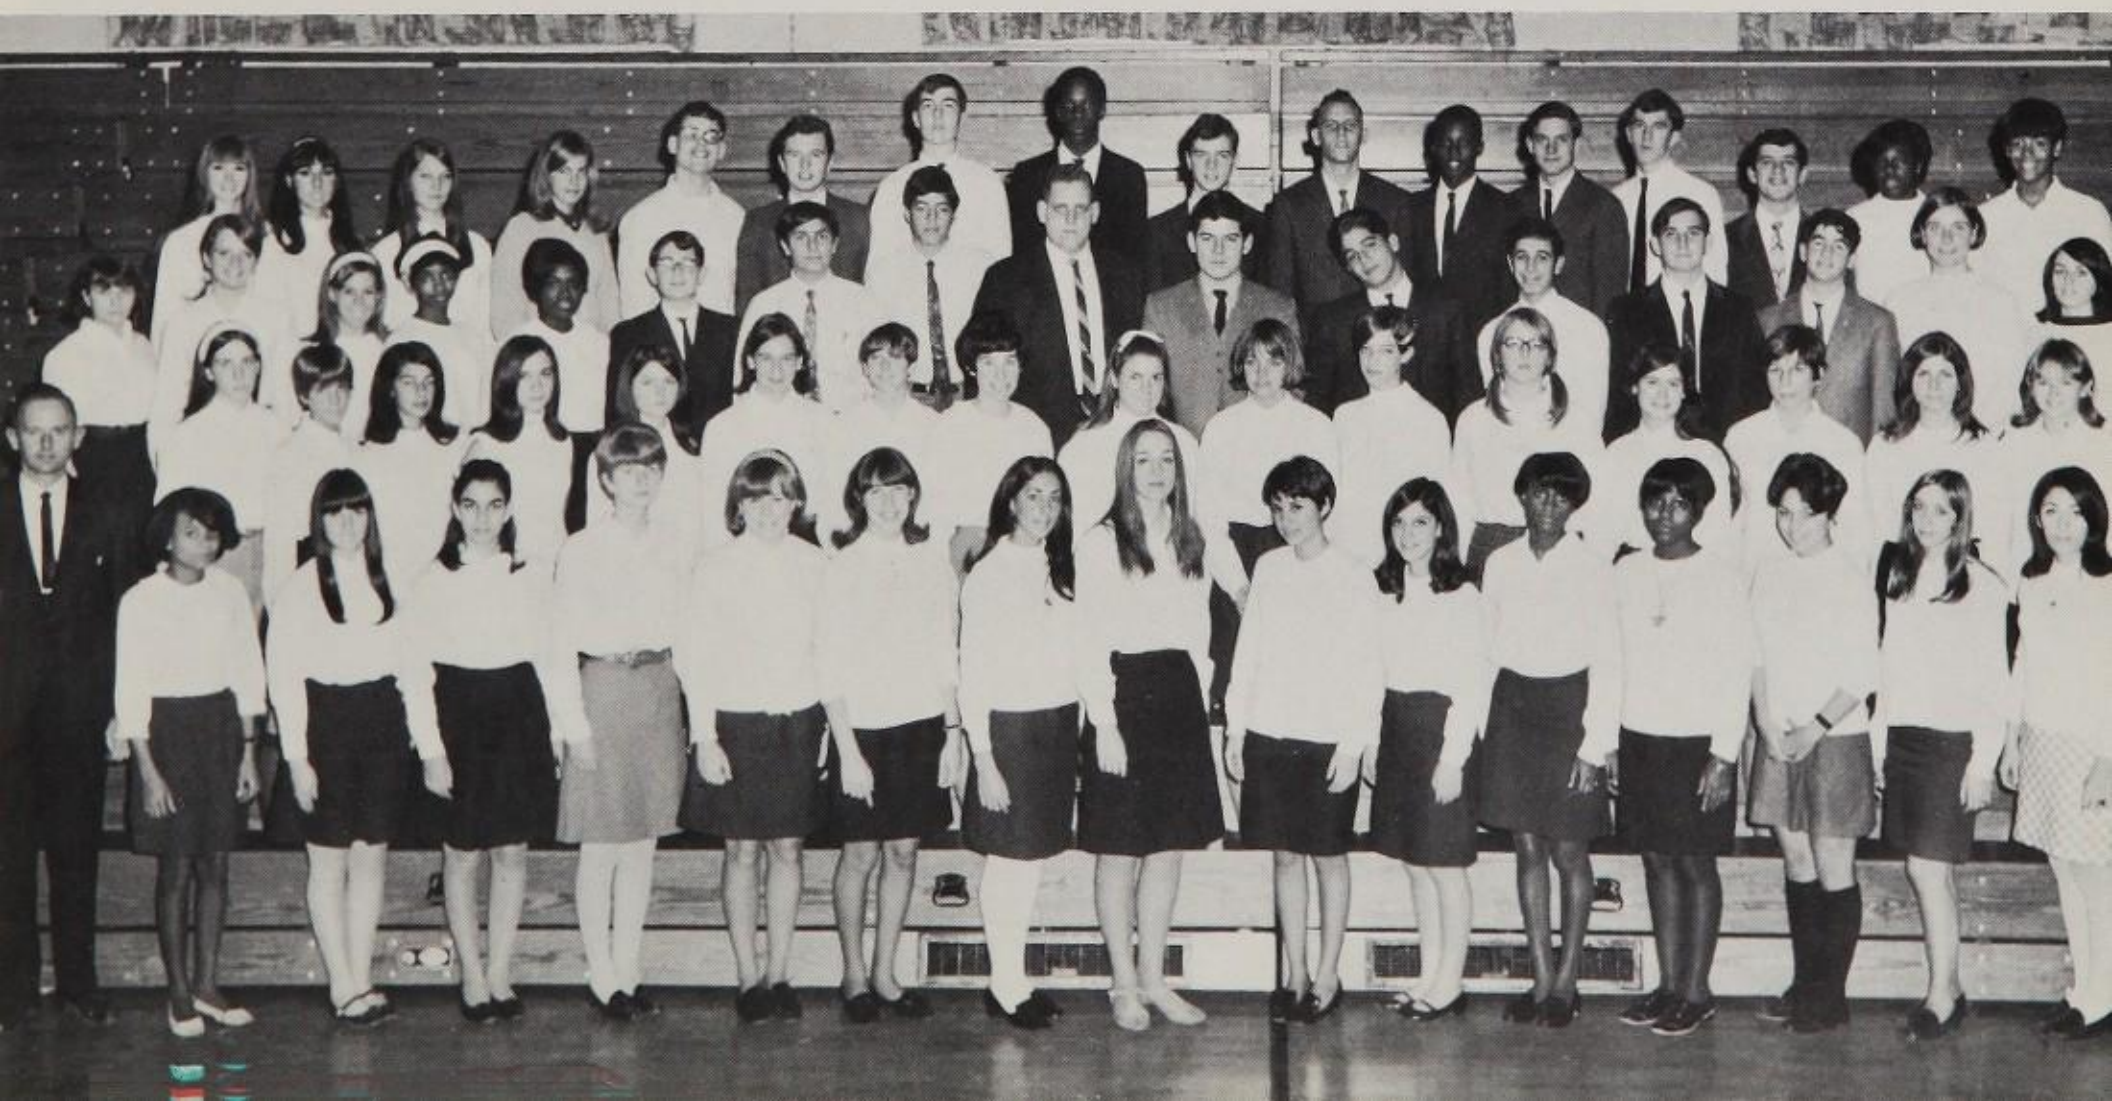
THE CHOIR



CLUBS

In Malverne co-curricular means Clubs! We are blessed with a myriad of opportunities to indulge our interests and develop our talents. Pictured on these pages is a cross section of the group organizations offered to Malverne students. Sponsored by faculty members who dedicate their own time and talents to the clubs, these organizations represent Malverne's belief that co-curricular activities rank high in the development of well-rounded citizens.

DRAMA

The purpose and aim of the National Thespian Society is the advancement and improvement of the program of the dramatic arts in secondary schools. Membership in this honorary society is earned by a strong commitment to the theater, by earning points working on stage crew, costumes, makeup, tickets sales, and publicity. Thespian sponsor, Mr. Salvatore Zaccaro, demands complete cooperation from all members of the MHS Troupe in the productions of his dramatic organization. Officers of the society are Stephanie Forray, President; Kevin Colwell, Vice-President; Kathy Marion, Treasurer; Ira Grubman and Robert Humphrey, Secretaries; and Joan Lipton, Historian. Many of NTS members belong to Malverne's Drama Club, now in its sixth year. Under the leadership of their director, the Drama Club members perform for a children's theater they have established and present adult productions in the spring and summer. Dedication to the plans of the group is strong as students devote Saturday mornings and afternoons and evenings during school days to the productions.

GUITAR

Mr. Peter Hollenstein strums at the weekly meetings of his Guitar Club, now in its second year at Malverne. Some of the group are players and some are singers. All, however, work to perfect their interpretation of folk music of all types. This year the group has even composed a song all their own! Sometimes a guest entertainer performs for the club members and gives their gathering a truly professional touch.

Members of the National Thespian Society, an honorary dramatic organization, pose below. Above and to the left are scenes from some of their most provocative productions.

NATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

MATH TEAM

The Math Team offers an opportunity for MHS students to match their mathematical intellects with those of students in other Nassau schools. Each month the team competes in a problem-solving contest. The solution of the problems tests a student's reasoning abilities and his awareness of mathematical concepts. Each member constantly strives to improve his score by developing problem-solving techniques and by assimilating the knowledge gained from each problem. For this reason, the team practices problems each week under the guidance of Mr. Richard Wolman. Awards are given at the end of the season for high-scoring teams and individuals.

The Homemaking Club is one of the most popular in Malverne. Under the guidance of Mrs. Inez Klein, the girls get a deeper understanding of the problems involved in running a home. Homemaking Club members learn details about living which range from the proper way to dust furniture to how to introduce guests to one another. The Club meets once a month and often hears guest speakers or sees a film. At these meetings refreshments are served which have been made by the girls who also serve them. This year the Homemaking Club sold candy and delicious brownies in order to realize their final goal: an annual field trip and spring dinner!

HOMEMAKING

HEALTH OFFICE ASSISTANTS

FUTURE HEALTH CAREERS

The Health Careers Club, under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Parkhill, is a dedicated and worthwhile organization. All its members are interested in some field of medicine, from physical therapy to nursing to lab technology. The Health Careers Club helps them gain knowledge of their chosen field. Many of the girls and boys in the club have the added advantage of being able to work in Miss Parkhill's office as Health Aids. These students volunteer to give up their study hall time in order to keep Malverne's students healthy and comforted. They assist Nurse Parkhill in dealing with the dozens of problems students bring to her office daily.

RADIO

Two high school boys and eight enthusiastic junior high school boys have joined together under the direction of Mr. Gustave Jaffe to form the Radio Club. Led by an experienced and outstanding member, David Pollock, the goal of the Talking Mules is to earn their novice licenses so they can operate ham radios. To prepare themselves for the test, they must learn Morse Code and the technology involved in transmitting and receiving messages on short wave radios. A great help is the school's own transmitting and receiving station recognized by the call letters WB2-AAK. Malverne is proud of these "hams" as they perfect their knowledge and learn to contribute in the vast field of communications.

CHESS

Now in its fifteenth year, the Malverne Chess Club is one of our most esteemed organizations. Sponsored by Mr. Wilmot DeGraff, our chapter helped found the Long Island Interscholastic Chess Tournament fifteen years ago. Reasons for joining range from simple enjoyment of the game to a desire for an intellectual challenge. Some outstanding players are Ira Meistrich, Nick Tishler, Randy Epner, Harold Rhodes, and Mark Gardner. Pictured in the circle are Rhodes, Meistrich, and Epner.

F. T. A.

The Future Teachers Association consists of more than thirty-five members: sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The association sponsors several dinners throughout the year at which new teachers are interviewed and guest speakers, selected from the administration and faculty, discuss the important aspects of teaching. This year, in addition to visiting classes in the junior high school and elementary schools, members of FTA were given the opportunity to teach classes. This experience gave them a true introduction to the rewarding profession of teaching. President Rosemary Gelshenen, and advisers Mr. John Fontana, and Miss Jenella Anderson believe that this nationwide organization is one of the best ways a young adult can acquire an insight into the various aspects of a teaching career. Members feel fortunate to be associated with the Howard T. Herber Chapter. Faculty members are particularly proud of these students who wish to follow in their footsteps.

This year the French Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Marion Ash, continued to be an effective and exciting organization. The major goal of 1967–68 was the successful program which the Club members presented to other French classes. Included in the program were dramatic scenes, group songs, and recitations of poetry all in French, of course. In addition, several field trips were on the agenda and the club members greatly enjoyed this manner of learning about French art, history, and culture. Since the meetings are all conducted in French, as much as possible, the members get practice using the language effectively and clearly. Touché.

Malverne's students of Spanish are an alert and talented group. Inspired by their adviser, Mr. John Fontana, and led by President Stephanie Forray and Vice-President Raymond Harvey, the group planned an annual excursion into New York City where they dined at an exotic Spanish restaurant and then visited the Hispanic Museum. An interest in all things Spanish inspires many club members to read Spanish newspapers and visit Spanish areas of New York to increase their knowledge and awareness of the language. Composed of advanced students of Spanish, club members cheer olé for their Spanish group.

MEMORIES

SPORT NIGHT - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -'68

ORANGE VS BLUE

ROSEMARY GELSHENEN — Co-Captain
MR. DENNIS CRAIG — Adviser
PATRICIA DEVLIN — Co-Captain

PAMELA BARNEY — Co-Captain
MRS. INEZ KLEIN — Adviser
MARVA BRUNSON — Co-Captain

Girls Physical Education Director, Mrs. Elizabeth Arnone, congratulates the coaches as they begin rehearsals for Sport Night '68.

GUEST from NEW ZEALAND

"Yes, New Zealand is south of Australia," Mark Abbot informs host Ira Meistrich and Mr. Charles Ray.

Mark Abbot of Christchurch, New Zealand was modest about having been chosen for the World Youth Forum, the program by which he visited the United States. His qualifications were impressive, however. After a series of recommendations, applications, compositions, and interviews, he was selected as the delegate from New Zealand out of 15,000 applicants! Nevertheless, he often protested that his being chosen as his country's representative was a stroke of luck. Although Mark is interested in drama and public speaking, his primary interest is sports. Back home, he is the captain of his school's rugby and cricket teams. He also has a hobby of maintaining an old Ford 10. Musically, he has a preference for Simon and Garfunkel with a smattering of Tom Lehrer. Mark will enter Canterbury University in 1969 to study law, specializing in town planning law. Mark found Malverne High School similar to his home school, particularly in size (his school handles 856 students). Shirley Boys' High School, where he was in attendance, is not co-educational. Also, his school resembles a college campus in that classes are held in separate buildings. In the near future Mark hopes to obtain a teaching position in Malaysia in an organization similar to our Peace Corps. He studied Malaysian in school in preparation for such service. While Mark was particularly impressed by the vast size of the United States, he feels he would not want to live here because of the rapid pace at which we live. We enjoyed having Mark Abbot as our guest and getting to know our ally to the south—New Zealand.

Getting to know the Americans.

"My school isn't co-educational!"

Explaining a point to Student Council president Ira Grubman, host Ira Meistrich, and Mr. Ray.

SOUTH PACIFIC

Mr. Messinger, Miss Grote, and Mr. Schoenberg discuss the script.

David Guc and Robin Gerson as Emile and Nellie.

Student Directors: Diane Luccaro, Raymond Harvey, Carl Bejarano.

Nellie "washes that man right outa" her hair as nurses look on.

Anthony Iadanza (Luther Billis) is in trouble with the top brass.

David Guc rehearses his two stage children, Susan Priolo and Joseph Brooks.

Carol Johnson (Bloody Mary) shows how to "make waves."

Billis and the boys' choir rehearse "There Is Nothing Like a Dame."

Harry Baker (Cable) sings to Emile "You've Got to Be Taught."

Bloody Mary sings "Happy Talk."

Diane Luccaro (choreographer) shows dance steps to nurses.

Mr. Messinger reads script to Mr. Schoenberg and the cast.

BOOGALOO PARTY
1966

What a party! Aided and abeted by disc jockeys Victor Jorgensen and Ira Grubman—who really look and act the part—we had a cool time. Records and music by the "Essents" made May 14 a memorable Sadie Hawkins Day for Malverne.

They were all there! Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner, and Sadie Hawkins herself in the guise of Ilene Schapiro who gave away lovely carnations to all who came. Boogaloo to you, too!

RING DANCE
1967

The entire school was invited to the Ring Dance! It truly was a ball. Three vocalists and soul music from several groups made the place jump! The memories are of an evening of true school spirit—and a real good time.

The "Epics" jazzing it up at the memorable Ring Dance.

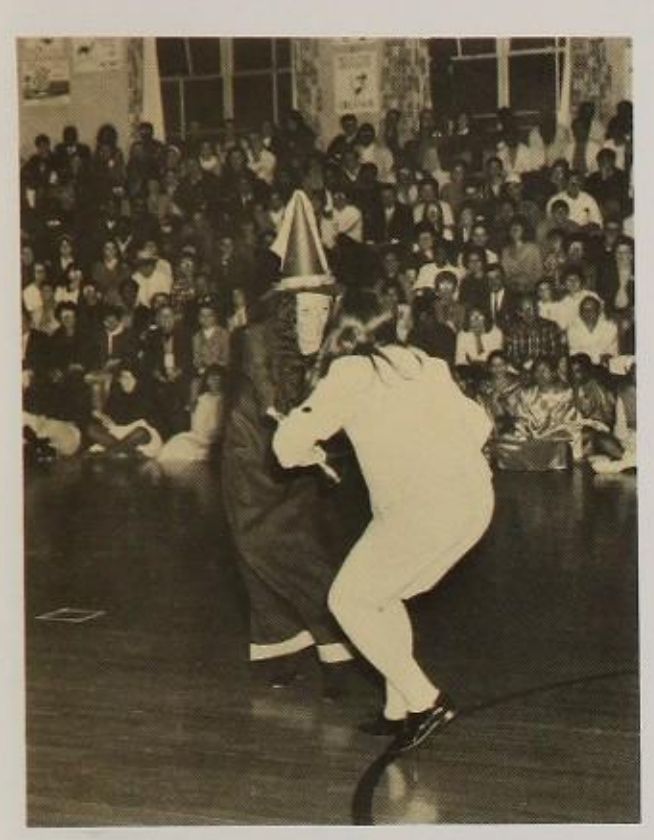
. . . and a good time was had by all!

ORANGE

SPORT '6

Working with their theme of Arabian Nights, co-captains Vicki Ressmeyer and Diana Ferguson led the Orange Arabs in a neck and neck competition with Blue during Sport Night 1967. Their motto was "Orange lights up the night sky," and that is exactly what they did. With the help of adviser Mr. Douglas Dye, the colorful Arabs retold the tale of Aladdin's lamp in the Orange way. They even had a camel and an orange genie! In an array of gay colors, the team presented thieves, potentates, genies, sailors, shepherds and their flocks. The final score was a tie, but Orange certainly lit up the night!

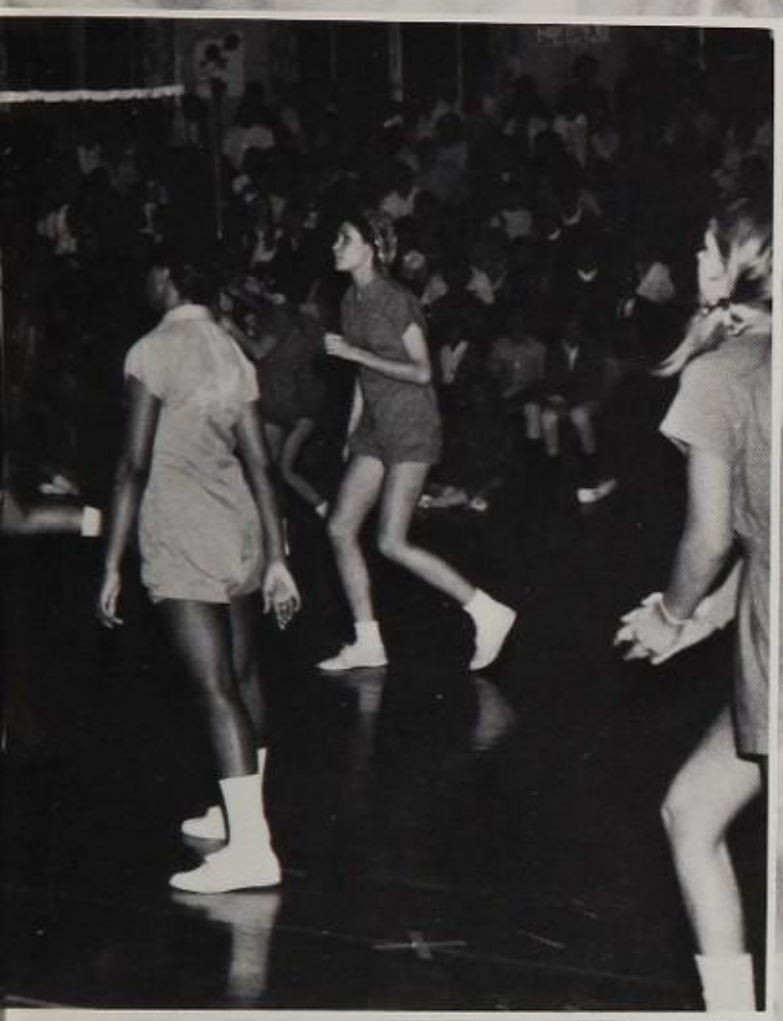
NIGHT



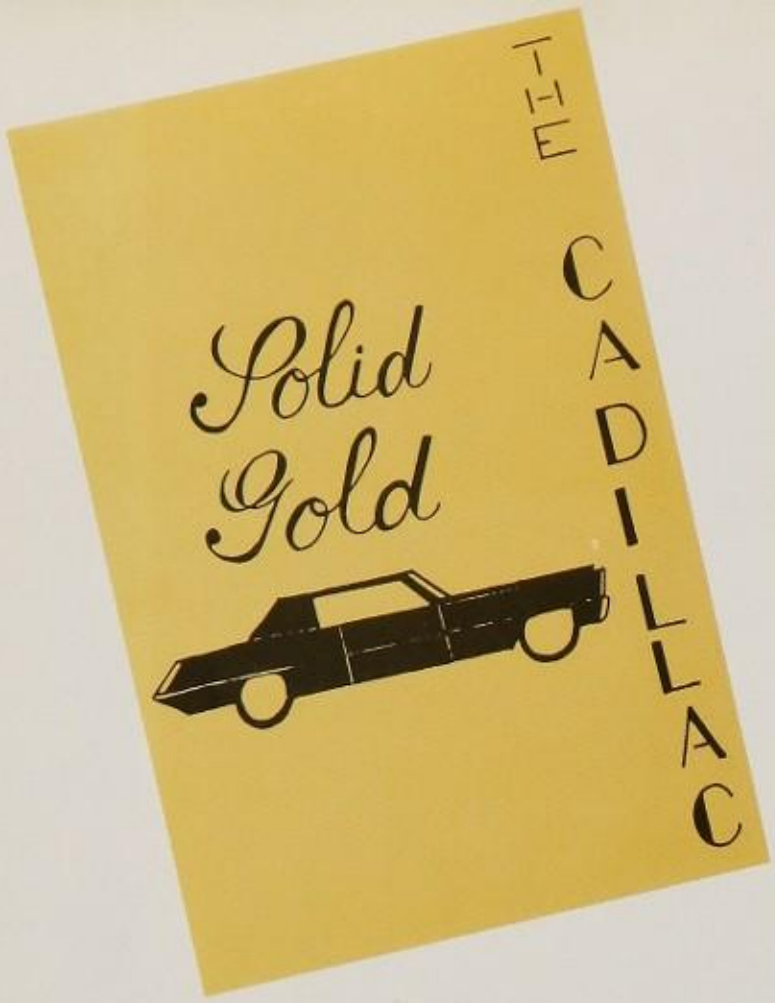
7

Working with their theme of "Blue Fantasia," co-captains Deborah Finley and Patricia Scott led the Blues in a tie competition. There was the building up of the fighting spirit until the actual night of competition. Blue, from the beginning, had maintained a natural cohesion among the members and now they worked as one beautiful unit. They strove to win! However. when the final score was announced, a marvelous thing happened. Orange and Blue rushed toward one another across the gymnasium—to congratulate each other! It was as though they had both won. At that point each girl was a member of the same spirited team, a team called the Malverne Girls.

BLUE



ORANGE



THE CLASS OF 1968

presents

THE SOLID GOLD CADILLAC

By Howard Teichmann and George Kaufman at

MALVERNE HIGH SCHOOL

December 8-9, 1967

Directed by M. ROBERT RICH

Scenery and Lighting by ETHEL A. GROTE

CAST

The Narrator	David Pollock
T. John Blessington	Raymond Harvey
Alfred Metcalfe	Fredric Woucher
Warren Gelbo	Gary Levitt
Clifford Snell	Andrew Harrison
Mrs. Laura Partridge	Laura Freundlich
Amelia Shingraton	Robin Krantz
Mark Jenkins	Craig Ruechman
Miss L'Arriere	Robin Gerson
Edward L. McKeever	Ira Grabman
Miss Logan	Kathleen Marion
The Man for U.P.	Michael Robinson
The Man for A.P.	Robert Walker
The Woman from I.N.S.	Edith Breckenbrough
Man from Reuters	Kevin Colwell
Ruth Michaels	Linda Bogan
Bill Parker	Robert VanSanden
Dwight Brookfield	Michael Velez
Estelle Evans	Elizabeth Covington
A Little Old Lady	Joan Lipton

The action of the play takes place in New York and Washington.
The time is the present.

There will be one fifteen minute intermission.

PRODUCTION STAFF

Assistant to Mr. Rich	Edward Rosenberg
Scenery and Lighting	Stage Crew
Sound Technician	Walter Trussell
Master Property Man	Charles Lamb
Make-up Consultants	Miss Glickman and Mrs. Lund
Make-up Chairmen	Ruth Ellen Lund and Ingrid Ostrometzer
Costume Consultant	Mrs. Klein
Costume Chairmen	Hattie Rivers and Earnestine Baker

BUSINESS STAFF

Assistant to Mr. Besse	William Guy
Ticket Chairmen	Stephanie Ferray and Edward Krumm
Publicity	Kathleen Marion
Program Cover	Robin Krantz
Program	Rosie Larrier
Faculty House Consultants	Mr. Bye and Mr. Zaccaro
Student House Chairmen	Bruce Raynor and Bonnie Sue Morreale
Advisor to the Class of 1968	Mr. Besse

"The Solid Gold Cadillac" is produced by arrangements with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

THE CAST

wishes to thank their many friends and classmates who have assisted in assembling this production.

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen . . .

Hot line to Washington . . .

Three views of the news.

McKeever talks to the pressboys.

Director Rich and Scenic Designer Grote confer on staging problems.

Miss Grote and her "light and sound" men.

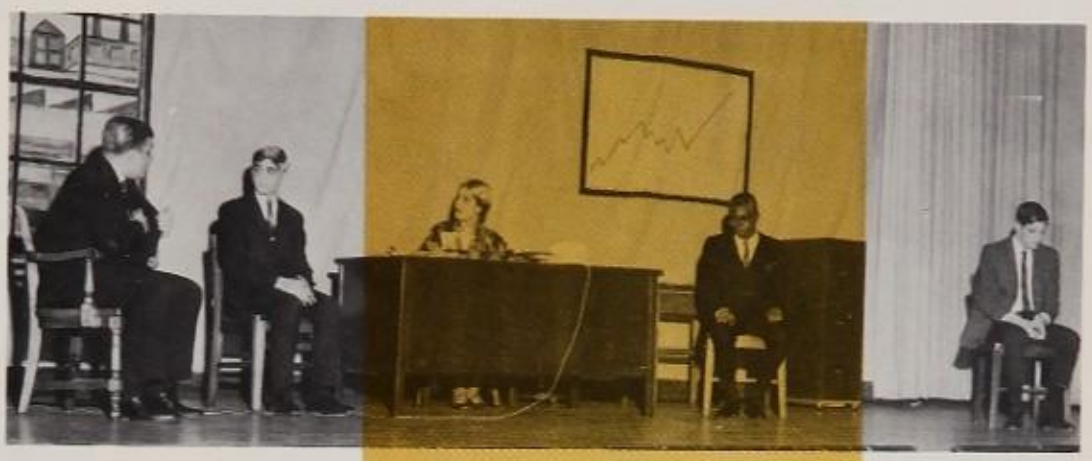
Makeup anyone?



Look who's in the driver's seat now!

Meet the Press.

Public relations?

"A scroll for Old Ed."

Mrs Partridge "gets the gate."

Dictating to all the "little people."

Backstage scene during intermission.

Mrs. Partridge shocks her secretary.

Never underestimate the power of a woman!

"Always remember the little stockholders."

Washington scene.

"Don't get me involved!"

Tension rises . . .

. . . but the stockholders have their way!

But McKeever succumbs.

Mrs. P. packs to leave . . .

. . . another Mrs. Partridge?

SIGHTS and SOUNDS of '68

Welcome to Sights and Sounds of '68 greet Mr. Voyle Besse, Class Adviser; Stephanie Forray, Treasurer; Kathy Marion, Vice-President; Raymond Harvey, President; and Renee Larrier, Secretary.

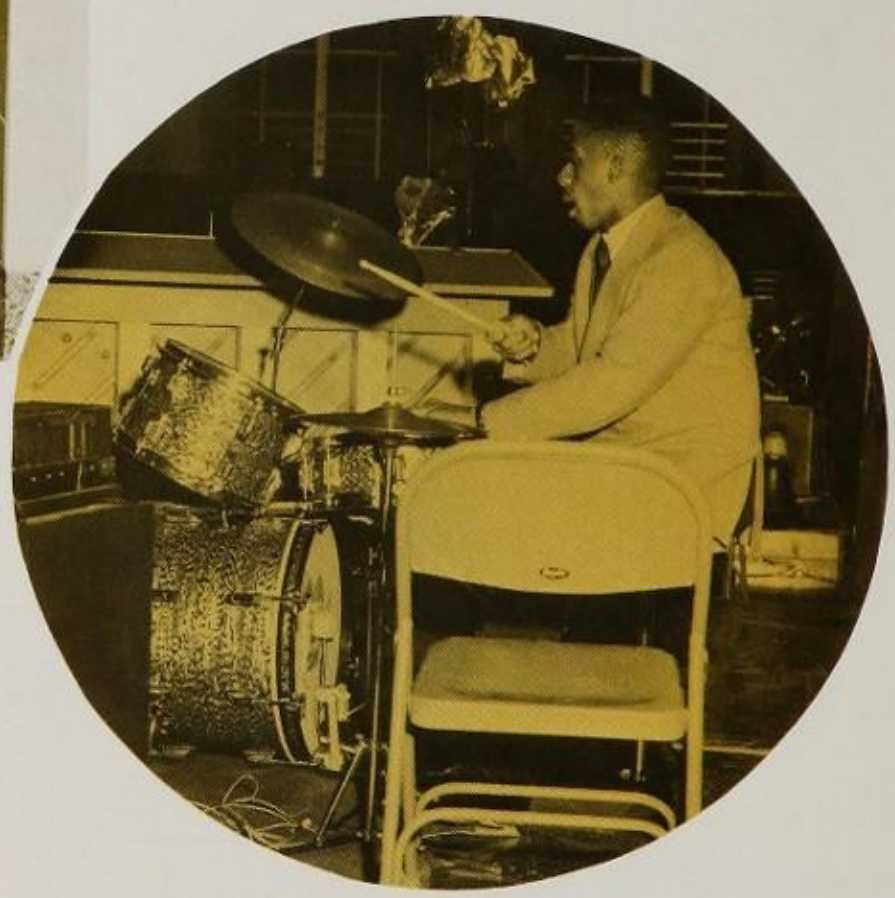
"Listen to that beat, man!"

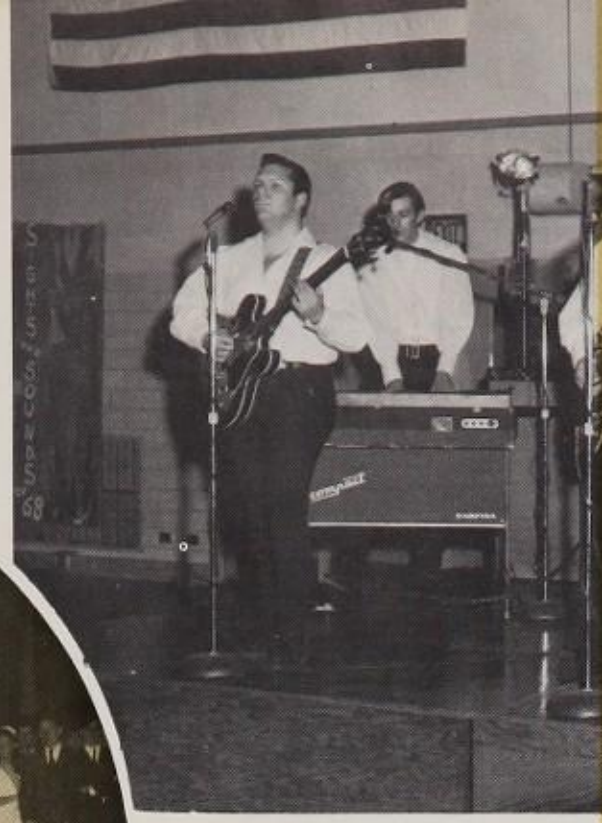


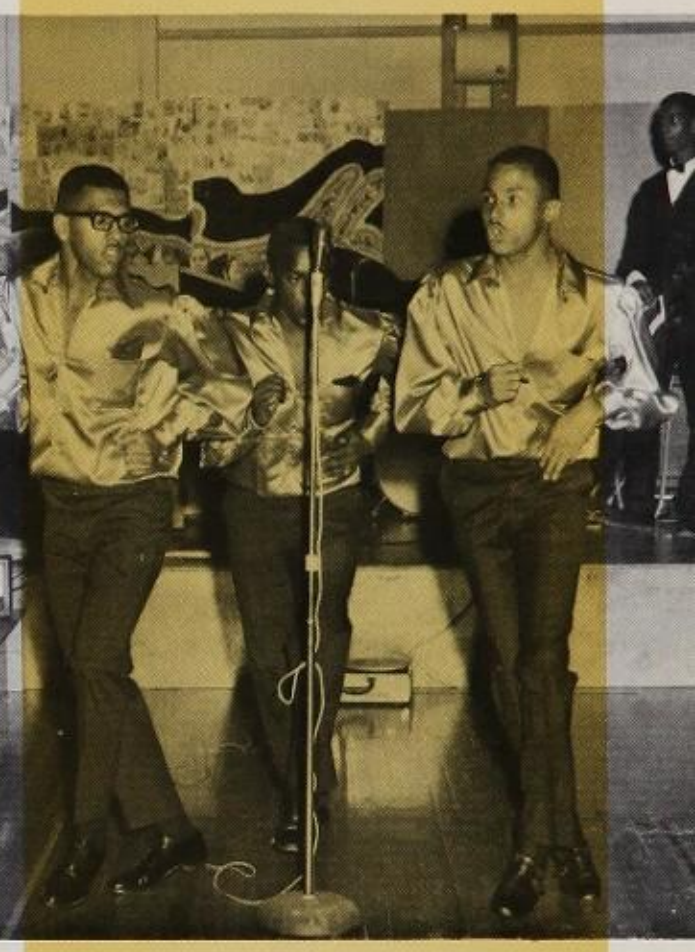
Sights and Sounds was a gala event in the annals of Malverne High School dances! From the moment we entered the hall (gymnasium decorated to resemble the sights and sounds of '68) we were caught up in the constant sound of the electric guitars and ultra modern beat of 1968. Supported by the psychedelic murals painted on the backdrops, the Epics, Gemmies, and Atlantics, and Lenny Welch's Band entertained in their overpowering psychedelic manner. Occasionally we stopped responding to the beat and partook of the delicious food which was served: ham, cold cuts, cheeses, cookies, coffee etc. Real Groovey.

"Gemmies" and "Yeah, Yeah, Yeah".

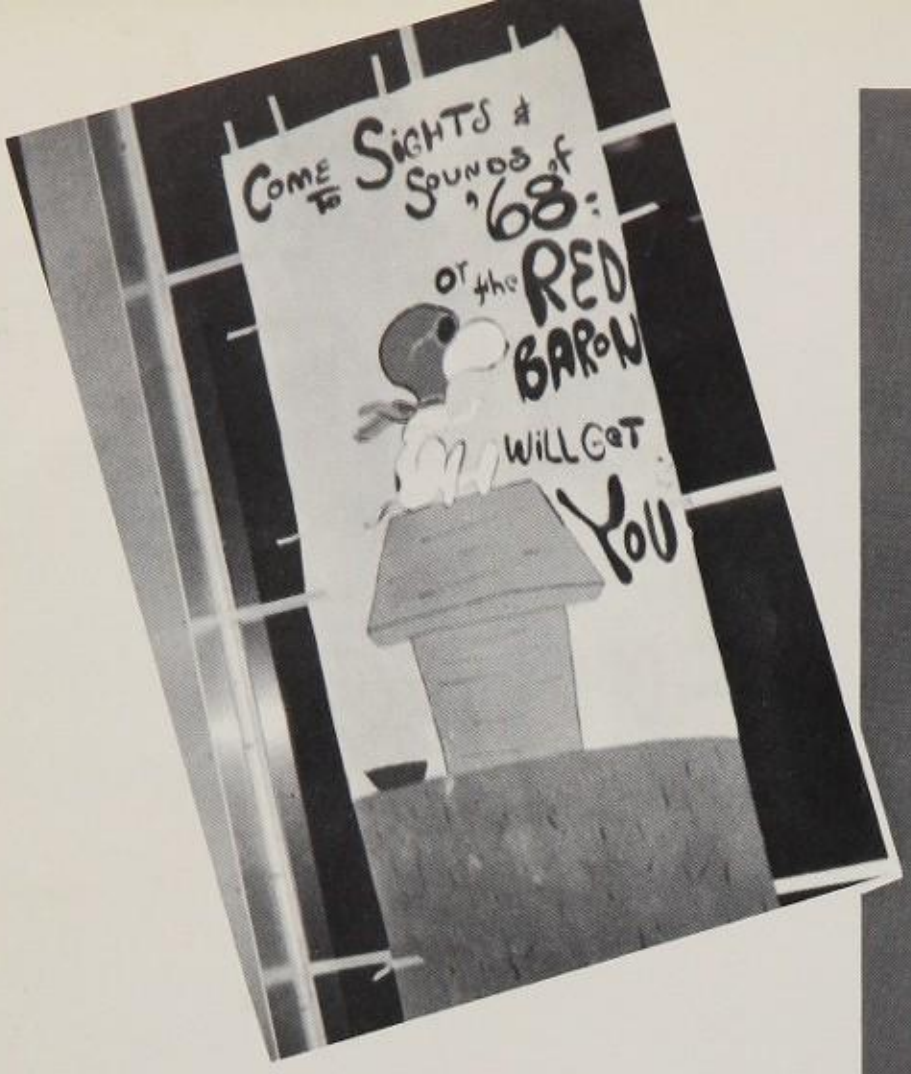
Ultra modern swing!

The "Epics" and "Get Ready".





The platform on which the Welch Band and singers performed was the center of Sight and Sounds. Our school group, the Atlantics, lent their talents, too, and added to the enjoyment of the evening. Some faculty members attended, also. While a few did dance, we felt we were "far out" from them as they chose to enjoy the beat rather than execute it! It was a great dance to remember!



COME TO SIGHTS & SOUNDS OF '68:
OR the RED BARON WILL GET YOU

KATH

ALL I CAN THINK OF IS THE SIGHTS & SOUNDS OF '68

Members of the

MALVERNE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

Present

BYE BYE BIRDIE

Book by MICHAEL STEWART

Music by CHARLES STROUSE

Lyrics by LEE ADAMS

Production Directed by CHARLES G. MESSINGER

Musical Direction by GEORGE D. SCHOENBERG

Scenery and Lighting by ETHEL A. GROTE

MALVERNE HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

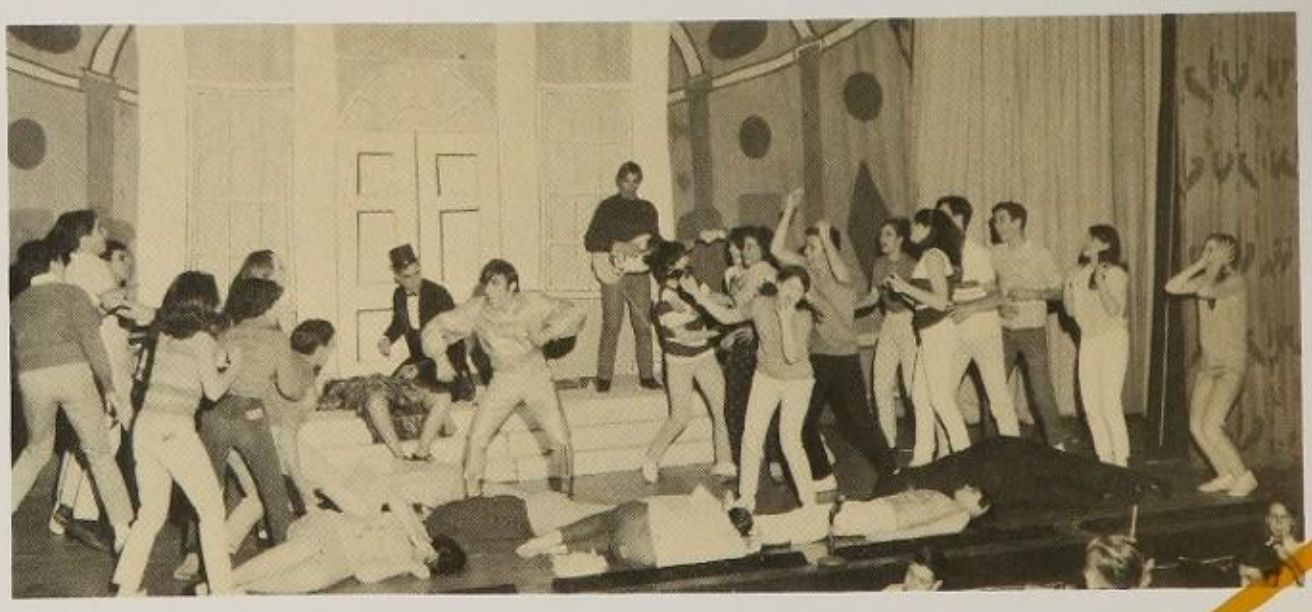
FRIDAY MAY 26-27, 1967 SATURDAY

CAST

(In order of appearance)

(left) Rose tries to convince Albert to become an English teacher! (right) The Teen Trio.

(below) Conrad slays 'em with "Honestly Sincere".



Ursula on the telphone.

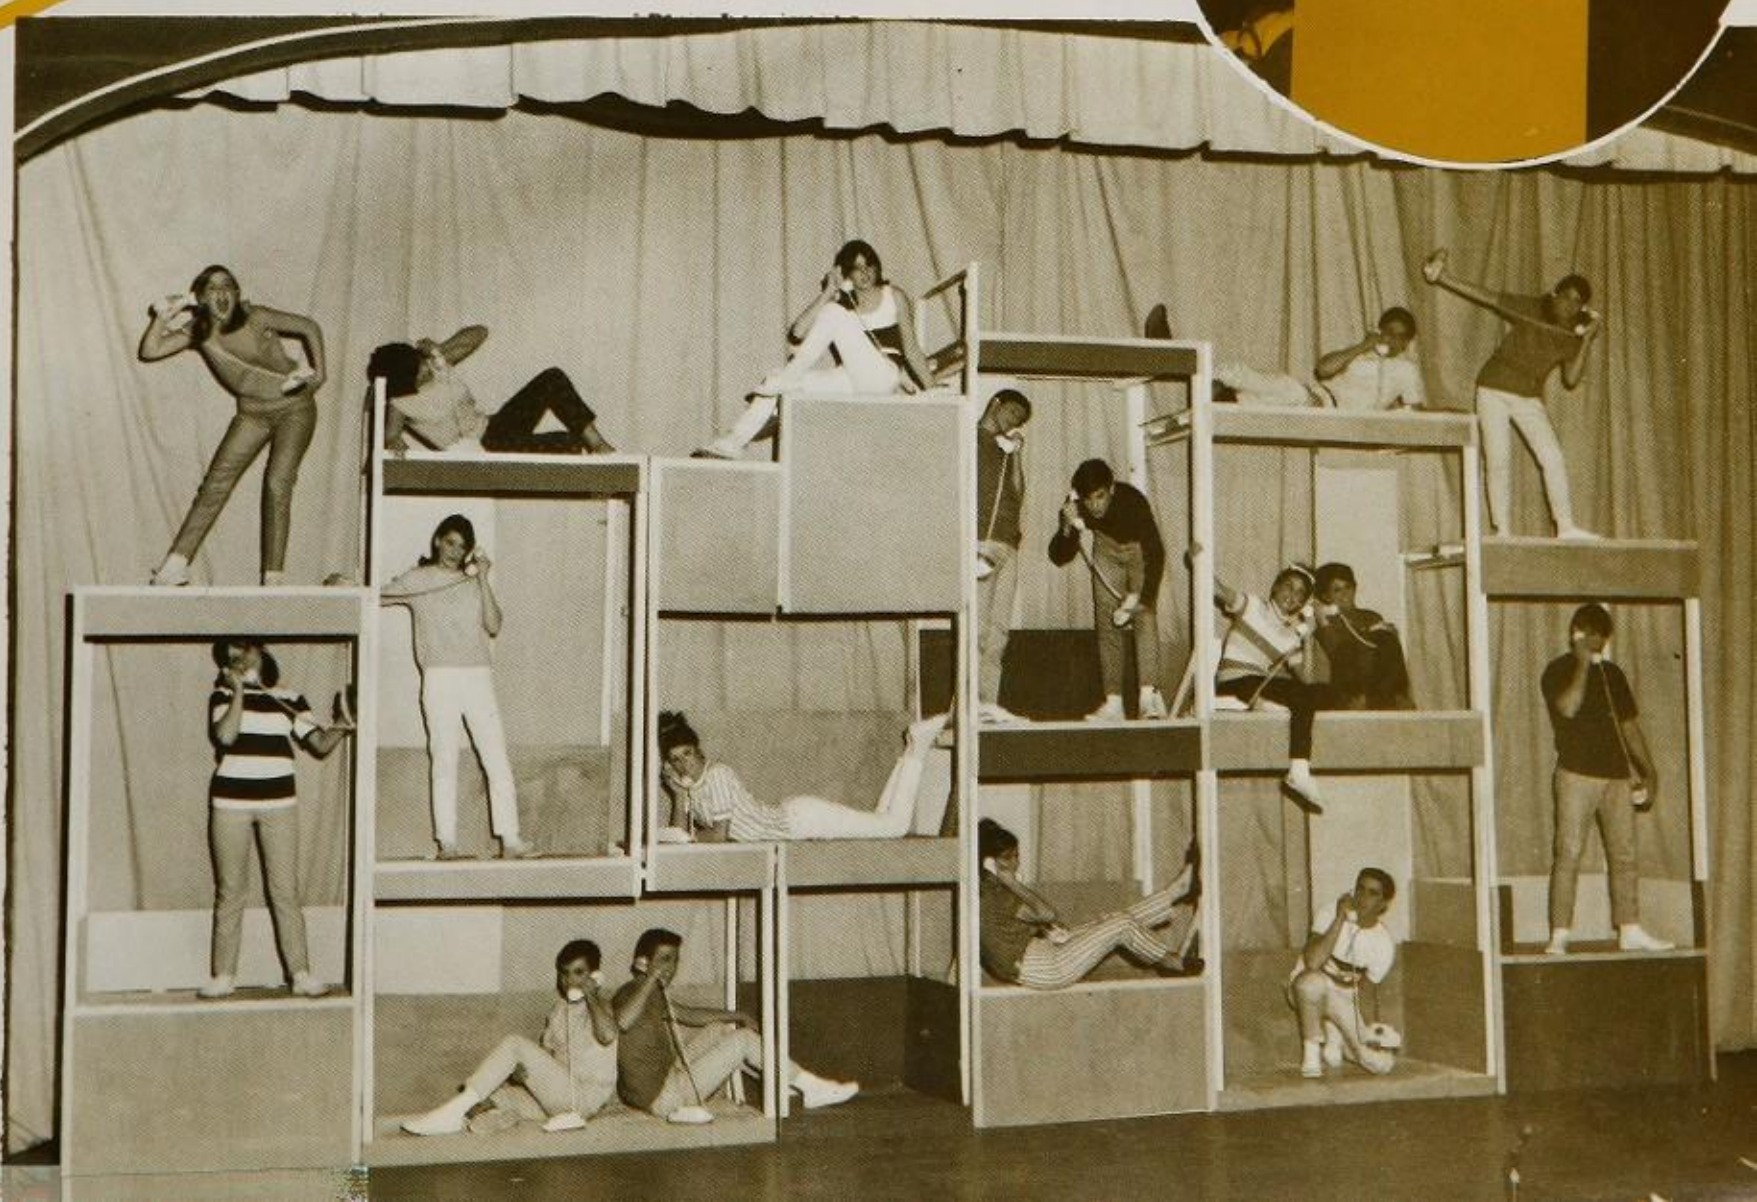
"Normal American Boy".

"We love you Conrad. Oh, yes, we do . . ."

"I'll call him Harry, of course."

"One boy . . . that's the way it should be."

(left) "How lovely to be a woman!"



The show-stopping Telephone Hour.

The Shriners' Ballet.

The gangsters' ballet.
Albert's funeral . . .
Rose prepares to explode a bomb!
An Ed Sullivan guest!
Albert "loses his head".

Celebration!

"What's wrong with today's kids?"

Stage Crew "repairing" the gullotine.

The MacAfee household.

Conrad and Kim in the icehouse.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

BYE BYE BIRDIE is produced by arrangement with Tams-Witmark Music Library, Inc.

Costumes by — MRS. INEZ KLEIN

Choreography by — JUNE CAMINITI

Student Musical Direction by — RAYMOND HARVEY

Student Coaching by — JOEL BEJARANO

Stage Management by — GIL LUGO

Cinematography — Mr. Donald Savino

Lighting — James Moyles

Spot Lighting — Arthur Bates, Gary Faut, Vincent Lojac

Sound Technician — Roger Allen

Set Design — Joseph Laccarro, Vincent Lojac, Gil Lugo, Frank Vignali

Stage Crew—Steven Altmann, Thomas Calandra, Peter Fitzpatrick, John Gagliano, Manuel Gonzalez, Peter Gubing, Brian Langan, Charles McCrodden, Arthur Saracino, Neal Schuermann, Stephen Sintal, Frank Vignali, James Wuerner, Raymond Woodley

Property Manager — Nicholas Tishler

Special Properties — New York Telephone Company

Make-Up Consultant — Mrs. Martin Weinstein

Wardrobe Assistants—Paulette Slater, Michele Gardner, Barbara Rothstein, Jacqueline Abel, Rene Lubing, Irene Castelle, Earnestine Roker, Sandra James, Graceba Carter, Hattie Rivers, Dayna Jeffries, Sandra Bass, Ellen Rea

Student Orchestra Members—Michael Alban, John Anderson, Henry Fein, Peter Greis, Nathan Gue, Raymond Harvey, Wayne Lipton, Hirsula Maldonado, Ferdinand Motley, Kong Ng, Michael Vetere, Barry Wechsler

Publicity — Mrs. Louise T. Wagner and Mrs. Helen D. Loyd

House Committee—Mr. James P. Berne in charge. Mr. Harry Winzenried, Mr. Frank Gatland, Mr. Harold Murphy, Mr. H. W. Detgraff, Mr. Douglas Dee, Mr. Walter Holt, Mr. Robert Frank, Mr. Erhard Koehler, Mr. Allan Johnson, Mr. Michael Duffy, Mr. Thomas Crehan, and Student Police Ushers. Mr. Donald Savino in charge.

Advertising — John Fanuzzi and students

Program — Mr. Charles G. Messinger

Rehearsal Accompanist — Raymond Harvey

To the Orchestra: Our appreciation for playing the difficult Broadway score.

"Arrest that man!"

"Hi, Al . . . you're cute!"

"Bye Bye Birdie".

A touch of eyeshadow . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Abel
Mitchell Abrams
Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Ackerman
Mr. and Mrs. John P. Alban
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Allen
Jeffrey H. Allen
Beverly Frances Allin
Mrs. Joseph Alta
Joseph Alta
Vincent Altadonna
Elaine Altein
Steven J. Altmann
Jenella Anderson
Mr. and Mrs. John R. Anderson
John S. Anderson
Teddy Ann
Mr. and Mrs. John K. Archer
Jeannette Arndt
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arnone
Christopher Asche
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Asche

****

Clifford T. Asche
Roderick Avitabile

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bagensie, Jr.
Frank W. Bagensie
John W. Bagensie
Katherine A. Bagensie
Thomas R. Bagensie
Commander Conway C. Baker
Harry Baker
Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Bambina
Mrs. Sam Bard
Stephen Bartkus
Saundra Bass
Deborah Bates
Anne P. Battaglia
Jean Battaglia
Joseph Battaglia
Mrs. Mary Battaglia
Mary Battaglia
Michael J. Battaglia
Carlos A. Bejarano '35
  Mrs. Irene O'connor Bejarano
  Brian C. Bejarano
  Douglas M. Bejarano
  Lisa C. Bejarano
  Maureen S. Bejarano
Jose R. Bejarano '32
  Mrs. Blossom Smiley Bejarano
  Barbara A. Bejarano
  Gregory A. Bejarano
  Michele H. Bejarano
  Robert S. Bejarano
Luis E. Bejarano '34
  Mrs. Valerie Garrett Bejarano
  Andrea T. L. (Andi) Bejarano '70
  Carlos R. (Carl) Bejarano '68
  Deena Lyn (Dee) Bejarano '80
  Joel A. (Jay) Bejarano '67
  Luis E. (Lu) Bejarano, Jr. '65
  Valerie E. (Valena) Bejarano '62
Miguel E. Bejarano '36
  Mrs. Celeste Fowler Bejarano
  Miguel R. Bejarano
Mrs. Trinela B. E. Bejarano Cane '38 (In Memoriam)
Mr. and Mrs. Jose M. Bejarano (In Memoriam)
Betty Ann Bell
Mr. and Mrs. Primin Belli
Sophie Belli
Mr. and Mrs. George Benson
Warren Benson
Elizabeth J. Berg

1968 BOOSTERS

Caryl Bernhardi
Voyle A. Besse
Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Blaisdell
Dougals J. Blaisdell
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blaisdell
Fern Bleckner
Connie Boone
Debra Ann Bozzo
Mr. and Mrs. George L. Brenner
Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Bright
Carol Brocco
Edith Brockenborough
Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Brockenborough
Marcella Brown
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown
Gerald Browne
Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bullock
Wesley Bullock
Craig Buschman
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buschman
Penelope Buschman
Mr. and Mrs. James P. Byrne

Louise Campbell
Vincent Capasso
Nancy Carnival
Robert Carnival
Mrs. Vera Carroll
Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Carter
Glenn A. Cassis
Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Castleman
Michael Castleman
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Catropa
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Cerda
Kenneth Clarke
Celeste Clemens
Karen Clemens
Keith Clemens
Mary Lou Clemens
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clemens
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Cline
Deborah A. Cohen
Alice Collura
Rosalba Colombini
Mrs. Willard J. Colwell
Pamela Joy Corbin
Bernard Corbins
Dorothy Corbins
Diane M. Coronetz
Eugene W. Coronetz
Melanie Coronetz
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coronetz

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Covington
Dennis Craig
George Cress

Mr. and Mrs. A. William Danielson
Amy Danielson
Eric Danielson
Helen Davidson
Laurie Davies
Leslie De Graff
Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd T. Delany
Mr. and Mrs. Dominck Del Carpine
Linda C. Del Carpine
Delta Phi Sigma
Mr. and Mrs. George Devlin
Patricia Devlin
Judy Dieckmann
Patricia Di Maio
Steven Diner
Joel Domow
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Doucette
Richard Doucette
Mr. and Mrs. Tyro A. Dowell
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Drath
Carole Drath
Judi Drath
Mr. and Mrs. William Drescher
Kenneth Duchin
Louis Duchin
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Duchin

Robert Eiler

Evelyn Emslie
George Emslie
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Englert
Richard Esposito

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Fearon
Henry Fein
Marcia Fein
Debbi Finley
Ewell Finley
Mr. and Mrs. Luke Fluker
William Forisha
Frederic G. Forman
Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Forray
Douglas Freundlich
Mr. and Mrs. Jules Freundlich
Roger Freundlich
Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Fullam

Angelo Gagliano
John Gagliano
Mr. and Mrs. Zeke K. Gamma Joy Gardner
Mark L. Gardner
Michelle Gardner
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Gardner
Joan Geller
Tina Gelling
Colleen Gelshenen
Mr. and Mrs. John Giusti
Patricia Giusti
Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Goddard
Beth Goddard
Christopher Goddard
Nannette L. Goddard
Mark Goldsmith
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goldsmith
Judith Goldstein
Lauren Goodman
Jay Greenspan
Ethel A. Grote
Richard Grove
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grubman
David Guc
Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius Guecia
Theresa Guecia
Patricia Guidice
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Guy

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hagler
Sylvia Hagler

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hallick, Jr.
Stephen Hallick
R. Bradley Hansen
Andrew Harrison
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harrison
Walter Harrison '62
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harvey
Mr. and Mrs. John C. Herpfer
John C. Herpfer
Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hill
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney W. Hill
Susan G. Hill
Robert Hochstaetter
Peter Hollenstein
Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Holmes
Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Holt
Jane Horowitz
Ann Horstman
Charlotte Houlroyd
Deborah Hummel
Mrs. Karen T. Hvidsten

Anthony Iadanza
Marie E. Ilardi
Mr. and Mrs. Vito Ilardi
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Innella

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph James Allan Johnson
Fay Johnson
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson
Mary Johnston
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Joseph

Karen L. Kaitz

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Karp
S/Sgt. Albert A. Karp
Dean Karp
Mary Ann Karp
Mr. and Mrs. William Kay
James H. Kaye
Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Kayne
Gerald Keen
Stephen Kenney
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kenny Eileen Kenny
Richard Kenny
Barry Kipnis
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kipnis
Mrs. Ann Kirchberg
David Kirchberg
Cindy Klein
Mrs. Inez Klein
Isabella Klein
David Knap
Mr. and Mrs. James Knap
Susan Knap
Linda Loch
Carol L. Kravitz
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kravitz
Robin Kravitz

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lamb
Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Larrier
Edward La Salle
Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Leeds
Joseph Lentini
Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Levitt
Steven Levy

Marvin Lewis
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Liles
Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Linden
Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Lipton
Ilene Litwin
Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd
Stephanie Lloyd
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lomax
Debarah Lomax
Patricia Lomax
James Lombardo
Philip London
Ruth Ellen Lord
Mrs. Helen D. Loyd
Ilene Lubing

B. F. MacDougal
Mr. and Mrs. Rubard Mack
Helene Magarik
Vincent Mandato
Mr. and Mrs. John Marchionne
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Marion
Mr. and Mrs. Colie Marsh
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Masicale
Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Mason
Joan McKinney
Anna McPherson
Anthony McPherson
Audra McPherson
Ira Meistrich
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meistrich
Rande Meltzer
Mr. and Mrs. James J. Merrick
Marjorie Merrrick
Charles G. Messinger
Joan Michael
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Michael
Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur P. Monsell
Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Montgomery
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moran
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan
Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Motley, III
Ferdinand Motley
Mr. and Mrs. Allen Mulberry
Harold N. Murphy
Mrs. Eleanor Murray
Alphea Myers

Mr. and Mrs. Ciro J. Napolitano
John Natoli
Dougals Negron
Jose Noa

Debra Ogilive
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ortenreiter
Keith Owen

Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Palmer
Bruce Palmer
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pansini
Jacqueline Panzarella
James Panzarella
Jeanine Panzarella
Jeffrey Panzarella
Jennifer Panzarella
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Panzarella, Sr.
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Panzarella, Jr.
Joseph Panzarella, III
Judyann Panzarella
Dorothy F. Parkhill
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Paroubek
Mr. and Mrs. Audley Patterson
Susanne Payan
Helen A. Pendleton
Mr. and Mrs. Gaetano Penna
Miriam Petruck
Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Platt
Michael Andrew Platt
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pollock
Hillary Port
Mr. and Mr. Alfred Porter
David Porter
Elizabeth Price

Barbara Randell
Stanley Ransom
Charles W. Ray

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raynor
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rea
Janet A. Regina
Mr. and Mrs. John P. Regina
Mr. and Mrs. Eamon G. Renaghan
Mr. and Mrs. George Respol
Patricia Rhinehart
Mr. and Mrs. Claude Riddick
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rightmyer
Lois Rightmyer
Mrs. Hattie Rivers
Edward Rosenberg
Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Rosenberg
Mr. Walter Rosenberg
Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ross
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rossman
Robina Rowe
Manuel Ruiz
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ryan

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Saracino
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Savastano
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Savino
Mrs. Eileen F. Scavino
Ilene Schapiro
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schapiro
Roslyn Schapiro
Thomas Schlegel
Mr. and Mrs. William Schlegel
Mr. and Mrs. George D. Schoenberg
Anita Schubert
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwalb
Amy Schwartz
Donna Schwartz
Edward Schwartz '65
Mr. and Mrs. Myron Schwartz
George Scola
Sondria Sellers
Ann Shaw
Robert Shaw
Thomas Shaw
Jeffrey Shane
Scott Shane Eric Sharpe
Philip R. Sigma
Vicki Silkiss
Mr. and Mrs. Carmine Silvestri
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Simmons
Richard Simmons
Gerard Sims
Audrey Single Mary Joyce Singleton
Alan L. Sklover

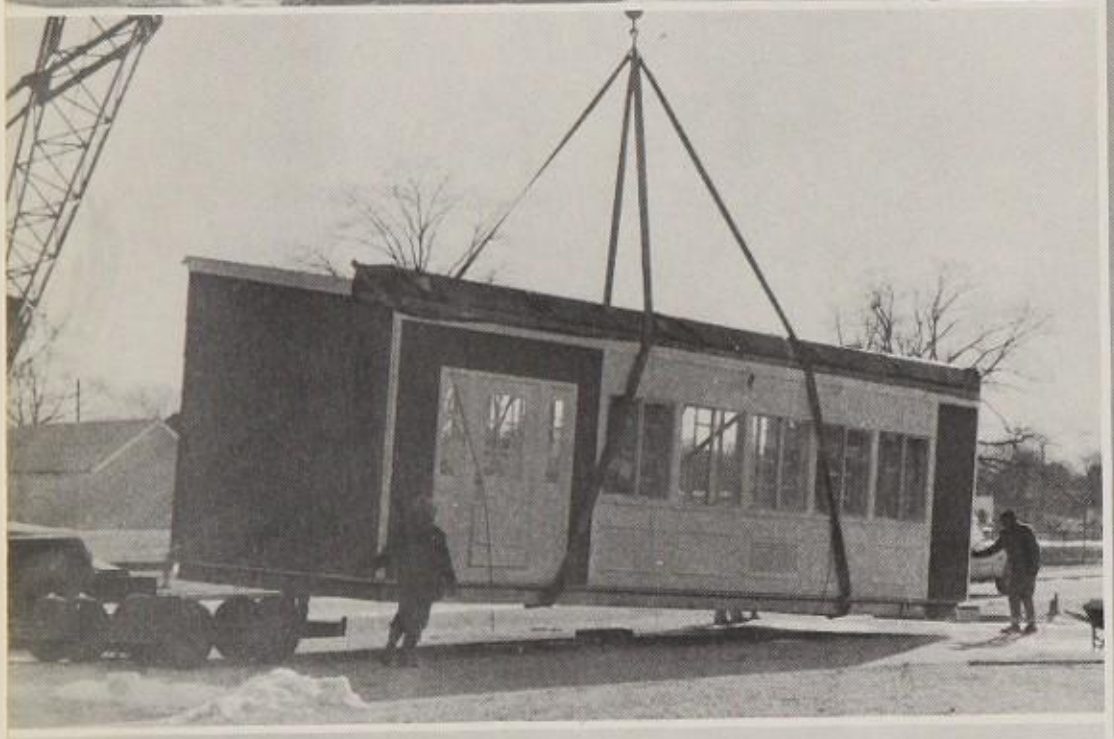
Mr. and Mrs. Noel J. Slack
Diane Slavin
Thomas Smith
Mr. and Mrs. William Smith
Audrey Sobel
Debra Sobel
John Sobel
Karen Sobel
Linda Sobel
Mr. and Mrs. Max Sobel
Michael Sobel
Robert Sobel
Beatrice Soman
Debbie Soman
Wendy Soman
Linda Sparano
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer
Paul Spielman
Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Stark
Karen Stiles
Thomas Stiles
William Stiles
Ivan Strasfeld
Mark Strasfeld
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Strasfeld
Stuart Strasfeld
Ann Stratton
Robert W. Stratton '64
Mrs. Walter R. Stratton
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Studley

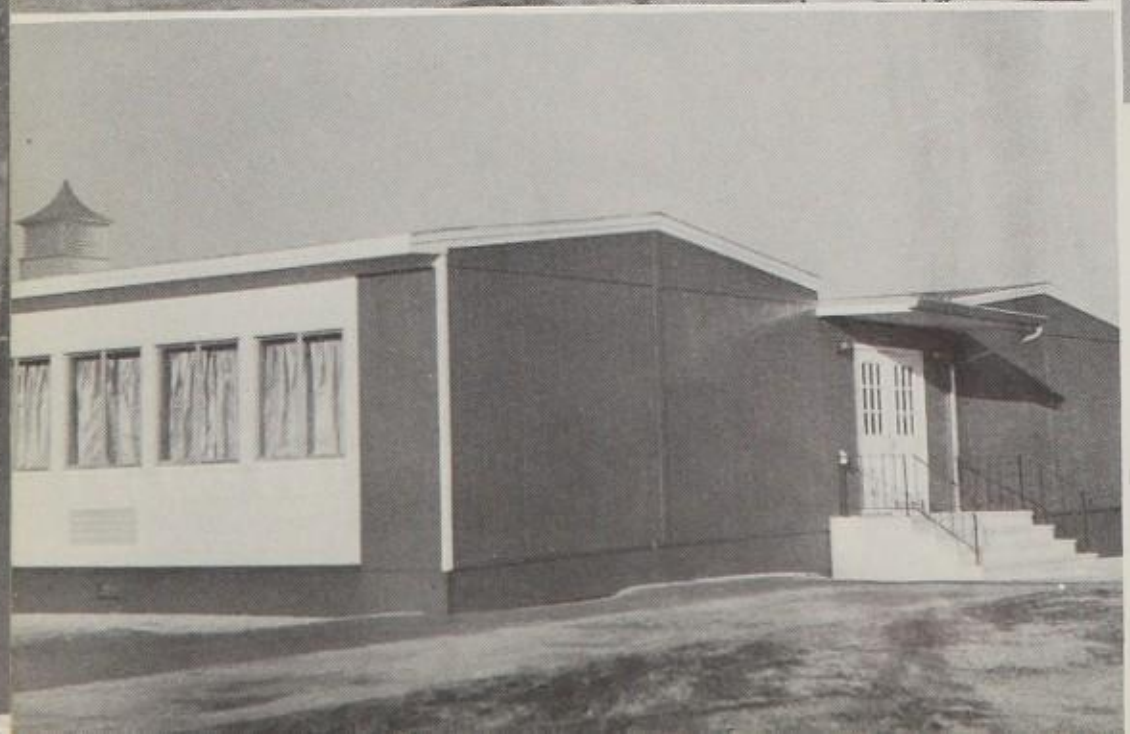
Mrs. Henry Tanck
Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Teasley
Debra A. Thoma
Robert C. Thoma
Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Thoma
Ethel Thomas
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Trussell
Lt. (jg) Ellen Trussell, USN
Walker C. Trussell
Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Tusa

Edythe Vanderbeck
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Venezia
Mr. and Mrs. Michael Vetere, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vignali
Mr. and Mrs. John Visconti
Mr. and Mrs. John Vuini
Irene Vogel
Mr. and Mrs. John Wade
Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. F. Wagner
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wagner
Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wagner

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walker
Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Walker
Robert Walker
Barbara J. Wallach
Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Wallach
Leona Watson
Barry Wechsler
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Weinstein
Robin Elise Weinstein
Barry Wells
Mr. and Mrs. Gerald White
Mr. and Mrs. A. Whytal
Sue Wiggins
Mr. and Mrs. John Williams
Mr. and Mrs. Silvanus Williams
Mr. Harry Winzenried
Susan Wittenberg
Mr. Richard Wolman
Dr. and Mrs. Howard Woocher

Anne Marie Zaccaro
Joey Zaccaro
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zaccaro
Laura Zaccaro
Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Zaccaro
Craig Zaffe
Mr. and Mrs. Murray Zaffe
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zieger
Edward Zimmerman





6/9/68

TONY,

"No man can lose what he never had."

Lots of luck

GINGER

6/12/68

Tony, what can I say. You're a great guy. I truly wish I could go after her! There will be no set backs if you really want it. You deserve what you want. You are beautiful. It was fun working with you. Be sweet - You can't lose! You will find Happiness and good luck Remember me always. Love always,

Pat Quinn

'69

Lakeview

Dear Tony,
I've been your friend from a boy to a young man, and it is my fortune to have witnessed the "downs" - and even the "ups" - and I want to thank you for your friendship and wish you good health, much happiness and success in the future. If I can ever help you, please call, and I'll give it a try. Most friendly, Kenneth

R06-0247